Dear Brother.

I received your letters, and would have answered, but had no news to write. I wrote to Mr Sneed, and sent him a copy of the will you sent me, I have not heard from him since. I received a letter from Dr Peete this evening, which I enclose.

It is about ^{like} the balance of his letters. I wrote to him a short time ago, and told him I would send his horse, soon as the water was high enough. I also told him in the letter
