

HANDLEY & GILBERT
LONDON & NEW YORK

1st & 2<sup>d</sup> joined chambers in } (4 sheets)
solemn sejm July 23<sup>d</sup> 1827 } Abstract from the minutes of the Court of Appeals of Paris.

Of a judgment rendered by the Court of Appeals of Paris in the joined first & second chambers joined in solemn sejm, the twenty third of July eighteen hundred and twenty seven.

Recd. for making out part eight francs forty centimes. Paris. April 20th 1886.
folio 8 case 6.

Between

Brun d' Aubigues, residing at Paris, N<sup>o</sup>. 17 Enghien Street, appellant, who appears through Loculliant - Sovan, detained at Ste. Lelague, appellant who appears through Durand

Payen, final assignee in bankruptcy of Michel Lemercier & Co<sup>e</sup>, appellee, appearing through Gaudar

and DeRedern & others, appellees, appearing through Lemaire -

It appears that the Court has decided as follows.

After having heard at the hearing of the ninth & sixteenth of this present July and to-day's hearing, in their deductions and arguments, Leroy counsel for Sovan, assisted by his attorney Durand -

Berrier, the younger, counsel for Redern & others, assisted by their attorney Lemaire -

Gaudar counsel for Payen in above named quality assisted by his attorney Gaudar together, in his deductions, with Mr. Berard des glajoux, deputy for the procurator general of the crown, and after having consulted according to law.

The Court, annulling the division declared by judgment of the second chamber on the 21st of June last, and doing what is of right, on the objection made by DeRedern & others to the execution of the judgment rendered by default against them by the second

+
Perril, counsel for Brun d' Aubigues, assisted by his attorney Loculliant.