

that he has seen me for I dont want any reports started about as any more. Suppose you have heard of the affair between John Donnellan and Modgum there is considerable excitement about it in the city. John is still undecided about going to Louisville, can not tell much on the subject as I dont know but little, if it determines to go he will probably go the last of this month. I dont intend going for a week or two later, but will come out to the county to see you all and have a nice time before moving in to a strange place.

Cora & Jimmie have been very happy to day. Cora's doll was married to Mr. Montague a doll of Miss Anne McD.

some of the wedding cake for me to dream over, and wrapped up a piece to put under his own head to night - progressing rapidly dont you think when are you coming up to town. - Please come soon.
Love to all
Cora

Lexington Jan 14th '10.

I was delighted to receive your letter, for I was so disappointed in ^{not} seeing you during my brief visit in the country it was really a very great pleasure to hear from you. Was sorry to hear of your Grandmama's illness. hope it will not prove anything serious. although she is aged & feeble and can not be expected to remain long in this world. kind & loving hearts are both
