

Minutes of the University Faculty, November 9, 1953

The University Faculty met in the Assembly Room of Lafferty Hall, Monday, November 9, 1953, at 4:00 p.m. In the absence of President Donovan, Vice President Leo M. Chamberlain presided. The following members were absent: Charles Barkenbus, L. A. Bradford, Anne Clemmons*, Frank G. Dickey*, W. P. Garrigus, Carter Glass, Sarah B. Holmes, Gladys Kammerer, John Kuiper*, J. R. Meadow, J. W. Miles, L. C. Pendley, Frank D. Peterson, W. A. Seay, E. P. Slone, Herman E. Spivey*, E. M. Spokes, Elvis J. Stahr, Jr., D. G. Steele*, William S. Ward, Frank J. Welch*, H. E. Wetzels*, and M. M. White*.

The minutes of the regular meeting of October 12 were approved as corrected.

In the absence of Dean Welch and Acting Associate Dean Steele, Dr. Lee Townsend presented the following recommendations concerning new courses and changes in courses from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

To be dropped

Animal Industry 3, Livestock Management. (1)

Change

Animal Industry 4, Advanced Livestock Management, one credit, change to read "Livestock Management", and delete the prerequisite A. I. 3. (Same credit and description.)

Home Economics 111, Advanced Nutrition, four credits, to be changed to six credits.

Recommendation involves changing lectures from 2 to 3 hours; laboratory from 4 to 6 hours.

New Courses

Agronomy 120, Soil Physics (4)

Physical properties of soils, their relationships to management and conservation. Lecture and discussion, two hours; laboratory four hours. For agronomy majors and others having a special interest in soils. Prerequisite; Agronomy 10 and approval of instructor.

Agronomy 142, Diseases of Plants. (3)

Symptoms, causes, and control of some of the more common representative plant diseases. Students may select disease problems in their major field of interest. Discussion 1 hour; laboratory 4 hours. Prerequisite: Agronomy 141 or equivalent, and consent of instructor.

These recommendations were approved by the University Faculty.

Dean Terrell presented from the College of Engineering a recommendation to add a new course which was approved by the University Faculty.

*Absence explained

Minutes of the University Faculty, November 9, 1953

New Course to be added:

Electrical Engineering 18, Graphical Representations. 2 sem. hrs. Electrical symbols; layout of typical electrical transmission circuits and control circuits; cabinet design; electrical material cost estimates from building construction drawings; sketching of complex wave forms from oscillograms and equations. Laboratory, six hours. Prerequisite or concurrent: E.E. 114, Junior classification.

The Faculty also approved a recommendation from the College that 20 seniors and 10 juniors in the Department of Electrical Engineering be given permission to make an inspection trip to Pittsburgh and Cleveland, February 24-27.

In the absence of Dean Dickey, Dr. Carsie Hammonds presented a recommendation from the College of Education that the requirements for admission to that College be changed to read as follows:

Requirements for admission to the College of Education, as a freshman, or with advanced standing, or as a special student, are the same as those outlined in the General Catalog of the University of Kentucky. In order to transfer to the College of Education from another institution or from another college of the University, a student must have a standing of 1.0 or higher.

The University Faculty approved this recommendation from the College of Education.

Dean Carpenter presented for the College of Commerce a request for a change in the admission requirements in that College as follows:

Requirements for admission to the College of Commerce as a freshman, or with advanced standing, or as a special student, are the same as those outlined in the General Catalog of the University of Kentucky. Students whose scores rank in the lower fourth on the University classification tests will be advised by a special committee of the College of Commerce and the Personnel Office.

This change was approved by the University Faculty.

In the absence of Dean Spivey, Dr. Hargreaves presented a recommendation from the Graduate Council that Ancient Languages 201, Comparative Greek and Latin Grammar, three credits, be approved. The University Faculty voted approval of this recommendation.

The Faculty adjourned.

R. L. Tuthill
Secretary of the Faculty