IN THIS CORNER

It was a bitterly cold Washington, D.C. day. Sandy and I felt the wind penetrate our clothes and sting our faces as we ascended the escalator leading out of the Metro tunnel. Because it was Sunday, there were not many riders on the Metro and the quietness of the ride allowed us time to think about what lay before us this day. Sandy and I made our long awaited and much anticipated visit to the United States Holocaust Memorial.

In 1971, I went to Yad V'Shem in Jerusalem for the first of what was to be many, many visits. The assault of the horror on the senses by the acts perpetrated against my people, our brothers and sisters, by those whose mindless and senseless hate murdered 6,000,000 Jews and tens of millions of others, produced overwhelming sadness on the first and every visit. In the late 1960's, I saw films and heard testimonies. Each of those experiences helped prepare me for Yad V'Shem, but they could not stop or suppress the emotional responses. And all of my visits to Yad V'Shem did not prevent or hinder or desensitize the trip to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial. I thought I could handle this experience. As a baby boomer, I was not alive during the 1940's, but I have read and seen as much as anyone of my generation - at least until this Sunday.

Originally, the first reports said that the walk through the Memorial would take 2 1/2-3 hours. People returning said that you needed 4-5 hours. Our walk lasted 5 1/4 hours and we left in a state of emotional and mental exhaustion. What we saw and experienced is quite difficult to put into words, but I must try as best I can. The first floor you walk through (which is actually at the top of the Memorial - you ride up in an elevator that gives you the feel of the inside of an army green cargo container) details the rise of Nazism and German anti-Semitism. There are films on TV monitors overhead, visuals to read, items to look at and wonder. "How could this happen?" is a question often asked. The facts and images portrayed on this floor attempt an explanation.

I gasped at one point as I turned a corner and confronted the horror of Kristallnacht. In this section in a glassed area are pages of Torah scrolls. These scroll pages are the remains of pages ripped apart by hate and left lying in the street only to be carefully picked up and cared for by loving Jewish hands. Then there was a picture of the insides of a magnificent synagogue and the after picture following its destruction. And the names of the communities -- hundreds of names are inscribed on the glass windows.

The second floor depicted the war itself with pictures of ghettos, mobile killing units, a train car, and visuals portraying the death in the showers. The shoes, everyone mentioned the shoes, but you cannot imagine the scene until you see it for yourself. By this point you are worn down from the previous 4 hours and you are unable to imagine what else there could be to see. Then comes liberation and you confront the first footage shot in the camps, the war crimes' trials, the resistance fighters and at the end - Israel.

Before you leave there is one last film that grabs you as survivors tell their stories. I listened and watched and cried. I cried for the 6 million, for the children, for a world that encouraged hate instead of love, for those who helped and for those who survived and continue to live with the memories of lost family members, sleepless nights, and the memories of hell.

Finally, Sandy and I walked into the Hall of Remembrance, a beautiful room with its flame burning at one end. We took a moment to decompress, breathe, and prepare to enter a world beyond the exit doors. I knew inside that the world had not changed in those 5 hours, but I had. I can only hope that every person will go through this memorial and learn. Maybe, and only then, we will truly be able to say, "Never Again."

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

We have once again arrived at that time of the year when our daily calendar is renewing itself and our Temple calendar is coming to a close. Most of us are still becoming accustomed to writing 1994 on our checks and still promising to keep our New Year's resolutions while at TAI we are starting to gear up for the next fiscal year.

So many things happen at this time of the year for us at Temple. One of the more important is the development of the budget. All of our committees are meeting to rough in programs for next year so that their budgets may be submitted to the budget committee.

Our nominating committee is also meeting to select a slate of board members to run for election and our past presidents are meeting to select a slate of officers for 1994-1995. It will be these individuals who will provide the lay leadership for our congregation in the coming year.

This is such a crucial time for our congregation and there are so many ways that you, as members, can participate. First, get involved in our budget process. It is your dues dollars that we will be voting on how to spend. Please try to attend the committees that you have signed up to serve on. It is during this planning phase that you have the most input. Any new ideas for programs will have the greatest chance of receiving funding if they are presented at the committee level.

Equally as important is to participate in our election process. Soon you will be receiving a ballot in the mail. As I always do at this time of the year, I ask that you take the time to vote. This is the single most important decision that you make concerning the governing of our congregation. The individuals that are elected are responsible for all of our governance procedures and their implementation.

Last year we had a "Meet the Candidates Night" at a Shabbat service. Our members enjoyed the opportunity to meet our candidates and think about who would best represent their needs on our board of trustees. This year's candidates night will be March 4, 1994. It is a great opportunity for those of you who are not familiar with all of the candidates to come and get to know them better.

Again I would encourage you to avail yourselves of the opportunity to help shape our congregation. Participating in the voting or budget process are just two of the many ways that you, as an individual, can make a difference.

COLLEGE CORNER JOSHUA CANTOR

I am writing this as I enjoy my vacation in the seventy degree heat of Southern California. The beach and the mountains out here are a far cry from the cold, oppressive winters at Cornell in Ithaca, NY. So far, I have survived three and a half years at Cornell, leaving me only five more months to graduation. My time at Cornell has certainly been much different from my life back in Lexington. Out of 18,000 students, there are approximately 3,500 Jews, more than the number of Jews in Lexington. It is quite a change to have classes cancelled on Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur because the professor and a large portion of the class is Jewish and is attending services.

Well, I could keep writing about how being Jewish at Cornell does not make you an unheard minority, but I'm on my way to Disneyland.

BOARD BRIEFS

DECEMBER 7, 1993 MEETING

The nomination of John Harrison, M.D. to the office of Secretary was approved.

The Board approved the membership of Paul and Beth Engel, H. Brian Hershinow and Anne and Lee Hoffman and accepted the resignations of Steve Webne, Sharon Casper and John Mendler.

A proposal was presented from the Dues Review Committee which would have modified the Temple's current dues system. The proposed new system called for a minimum annual dues contribution of $700.00 or 1 1/2% of gross family income, whichever is greater, with a committee being established to determine exceptions to the minimum. After a lengthy discussion the Board voted to table the proposal.

The Nominating Committee for Board positions was announced.

Tuition and fees for the upcoming PreSchool year were approved.

A motion from the Executive Committee to limit all Sunday morning fund raising activities to the Social Hall was approved.

Appreciation was expressed to the Fund Raising committees of the Temple and Sisterhood for their efforts, which resulted in the extremely successful "Phantom of Monte Carlo" event.

CAR COMMITTEE

On November 8th the second "CAR" Committee meeting was held. The focus of the meeting was a review of the Rabbi and of the congregation.

Our opening discussion centered on the diverse expectations the congregation holds for the Rabbi. The committee discussed what it felt were the Rabbi's responsibilities and how his time was spent. Rabbi Adland then described his efforts and responsibilities to the committee. It was agreed that both the committee's perception of the Rabbi's job and the way Rabbi Adland fulfills these responsibilities were compatible.

The primary concern of the committee and the Rabbi was the lack of feedback from the congregation, both positive and negative. Too often our members do not use the channels of communication open to them. It was felt that if we are to alter the perceptions that the congregation is run by a clique, and that its leaders - both professional and lay - are not available for discussion, a certain amount of initiative is required on the congregation's part to speak up.

The meeting concluded with a discussion of possible ways to encourage involvement and to provide a means for a continuing review.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!!

From the Sisterhood President

The Temple's Hanukah Pot Luck dinner, sponsored by our Sisterhood was a tremendous success with over 100 people in attendance. What a moving sight it was to see everyone's menorahs illuminated simultaneously. Thanks to Toni Reiss and Jane Burri for coordinating this memorable event. Many House/City/People/Book Pins sold over the past month, but there is a nice selection still available. You can purchase them on Sundays at the beginning and end of Religious School, or any other time by calling Marcia Brown at 271-4239.

Several women in our congregation have expressed an interest in having a women's study group, a gathering for studying, learning and sharing a myriad of topics which could include Jewish texts, spirituality, rituals and traditions that are both passed down and newly created, as well as serving as a support group for one another. To meet this need we are forming a Rosh Chodesh group which will meet monthly around the time of the Jewish new moon. Our first gathering is scheduled for Thursday, January 13, at 7:30 PM, at TAI. There are so many possibilities for this group, and I encourage you to be a part of it.

Our next Sisterhood Board Meeting is on Monday, January 17, at 7:30 PM and our next Sisterhood program is on Wednesday, January 19, at 7:30 PM, at "Comedy on Broadway." Reservations for this are a must, due to a limited number of tickets. RSVP to the Temple office by January 12th.

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

BRIAN HERSHINOW

Brian is an attorney and a medical representative. He was born and raised in the North Shore suburbs of Chicago. After attending Arizona State University and Chicago-Kent Law School he accepted his current position with Syntex Labs. Brian moved to Lexington in November and the party has just begun.

Brian has many interests. He is game for anything except cottage cheese.

Temple Adath Israel welcomes Brian to the congregation and to the Lexington Jewish community.

PAUL & BETH ENGEL

Paul and Beth are from the Philadelphia area and will be living in Lexington by the end of December. They have been married six years and are "hopeful" adoptive parents.

Paul is President of SCT Public Sector, Inc. and Beth is a manager at Marketing Communication's Cegelec.

Both are runners and love the outdoors. Paul and Beth are looking forward to refurbishing their 80+ year old home in Kentucky and meeting the congregation. They enjoy snow skiing, travelling, entertaining and cooking. In addition, Paul enjoys computers and Beth enjoys gardening.

Temple Adath Israel welcomes Paul and Beth and looks forward their involvement in Temple and the community.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FIRST GRADE

Anita Mersack, Teacher

The first graders have been very busy this year. We began by learning about all the holidays that come at the beginning of our Jewish calendar year. Our next unit was Jewish life-cycle events. We learned to name and define them and each student drew a picture of a life-cycle event to hang on our Tree of Life.

In November, for Jewish Book Month, we went to the library and each chose a book. After reading the book, each student wrote a book report and illustrated it. For Hanukkah we discussed why and how we celebrate the holiday and made a dreidel to decorate our home. We also did some creative writing.

We have also been learning some of the letters of the Aleph-bet and have enjoyed music with Aaron and art with Alyson.

SECOND GRADE

Sandy Adland, Teacher

Our second graders are a terrific and enthusiastic group. We spend our Sunday mornings reading Jewish books, singing Jewish songs, learning Israeli dances, tasting Jewish foods, creating Jewish art, and sharing each other's Jewish experiences. In the past several weeks, we've been learning about Jews-by-Choice, the major differences between Christmas and Hanukah, and the story of Noah. We're learning the letters of the Hebrew alef-bet. A big thank you to Jessica Rosenberg's mom Laura for making latkes in our class during our Hanukah celebration.

FIFTH GRADE

Jane Gris , Teacher

The Fifth Grade has been studying social action. We have studied various prophets and created our own prophetic statements about the world situation. We have examined concepts such as tzedakah, gemilut, chasidim and pikuach nefesh. We are also in the process of writing and producing a play dealing with the story of Cain and Abel - The Trial of Cain. This story deals with a variety of social action ideas including capital punishment and the responsibility we have for other people.

In January we will begin a unit on the elderly. We will study the way in which Jewish literature teaches respect for the elderly. We will also be spending a morning with residents at Mayfair Manor.

SENIOR BLOCK - JEWISH HISTORY I & II

Fannie Miller, Teacher

The students in the senior block course in Jewish History I & II have completed their study. The text we used was My People - Abba Eban's History of the Jews.

This course begins with the period in which Judaism is formed and grew to maturity. It continues with a study of Jewish History during the American Revolution, a study of the Jews of Eastern Europe, the waves of immigration to the United States, the Jewish State of Israel reborn, and a review of American Jewry since World War II. Throughout the study we related Jewish History with World History and how Jews have affected the non-Jewish world and have been influenced by it. We also included in this course what it means to be a good Jew in today's world and the special role Jews have played. In addition, we discussed Jewish current events and how they affect our lives today.

Media materials such as video tapes, periodicals, and newspaper clippings were used to relate Jewish History of the past and what is happening in Jewish History today.

OUTREACH PROGRAM ON JANUARY 16TH TO FOCUS ON INTERFAITH FAMILIES

On January 16, at 10 AM, at TAI, the Temple Outreach Committee will sponsor a program titled Religious Education in an Interfaith Family. This program will explore issues concerning how our Temple Religious School responds to children in interfaith families, as well as responses from teachers and students too.

Almost ½ of the students in our Temple Religious School come from homes where one parent is not Jewish. As a school and Temple, we must be sensitive to this reality. At the same time, we are expected to teach Judaism to our school children as best we can without compromising any aspect of our people's history, culture, heritage, religion, practice, theology, or philosophy. This is not always easy when answers to questions from children in our school don't always fit with who or what we are as Jews. It is not always easy for children in homes with more than one religion to move comfortably back and forth between different faith communities.

The Outreach Committee invites you to participate in this discussion, understand what our children are learning, and appreciate the complexity for children who live in a two religion home.

SISTERHOOD BOARD MEETING

Monday, March 14, 1994 7:30 PM

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

After a three week winter break, Religious School classes resumed on 9 January. The 4th grade, taught by Kathleen O'Nan, presented a wonderful Hanukkah skit for Family Night Shabbat on 10 December. For our next Family Night Shabbat, 21 January, Anita Mersack's 1st grade will present a program.

The 7th grade is completing their course on Comparative Religion, taught by Roy Meckler. They have attended services at several local churches and Dr. Meckler plans to take the class to visit HUC in Cincinnati (date to be announced). Beginning 6 February, they will spend five weeks with Bobbi and Drew Fried for a course on Jewish Culture. Fannie Miller and the 8th grade finished their class on Jewish History and are now in a three week course on Jewish Literature, which will be followed by the Holocaust course on 6 February. Before the winter break, the 9th grade studied Israel with Linda Raavin and they are now taking a course on Holidays, Calendar and Family with Toni Reiss. The 10th grade will spend the rest of the year preparing for Confirmation with Rabbi Adland and, beginning in March, Fannie Miller.

The 8th, 9th and 10th grades will participate in an In-house Retreat on Friday evening and Saturday, 8 and 9 January - they will not have Religious School classes on Sunday, 10 January. Specific information about the topic, "Sexuality Education", and a schedule of events will be sent out soon to those involved.

If you are interested in teaching Religious School next year - a primary, intermediate or block class - or in substitute teaching, please call me at 276-3728 or leave a message with Sandee Wiles in the Temple office.

As always, please stop in and visit us - we look forward to sharing what we're doing with you.

Happy New Year!

Homelessness can happen to the best of us.

Homelessness is an affliction no one should have to bear. Yet it's happening to more people and to more families in our community than ever before. They're getting some help, thank goodness. But they need more. Your gift can translate into a lot of caring.

IN THIS CORNER

I came across a small article in a periodical that outlined the serious internal problems being caused by the prolonged illness and impending death of the Lubavitch Rebbe. His death will leave the Lubavitch Hasidim without a leader. Many of us read stories in recent years concerning this Hasidic Rebbe and his followers belief in him as the messiah. We rolled our eyes at the absurdity and arrogance of the Lubavitch Jews living in Brooklyn to believe in the fact that this man is the messiah.

Two issues are raised by this burning desire to see their rabbe proclaimed messiah. The first is our understanding the Jewish concept of the messiah. What does Jewish tradition teach us about the idea and concept of messiah? Second, what will happen to the Lubavitch movement when its rebbe proves not to be the messiah the followers are longing for today?

The word messiah comes from the Hebrew word mashiach which means anointed. Anointing with oil was a popular and special method of marking individuals who gained a special status or distinction in their community or in the country. The kings and priests in Israel, and holders of these offices were regularly referred to as "anointed" with reference to this symbolic act. Saul, David, Absalom, Solomon, Jehu, Joash, Jehoahaz, all kings in either Israel or Judah, were anointed.

In the Anchor Bible Dictionary, the following is written about the word messiah:

An investigation of Jewish writing around the beginning of the common era reveals the term "Messiah" was by no means generally used as a designation for God's representative or intermediary at the beginning of a new age of peace for Israel and the nations. The expectations of a radical and definitive change brought about by God did not necessarily include a task for (human or angelic) agents of divine deliverance, and the fact the God's agents were anointed need not be stressed.

The term "Messiah"/"Anointed One" is not found very often in the Hebrew Bible and the Jewish writings of the period between 200 BCE and 100 CE

The Jewish understanding of the messiah is the hope in someone rising from the people, from the House of David, and leading the people to a better time of peace and prosperity and security. It is also believed that this individual would live to an old age and be a strong leader. The Lubavitch Rebbe has lived to an old age, but other than that he has not accomplished, in my opinion, any of the other criteria needed to be anointed a messiah. Finally, Judaism did not proclaim the belief in only one ultimate messiah, but when the need arose in the community, a messiah would come.

The outcome of this desire of the Lubavitch Hasidim in believing that their Rebbe is the messiah may be disastrous and this brings me to my second issue: putting one's faith and belief in another human being in such a fanatical manner can only lead to a tremendous letdown when the faith is proved false. In Jewish history there have been other false messiahs who led the people toward the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow only to have the rainbow vanish and the people left in turmoil with no sense of direction, all hopes dashed. Jacob Frank and Sabbatai Tzvi are two of these false messiahs. People believed in them and they left the people in a state of confusion when they were proved false. The Lubavitch Hasidim are in for a great crash when they realize that their hopes are false. Too many of the rebbe's followers are committed to his messianic nature. No plans are made as to what may occur internally in their movement with no successor in the wings when he dies.

As Liberal Reform Jews, a long time ago we rejected the nature of a personal messiah over 100 years ago, putting our energies into the concept that we call the messianic era. The messianic era, the age of peace and comfort and humanity, will happen but only through our collective energies in making the world whole and our personal lives at peace. Each person must believe that he or she possesses a peace of the messiah in his or her soul. Each and every day we must reach into our soul and pull out that messianic portion. When we do, it will drive us and encourage us to do good in the world, to make the world a better place for ourselves, our children, and our children's children. Whether it is a Temple project of building or serving or collecting, or another community project, each adds to the goodness in the world and brings this messianic era one step closer. We put our faith and our energies into ourselves, and our friends and neighbors. That is one place where the messiah resides.

The other place the messiah exists is in our Jewish lives and souls. By celebrating holidays and holy days, affirming our past in the present, celebrating Shabbat in the synagogue or lighting candles and saying kiddush at home, we bring a measure of peace to our lives, the members of families, the people we touch, and maybe even to the whole world. The Jewish messiah exists in our doing the ethical mitzvot each and every day and the ritual in its season. As Reform Jews, we must recapture the messiah and bring about the messianic era. We can do this by living Jewish lives and believing in ourselves to do the right thing.

I feel sorry for the Lubavitch Hasidim. Their self-righteousness has taken control of their minds and is preying on their souls. They lost sight of K'lal Yisrael, the Jewish people as a whole, deciding, instead, to try and make the Jewish people just like them. While we acknowledge their right to behave in their Jewish manner, it is time for them to acknowledge our rights as Liberal Jews who love being Jews in our own manner and style. I encourage my Lubavitch brothers and sisters to resist this desire to proclaim their Rebbe as messiah and turn their creative energy back to this world. Together we can finish God's creation. Then, with all Jews working together, the messianic era they so desperately want will arrive.

Abraham Chodoff

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

Many years ago our congregation received a wonderful gift. A core group of individuals spent a great deal of time raising funds to refurbish and expand our Temple building. For many years, repairs had been neglected and finding the money to make these repairs was postponed from year to year. To make this new facility a reality, several things have to happen.

First, the need for the repairs was explained. Our congregation was made aware of the ramifications of the continued postponing of maintenance. Secondly, the future impact on our religious school, if we chose not to expand, was explained. As the principal purpose of our existence is worship and education, this need was strongly felt. Lastly, the entire congregation financially supported this endeavor. Everyone understood the benefits derived from this course of action.

For a while this level of education seemed to continue. Our members were proud of the result of their support of this decision and continued to see the need. But, as with any enthusiasm, with time, that support and understanding waned.

We are now at a time when that education and understanding need to be reinvigorated.

Our budget committee is now finalizing the budget numbers for our coming fiscal year. At this time the projections are that the General Fund will have a $17,000 shortfall and our Programming Fund will have a $15,000 shortfall. These numbers will have a great impact on our day to day operations, not to mention the future of Temple Adath Israel.

When I speak with members in our congregation each of you talk about a different aspect of importance to you. We all have different needs and therefore have differing priorities. It is a difficult assignment to decide which is the most important. However, we may be facing just such a time when these decisions will have to be made.

Religious School parents may be asked to cover more or all of the cost of Religious School. Having a choir for the High Holy Days may become a thing of the past. Routine maintenance on the building, not to mention needed repairs, may have to be postponed. I feel certain that this is not the direction the congregation wishes to take.

Each year our members are asked to evaluate their dues levels. Many of you decide that your money is better spent elsewhere or that someone else will take up the slack. Until this attitude changes our problems will not change.

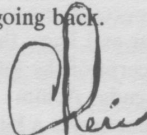

As leaders of this congregation, we have apparently failed in educating the congregation about the cost of operating our current facility. Utilities, postage, insurance and maintenance cost, to name a few, continue to increase. We know that these costs will not go down. As the building ages and more maintenance is required, our problems will only compound.

For our part, we will do a better job of informing the congregation of the costs incurred during the course of the year. In our future bulletins a breakdown of costs on varying services will be provided. We need you to meet us the other half of the way.

As this time we ask you for 1 1/2% of gross annual income for a dues level. Projections show us that if every membership unit gave 3/4 of 1% of their gross annual income, our current budgetary problems would be solved. I know that at times it seems that all we do is ask for money and that is not what any Temple's priority should be. If each of us would take a little more financial responsibility, then we could shift our focus to the business of worship and tikkun olam.

It does take money to operate. This responsibility is one that all members can share in. With this joint level of responsibility the burden will rest equally among our members and our focus can be on those matters integral to the survival of our congregation. I ask that each of you reevaluate your current level of giving. If it is possible to raise your level of commitment please do so. It has taken a long time to reach our current level of offerings. It would be wonderful to continue to be able to go forward instead of going back.

MAZAL TOV

To Jeff Doctrow, son of David & Janis Doctrow, on his engagement to Robbie Sue Donoho. Jeff and Robbie will be married on September 24, 1994.

FROM RABBI STEPHEN PINSKY FLOOD DAMAGE IN IOWA CITY

As you may very well know, our office was the recipient of over $25,000 collected by Reform congregations throughout the United States to assist those displaced by this summer and fall's floods. Significant funds were also received by Temple B'nai Jeshurun in Des Moines, Iowa and Temple Adath Joseph in St. Joseph, Missouri. While the emergency was in progress, I received dozens of calls inquiring as to whether or not any of our congregations were damaged. At that time, I reported that as far as I knew the answer was no. As you can tell from the excerpt of the letter I received from Rabbi Jeffrey Portman of Agudas Achim Congregation in Iowa City, Iowa, that assessment was a bit premature.

...The basement had about seven inches of water; and after it was all drained there was about $30,000 in damages. This included the loss of Sunday School and library books, office supplies, carpet, some dry wall, kitchen and bathroom linoleum, repair of the furnace and elevator, replacement of the water heater, doors, tables, and other miscellaneous items, and painting of the new dry wall.

I am therefore, asking for your assistance for our friends in Iowa City. Since much of their loss will not be reimbursed by their insurance company, they need help from outside sources. I would appreciate any donations your congregants can give to help this small congregation in our region. Almost all of the monies collected this summer came from outside the Midwest Region. It is now our turn to help one of our own. To expedite this drive, please mail your checks to UAHC, Midwest Council, 10425 Old Olive Street Road, Suite 205, St. Louis, Missouri 63141. May your checks payable to "UAHC/Flood Relief" If there should be an excess collected, we will make sure that it will be distributed to appropriate Jewish agencies to assist those still suffering the effects of this summer's calamity.

FEBRUARY 25TH

The Middle School Temple Youth Group will be having a LOCK-IN at Temple Adath Israel after Shabbat services on Friday February 25.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

FOR INFORMATION PLEASE CALL:
Temple Adath Israel - 269-2979

Rabbi Stephen Pinsky, Director of the Union of American Hebrew Congregation's Midwest Council to speak Feb. 18

During the Erev Shabbat Service on Feb. 18, Rabbi Stephen Pinsky will deliver the sermon. Rabbi Pinsky has been the director of our temple's region for approximately the last two years. During that time, Rabbi Pinsky has visited nearly every congregation in the Midwest Region. His primary role is to serve the congregations as a liaison to the UAHC central office in New York, to offer programming and resource help, and to help solve any congregational problems we may have at any time. The Midwest Council's office in St. Louis supports Outreach programs, youth work, and can help with adult education programs.

We welcome Rabbi Pinsky into our congregation and look forward to hearing him speak.

Meet the Board Candidates Night Set for March 4

For the second year in a row, the individuals who agreed to run for the Temple Adath Israel Board of Trustees will be at services. The date this year is March 4. Many of this year's candidates joined the congregation in recent years and might not be known to a vast number of people in our congregation. Therefore, we encourage every member of the congregation to take this opportunity to meet our Board candidates and talk with them. When you vote this spring, your vote will be an informed choice, not just a popularity contest.

Those individuals running for election to the Board of Trustees are (in alphabetical order):

Jo Belin
Alan Bernard
David Brown
Kevin Freund
Stephanie Kemp
Audrey Rooney
Peter Sobel
Bill Wenneker

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS BLOOD DRIVE A SUCCESS

The first Ohavay Zion/Temple Adath Israel joint blood drive (December 12th at Ohavay Zion) was a big success, with 34 people volunteering to donate blood and 30 units of blood were drawn. Four people were deferred for minor medical reasons.

Previously TAI held its own blood drive once a year. The congregations have since agreed to hold two joint drives a year, one at each location. The next drive will be at TAI in the spring. Volunteers were:

Michael Ades	Albert Kaplan
Judy Baumann	Alan Kirschenbaum
Alan Bernard	Katherine Kroot
Lewis Bowling	Ira Mersack
Bruce Broudy	Judy Miller
Steve Caller	Steven Mischner
Daniel Caruthers	Betty Nigoff
Harriet Cooper	Lowell Nigoff

CAMP SHALOM

Camp Shalom is now accepting applications for counselors. Young men and women ages 14 and up can contact the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation office (268-2672) for an application. Camp Shalom will be from August 8 through 19, 1994.

SORT OF A MITZVAH

A lot of clothing has been collected for the poor. Now we need help sorting so the clothes can be sent to the proper agencies.

If you can help with this, please call Lowell Nigoff at 278-5220 or Bruce Engel at 242-3734.

LET'S MAKE A VIDEO

Anyone interested in helping to make a video about TAI, please call Bruce Engel at 252-3734. We especially need people with video equipment for this fun and exciting, but low-budget project.

THE CAJE CONFERENCE IS COMING!

The Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education (CAJE), the largest organization in the world dedicated to Jewish education, is holding its 1994 August conference on the grounds of Indiana University! Over 2,000 Jews who are excited about the future of Judaism will participate in a week of teaching, learning, sharing, and growing as Jews. The gathering will include teachers, administrators, parents, lay people, college students, artists, musicians and performers, Reform, Conservative, Orthodox, Reconstructionist, children ages 0 to 100 (because we are all kids at heart, right?).

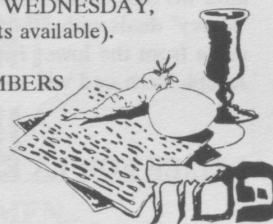

Interested in volunteering? What more information about CAJE? Please contact Marcia Goldstein or Rabbi Larry Miller at Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation at (317) 255-6647.

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

ANNE, LEE & JOSHUA HOFFMAN

Anne, Lee moved to Lexington from Cincinnati and Somerset about 1 1/2 years ago. They reside in Berea and have a new 5 1/2 month son named Joshua. Anne is the daughter of Donna Silverman, a long time Temple member.

Both Anne and Lee are employed in Jackson County in the Social Science field. Anne is a social worker and Lee is a counselor/teacher.

They enjoy hiking, nature, reading, music and studying other cultures. They are also members of the NEA.

The Temple welcomes the Hoffman's to the Kentucky community and the Temple family.

NEW NOVEL BY HENRY ROTH

Henry Roth, author of the classic Call It Sleep, has just written an autobiographical novel, Mercy of a Rude Stream, Vol. 1. This latest work, completed some 60 years after his only other book, has received critical acclaim. "Mercy" deals with a boy's growing up, representing the move from the lower East side. Copies are available at Joseph Beth and will soon be at the public library.

RELIEF FOR LA EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS

Many Reform congregations were damaged during the recent earthquake in Los Angeles. A fund for earthquake relief has been established. To help in this humanitarian effort, please mail your contributions to UAHC DISASTER RELIEF/LA. EARTHQUAKE, 838 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10021.

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

SEVENTH GRADE

Roy Meckler, teacher

The seventh grade continues to explore different religions and different religious viewpoints. In the last four weeks we have visited a Baptist service (as well as a Sunday school class) and a Unitarian service and open discussion with their middle school students. The Baptists had a very traditional service and they welcomed us into their church. But they also made it clear that their religion stressed a strong belief in Jesus in order to be saved and not go to Hell. On the other hand, the Unitarian church stressed the unity of God from a cultural point of view. The Unitarian Church appeared to be open to anyone who wanted to belong to a group of people who served the community and had a belief in the unity of mankind. They were very open in accepting gays and lesbians into their church and they raised money for many groups of homeless and needy people.

We have also explored the reality of intermarriage among Jews and the difficulties that this presents in raising children and in the survival of the Jewish religion. In the future we hope to attend a service at a black church and we also hope to have a presentation from a representative of the Church of the Later Day Saints (the Mormons).

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

Pre-registration for the 1994-1995 school year is now underway. The schedule for pre-enrollment is as follows:

January 1 - February 1 - Pre-registration for class members and siblings. A sibling is defined as a sister or brother of a child attending TAI Preschool presently or who has graduated from the four year old class.

February 2 - March 1 - Pre-registration for Temple and Synagogue members, with Temple members securing priority.

March 2 - Pre-registration open to the public.

TAI Preschool is a state licensed, half day preschool for 2 1/2, 3, and 4 year olds which offers children a quality social and educational experience. Class size is limited to insure quality care and attention. The 2 1/2 year old class meets on Tuesday and Thursday; the 3 year old class meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday; and the 4 year old class meets Monday through Friday. The hours of operation are 9 AM to 12 PM and the four year old class has an optional extended day on Thursdays until 2:30 PM.

For more information about TAI Preschool, call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

Trip to Hebrew Union College Being Explored

For several years, Temple members have inquired about a trip to HUC-JIR in Cincinnati to see the college, the rare book room, museum, and if possible, a visit to Plum Street Temple. Are you interested?? If enough people let us know that they are by March 13, then a trip planned for April 13 will be organized. We would leave first thing in the morning and return by mid-afternoon. Any cost is solely for transportation. We will stop at a restaurant for lunch.

OUTREACH MEETS ON MARCH 15TH

The March Outreach program title is Identifying with Israel.

What part does Israel play in the American Jewish Community? Please join Kevin & Ann Freund in their home at 4704 Scenicview Road to examining this question in an informal discussion.

BOARD BRIEFS
JANUARY 4, 1994

At its January meeting The Temple's Board of Trustees amended the Statement of Mandatory Building Fund, which it had passed in October, to include a paragraph stating "Current members of the Temple who have never made a pledge as of July 1, 1994 will be written a letter by the Temple Treasurer advising them that their pledge must be submitted within thirty days of the date of said letter. Any member who does not make a pledge within the above time frame shall be notified by the Temple Treasurer, by certified mail, that all membership rights and privileges are to be withdrawn." The Building Fund Committee will attempt to secure all outstanding pledges before July 1.

Rabbi Adland delivered the sermon at Governor Jones' Prayer Breakfast on Jan. 13.

Rabbi Stephen Pinsky, Director of the Midwest Council of the UAHC, will visit Lexington and speak at services on Feb. 18.

The required installation of a backflow preventer on the fire-sprinkler system (at a cost of $2650.00) has been completed.

BOARD BRIEFS
FEBRUARY 1, 1994

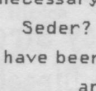

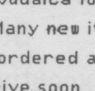

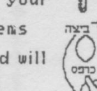

At its February meeting the Board reconsidered the recommendation of the Dues Review Committee to establish a minimum dues level for membership. After another lengthy discussion the Board defeated the motion and requested that the committee develop a new proposal for consideration.

Homelessness can happen to the best of us.

Homelessness is an affliction no one should have to bear. Yet it's happening to more people and to more families in our community than ever before.

They're getting some help, thank goodness. But they need more. Your gift can translate into a lot of caring.

The Lexington Clergy's Campaign for the Homeless needs your help—a gift of time, or money, or both. Call 233-4460 for more information.

In whatever way you can, please give.

NO. 15

3 NISAN 5754

IN THIS CORNER

Not long ago, when a family came to me to discuss Bar/Bat Mitzvah invitations, I realized that our congregation has changed since my arrival in 1986. Then, everyone in the Temple community, even the entire Jewish community, was invited to a Bar/Bat Mitzvah service and celebration through the Temple bulletin and community publication. You did not need a personal invitation to know that you were welcome. This was, after all, a Jewish community and the community celebrated a simcha together.

I thought about the receptions that we had when I came here in 1986. Friends would invade the kitchen to prepare the meal after the morning service. It would be loving Jewish hands making kugel and tuna fish and challah and more. We held up our community efforts over and against the big city celebrations. It was friends and family, community effort, support and love that made these celebrations more special. After a year of more Bar and Bat Mitzvah celebrations than any year in our recent history, I must say that I long for the notion of community. I hope that we can return to the process of using the bulletin to invite the congregation and cut down the expense that goes into celebrating a child coming of age. I look forward to friends preparing the reception and the taste of Jewish made kugel.

If you ask why this happened, why this change took place, I believe I can hazard an answer. Our congregation is no longer primarily made up of native Lexingtonians, but of people who have come from somewhere else. Many people arrived here from larger communities and brought with them knowledge of how it was done elsewhere. Jews from Lexington have traveled to the larger communities and experienced "real" Bar/Bat Mitzvah celebrations which made our attempt at small town hominess seem quaint.

What we have had in Lexington is not simply quaint, but wonderful and special: Jews caring about other Jews; Jews looking out for other Jews; Jews celebrating with other Jews. It is important for all Jews to be part of the community, but even more, it is important for Jews to participate in and build up the community. We do not always do this.

At Consecration/Simchat Torah, no one comes but the families of the Consecration (Kindergarten) class to see these beautiful young Jews initiated into their formal religious education. At Confirmation, to me the most significant event in the life of a young Jewish adult, no one comes to the evening Shavuot service but the families of the class. And now at Bar/Bat Mitzvah ceremonies, no one attends unless they have a special invitation. We, the membership of Temple Adath Israel, are missing the point of these significant moments in the life cycle of our Jewish children. We must show our support by being present and we must show our support for the families by making the celebration come alive with our own hands.

A community is greater than the sum of its parts because community also consists of intangibles such as spirit caring, and support, as well as love. All of us must find a way to help sustain the notion of community. Volunteer to participate on a committee. Come to Sisterhood and Brotherhood meetings. Support the Temple financially, emotionally and spiritually. Let us celebrate together when we laugh. Let us mourn together when we cry at the loss of a loved one. Let us worship together on Shabbat and Holy Days and holidays. All of this goes into making us both special and different from the big impersonal place that we try to move away from in our thinking and action as a Jewish community.

By the time you have received this bulletin, there will still be five more Bar/Bat Mitzvahs through June and Confirmation in May. Come to at least one. Call one family to see what you can do to help, for by your offer, you have advanced the notion of community.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

In last month's article, I wrote about our projected shortfall in funding for the coming year. Many of you have called or written or spoken with me concerning the article. I appreciate your taking the time to give me your comments, to think about Temple's future and to share in its fiscal concerns.

By now you have received a packet of information from Kevin Freund and the Budget Committee. Our congregation owes Kevin a sincere Todah for all the time he has put into his presentation of the coming year's budget.

This year, our budget is presented in terms that are readily comprehensible, yet, very telling in their projections. The most important aspect of this proposed budget is that it is unbalanced. This year, instead of "balancing" the budget by inserting a contrived dues number, we are using an expected actual dues amount and, are, therefore, taking the problem to you.

The projections show that at current levels of growth, our expenses will exceed our ability to generate income. Although we are making every attempt to keep expenses at a minimum, the costs of properly maintaining our building will inevitably increase, and maintaining a qualified staff is no longer an inexpensive proposition.

At this year's annual meeting, our congregation will receive a budget presentation that has already been viewed by the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees. I strongly urge each of you to attend this meeting and to be prepared for a discussion.

Ultimately, it is our money that will be discussed, ours as a congregation. As members, we have a responsibility to see to our Temple's fiscal structure and continuance.

As I said last month, it has been quite a while since we were educated about our financial needs and our future. Thanks to Kevin and the Budget Committee we will have that opportunity again.

Sincerely,

Cheri A. Rose
President

SEDER HOSTS SOUGHT FOR NEW AMERICAN FAMILIES

On behalf of a renewed effort to acculturate our New American families, we are searching for hosts to invite these families into their home for Pesach this year.

If someone is unable to accommodate a family at their own Seder, perhaps they would be willing to sponsor a New American family at one of the community Seders held on the second night.

Additionally, there is a need for Russian Haggadahs for distribution to host families for their home Seder. Please let Janet Hodes know if any are available or how she might locate some.

Everyone should contact Janet Hodes as SOON as possible at 263-4746 or 1193 Sheffield Place, Lexington, 40509 and let her know how many people each host family can accommodate at their Seder.

TAI CLERGY CAMPAIGN A SUCCESS!! THANK YOU!!

A special todah rabbah - thank you - to everyone who contributed to this year's Lexington Clergy's Campaign for the Homeless. As of March 1, we collected $3,158.50. Our congregation can be proud of the role we played in helping to ease other people's pain.

DEAR FRIEND,

As we gather soon with family and friends at our Passover seder to relive and to celebrate our freedom, it is important to understand how we became slaves in Egypt.

The Torah tells us that a famine had spread over the land. When Jacob heard that there was food to be had in Egypt, he instructed his sons "Go down and procure rations for us there, that we may live and not die." (Genesis 41:56, 42:2) Food was being distributed by their brother Joseph; they ate and brought their entire family - the children of Israel - to settle in Egypt. There "Joseph sustained his father, and his brothers and all his father's household, down to the little ones, with bread". (Genesis 47:12) Then "a new king arose over Egypt who knew not Joseph." (Exodus 1:8) He feared the Israelites' strength, and made them into slaves, embittering their lives. With God's help, we went out of Egypt.

Today there is no parting of the waters, no miracles, just a real necessity to provide for those among us who are hungry in their own land. It is true: there is no Torah without bread.

It is important to understand that famine has spread over the land once again. Eight hundred million people in our world, millions of them in our own country, struggle day by day for adequate food and clean water.

And so, as a lifegiving request, I ask you to contribute to MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger, the amount of money that each of you would have spent to include one additional guest at your seder table. By carefully granting these dollars to organizations helping impoverished people, MAZON will see that our Jewish tradition of "feeding the hungry" is fulfilled. As the poor are fulfilled so, too, will we be.

Below is a reading for your seder. Your contribution gives real meaning to the words it contains.

I wish you the joys of the Passover season.

Sincerely,

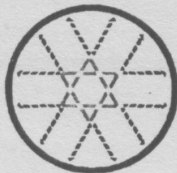

Rabbi Adland

father, and his brothers, and all his father's household, down to the little ones, with bread." (Genesis 47:12) Then "a new king arose over Egypt who knew not Joseph." (Exodus 1:8) He feared the Israelites' strength, and made them into slaves, embittering their lives. With God's help, we went out of Egypt.

It is time to remember it was hunger that caused our people to leave their land for Egypt, time to remember that it was the abundance of food that led them to settle in Egypt. Without that memory, we cannot celebrate freedom. It was only with that freedom that we were able to receive the ten commandments at Mount Sinai.

Today there is no parting of the waters; no miracles. Just a real necessity to provide to those among us who are hungry in our own land. It is true: There is no Torah without bread.

May each family contribute to MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger an amount of money enough to invite one hungry person to the Seder table. By carefully granting these dollars to organizations helping impoverished people, MAZON will see that the tradition of "feeding the hungry" is fulfilled. As the poor are fulfilled, so, too, will you be.

OUR MEMBER - ERNST JOKL

Sports medicine is an accepted and popular specialty in the medical profession, but it wasn't so when Ernst Jokl was getting his medical degree in the 1920s in Germany.

In a career spanning five decades in Germany, South Africa and Kentucky, he was a pioneer scholar in the field.

Since retiring from UK in 1975, Jokl has continued to write and lecture and has received awards and commendations from throughout the world.

Most recently, he received a gold medal from the International Council of Sports Science and Physical Education, a UNESCO agency, which said "Your dedication and vision constituted the base of our Council's existence and continues to inspire our quest for excellence".

The council also named a lecture series in Jokl's honor, to be held every fourth year coinciding with the summer Olympic games. Jokl himself was an Olympic athlete for his native Germany in 1928.

The University of Wroclaw, Poland (formerly Breslau, Germany), Jokl's alma mater, named its new Academic Sports Medicine Clinic in his honor, and he was the honorary speaker at the opening of the facility in 1992.

At UK in the 1950s, Jokl introduced the first graduate course on sports medicine in the U.S. and founded the American College of Sports Medicine. He was named Arts and Sciences Distinguished Professor in 1966-67.

Jokl is also an aviator and wrote several of the earliest books and articles in the field of aviation medicine. He is now, in his words, "truly retired" at his Lexington home, enjoying playing the piano and writing a book of his reminiscences.

Next Family Shabbat: May 13th

SISTERHOOD NEWS

March is Mitzvah Crib Month for our Sisterhood. Please bring any baby items you would like to donate and place them in the portacrib which is set up in the Temple foyer. These items will be given to the Bryan Station High School Day Care Program.

Marcia Brown has placed orders for more People Pins, with proceeds going to the Stewart Home. Many of their Jewish residents attend our Shabbat worship services on a regular basis, and we would like to recognize their commitment.

Our March program will be on March 16th at 6 PM. Stacy Street from the Women's Center is our guest speaker. Bring a dairy (or non-meat) dish, and don't forget to RSVP by March 14th! Our Temple Seder is on Sunday, March 27th, so please make your reservations while space is still available.

Our Gift Shop has many beautiful Passover items. Stop in during Gift Shop hours, or call Marilyn Leiber at 266-1240 to make an appointment.

The Women of Reform Judaism, District 9 Biennial will be held in Huntington, West Virginia the weekend of April 15-17. This is a fun weekend of friendship, exchange of ideas and education. This opportunity is open to any Sisterhood member. If you are interested in attending, contact Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Enrollment for the 1994-95 school year is now open to the public and our classes for the coming year are filling up rapidly.

Our wonderful teaching staff continues to enrich our children with quality learning experiences. The children are so happy, well behaved, enthusiastic and curious!

Many thanks to all of you who continue to support our Kroger Certificate Program. Your effort in this area really makes a difference.

There is no school on Monday, March 21st. Also, Preschool is closed Friday, April 1st through Friday, April 8th for Spring Break. Classes resume on Monday, April 11th.

We're having a great time in all of the classes learning about outer space. Feel free to stop in and visit us anytime.

ADULT ED. "LET'S LEARN TO FEATURE ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BETH GLAZIER-MCDONALD

On April 12, 19 & 26, Beth Glazier-McDonald will examine in depth, the character of the book of Job in a three part course. All sessions will be at 7:30 PM at Temple Adath Israel. Please join us for this interesting course.

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

JEWISH LITERATURE

Fannie Miller, Teacher

In our course in Jewish Literature, we studied Gloria Goldreich's book A Treasury of Jewish Literature from Biblical Times To Today. We also used supplemental materials.

We received a compendium of great writings that covered the entire breadth of the Jewish literary experience, from the Bible to the work of contemporary writers. We used examples from sources such as the Torah, the Writings, Apocrypha, the Golden Age of Spain, Mysticism, Hasidism, Zionism, the Holocaust and Modern Hebrew and American Jewish Literature.

In addition, we studied the historical background and literary insights to provide a valuable reading adventure. Thus, this class was introduced to our most varied heritage of which we should be justly proud!

New Program for 2's & 3's Set for Next Year in Religious School:

Beginning next September, on Sunday mornings, Sandy Adland will teach a new once-a-month parent-child Religious School class for our 2 & 3 year old children. There will be a one time fee of approximately $25 for this class. Parents and children must attend together. The emphasis will be on creating and teaching Jewish living and celebration. This is an exciting new addition to our Religious School program and we hope parents and children will see the importance and value of learning Judaism together.

Trip to Hebrew Union College Scheduled for April 13th

There will be a trip to HUC-JIR in Cincinnati, on April 13, to see the college, rare book room and museum. We will leave TAI at 8:30 AM and return by 3 PM. Are you interested?? Please let us know by April 6. There will be a charge for bus transportation, and we will stop at a restaurant where you may buy lunch. We are trying to schedule a visit to the Plum Street Temple. Call TAI 269-2979 to reserve a space. After April 6, reservations will be taken only on a space available plan.

FROM THE LIBRARY SHELVES

A thank you to Howard L. Ross for his donation of The Jesus Connection by Leonard C. Yasseen to the Temple library. I am sure it will be enjoyed by many.

I NEVER SAW ANOTHER BUTTERFLY TO BE PRESENTED MARCH 23, 24 & 27

THE SCHOOL FOR THE CREATIVE AND PERFORMING ARTS AT BLUEGRASS PRESENTS THE POWERFUL DRAMA, I NEVER SAW ANOTHER BUTTERFLY BY CELESTE RESPANTI AND DIRECTED BY MARY O'NEAL.

I Never Saw Another Butterfly is a very serious, powerful and beautiful drama. It is about the Holocaust, the children who suffered it, and about the hope they could still find in the midst of such hopelessness. Of the 15,000 children that entered the concentration camp of Terezin, only 100 survived. This play is based on the memories of one of the survivors, Raja. The play incorporates actual images (drawings and paintings) and poems left behind at Terezin by the children.

The play is sponsored by the Friends of the Arts School. Performances will be at the Lexington Central Library Theater on March 23 and 24 at 7 PM and March 27 at 2 PM. For ticket information call: 606-223-5999.

CREATIVE WORSHIP GROUP TO BEGIN IN FALL

In an effort to begin to create our own Shabbat worship services at TAI, the Temple Worship Committee passed a motion at its most recent meeting to establish a group for the purpose of writing and editing creative services. The group will look at the structure of a traditional worship service and use this as a model for new services. People will be encouraged to develop new liturgy, as well as to adapt existing liturgy.

If you are interested in participating in this group, contact Rabbi Adland or the Temple office. You will be notified personally when the first meeting will be held.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

APRIL 15, 1994

VOLUME 61

NO. 17

4 IYAR 5754

IN THIS CORNER

As you receive this bulletin, we conclude the celebration of Yom Ha'atzmaut - Israel Independence Day. Israel was born in a United Nations Resolution passed in November, 1947. On May 14, 1948, the United Nations declared that there would be a Jewish State, an Arab State and the country of Jordan on the land previously known by the names Palestine and Trans-Jordan. The land partitioned for the Jews was small, narrowing to only 7 miles at a point between Tel Aviv and Haifa. To the east, between the Israeli border and the Jordan river, an Arab State was created. These borders and states did not last long.

As an independent Jewish State was declared, the Arab community attacked Israel from all directions determined to drive the Jewish presence from the land. Israel successfully defended herself. The War of Independence ended with Israel in control of slightly more land than the partition stated and Jordan now occupying the Arab State known later in history as the West Bank. As we know, the tiny nation of Israel fought wars in 1956, 1967 and 1973 against many of her neighboring Arab countries. Thousands of Israelis and Arab soldiers and civilians died in these battles born out of hate, prejudice and mistrust. It seems that 46 years after our Jewish homeland was born, the situation has not changed all that much. Israel is still technically at war with every neighboring Arab State, but Egypt. Threats of destruction and annihilation spew forth from the mouths of those whose minds are filled with hate and violence, destruction and murder. People are murdered every single day in the name of self-proclaimed victory.

On the cover of this month's Moment magazine, is a picture depicting a series of tombstones. Each stone reminds us of a massacre by one side of the conflict or the other. The first stone is Hebron 1929 when Arabs murdered 67 Jewish men, women and children. We see the stones of Kiryat Shmona and Ma'alot where this type of terrorism resumed with murders of more women and children. We note the murders on the Tel Aviv Coastal Highway and the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem Highway. At the same time, on this cover we are reminded that the Arabs are not the only ones engaged in murder. In Hebron in 1983 and on the Temple Mount in 1990, Jews murdered Arabs in the name of peace and God.

Jessica Dyer Bat Mitzvah
10:30 AM

Now, in 1994, on Purim, a Jewish doctor named Goldstein walked into the Moslem part of the Holy Cave of the Machpelah and shot dead more than 30 Arabs while these human beings were engaged in their Friday prayers. Goldstein was part of Kach, a right wing terrorist organization whose goal was to eliminate Arabs from the land of his fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. These Jews carried their weapons defiantly, ready to defend themselves at the least provocation. The members of Kach, a splinter group from Kahane's narrow-minded right wing political party, oppose any effort by the Israeli government to bring about peace, to return occupied land to the Arabs, to remove settlers from the territories. They shout that this is the land of God's promise to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and therefore, it is their land forever.

My response to these Jews is that they are no better than their Arab terrorist counterparts. They disgust me on every level. I believe that Judaism must stand for bringing healing into the world and peace into the human heart. Jews should not take up arms and, with premeditation, walk into a holy site and murder human beings. To me, what Goldstein did and what terrorists like Goldstein stand for, set those Jews outside the Jewish community. Though I can't excommunicate them, we must do everything we can to delegitimize them. The Israeli government took the first step by declaring them terrorists. The rest of the world Jewish community must say to them, Never Again will you murder other human beings in cold blood and out of vengeance. That is not who we are as Jews and that is not what our commandments, ethics and morals teach us.

If peace is going to come to Israel, then all of us must learn to live together. The Arabs must understand that when one of theirs murders a Jew, the murderer must not be considered a hero and martyr. The Arab community must learn from their Jewish and Israeli counterparts to mourn the death of every living soul. The Israeli community must understand the frustration of the Palestinian community which is rejected by all her neighbors, left adrift at sea with no paddle. The Israelis must provide the oars, the boat and even some of the provisions to get the Palestinians going in the right direction. If both sides can move forward by responding within themselves to the other side, then, after 46 years maybe there will be peace.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

It is difficult for me to believe that it has already been two years since I sat down to write my first bulletin article. Some of those articles were fun to write, others somewhat difficult, but always they pertained to what I felt was most important at the time.

As I look back, what seems most important at this time is the honor and privilege of leading this congregation. I will always remember each of your words of praise and encouragement. The most rewarding part of being president was knowing that you had confidence in my abilities. My sincere thanks to each of you for the trust you placed in me.

There are also some other leaders in our congregation who will be leaving our Board. Our Immediate Past President, Ben Baker and our Treasurer, Holly Barnhill. Both of these individuals have given their heart and soul to our Temple. The positions that they have held are not the most enjoyable ones, but our congregation is better off because of their involvement.

There are five retiring Trustees: Bruce Engel, Jeff Heller, Garry Hoover, Jack Miller and David Wachtel. Tomas Milch, H. has also finished his term as one of our CKJF Representatives. I know that you join me in thanking these Board members for their many years of service.

While we will miss all our retiring board members and officers, we also look forward to our new Trustees and officers who will be installed at our annual meeting.

I hope that you will join me on May 1st to participate in the installation of our new Board and officers, which will be led by our incoming President, Rob Rosenstein. All will be devoting a great deal of their time for the benefit of our congregation. We are fortunate that they care enough about the future of Temple Adath Israel to put the congregation's needs first. I know when they call upon you for support that it will be there just as your support was always there for me.

Thank you for a wonderful two years.

Sincerely,

Cheri A. Rose
President

A one week summer human relations/leadership workshop for teenagers, is now accepting applications from students who will be juniors in the fall. For a week, teenagers of varied cultural, racial, religious and ethnic backgrounds will come together to share their unique individuality. Workshops, discussion groups, sports, cultural and talent nights, campfires (and you) will make this an unforgettable experience.

The camp will be held June 12 through 18 near Leitchfield, KY at beautiful Rough River Lake Camp. Tuition is $195.00 with financial assistance available based on need. For more information contact Rayla Smoot at 277-4434 or write: The National Conference, 2029 Bellefonte Drive, Lexington KY 40503.

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

The Myron S. Goldman Union Camp Institute at Zionsville, Indiana has what you would expect at any good camp and much more...excellent counselors, all types of sports, cookouts, overnights, canoeing, arts & crafts, drama, music and dance, all in a delightful summer camp setting.

In addition, as a Union of American Hebrew Congregations' camp, Goldman Union Camp offers more. Join us in creating an exciting and dynamic Jewish community of young people. Come celebrate with us the joys of Reform Judaism. GET THE SPIRIT. GET G.U.C.I.

If you are entering the fourth grade or higher next fall, find out about Goldman Union Camp Institute.

For further information, call the Temple office or contact the Camp Director, Rabbi Ronald Klotz, 9349 Moore Rd., Zionsville, IN 46077 (317) 873-3361. YOU'LL HAVE THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE AT GOLDMAN UNION CAMP!!

Mazon Grants Benefit Kentucky

Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger awarded two grants to Kentucky organizations. The first is a $10,000 grant to God's Pantry-Crisis Food Center. (We also support God's Pantry with more than a ton of food from our Sukkot food drive.) This particular grant is to equip 10 food bank agencies with refrigerator and freezer equipment to enable these charities, serving an impoverished rural area of eastern and central Kentucky, to receive more food donations.

The second grant is for $5,000 to Jackson County Food Bank in McKee, KY. This grant is in renewed support of this pantry which provides a three day supply of groceries to needy families in the Appalachian foothills of eastern Kentucky.

Thank you Mazon, thanks to every Bar and Bat Mitzvah family, every person who contributes at Yom Kippur and Pesach and every family who contributes in celebration of a personal life-cycle event. As you can see, these dollars make a big difference.

The total of grants made throughout the United States and abroad totaled $850,000, plus over $100,000 to such places as Yugoslavia, and elsewhere.

BLOOD & BAGELS SET FOR MAY 1, 1994

TAI's Fourth Blood Drive/Bagel Feast sponsored by the Social Action Committee, will be Sunday, May 1 in the Youth Group lounge from 9 AM to 1 PM. Donors will feast on bagels and other fine food.

Giving blood is virtually painless and can help save lives. If you're leery of giving blood, come to the blood drive anyway. No obligation - just give us a chance to show you how easy and painless it is.

Central Kentucky Blood Center requires a minimum of eight weeks between donations, so you will not be eligible to give blood if you have done so on or after March 1st.

Call TAI at 269-2979 to sign up to donate. You can still donate if you don't sign-up, but we would like to get an idea of how many donors to expect. Also, signing up for a specific time might help things go more smoothly. If you have any questions, call Bruce Engel at 252-3734.

BOARD BRIEFS - MARCH 1, 1994

At the March 1 Board meeting, Treasurer, Holly Barnhill reported the transfer of $12,000.00 of Building Fund holdings from a money market account to the Endowment Fund for greater investment income potential.

The Board accepted the resignation of Sanford and Kathleen Caprow who have moved to New York.

John McDonald informed the Board of the need to replace a through-the-wall heat pump unit in one of the PreSchool rooms. Approximate cost $1,200.00.

Kevin Freund of the Budget Committee made a presentation of the 1994-95 budget as proposed by the committee. Included in the presentation was a five year history of income and expenses. A number of graphs and charts illustrating this information, including several detailing dues collection data, were distributed. As proposed, the 94-95 budget results in a $17,000.00 shortfall in the General Fund.

The Board decided that the budget information it had received should be made available to the congregation through a special mailing. The proposed budget will be discussed and voted upon at the April meeting, then presented to the congregation for approval at the annual meeting on May 1.

Lest we never forget the martyrs of our people!

CONFIRMATION SERVICE 5754 WILL BE HELD MAY 15

Confirmation is held annually on Erev Shavuot - the holy festival remembering the revelation of Torah to Moses by God. Just as God handed the Torah to Moses, we pass on our Jewish heritage, our hopes and dreams for a Jewish future, to our confirmands. Therefore, Confirmation is the most significant Religious School experience in which our students participate. This special and moving ceremony concludes our Religious School children's formal religious education. The members of the class write and prepare the service. This year the service will be held May 15, 1994, at 7:00 PM.

It is important to our graduating students that we attend this service and show our support for their accomplishments. Please make every effort to attend this year's Confirmation Ceremony.

This year's Confirmation class is:

DAVID CANTOR, son of Dr. Austin and Susan Cantor,
1905 Alexandria Dr., Lexington, 40504

EMILY FRIED, daughter of Dr. Andrew and Bobbi Fried
627 Tateswood Dr., Lexington, 40502

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

TAI Preschool is going great! The children are blossoming like the flowers in springtime. During the month of April, Mrs. Potter's and Mrs. Kaplan's classes will learn about springtime, farm animals, the circus and nursery rhymes. Mrs. Mroz's and Mrs. Danow's class will explore transportation, springtime, and farm animals.

Enrollment for the coming year is now open to the public. I anticipate that our three year old and four year old classes will soon be full, and our two and one half year old class will be over half full at the beginning of the school year.

With deep regret I announce that Terri Potter and Kaye Kaplan will not be returning next year, due to the demanding schedule in their personal lives. They are outstanding in their field, and the children have benefitted greatly from their guidance, patience and loving care. We thank them for all they have done. Their presence will truly be missed.

Therefore, TAI Preschool is seeking a lead teacher and an assistant teacher for the two and a half and three year old classes for the 1994-95 school year. If you are interested in finding out more information about the positions, call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

TAI "INTERFAITH" HABITAT HOUSE TO BEGIN CONSTRUCTION MAY 15

Temple Adath Israel and the churches of the Episcopal Diocese will build a Habitat for Humanity house together for Stewart & Doris Greene beginning the weekend of May 15. The construction will take place every Sunday until it is completed on June 26. We need as many workers, skilled and unskilled, as we can get to participate in this project.

This is an opportunity to participate in a hands-on mitzvah.

Call the Temple office or Cookie Wenneker, project chair, 269-4221, to put your name on the list. Information will be sent to you immediately. Whether you can frame a house, put on roofing shingles, install siding, paint, shlep, make lunch, or whatever, please come and help. Our dollars helped pay for this house and now our hands must build it. Together our efforts will make a difference.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Our hats are off to Leona Stern and Rose Rita Wurmser for their tremendous leadership in coordinating a fabulous Congregational Passover Seder. To everyone who helped set-up, bake, clean-up and cook, thank you for all of your hard work. Together, all of you created a beautiful and memorable event in the life of our congregation.

Our Mitzvah Crib project was a great success. Thanks to everyone who contributed baby items. A special thank you to Starr Gantz for chairing this service to the community. School will be out before we know it.

Our Book Pins are a lovely way to thank teachers and librarians at the end of the school year. Take a look at them on Sunday mornings or call Marcia Brown at 271-4239.

Please join us for our next Rosh Chodesh gathering on April 14th at 7:30 PM. The focus will be on Hannah Senesh and on Yom Ha'Atzmaut.

This month our Sisterhood and Brotherhood will co-sponsor a program to be held on Sunday, April 24th from 10 to 11:30 AM in the TAI social hall featuring guest speaker, JoAnn Hauser, Assistant Athletic Trainer for the UK Wildcats. We hope to see you all there!

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

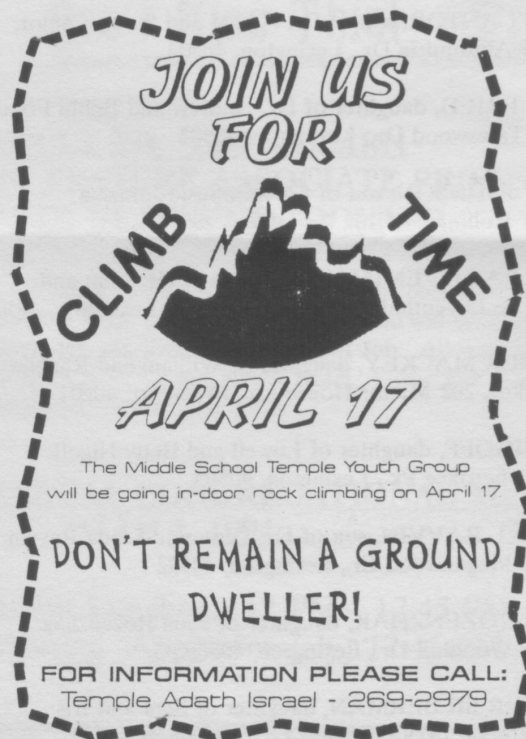

THE HOLOCAUST

Samye N. Miller, Teacher
Fannie H. Miller, Teacher

The Holocaust class used two textbooks this year: Never to Forget - The Jews of the Holocaust and Hitler's War Against the Jews. These textbooks discuss Jewish values to consider in coming to terms with what happened and making sure the world will not see it happen again.

The Holocaust was an important, world-shaking event, not only for Jews but for humanity as a whole. In our study, we examined the sequence of events that led to this terrible occurrence, and also how Jews and Judaism have been dedicated to ethical ideals which stand against cruelty and immorality.

In addition to our classroom discussions and textbooks, we used video tapes, newspaper and magazine articles, posters, pictures, art work, slides and charts.

COLLEGE NEWS

Joseph Auer
Brown University, Class of 96

Brown University provides a relaxed atmosphere in which students are encouraged to pursue an education of their own design. Brown University is primarily dedicated to undergraduate work. Nearly all classes are taught by professors. The campus enjoys a cordial town gown relationship with downtown Providence. There are many wonderful opportunities for community involvement. Brown has a reputation for being the most liberal university in the Ivy League. Liberal at Brown does not encompass political orientation; it is the commitment to ethnic, religious, racial, sexual and economic diversity, with an emphasis on sensitivity and respect for the individual.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

MAY 15, 1994

VOLUME 61

NO. 19

5 SIVAN 5754

IN THIS CORNER

One of the beautiful aspects of Reform Judaism is the idea of personal/individual autonomy. Each Reform Jew is responsible for the Jewish decisions in his or her Jewish life. The celebration of Shabbat and Holy Days, dietary restrictions, participation in life-cycle events, observance of the particulars in living as a Jew are all determined by the individual Jew. The conclusions and actions each Jew takes are, of course, predicated on a certain level of study which will assist the Reform Jew in coming to an informed decision. Whatever the decision reached in the life of the Reform Jew, as long as it does not go beyond the boundaries of normative Jewish life or thought, it is accepted by the Reform Jewish community as operative. The decisions may not always be in line with traditional Jewish experience, but even traditional Judaism came to some of its conclusions after much internal debate, as noted in the Talmud, as well as compromise and trial and error.

A Temple community such as ours is linked with a larger Reform Jewish community, and the experiences of that larger Jewish community become the basis for the organism we call Reform Jewish life. For example, many Reform Jewish congregations enacted Temple By-laws to ban the use of pork products or shellfish in meals served at Temple functions, but do not prohibit the mixing of milk and meat together. Reform Jewish congregations do not require kipot to be worn in the sanctuary, but leave it as optional. Friday evening Shabbat candles are lit during the Erev Shabbat service. While these issues may violate the letter of Talmudic law, Reform Judaism does not believe that they violate the spirit of the celebration of Shabbat, ritual decisions or dietary decisions as understood from Biblical law. Reform Judaism believes that every Jew and Jewish community must participate directly in this decision-making process and not just accept it without questioning the traditions. Differences will exist in the level of observance among Reform Jewish congregations, but every congregation comes to conclusions based on the philosophy of autonomy as a basis for Reform Jewish life. When I attend a convention of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the organization with which our Temple is affiliated, it is incredible to note how 4,000 Reform Jews can act so differently in their behavior, but feel such kinship in their philosophy of Jewish living.

Reform Jewish life does have some consistency within its member Temples and rabbis. As in any group where autonomy is considered a virtue, there is variation. In looking at the totality of the Reform Jewish movement today one can note some common threads. For example, most Reform Jewish congregations returned to the Bible for the proscription on the length of their holiday celebrations and join with Jews in Israel today celebrating Pesach 7 days and not 8, Shavuot 1 day and not 2, and Rosh Hashanah for only 1 day. Shabbat observance begins Friday evening and ends Saturday evening without regard to the exact hour on the clock. Musical instruments are used during the Shabbat service. Social Action and Social Justice are pillars of the community's strength. Temples enact certain By-laws for Jewish life and celebration within the building proper, but do not invade the private life of the member family.

Without question, there are times when Reform Judaism is at odds with traditional Judaism and traditional Jewish celebration. When it comes to celebrations sponsored as a community event, Reform Jews accept the rules of traditional Judaism. When it comes to events sponsored within the Temple, Temple rules apply. When it comes to private events outside of the Temple, each Reform Jew must use the authority of autonomy and make his or her own decision. Reform Judaism sees its philosophy and practice as stemming from the same basic root as traditional Judaism. The difference is in the approach to that tradition. Reform Judaism sees tradition as flexible and adaptable to new ways of thinking, lifestyle and the individual. Reform Judaism believes that its approach to tradition is part of the ongoing, progressive revelation begun at the destruction of the Second Temple and continuing on to today. Being a Reform Jew is demanding because it requires of us the responsibility to know, learn, understand, and decide what it means to be a Jew. It means living a Jewish life in the context of living in a secular/Christian world. It means being tolerant of the beliefs and practices of others and other Jewish movements. Finally, being a Reform Jew means being an authentic Jew by accepting what has come down to us and interpreting it for our own lives today.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

In order for Temple Adath Israel to grow, everyone of you should give personally of your time, energy and financial support, but in today's fast paced world, none of us has enough time for all the activities we desire. In the up-coming months you will be receiving committee sign-up forms. Take a moment to review the various functions of each committee. Hopefully, each of you will continue to expand your "Jewish Knowledge" through these numerous programs. The committees that develop these programs are open to all members. Please make the effort to get involved, to share your ideas and make suggestions for improvement and change in the future.

I would like to welcome the new board members, Jo

Belin, Alan Bernard, Shirley Bryan, Kevin Freund, Marilyn Lieber, Audrey Rooney, Peter Sobel and Bill Wenneker. Lloyd Mayer will be a new CKJF representative to the Board. Their willingness to give of their time and energy is greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Robert J. Rosenstein
President

BOARD BRIEFS - APRIL 5, 1994

At their April 5 meeting the Temple's Board of Trustees accepted four new members; Paul and Susan Bachner, Stuart and Michelle Malkin, Bill and Regina Meece, and Vladimir and Zoya Sidorenko. New Americans Gricia and Yefela Domotov were welcomed to the community with a one year complementary membership. The Board accepted the resignation of Dana Zager.

Building Fund pledges were accepted from nine current Temple members.

Donations from the Tzedakah Fund were approved to Interns for Peace, the Resource Office for Social Ministry, The Black Church Coalition and Habitat for Humanity.

The Election Committee announced that Jo Belin, Kevin Freund, Stephanie Kemp, Audrey Rooney and Bill Wenneker had received the most votes in the recent election for three year terms on the Board.

The Board passed the budget as presented by the Budget Committee. The budget will be presented at the annual Congregational Meeting in May.

Appreciation was expressed to those Board members who have completed their terms; Garry Hoover, Jeff Heller, Bruce Engel, Jack Miller and David Wachtel; and two members who have resigned from the Board effective May 1, Linda Ain and Ruth Poley. Ben Baker and Holly Barnhill were thanked for their service on the Executive Committee.

The Board expressed their appreciation to Cheri Rose for her excellent service to the Temple as she completes her term as President.

At its May 3 meeting the Board welcomed new members Alan Bernard, David Brown and Peter Sobel who will fill the unexpired terms of resigning members.

Building Fund pledges were accepted from five Temple members. There are still twenty-nine members who have not yet made a pledge. The Building Fund for the Future Committee is working to rectify this situation.

The Board reviewed, amended and accepted the new Governing Policies which had been prepared by the By-Laws Committee. The Governing Policies will replace the current House Rules.

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

THREE YEAR OLD CLASS

Debbie Davidson, Teacher
Aaron Sander, Aide
Jennifer Clemmons, Aide

The Three year old class has had a lot of fun this year learning about the Jewish holidays and about ourselves. We have had a great time with Aaron Johnson, learning songs this year. We also enjoyed watching all the videos of Bible stories. The last few weeks we will spend time learning about the Sabbath and the Temple. This has been a great year with a wonderful group of three year olds.

KINDERGARTEN CLASS

Iris Silberman, Teacher
Beth McDonald, Assistant Teacher
Jessica Kemp, Aide

Our class has been busy this year learning about all the Jewish holidays, Tzedakah and about our Temple. We will finish the Sunday School year by studying our Jewish homeland. We will make passports, have a jet plane race and visit many different regions of Israel.

FIRST GRADE

Anita Mersack, Teacher

First graders were very busy this last part of the school year. For Purim we made our own megillot, with each child illustrating a portion of the story. We analyzed the characters in the Book of Esther and figured out how they would act in real life situations. We also made hamantashen.

We learned the Passover story and how we celebrate the holiday today. We discussed the haggadah and learned Passover vocabulary. A big thank you to the 4th, 5th and 6th graders for the Passover Fair. We enjoyed it and learned a lot!

First graders were finally able to present our own Friday night program on Tu B'shevat. They did a great job! We will finish the year by studying Israel and Shavuot.

SECOND GRADE

Sandy Adland, Teacher

I believe the highlight of our year was the Sunday of our Parent Visitation. We shared a lesson all about Passover followed by a Seder, complete with Haggadahs, singing and traditional Seder foods. In recent weeks, we learned about Jewish books, Hebrew, worship service skills, prayer and Jewish Identity. I have truly enjoyed sharing my Sunday mornings with this class.

SEVENTH GRADE

Cheri Rose, Teacher

This seven week block, the seventh grade is studying Jewish identity from a variety of perspectives.

We are looking at our own religious beliefs, our parents and our grandparents and the common ties that bind us.

On the 24th of April, we invited the parents to join us in class. It was a great lesson for all of us to understand other's expectations of us.

Our year will close with a discussion of Jewish stereotypes. We will learn that we can teach others to look at us differently if we look at ourselves differently.

MAY is ... Better Hearing and Speech Month

Your ability to communicate with others is precious. Good hearing is an important part of that ability. Take a minute now to go through the checklist below. If you are having a problem, help is available.

IF YOU ...

- Often need to ask people to repeat what was said;
- Find that others complain that you have the TV, radio, or stereo turned up too loud;
- Frequently confuse or misunderstand speech;
- Have constant or frequent ringing in one or both ears;
- Fail to hear sudden loud noises;
- Avoid communicating with others;

CONFIRMATION SERVICE 5754 WILL BE HELD MAY 15

Confirmation is held annually on Erev Shavuot - the holy festival remembering the revelation of Torah to Moses by God. Just as God handed the Torah to Moses, we pass on our Jewish heritage, our hopes and dreams for a Jewish future, to our confirmands. Therefore, Confirmation is the most significant Religious School experience in which our students participate. This special and moving ceremony concludes our Religious School children's formal religious education. The members of the class write and prepare the service. This year the service will be held May 15, 1994, at 7:00 PM.

It is important to our graduating students that we attend this service and show our support for their accomplishments. Please make every effort to attend this year's Confirmation Ceremony.

This year's Confirmation class is:

DAVID CANTOR, son of Dr. Austin and Susan Cantor,

B'not Mitzvah Service scheduled for May 20 at 8:00 PM

This year's B'not Mitzvah Service, an adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah service, will be held on Erev Shabbat May 20, at 8:00 PM. Seven women will participate in this year's service. They have studied Hebrew over the past year, learned about Jewish texts and Jewish law, and spent several weeks preparing for this service. Each member of this class will lead part of the service in Hebrew and English, and read from the Torah Scroll and the Haftarah.

The B'not Mitzvah class invites the entire congregation to be part of this special service.

The following people are members of the B'not Mitzvah class of 1994/5754:

Michele Freed
Bobbi Fried
Bonnie Krasik
Judy Miller
Martha Pearson
Cheri Rose
Janet Zusman

TAI "INTERFAITH" HABITAT HOUSE BEGINS CONSTRUCTION MAY 15

Temple Adath Israel and the churches of the Episcopal Diocese will build a Habitat for Humanity house together for Stewart & Doris Greene beginning the weekend of May 15. The construction will take place every Sunday from 7 AM to 7 PM on Race Street until it is completed on June 26. You can come to help any time during the above hours. We need as many workers, skilled and unskilled, as we can get to participate in this project.

This is an opportunity to participate in a hands-on mitzvah.

Call the Temple office or Cookie Weneker, project chair, 269-4221, to put your name on the list. Information will be sent to you immediately. Whether you can frame a house, put on roofing shingles, install siding, paint, shlep, make lunch, or whatever, please come and help. Our dollars helped pay for this house and now our hands must build it. Together our efforts will make a difference.

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

The children of our Preschool have grown in so many wonderful ways since the beginning of the school year. My heartfelt thanks go to Terri Potter, Adele Mroz, Sarah Danow and Kaye Kaplan for the love, care, attention and expertise that they share with the children. Our preschoolers are so happy. Many of them will return in the fall, and to those who are moving on, we will truly miss you. Thanks to all of our Preschool parents for their continued support, encouragement, and constructive feedback; you have been a great help to me.

Our closing program is scheduled for Tuesday, May 24th at 7 PM. Our children will perform and also receive certificates recognizing their participation in our school. Our last day of preschool is Wednesday, June 8th.

TAI PRESCHOOL SEEKS TEACHERS

TAI Preschool seeks a Lead Teacher and an Assistant Teacher for the 1994-95 school year. The hours are from 8:30 AM to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday. The school follows the Fayette County Public School schedule.

Applicants need not have teacher certification as training is provided, but a sincere desire to guide and to nurture young children is a must. For more information, contact Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

CAMP SHALOM IS STILL ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR COUNSELORS. CALL THE CKJF OFFICE FOR DETAILS.

MENDELSSOHN'S ELIJAH TO BE PERFORMED ON MAY 22ND

THEY'RE SINGING OUR SONG!

Felix Mendelssohn's Elijah has long been a glory of the oratorio repertoire. What do late twentieth-century Jews make of this high Victorian work, written by an immensely popular composer, who was the grandson of the great enlightenment philosopher Moses Mendelssohn and baptized a Lutheran as a young child?

Come hear Elijah performed by combined choirs including the Georgetown Choral Society, at Centenary Methodist, 2800 Tates Creek Road, on Sunday, May 22nd at 3:00 PM. The program is free. Anyone interested in an informal posing of questions and sharing of reactions over coffee and dessert at TAI on Monday, May 23rd at 7:30 PM, call Audrey Rooney at 863-1752 and leave a message on her answering machine.

Mendelssohn is an intriguing figure, the music is glorious, text even more so. Would hearing the oratorio raise any interesting questions for Jews today?

TODAH RABAH...

The Sisterhood Mitzvah Crib project would like to thank the Bryan Station Senior High School Day Care for all their donations to the Mitzvah Crib. They will be well used.

A special thanks to the Leisure Club for the beautiful baby blankets.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

Dear Congregants,

Thank you for the plate crafted by Leona Fine. How appropriate for me to own a piece whose focus is on the importance of Women's studies. I will treasure it always as a reminder of my term of office and many warm memories.

With Deep Appreciation,

Cheri A. Rose

CAR COMMITTEE

The CAR (Critique - Assess - Review) Committee held its latest meeting on April 24, 1994. The purpose of the meeting was to review the past year. Was the Temple successful in meeting your spiritual and programmatic needs?

There was also a discussion of ways of facilitating better communication within the Temple community. One suggestion was to hold neighborhood parlor meetings.

The committee will meet again in the fall.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL SALUTES LONG TIME MEMBER EDITH FRANKEL

Edith (Mrs. James S.), or Edie as she is known by her friends, was born in Nashville, TN and joined Temple in 1947. Although her daughter, Duffy Brodsky does not live here in Lexington, she has family through her late husband here at Temple. They are Barbara & Gene Straus, Kaye & Harold Frankel and Joseph Frankel as well as her Temple family.

Edie was the house chairman for five years, which at that time, covered ordering all housekeeping supplies, kitchen needs, etc. She even made the candles used at Temple. Edie also worked on the grounds, in the library and did just about anything that needed to be done, especially for the Deaf-Oral School which was located in the Temple.

When Edie arrived in Lexington, things were pretty run-down and the Temple was running out of space. "What we have now is great by comparison," she says. Back then, Temple was more informed and there was a lot of fun and laughter in the various celebrations, skits, plays, garden parties, etc. Then, being a much smaller group, there was lots of personal participation. Fewer women were working, so there was time for all sorts of Temple activities. Sisterhood was very active then and a lot of fun. Today, life is just a whole new ball game!

If you need a receipt for tax purposes, call Elayne Crystal at 273-6680.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

This is my last bulletin article as President of our Sisterhood. The year has been filled with many wonderful events. We offered a wide variety of monthly programs. Our Service to the Community projects are noteworthy.

Those who accepted Sisterhood Board positions and committee chairmanships took their jobs seriously and not only fulfilled their responsibilities, but displayed a growing understanding of their role as vital members of Sisterhood. I want to thank all of them as well as all of our members, for the time and effort, however great or small, that they devoted to our organization. Women of Reform Judaism, your commitment and involvement is both important and appreciated. We are a vital part of our Temple's life.

It has been a privilege to serve as your Sisterhood President this year. As a result of my involvement, I have made many special friends, and together, we have enriched our own lives through our efforts to improve the lives of others.

Sandy Adland, President

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

PAUL AND SUSAN BACHNER

Paul & Susan moved to Lexington in June of 93 from Connecticut. Paul is a MD at the UK Medical Center, where he is Director of the Clinical Labs. Susan has spent the past year as part-time faculty at Eastern KY University, Dept of Occupational Therapy and part-time at UK at the InterDisciplinary Human Development Institute. Four of their six children, Kate, Anne, Sally, Matt, Doug and Cantor, are in various stages of college and graduate school.

Paul and Susan have two dogs, an Irish setter named Rosie and a Siberian husky named C.C. They also have two cats named Arnie and Lemieux.

Paul is a member of the College of American Pathologists where he is a member of the Board of Governors and President of the C.A.P. Foundation. Susan is a member of the Board of the ARC (Association for Retarded Citizens) of the Bluegrass and a member of the UK Women's Club and Hadassah.

Paul and Susan enjoy music, gardening, cooking and reading.

The Temple welcomes Paul and Susan and family to the Lexington community and the Temple family.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book which is passed out to the congregation just prior to Yizkor.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel
Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Thursday, August 31, 1994

HABITAT INTERFAITH HOUSE IS COMPLETED

Congratulations on a job well done! Thank you to the 40 enthusiastic Temple volunteers who served on the food, telephone and construction committees, and to all those who made monetary and in-kind contributions toward the effort.

Together, our Temple and the Episcopal Diocese have made
Doris and Stewart Greene's dream come true.

Selichot Service August 27th, 11:30 PM at Ohavay Zion

The annual Selichot service is held on a Saturday night preceding Rosh Hashanah. The service is penitential and helps us prepare for the coming High Holy Days. The service is always held close to midnight. Rabbis Adland and Slaton lead this beautiful, but somber service.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book which is passed out to the congregation just prior to Yizkor.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Thursday, August 31, 1994

HELP!! HELP!! HELP!!

With the new year fast approaching, it is critical that each member take a moment to review the below committee list. Please sign up for any committees you are interested and return the form to the Temple office no later than September 21, 1994. After that date, you may continue to be a committee member but will not be able to vote on issues that arise. Your contribution to the Temple through your input and knowledge will further the growth of our congregation.

Please mark your committee choices by putting your initials on the blank line, sign your name(s) at the bottom and return to the Temple office by September 21, 1994.

COLLEGE NOTES

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS AND PARENTS!

The College Committee needs the campus addresses of all college students who are children of congregation members. This will enable us to send out the Temple bulletin throughout the year as well as special holiday packages. Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 or Susan Cantor at 278-2530 with this information.

HELP!! HELP!! HELP!!

With the new year fast approaching, it is critical that each member take a moment to review the below committee list. Please sign up for any committees you are interested, return the form to the Temple office no later than September 21, 1994. After that date, you may continue to be a committee member but will not be able to vote on issues that arise. Your contribution to the Temple through your input and knowledge will further the growth of our congregation. Please mark your committee choices by putting your initials on the blank line, sign your name(s) at the bottom and return to the Temple office by September 21, 1994.

UK BASKETBALL TICKETS NEEDED

The TAI Fund Raising Committee will be conducting a raffle for two tickets to all UK basketball games during the 1994-95 season. We need donations of a pair of lower arena tickets for individual games.

If you know you will not be attending a game, please consider donating your tickets for that game to the Temple for our raffle.

To make your donation, please call the Temple office at 269-2979 or Susan Cantor at 278-2530.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE NEWS

The TAI Social Action Committee joins with Lexington Chapter of Hadassah and other community volunteers in the building of the Dunbar Creative Playground. This project is organized by The Friends of the Parks in Fayette County, Inc. and the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government Division of Parks & Recreation.

This creative playground and others built by Lexington volunteers offer environments where children of different abilities and physical constraints can play and challenge themselves. They also provide quiet corners where youngsters can just sit and think, read or dream.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

SEPTEMBER 15, 1994

VOLUME 62

NO. 3

10 TISHRI 5755

IN THIS CORNER

This bulletin will arrive in your home just about the time we gather for Yom Kippur. This holy day, the holiest of all days, is a time that we set aside for introspection and self-realization through prayer and meditation. Services are conducted almost all day during this 24 hour period, from sundown one day to sunset the next. We offer words of atonement to God in exchange for purification and spiritual cleanliness. It is long day for those who stay all day and worship and pray. It is a hard day for those who participate in the tradition of fasting, living without food and water for 25 hours. It is also a day of community. It is through this air of communal feeling that we are sustained on this holiest day of the year.

The break-the-fast, worked on by our wonderful Temple Sisterhood, is one of those moments on our Jewish calendar I anticipate with excitement. The anticipation is not because I will eat for the first time after an extremely long and tiring day; rather, the break-the-fast is a moment of community in Temple Adath Israel. More than 200 people -- women, men, children -- gather to conclude Yom Kippur by sharing an extensive meal prepared by loving Jewish hands. Members of this community, many new and some old, wish each other a Shana Tova -- a happy new year. Friendships are renewed, new ones made, and the Temple begins its new year together.

Creating and sustaining community is very important to the life and success of a religious group. It is even more important to this Jewish community which is small, spread out, and at times overwhelmed by the non-Jewish world around us. There are moments during our calendar year that a large community gathers: the opening day religious school picnic, the Hanukah Shabbat dinner, family night Shabbat services (sometimes), second night Passover Seder, and a few others. There are moments when a smaller community gathers: Torah Study, Adult Education, Young?? Adults, Sisterhood programs, Shabbat services. Regardless of whether the community is large or small, I believe for Jews, community is part of being Jewish.

This Temple serves Jews from a wide geographic area. We have members in places such as Frankfort, Paris and Danville, Somerset, Hazard and Mt. Sterling, Maysville and Morehead and Salyersville. They affiliate with the Temple to be part of a Jewish community. It may be for Jewish education for their children or the High Holy Days or because their families belonged, but they seek community and come a long way to be part of it.

Temple Adath Israel needs to continue to find ways to build and shape Jewish communal lives. Our congregation is growing. By the time you receive this bulletin, we may reach a new high in membership of close to 350 family units. We are a community of single adults and families; young, middle age, and seniors; men and women; Jews, Jews-by-choice and non-Jews who are married to Jews; individuals from traditional and non-traditional backgrounds. I want to find ways to blend this community. I want us, as a community, not just to belong here but strongly to identify with this congregation and its community.

We are starting our 91st year as a congregation. More than 55 years ago, before W.W.II, we numbered less than 100 family units. Everyone knew or was related to each other. Creating community was a given in a congregation that size. Today we are much larger and the sense of a small community is not always here. Yet, if we reach out and welcome new members, create new programs, enhance and vary existing programs, say Shabbat Shalom to everyone sitting around us, don't let the stranger go unwelcomed, participate in the activities of this congregation, then a community will exist that we will not only be proud of, but in which all of us will participate.

Jews must find a way to be Jews in a non-Jewish world. What our ancestors handed down to us is beautiful. We must find ways to magnify that beauty in our lives today.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

As fall approaches, our Temple continues to be the center of numerous activities. In fact, we often have difficulty in accommodating all of the activities needing space in our facility.

I am continually impressed with the numerous educational programs offered. One need look no further than the calendar for the classes available this year. Not only is the study of Judaism important for our children in Religious School, but as Reform Jews, the quest for truth and understanding is crucial for members of ALL ages. In Judaism, there are no finite answers. This is the very reason why the study of Judaism must be a life long endeavor. We are not limited by laws or books as to what are Jewish views and practices. As inheritors of a tradition which is constantly growing and changing, I encourage each of you to partake of Jewish education through the Rabbi's classes. In addition, I urge you to again get involved in the various committees that chart the future of your Temple. If you have not already returned your committee cards, Sukkot is the deadline for your vote to count.

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

We're off to a great start in Preschool. Our teachers are wonderfully creative, friendly and enthusiastic about their work. Terri Potter returns this year as the Lead Teacher of the Three Year Old Class and Sarah Danow returns as the Assistant Teacher for the Four Year Old Class. We warmly welcome to our teaching staff, Diana Pope, Lead Teacher for the Two and a Half Year Old Class, Sandy Engers, Lead Teacher for the Four Year Old Class and Brenda Gabbert, Assistant Teacher for the Two and a Half and Three Year Old Classes. Our Four Year Old and Three Year Old Classes are full, and our Two and a Half Year Old Class currently has eight students. Several children are on the waiting list for the January entry, and our enrollment for this year should be complete at that time.

Extended Day for the Four Year Old Class is again being offered every Thursday until 2:30 PM. Our Annual Book Fair is scheduled for Sunday, October 16th from 9:45 AM to 2 PM. Please save your used books and consider donating them to the Preschool for this project. I'll accept your used books anytime. Also, this year we will continue to have Kroger Certificates available to you. If you're a Kroger shopper, I encourage you to support this effort. By merely exchanging your dollars for Kroger Certificates, our Preschool earns bonus dollars. For more information, please call me at Temple, 269-2979 or at home, 271-3568.

Consecration/Simchat Torah Ceremony September 26th, 7 PM

Consecration is a special ceremony for our Religious School Kindergarten children as they celebrate the beginning of their formal Jewish education. At this ceremony, held on the celebration of Simchat Torah, our Religious School Kindergarteners recite the Sh'ma and do a short presentation. The congregation celebrates this special moment through gifts and rejoicing with the families. It is very important to support these young Jewish children as they formally embark on their journey of Jewish learning.

The date for Consecration/Simchat Torah is September 26, 1994, at 7 PM. Please come and celebrate the conclusion of the reading of the Torah, the beginning of the new cycle of reading the Torah, and consecration. In the next bulletin we will list the members of this year's class.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CALENDAR CORRECTIONS

19 March 1995 - There is Religious School for 8th and 9th grades. They will help prepare the Purim Carnival instead of having regular class that day.

ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES TO BEGIN OCTOBER 3 - MONDAYS 7 TO 9:05 PM

INTRODUCTION TO HEBREW

Mondays 7 to 8 PM

Cost: Members $40

Non-Members $45

(cost covers books and materials)

Many Jews desire to add depth to their Jewish soul and substance to their Jewish knowledge. Introduction to Hebrew can be an important step in fulfilling this aspiration. This course teaches the Alef-Bet, beginning reading, and introduces the student to Biblical prayer book Hebrew. No prior knowledge of Hebrew is required.

The goal of this course is to bring the non-Hebrew reader into the world of the Hebrew reader. At the end of this course, a graduate will be able to follow the Hebrew prayers at services and with a little practice, begin reading with the congregation.

BASIC JUDAISM

Mondays 8:05 to 9:05 PM

Cost: Members - Individual $45

Couple $70

Non-Members - Individual $55

Couple $80

(cost covers books and materials, couples may share books)

Basic Judaism introduces the student to a slice of the Jewish experience. The course will survey Jewish values, holidays and life cycle celebrations, worship, Jewish ideas of God, and the long road of Jewish history. This course is designed to refresh the Jewish memory of the religious school graduate, teach those with no knowledge of Judaism, and encourage further Jewish study by everyone in the areas mentioned above.

This course is a survey course. The remaining programs on the Adult Education calendar are a supplement to what is taught in Basic Judaism.

CLASS DATES FOR BOTH INTRODUCTION TO HEBREW AND BASIC JUDAISM ARE:

October 3, 10, 17, 24

November 7, 14, 21

December 5, 12

January 2, 9

"Let's Learn" series to respond to Contemporary Jewish issues

Beginning October 11th, at 7:30 PM, the Let's Learn series will meet once-a-month, usually the second Tuesday evening of the month, to consider contemporary Jewish issues. The text for these meetings will be articles selected by the Temple Adult Education Committee. Copies of the articles are available in the Temple office. You may come by and pick them up or they can be mailed to you. Below are the dates and brief overviews of the articles to be used October 11 and November 8.

October 11: "The Battle for the School Boards"

This article, which ran in the May 1994 Jewish Monthly (The Bnai Brith Magazine), takes an in-depth look at the Christian Right's surreptitious campaign to control America's school boards. The article describes and quotes members of the Christian Right and the Christian Coalition as to their desire to control America's schools. For the Jewish community and other religious minorities, this is cause for alarm.

Please join "Let's Learn" on Oct. 11 and discuss this article and issue.

November 8: "The New Minority: Jews who Choose Jews"

Even with the high rate of intermarriage, lots of Jews are finding Jewish partners. This article looks at the individual choices that 8 women made to enter into romantic relationships with other Jews, their individual reasons for this decision, and their choice to lead a Jewish life.

Service to honor 50 year members and welcome new members set for September 30

The Shabbat Service on September 30, will be dedicated to both to our newest members and our long time members. New members will be welcomed with a Temple Shabbat Pot Luck dinner prior to services and a special prayer welcoming them into our community. Individuals and couples who have been members of this congregation for 50 years or longer will be honored during the service.

Please plan to attend this special Shabbat Service.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

OPENING PROGRAM

Margaret Kannensohn, Fayette County Attorney, will be our guest speaker at our opening luncheon, Wednesday, September 21st. Plan now to join her for an informative presentation.

Andrea Pactor, OVFTS District President, spent Sunday, August 28th at TAI enlightening us on the characteristics of an effective leader as well as how we can reach our potential.

Since "The Work Of Our Hands, The Service of Our Hearts" is this year's theme, you'll find a variety of projects such as Break-the-Fast, Oneg Shabbats, House Pins and Mitzvah Crib to participated in. I look forward to working with you.

Starr Gantz,
Sisterhood President

LEISURE CLUB TO TOUR HENRY CLAY HOME

The Leisure Club will tour Ashland, home of Henry Clay on Thursday, September 29th at 10:30 AM.

A luncheon will follow at Janet Zusman's home (directly across the street)

All those going will meet at Henry Clay home at 10:30 AM. If you need transportation, please let the TAI office know.

LEISURE CLUB BLANKET PROJECT

Some members of the Leisure Club are still crocheting blankets for use at children's centers around the city. They have spread the covers to include some area nursing homes. In the past two years the Leisure Club has donated blankets to: The Nest, YWCA Spouse Abuse Center, Salvation Army's Children's Haven and the Florence Crittenton Home. This past year the nursing homes receiving blankets were: YWCA's Arnett Pritchett Place, Homestead Nursing Center and Mayfair Manor.

To keep this project, money or yarn is needed. If you are able to donate either, please bring it to Temple. There is a basket in the Coat Closet for any yarn. Any donations can be brought to the office; please mark which fund your donation will benefit.

Thank you for your time and/or donation. If you have a request for a blanket to be given to a special place or person, please pass it along to Bobbi Fried (269-1295) or Eleanor Benblatt (272-3786).

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE NEWS

The TAI Social Action Committee joins with the Lexington Chapter of Hadassah and other community volunteers in the building of the Dunbar Creative Playground. This project is organized by The Friends of the Parks in Fayette County, Inc. and the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government Division of Parks & Recreation.

This creative playground and others built by Lexington volunteers offer environments where children of different abilities and physical constraints can play and challenge themselves. They also provide quiet corners where youngsters can just sit and think, read or dream.

Temple Social Action Committee Encourages You to Support UAHC Rwandan Relief Effort

As Jews we cannot sit silently and watch the appalling tragedy building each day in Rwanda.

In response to the extraordinary human suffering in Rwanda -- more than 500,000 have died, thousands face starvation, cholera and malaria threaten to sweep the countryside, and 2.5 million refugees -- the UAHC is once again joining with Israeli humanitarian Abie Nathan, the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, and a broad coalition of other national Jewish organizations to construct a refugee center for approximately 10,000 Rwandan refugees in Tanzania. The center will be designated for the very old and the very young who are now without shelter, medicine, or food.

For this effort, the UAHC needs your help. The Temple Social Action Committee asks any Temple member who wishes to participate in this special relief project to send your tax-deductible contribution to the UAHC Rwanda. Relief Fund, 838 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10021-7964. The project will cost $700,000. As of July, 1994, $300,000 has been raised. Each day that we delay in giving, lives literally hang in the balance.

LET'S MAKE A VIDEO

Anyone interested in helping to make a video about TAI, please call Bruce Engel at 252-3734.

UAHC MIDWEST REGIONAL BIENNIAL

The 24th Biennial convention of the Midwest Council, UAHC will be held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, November 11 - 13, 1994 in Nashville, TN.

Featured speakers will be Melvin Merians, Chairman, UAHC; Albert Vorspan, Retired V.P., UAHC and Rabbi Daniel Syme, Sr. V.P., UAHC. An excellent program including an optional Saturday evening trip to the Grand Ole Opry has been planned.

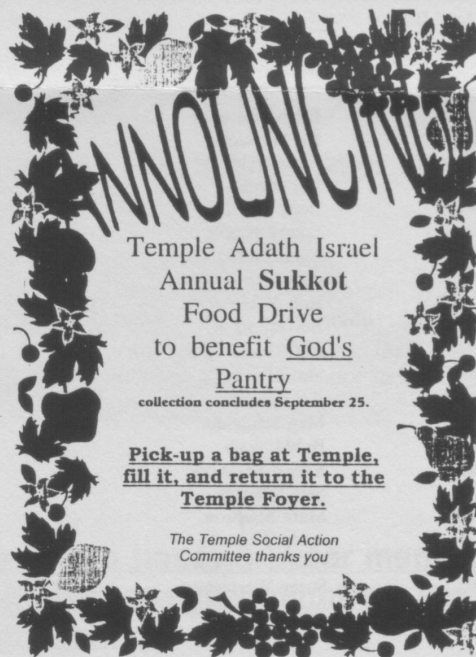

If you are interested in attending this exciting and enlightening gathering, please contact the Temple office for further details.

TEMPLE YEARBOOK

We are still taking advertising for the Temple Yearbook. If you would like to advertise, please contact Ruth Baker at 278-4038.

For those who have so graciously solicited advertisements, please have your contracts and ads in by September 16th.

Any members who have moved or changed their telephone numbers or will be doing so by September 15th, please call the Temple office so that we may update the Yearbook for the new printing.

COLLEGE NOTES

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS AND PARENTS!

The College Committee needs the campus addresses of all college students who are children of congregation members. This will enable us to send out the Temple bulletin throughout the year as well as special holiday packages. Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 or Susan Cantor at 278-2530 with this information.

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

VLADIMIR AND ZOYA SIDORENKO

Vladimir and Zoya came to Lexington from the Soviet Union. They are studying the American way of life and are enjoying living in Lexington. Vladimir is a systems analyst and, after a period of work as a computer programmer, he started his own computer consulting business.

Zoya is pursuing a career as a free lance journalist and is taking courses in journalism at UK.

As new Temple members they have volunteered to serve on the Library & Archives and Bulletin Committees.

Vladimir and Zoya enjoy reading novels, Jewish history and philosophy, science and arts. They enjoy movies and traveling.

The Jewish community and Temple Adath Israel welcome Vladimir and Zoya to the Temple family and the United States.

HELP!! HELP!! HELP!!

With the new year fast approaching, it is critical that each member take a moment to review the vommittee list below. Please sign up for any committees you are interested in and return the form to the Temple office no later than September 21, 1994. After that date, you may continue to be a committee member but will not be able to vote on issues that arise. Your contribution to the Temple through your input and knowledge will further the growth of our congregation.

Please mark your committee choices by putting your initials on the blank line, sign your name(s) at the bottom and return to the Temple office by September 21, 1994.

Kindling the Yom Kippur Lights

It is customary, before the beginning of Yom Kippur, for each member of the household to contribute to some worthy cause.

"Happy are those who consider the poor."

Eternal God, we hereby vow to fulfill the Mitzvah of Tzedakah as we begin this day of holiness. We shall not forget the words of Your prophet, who called us to share our bread with the hungry, to clothe the naked, and never to hide ourselves from our own kin.

May we, together with the whole House of Israel, be mindful of the needs of others, sharing with them the fruits of our labor, helping to sustain them in body and soul. For all, may Your promise be fulfilled: "Then shall your light blaze forth like the dawn, and your wounds shall quickly heal; your righteousness shall walk before you, the glory of the Lord shall follow you."

הדלקת הנרות

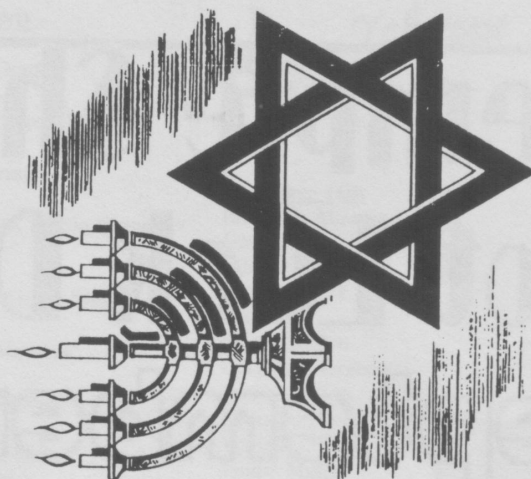

The holiest day of the year is about to begin. Let us use it well. May it be for each one of us a day of renewal. May it help us to overcome what is evil in us, and to strengthen what is good. May it bring us closer to one another, and make us more loyal to our community, our faith, and our God.

ברוך אתה, "אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצוותיו, וצונו ללכת בך של שבת ושבת יום הכיפורים."

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, by whose Mitzvos we are hallowed, who commands us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) the Day of Atonement.

ברוך אתה, "אלהינו, מלך העולם, שנתת לנו מצוות וצונו ללכת בך."

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.

Temple Adath Israel Mission Statement

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a temple and facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

OCTOBER 15, 1994

VOLUME 62

NO. 5

10 HESHVAN 5755

IN THIS CORNER

Temple Adath Israel initiated a new Religious School program on September 18, called Temple Tots. This special program is designed for children 2 & 3 years old and their parents. The parents and children meet together one Sunday a month from 10 AM - 11:30 AM. Everyone benefits. The children, even at this early age, see that their parents are interested in their Jewish education. Parents get the opportunity to learn about Judaism right along with their children. Each parent received a notebook at the first class for handouts which will help and guide them toward enhanced Jewish home experiences. Parents and children are learning Judaism together.

Intergenerational Jewish learning: yes, it is new; no, it is not so new. There was a time in our Jewish history and even not so distant past when there were no Sunday Religious School classes. There was a time when families still lived in the same community as their parents and grandparents, when intergenerational Jewish learning was exactly how Judaism was transmitted from one generation to the next. We moved away from this concept in America. Families moved apart. Jewish children received their primary and secondary education in secular schools. Temples created Sunday schools and mid-week schools as compensation to pass on Judaism to the next generation. Jewish learning and education began to leave the home and move to the Temple or synagogue. Parents became less and less involved, although not necessarily less interested, in the Jewish education of their children. They left the teaching up to strangers or acquaintances in the formal setting of the Sunday Religious School.

We can see the lingering effect of this move reflected in who comes to the Youth Education Committee meetings. Basically, it's the same people who went when I first arrived in 1986. Maybe a few faces have come and gone, but generally it is the same people. Parents of children new to the Temple or the Religious School don't seem too interested in what we teach as long as we do it. Fewer and fewer people are interested in the content of Sunday morning.

I want to tell all of our membership that we do an excellent job in our Religious School. Judi Higdon is a fine principal, deeply committed to her job. She understands Jewish education and children. She has organized and helped standardize what we teach. Our rate of teacher turnover is very low. Our teachers give of themselves as much as they can to teach under difficult conditions. Not difficult physical conditions. Our building and space is more than adequate. I am talking about the condition of time. Our children receive less than 70 hours of formal Jewish education a year. Add on an additional 50% if they are in Hebrew School or preparing for a Bar/Bat Mitzvah. The total may be 800 hours of formal Jewish education in all the years that they attend Religious School. In perspective, that is a little over a semester of time spread out over more than 10 years. The odds are stacked against the Jewish Sunday school's health and survival. Our job is to not to be the primary teacher of Judaism, but the supplement to their Jewish home education. We provide an opportunity for communal learning which, in effect, substantiates all of the other things taught about Judaism. Without parent support, we will not succeed as we should.

Some parents truly care what happens in the classroom on Sunday. Their children come eager to learn and develop their Jewish identities through the lessons we prepare, the activities we offer, and the extras we provide. You can tell a lot from the child who is at Temple on time, who doesn't talk back to the teacher, who responds and leads in class. You can tell that the parents care.

This is what Temple Tots is going to do for us in the long run. Parents are going to see once again that Jewish learning is fun and important. The parents who chose to enroll in this new program do not just drop their children off. They come into the building. How exciting! Maybe as these children move through their Jewish education at T.A.I., the parents will keep on coming to class, asking questions, learning right along with the children, and taking the information home to make a part of their secular Jewish lives in the every day world.

My hat is off to Sandy Adland, who teaches this class, for making real a dream of parent education in our Religious School classroom. The challenge is to see if we can do more. My hat is off to the parents who come and care what happens both on Sundays and at the committee meetings. We need new, interested, committed, and creative souls to move us toward the year 2000. My hat is still on though as dozens of parents still need to come forward to give us their time and talent and strength.

Finally, I salute our Religious School staff who teaches each Sunday: from the 4 year old program through Confirmation; to the teachers of Hebrew, music, art, the aides and assistants. Everyone comes together to make Sunday work. On November 4, 1994, we will recognize our Religious School staff and say thank you. This will take place during our 3rd annual Teacher's Shabbat Service beginning at 8 PM. Dr. Peter Flynn, the new superintendent of Fayette County Schools, will speak during the service. Families are encouraged to bring their child's teacher(s) to the service. I want to show our children that secular Jewish education is as important as their religious Jewish education, that their teacher on Sunday is as important as the teacher on Monday. By having all the teachers in the sanctuary together at one time, public school and Jewish school, I believe we will accomplish this feat.

To Adam Miller,

I apologize to you and your family for not recognizing you publicly for your beautiful reading of the Torah at the Yom Kippur Afternoon Service. You honor us by accepting this mitzvah. With all of the things I needed to remember, I erred in not thanking you. The fault is completely mine. All of the Temple Adath Israel community appreciates your undertaking the job of reading the Torah.

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Jon Adland

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Our preschoolers have had a very busy month. They're adjusting beautifully to their environment, their new friends, and their daily schedule. The 4 year old class covered units on families, their animal friends, and the five senses. Activities in the 3 year old class centered around shapes, colors, gardens and families. The classes also learned about the Jewish holidays. Students in the 2 1/2 year old class are learning many new skills, particularly in the area of vocabulary development and self expression. Our teachers continue to foster awareness and curiosity about the world in which the children live.

Hanukkah is early this year. With that in mind, I hope you'll attend our Annual Book Fair on October 16th from 9:45 AM to 2 PM. This is a wonderful opportunity to do your Hanukkah shopping early.

Kroger Certificates are available every Sunday morning at the beginning and end of Religious School. They can be obtained any other time by contacting Sandy Adland at 269-2979. Thanks to all of you who continue to support our preschool through this program.

3rd Annual Teachers'
Shabbat Service
November 4, 1994
at 8 PM

At this special Shabbat Service, we will recognize this year's Religious School staff and welcome and honor our children's public and private school teachers

Our special guest will be
Dr Peter Flynn,
Superintendent of Fayette County Schools who will deliver the sermon

Everyone is encouraged to bring a teacher to Temple that evening. It is an opportunity to introduce our children's teachers to Judaism.

TAI TO HOST THIS YEAR'S COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE ON NOV. 23, 7 PM. This service is held in cooperation with Good Shepherd Episcopal, Second Presbyterian, Woodland Christian, Park United Methodist, Faith Lutheran, Chevy Chase Baptist, and Christ the King. Everyone who attends is asked to bring a few canned food items. An offering to the Hope Center will be held during the service. Last year's service was standing room only.

The TAI Religious School in cooperation with LEXTY will hold a used and/or new toy drive the first two Sundays in Dec. Watch the bulletin and flyers for further details. Let's put those old toys to a good use.

HANUKAH POT LUCK DINNER AND LEXTY SHABBAT SERVICE DEC. 2

The annual Hanukkah Shabbat Pot Luck Dinner will be held Dec. 2, beginning at 6:15 PM. Bring all your menorahs, 7 candles for each one, and a main dish and either latkes or a side dish. RSVP TO TAI BY NOV. 30. Let's join together and celebrate as a community.

RYAN COLE - A MITZVAH

In Jewish law, cruelty to animals is forbidden. This is called "Tza'ar Ba'alei Hayyim" -- mercy for animals. The Bible says that animals are part of God's creation towards which human beings bear responsibility. For example, it is forbidden for humans to eat before feeding their animals. And animals, like humans, are commanded to rest on the seventh day.

As a result, for my Bar Mitzvah I decided to become involved with the Humane Society because I wanted to do something that would have a positive effect on my local community and help me identify with an important mitzvah.

The Humane Society is 112 years old. When it first began it didn't only take care of animals, but also abused children. Today, they take care of stray and abused animals and put them up for adoption.

The Humane Society gets most of its money and supplies from donations. To celebrate my Bar Mitzvah, I would appreciate it if you could help me help them by bringing any of the following items to the Temple lobby. There will be a collection box available from October 15th until the weekend of my Bar Mitzvah:

KMR Kitten formula (or equivalent)
Esbialac Puppy Formula (or equivalent)
Dry Kitten or Cat Food
Dry Puppy or Dog Food
Hamster & Gerbil Food

Maxwell St. Presbyterian Church and Temple Adath Israel to conduct a special six week class titled Thinking and Working Together

Rabbi Adland and Rev. Dana Jones will lead a special interfaith six-week course in theology and spirituality beginning mid-January through the end of February on Thursday evenings. This class is based on a study guide called Thinking and Working Together. The study guide is prepared by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and The National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. Five to ten people from the Temple community are needed to make the class possible.

If you are interested in being a part of this class, contact Rabbi Adland at 269-2979. The dates are January 19 - February 23. The classes will be held at the church and Temple.

In this corner...

Temple Adath Israel is a good congregation and a good community. There exist a variety of programs for our Temple membership ranging from Adult Education to youth education. There are youth groups that meet periodically. Sisterhood holds its monthly meetings. Worship services are conducted every Erev Shabbat and on Shabbat mornings when there is Torah Study. Social Action is a part of who we are and how we relate to the secular world. Life cycle events are celebrated. All of this is good, but I believe that it is time that we consider moving beyond good to become an outstanding congregation.

I recently received a booklet published by a group called "Avi Chai." The title of the booklet is "Creating an Environment That Transforms Jewish Lives: A Programmatic Resource Book." I read through this booklet and realized and recognized the powerful vision of some rabbis and congregations who are trying to grapple with the contemporary American Jewish experience. This is an experience of lessening Jewish identification, less Jewish participation, less Jewish commitment to today and tomorrow. After reading this booklet I am now convinced that, like the vision of the Jewish communities noted in the booklet, we can be an even more active community, embracing more people into our midst, involving more people into our offerings and inner workings, reaching beyond the limits that presently exist for ourselves. If this idea of community growth, growth as in spirit, programs, opportunities, personal Jewish development, is important to you as a member of Temple Adath Israel, then read on as I present a vision of what we as a community can become. If you are content with the Temple as it is, then this vision of possibilities will not be important to you. Stopping here will not affect your life as a current member. Temple will continue to serve your needs tomorrow as it does today.

First, I believe that we must begin with Shabbat. Shabbat must be more than a worship service, it must be a transforming experience that moves someone from the every day world into the realm of holiness and spirituality and rest. Regular Shabbat dinners could be held as teaching opportunities for the Shabbat worship, as well as sharing traditions of celebrating Shabbat every week at home. As a Jewish community, we should not only be able to recite kiddush and bless the candles and sing motzi, but we should be able to sing zemirot (Shabbat melodies), understand the nature of Shabbat, sing the blessing at the end of the meal, and learn to make havdalah on Saturday night. How wonderful it would be to have a Shabbaton, a weekend Shabbat experience, a few times a year where everyone is thinking about the holiness of Shabbat and not about that day's sports schedule.

Second, I would love to see Temple as a place of study not only for children, but adults. I am not speaking of Adult Education as we now have it, but on a larger scale with courses offered on Sunday mornings, Tuesday evenings, Wednesday at noon, in people's homes, in the Temple library or conference room. We also need to look beyond the confines of the Temple's walls to new opportunities for study and, along with this, Jewish spiritual, emotional, and intellectual growth. The idea of having learning fairs at Temple once a year so that we can delve deeper into serious aspects of celebrating and living a Jewish life should be commonplace and not extraordinary on our schedule. Jewish camping trips which harmonize a Shabbat with Jewish learning could be a possibility. We must find a way to make Jewish learning for adults accessible, inviting, and important.

Third, our Social Action program must expand to encompass more issues, as well as more community involvement. I dream of the day when our building is in constant use by people tutoring those who need help, cooking for those who need food, and maybe even sheltering those who are cold. In several congregations, the idea of a Mitzvah Day, when the congregation is involved with a variety of service/social action projects on a single day, becomes a yearly event in their community. We have nothing to be ashamed about as far as community involvement is concerned. The HOPE Center, God's Pantry, Habitat for Humanity, CKBC all benefit from our willingness to care, but there is so much more that we can do.

Sandy has a dream of a Sukkah in every backyard. I have a dream of the holidays and holy days becoming more important than they are today. We know what the Jewish holidays are and what they mean, but we turn aside from celebrating them beyond a basic acknowledgment. Why can't we work to fulfill Sandy's dream and spend a day going from home to home, looking at each other's handiwork? Why can't we come together on Simchat Torah and celebrate with fervor the source of our laws, ethics, morality, and history? I would love to have a time when we not only celebrate, but study these holidays learning what they mean and can mean to us.

Finally, I have a vision of participation in all the above that the building couldn't hold all the people who want to attend an event. I see every woman joining Sisterhood, every man joining brotherhood, every eligible child participating in youth group.

If anyone in this congregation shares my vision or beliefs that we can transform this congregation from a good one to an outstanding one, then let me know. I am looking for people willing to help stir the pot with me. I cannot do it alone. I need people willing to commit to become part of a programming team that reaches beyond the individual programming committees to encompass and embrace them all. The possibilities are endless. I am not looking for another long range task force, but for people willing to dive into a serious project, follow it through, and work to have positive, powerful results. The opportunity for change is now. Call me and tell me that you want to see Temple Adath Israel grow and change too.

Lauren K. Weinberg Humanitarian Award Nominations sought

The National Conference (formerly the National Conference of Christians and Jews) is accepting nominations for the Lauren K. Weinberg Humanitarian Award. The eligibility and criteria for the award are as follows:

ELIGIBLE: Any person or organization in the Bluegrass region of recognized integrity who is deemed to be considered worthy, a builder of brotherhood/sisterhood, one who promotes better relations between persons of different groups, races, religions and nationalities, and who represents an active force for better understanding.

CRITERIA: The nominee or nominees shall demonstrate that he/she/they:

- A) have advanced the objectives of The National Conference;
- B) are recognized for achievements in combating bigotry and prejudice;
- C) have shown specific contributions to better intergroup human relations;
- D) will bring, in turn, honor and recognition to the work of The National Conference - a model to be recognized and emulated by all.

To make a nomination based on the above, contact The National Conference office at 277-4434 to receive the appropriate form.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Religious School is well under way. In addition to greeting our returning teachers, we welcomed some new ones this year - Cheri Rose, Tonya Sommer and Michael Sommer. Sandy Heymann is returning after taking a year off. Our 8th grade Ethics teacher, Sara Hoffman will be teaching the Art program. Jenny Silberman joined us to be an aide in the Kindergarten class.

The "Temple Tots" program (taught by Sandy Adland, for 2-3 year olds and their parents) has had two exciting classes so far. In September they learned about Sukkot (they build and decorated a beautiful Sukkah!). The October class held a mock Shabbat, enhanced by their hand-decorated Challah covers.

The new music program "To See the World Through Jewish Eyes", is bringing lots of smiles to the students as Sandy Adland plays songs which relate to each class's curriculum. Sara Hoffman's Art program has the children making beautiful and creative treasures.

Tonya Sommer will be teaching Fannie Miller's 8th grade class during her absence and Lauren Higdon is filling in for Tonya's 3rd grade class.

NOTE TO RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PARENTS:

For drop-off/pick-up of your child(ren), please enter through the North driveway and exit from the South (main drive) driveway. Entry through the North entrance is safer for cars and pedestrians. Thank you adhering to this policy.

FROM THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CLASSES

2nd Grade - Cheri Rose, Teacher

The Second Grade is off to a wonderful start. We talked about the traditions associated with Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur at the beginning of the year.

For Sukkot, we talked about what we were thankful for and prepared our own Israeli flags for Simchat Torah.

The last two weeks, we have focused on those activities in our lives that give us the most joy and more constructive ways to deal with our anger.

Hanukkah is coming up and we are looking forward to it.

Religious School Toy Drive Set for December 4-11

Temple Adath Israel's Religious School, in cooperation with Senior High Group, will be and new toys Dec. 4-11. If anything they please bring it to Temple during this week. These toys and games will be distributed to needy children throughout Lexington.

TAI TO HOST THIS YEAR'S COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE ON NOV. 23, 7 PM.

This special Thanksgiving eve interfaith service is held in cooperation with Good Shepherd Episcopal, Second Presbyterian, Woodland Christian, Park United Methodist, Faith Lutheran, Chevy Chase Baptist, and Christ the King. This is the second year that these same churches are participating. Everyone who attends is asked to bring a few canned food items. An offering to the Hope Center will be held during the service. Last year's service, at Faith Lutheran Church, was standing room only.

Please mark your calendar and let us give thanks as a spiritual and religious community.

ODETTE DUTTON

Odette Dutton was born in Morocco and came to the US in 1964. She lived in Hartford, CT and Rochester, NY prior to moving to Lexington.

Her oldest daughter, Patricia Queen, graduated from Wesleyan University in CT and is married and lives in Michigan. Patricia's first child is Odette's first grandchild. Odette's son, David is married and lives in Hawaii where he is stationed with the Marine Corps. Her youngest daughter, Nicole, is attending UK and majoring in business.

Odette's sister and her family live in Israel and her brother still lives in Morocco.

Odette enjoys speaking French since she is bilingual, reading novels, Jewish history and philosophy, traveling, walking, listening to classical music and playing tennis.

The Temple family welcomes Odette to the community and the Temple.

SISTERHOOD BOARD MEETING

Monday, December 12, 7:30 PM

TAI SISTERHOOD NEWS

On Wednesday, October 19th, we held an informal gathering for members of Sisterhood. It was nice to see new members. Thank you Cheri Rose for a fun evening.

As a fund raising event this year, the Sisterhood Board decided to be substitutes at Bluegrass Bingo. It will involve approximately 12 volunteers at any one time. We will have 3 or 4 days notice to get our volunteers together. If interested, please call me at 269-1657 if I haven't called you.

Also, we are in the process of organizing the fund raising committee. Your help and input is needed if we are to fulfill our financial commitment to the Religious School this year.

Shalom,
Starr Gantz, President

LEADERSHIP ENRICHMENT PROGRAM OPEN TO ALL

The Temple has initiated a Leadership Enrichment program which is open to all members of the congregation. The program, which is conducted by Andy Weiner, consists of one Sunday morning session each month through April. Each session will be designed to maximize group participation.

The following is the schedule of programs for the year:

- Sunday, November 13, 10:00am/11:45am - Issues in Consensus Decision Making, Part I;
- Sunday, December 11, 10:00am/11:45am - Issues in Consensus Decision Making, Part II;
- Sunday, January 8, 10:00am/11:45am - Perspectives on Temple Leadership with Ben Baker, Cheri Rose and Rob Rosenstein;
- Sunday, February 12, 10:00am/11:45am - Resolving Conflict Constructively (RSVP required 2 weeks prior if you wish an instrument to analyze your conflict resolution style);
- Sunday, March 12, 10:00am/11:45am - Facilitating Effective Meetings;
- Sunday April 9, 10:00am/11:45am - Effecting Organizational Change;

NOTE - Participation in the Team Challenge Course (Ropes Course) is an option if there is sufficient interest.

The knowledge gained through this program will be applicable not only to Temple leadership positions but to general personal and professional situations as well. Participation in all sessions is not required, but certainly encouraged. If you are interested in taking part in any or all of these sessions, please contact Andy Weiner or the Temple office.

A HANUKKAH GLOSSARY

HANUKKAH - A Hebrew word meaning "dedication". When the Jews had sent the Syrians down to final defeat, their first act was to cleanse the Temple in Jerusalem and remove the various pagan symbols and idols from it. They then held a ceremony dedicating the Temple once again to God. The holiday derives its name from the ceremony.

JUDAH MACCABEE - The name comes from the first letters of the Hebrew prayer Mi Kamocha Ba-elim Adonai ("Who is like Thee, O Lord!") inscribed on the Maccabean battle banner. Another reason that Judah was called the Maccabee is that he struck with the force of a mighty hammer. The Hebrew word for hammer is "makav". Judah became known as "The Hammer" or The Maccabee.

MACCABEES - Hebrew soldiers who fought the Syrians. Named after their leader, Judah the Maccabee.

MENORAH - Hanukkah candle holder. Contains places for 8 candles and a 9th candle, the shamus, is raised above the others. Each of the 8 candles represents one of the 8 days of Hanukkah.

DREIDEL - A four-sided top used on Hanukkah. Each side has a different Hebrew letter: nun, gimmel, hay, and shin. This stands for "Nes gadol ha-ya sham" ("A great miracle happened there").

SHAMUS - Helper candle used to light all the other candles.

LATKES - Potato pancakes. Traditional Hanukkah delicacy.

MATTATHIAS the Hasmonean - Priest who started revolt against the Syrians. Father of Judah Maccabee.

EIGHT WAYS TO CELEBRATE HANUKKAH

Let the first night be BIG GIFT night.

On this night the parents supply gifts to the children.

Let the second night be MOMMY night.

On this night let the family honor and give gifts to the mother.

Let the third night be DADDY night.

On this night let the family honor and give gifts to the father.

Let the fourth night be POEM night.

Let each member of the family write or choose a favorite poem.

Let the fifth night be SMALL GIFT night.

On this night let each member of the family give a gift and get one.

On this night let each member of the family give a gift and get one.

Let the sixth night be a GIFT OF SELF night.

On this night let each one promise to do something nice for the family.

Let the seventh night be WORD night.

On this night let each one find and teach the family a new word.

Let the eighth night be GIFT OF GIVING night.

On this night let each one give a gift to a favorite Tzedakah.

THE STORY OF HANUKKAH

After the death of Alexander the Great (323 B.C.E.) his Empire was divided into two smaller kingdoms - Egypt to the south and Syria to the north.

In the year 175 B.C.E. there arose a new king in Syria - Antiochus IV. He was a harsh ruler and treated all those whom he conquered cruelly.

Antiochus sent officers to the cities of Judea to proclaim, "The king has ordered all his kingdom to become one people and that everyone should forsake his own laws and his own religion." The king commanded the people to break the Sabbath and ignore the holy Jewish festivals. He instructed the Jews to ignore their prayers and religious practices. An idol was placed on the altar of God and incense burned in its honor.

The king's officer came to the city of Modin and said to Mattathias, a priest who dwelt in Modin, "You are a great man and well-known in the city. Come and fulfill the king's command and you shall be counted among the king's friends." But Mattathias turned to the officer and answered in a loud voice, "Neither I or my sons nor any faithful Hebrews will ever worship an idol."

The Syrian officer called for another volunteer. When, in the sight of all the people, one of the Jews came forward to sacrifice to the idol, Mattathias was filled with anger, and struck him down.

Then Mattathias leaped to the top of the altar and shouted, "All those who are faithful to the Lord, follow me."

One of Mattathias' sons, Judah (called "The Maccabee"), became the commander-in-chief of the Hebrew army and led the people into battle. Never did people fight more bravely against such odds. Because they were dedicated to their religious heritage and to the principles for which it stood, they were filled with the courage and strength to achieve the final victory.

Judah, his brothers and all loyal Jews came to rededicate the Temple in Jerusalem. However, when the people gathered to celebrate the "rededication" the High Priest could find only one small jar of Holy oil with which to light the Ner Tamid (the Eternal Light). This was just enough oil to burn for one day. Then it was that a wondrous thing occurred. For the oil in the lamp burned for eight days!

In remembrance of this great occasion, Hanukkah - the Feast of Dedication - is observed every year for eight days, beginning with the twenty-fifth day of the month of Kislev.

Since the time of the Maccabees the battle for religious freedom has been fought over and over again throughout the world. After each victory, grateful men, women and children have dedicated themselves to their traditions and kept alive the remembrance of the struggle for religious freedom. As we celebrate the festival of Hanukkah, this year and every year, let us always give thanks for the freedom which our ancestors won so bravely. May we always treasure this precious possession, and ever seek to build a world in which all people may live in freedom and peace.

The candles are placed in the Hanukkah Menora from right to left and kindled from left to right.

(On the first night only)

As the Shamus (servant) candle is kindled, we si each day: As one candle may kindle many othe and yet lose none of its own light, so Judaism ha kindled the light of truth for many religions in m lands and still shines brightly through the eyes.

FIRST NIGHT - FREEDOM

We kindle these Hanukkah lights in memory of the dedication and courage of the Maccabees. Believing that they should be free t worship God as their hearts and minds dictated, willingly gave their lives for freedom. Now, kin these candles, we rededicate ourselves to work for the equal rights of all people, and for the realization of a society of democracy and freedom.

SECOND NIGHT - FAMILY

Tonight as we celebrate Hanukkah together we are conscious of our precious gift of family. So often we take one another for granted, forgetting to express our love and devotion. Let us, now, as we kindle these festive lights rededicate ourselves to sharing our interests and time with one another. Like the Maccabees of old, let us always face the tribulations and the joys of life united by our family bonds. Kindling these lights, we pray that through kindness and thoughtfulness, our love for one another will increase from strength to strength.

THIRD NIGHT - TORAH

On the third night of Hanukkah, we rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition. As the Maccabees courageously fought to preserve our faith, we, too are duty-bound to sustain our heritage by deepening our understanding of it through study. By increasing our knowledge of Judaism we have become more sensitive to its abiding values, more aware of our responsibility to realize these values in our society. Study opens our minds and fortifies us against tyranny. Learning secures our freedom. Let us, then, as we kindle these candles rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition.

FOURTH NIGHT - HOPE

Our ancestors have taught us that in hope a person's future is illumined and made creative. Ours are times when many people live in fear and great despair. Like the Maccabees, we need to build our lives on hope. Hope that ultimately, truth will triumph over superstition and confidence, that trust and understanding will finally depose superstition and tyranny. Now as we kindle these Hanukkah lights, may our eyes be directed to the loftiest visions of our faith.

FIFTH NIGHT - CHARITY

Our tradition tells us that during the Maccabean war for freedom, all Jews, both children and adults, contributed toward the cause of defeating the oppressor. There are many forms of oppression still existent in our world today. There are people afflicted by sickness, hunger, ignorance and prejudice. Tonight we, like our ancestors, put aside gifts of Tzedakah in order that we, too, may help to bring an end to oppression. We pray that the humble gifts we offer will provide food for the hungry, medicine for the sick, knowledge for the ignorant, and equal opportunity for those afflicted by prejudice. Now as we kindle our Hanukkah lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the ideal of Tzedakah, righteousness and justice, found in our Jewish tradition.

SIXTH NIGHT - SHALOM

The candles of Hanukkah remind us of our chosen mission as Jews. Like the Maccabees we seek to rededicate ourselves to the service of God. Today one of our foremost tasks is to secure peace in our troubled world. When we end disagreements through mutual understanding, when we seek to mend hurt and wounded feelings, we make peace a living idea. Then let us, as we kindle our Hanukkah candles, rededicate ourselves with renewed strength to the task of securing peace.

SEVENTH NIGHT - BROTHERHOOD & SISTERHOOD

Brotherhood and Sisterhood is founded upon a total respect for the liberty and freedom of all people. The Maccabees of old sought to protect themselves when their rights were violated. Our Hanukkah lights serve as a reminder that peace is secure only when we honor the precious liberty and property of our fellow neighbor. As we kindle these lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the cause of peace which alone can bring dignity to all everywhere.

EIGHTH NIGHT - FAITH

Tonight we kindle all the candles of our Hanukkah Menorah. Throughout the centuries the Menorah has been a symbol of our Jewish faith. Like the Maccabees, when they celebrated this festive holiday, we rededicate ourselves to the living of a more meaningful Jewish life. We pray that throughout this coming year, we may fulfill the ideals of freedom, Tzedakah, family, study, hope, shalom, brotherhood and sisterhood, all of which are symbolized by the candles of our Menorah.

HANUKKAH SONGS

MAOZ-TZUR - ROCK OF AGES

Ma-oz tsur y-shu-ati l-cha na-ch l-sga-be-ach
Ti-kon bet te-fi-la-ti v'sham to-dah n'za-be-ach
L'et ta-chin mat-be-ach mi-tzar ham-na-be-ach
(Az eg-mor be-shir miz-mor cha-nu-kat ha-miz-be-ach) 2

Rock of Ages, let our song Praise Thy saving power;
Thou, a-midst the raging foes, Wast our shelt-ring tower.
Furious, they assailed us, But Thine arm availed us,
And Thy word... Broke their sword...
When our own strength failed us.

O HANUKKAH, O HANUKKAH

O Hanukkah, O Hanukkah
Come light the menorah!
Let's have a party,
We'll all dance the horah.

Gather 'round the table,
We'll give you a treat,
Dreidels to play with,
And latkes to eat.

And while we are playing
The candles are burning low
One for each night
They shed a sweet light,
To remind us of days long ago.

MY DREIDEL

I have a little dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
And when it's dry and ready
Then dreidel I shall play.

O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Now dreidel I shall play.

It has a lovely body,
With leg so short and thin;
And when it is all tired,
It drops and then I win.

O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
With leg so short and thin;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It drops and then I win.

My dreidel is always playful,
It loves to dance and spin.
A happy game of dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.

O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It loves to dance and spin,
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE FOR THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE

Entering 4th through 10th grade children from synagogues across the Midwest are currently being enrolled for the coming summer program at our regional U.A.H.C. Camp, The Goldman Union Camp Institute. DON'T LET YOUR CHILD MISS THIS CHANCE TO JOIN IN THE FUN AND FRIENDSHIP OF G.U.C.I. A four week session at Goldman Camp is a unique experience. Campers participate in a full range of sports, arts, and Jewish programs, all offered within the exciting and motivating atmosphere of a Reform Jewish community of young people. There is simply no other experience like it.

Find out more about this wonderful opportunity for your child by picking up a 1995 Goldman Camp brochure from the Temple office, or call the camp directly at ☎ (317) 873-3361.

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

DUNBAR CREATIVE PLAYGROUND

The Dunbar Creative Playground endeavor was a great success in part, due to the enthusiastic Temple volunteers. Thanks to all.

A HAPPY THANKSGIVING

As an expression of Tzedakah, the Religious School children joined with the Social Action Committee to provide Thanksgiving dinners for eight families in our community.

Baskets including fresh turkeys and all the trimmings were assembled and decorated by the children.

Thank you to all who coordinated the efforts and to all those who participated.

WE NEED NEW BLOOD!

Mark your calendars for December 11th for the Annual Temple/Synagogue Blood Drive from 9 AM to 12:30 PM at Ohavay Zion Synagogue. Let's try to beat last year's goal of 30 donors and expand to new donors as well.

Light refreshments will be served. It must be eight (8) weeks since you as a donor last gave blood.

If there are any questions concerning blood donations, call the Temple office or the Kentucky Blood Center for any explanations you may need.

HOPE CENTER NEEDS YOUR HELP

In addition to our usual commitment to serving at the Hope Center on the first Monday of the month, we will also be participating in the following: On December 25, Sunday, we will be cooking and serving breakfast. If you would like to help, you should plan to be at the Hope Center between 7 and 7:30 AM. We usually are done by 9 AM.

January 2nd is the first Monday of the month, also one of the twelve days of Christmas. We will be providing the food, preparing, serving and cleaning up after dinner. If you would like to help in the preparation and/or serving, plan to be at the Hope Center around 5 PM. We begin serving at 6 PM and should be done with cleanup by 7:30 PM.

We are also to provide goody bags to pass out with dinner and, if possible, provide some kind of entertainment.

Call Cookie Wenneker at 269-4221 or Lowell Nigoff at 278-5220 as soon as possible if you would like to help. NO EXPERIENCE REQUIRED.
