IN THIS CORNER

Last month I wrote an article encouraging the membership of this congregation to consider looking at a new vision of ourselves as a congregation. I wanted us to rethink the way we do our programming and the kinds of programs we offer. I put forward the argument that we needed to become more inclusive of everyone in our community, to consider new avenues of spirituality and celebration, become more active in Tikkun Olam, our Jewish responsibility to repair the world. The article concluded by asking anyone interested in working on this project to step forward and call me.

I assumed that a large number of people shared my desire to help move this congregation in new and expanded directions by organizing programs that are not only for the young or old or gender specific, but to bring together a cross section of our community at any given time to celebrate, learn, and rejoice. My expectation was not realized. Only a handful of people showed interest in this idea of creating a new, more vibrant, expanded living Jewish community and congregation. I want to thank the few that said yes and guess at the reasons more didn't volunteer.

I can see three reasons for the lack of response, though there may be many others. One reason people didn't volunteer is that they thought the vision was ill-conceived. These people read the article and either dismissed it or thought it wrong. The second reason people didn't volunteer is that they thought the other person was going to volunteer, take the leadership role, and do what he or she has always done. Let me assure you that, for the most part, the individuals who volunteered to help did not come from those who have or are serving in positions of leadership in our congregation. Those who said yes are quiet people desiring to see this experiment we call Judaism be maintained and strengthened. The third reason people didn't volunteer is because they see no reason for this congregation to make any changes at all. Either the programs are fine or why rock the boat.

In this corner...

My friends, let me tell you that Jewish life in this country is undergoing a tremendous struggle to maintain any sense of stability. The most publicized aspect of the pressures on contemporary Jewish life is intermarriage. We read about the rate of intermarriage, but rarely do we discuss the long term ramifications of such unions. Let us not be fooled though, the issue of intermarriage in determining the future of American Jewish life is only the tip of the iceberg. More pressing is the decrease of seriously educated Jews; the decrease of Jewish financial support of the Synagogues and Temples; the overall number of Jews who attend Shabbat worship; the overall number of Jews who can't encourage their Jewish teenager children to attend worship, study, youth group or camp because it conflicts with their secular lives; the declining participation in Temple auxiliaries such as Brotherhood and Sisterhood, and so on.

If we are a congregation that is serious about making Jewish life a viable personal, spiritual, and community experience, then we must address the issues as a congregation and find a better, more vibrant and contemporary way of creating a living Jewish community. This means encouraging individuals from every corner of our congregation to say, "Yes, I want to make Jewish life more meaningful for me and my children, my friends and relatives". This cannot be done by a few people sitting around thinking out loud. It will take a host of individuals who are willing to think, act, be committed, and see things through to a positive, uplifting final result.

If you need to be invited to participate, then I am inviting you. I need you. If you are overwhelmed with personal commitments, then remember Temple needs your time too. Whatever it takes, please consider this a priority, consider Temple a priority. Everyone's voice will be heard and in the end lives might be affected, uplifted, or changed.

Please call me at Temple and say yes to making Temple Adath Israel a model for Jewish living.

The study guide is prepared by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and The National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. Five to ten people from the Temple community are needed to make the class possible.

If you are interested in being a part of this class, contact Rabbi Adland at 269-2979. The dates are January 19 - February 23. The classes will be held at the church and Temple.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

The challenges and responsibilities I find myself confronted with as President are well known by most. The immediate challenges facing Temple Adath Israel are membership and participation. I am more confident than ever of this congregation's determination to prosper. Faced with continuing erosion of attachment to Jewish life, it is now more important than ever to continue to sustain your Temple through participation in its numerous activities, interaction within the Jewish community and financial support where and when possible.

When confronted with the hard choices, this congregation, under the leadership of a strong, courageous Board, stepped up and made a decision for the future of the Temple. This month you will be receiving a letter outlining the new membership contribution (dues) policy. Please take time to read this letter. Numerous hours were expended in individual, committee and Board meetings in an effort to establish a fair policy which insures continued excellence of the services and programs provided by your Temple. Your continued input through members of the Board and by personal participation on committees is not only requested, but necessary for the future of this congregation. Thank you for your support.

President

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Judy Wurmser Higdon

The Religious School students joined the Social Action Committee in providing Thanksgiving dinners to eight families in our community. Baskets, decorated by the students, were generously filled with food for the holiday.

Hanukkah arrived and the youth celebrated by participating in a door decorating contest. All of the entries were very creative! The two winners (2nd and 8th grades) received ice cream sundae parties. All classes enjoyed potato latkes (lovingly prepared by several parents, THANKS!!) on December 4th.

Religious School will resume on January 8, 1995 following our winter break. We will not have Religious School on January 15th, but will resume again on January 22nd.

BAD WEATHER NOTE: In case of bad weather, each teacher will activate their telephone tree to notify students. A message will be placed on the Temple answering machine regarding the opened/closed status for the day.

SECOND GRADE CLASS

Cheri Rose, Teacher

The second grade has been having a wonderful time celebrating Hanukkah and learning about the many traditions associated with it. We have shared our own families special traditions and taken them home to share.

In art we made menorahs to give to our families as a gift and learned the blessings for their lighting. We had a class discussion on bravery and the role that it played in Hanukkah. The children learned that if Judah Macabee and others had not stood up for their beliefs, an important kind of bravery, we would not have the wonderful holiday we have now.

Our class would like to thank a couple of people. First, to Adia Fine for providing us with latkes for our Hanukkah party. A very enjoyable treat. Secondly, to Chas Hite. Chas came in to sub the day of the door decorating contest and lead the second graders to a victory! The class was rewarded with an ice cream party for their efforts. I know they had a good time both days.

Jewish Identity in a Changing World

The 8th-10th Grade Retreat will take place February 3 & 4, at Temple Adath Israel.

This year's topic will explore the changing nature of Jewish Identity as we approach the end of the 20th century. The program begins Friday evening with a family Shabbat dinner and a program after services. Saturday, the 8th-10th graders arrive for about 6 hours of program, worship, and socializing.

This retreat is a required part of the Senior Block program.

4 YEAR OLD CLASS

Debbie Davidson, Teacher

The four-year old class has been having a lot of fun this year. We have been learning about Jewish holidays and Bible stories. We especially like cuddle time with Mrs. Adland. When we asked our four-year old class what their favorite part of Religious School was, we received the following answers:

Jordan Bryan - Watching Bible story movies

David Gerson - Snack (I'm sure this is because he likes to sing the blessing).

Aaron Javery - Art Time

Travis Lonsbury - Circle Time

David Osser - Watching Bible story movies

Allison Schneider - Everything we do

Ben Schrier - Watching Bible story movies

Tristin Smith - Circle Time

Katy Stoess - Playing with Aaron

Rachel Futoran - Everything we do

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

We've had an exciting and fun-filled semester thus far. Our preschoolers continue to grow by leaps and bounds, both socially and intellectually.

We have experienced several changes in our teaching staff since the beginning of our school year. New to our staff is Carol Tomko, who recently moved to the Bluegrass from Binghamton, NY. Carol enjoys her work as the Assistant Teacher for the 4 Year Old class, and the children love her! In January, Karla Frank will return to TAI Preschool as the Lead Teacher for that class. We welcome them both with great joy and enthusiasm. Our 2 1/2 Year Old Class, which now has eight children, will expand as 3 to 4 new students join our program in January.

Pre-enrollment for the 1995-96 school year begins this January. The schedule is as follows:

January 1 - February 1 - Pre-registration for class members and siblings. A sibling is defined as a sister or brother of a child attending TAI Preschool presently or who has graduated from the 4 year old class.

February 2 - March 1 - Pre-registration for Temple and Synagogue members, with Temple members securing priority.

March 2 - Pre-registration open to the public.

FROM THE UAHC BIENNIAL MEETING

I recently attended our Regional Biennial for the Union of American Hebrew Congregation in Nashville, TN. It was a wonderful opportunity to meet with other members of the Midwest council and to share in the lives of our varied congregations.

The theme of this year's regional was "Being Reform in the 21st Century". Our focus was not so much on being successful dues collectors but on making our congregations into houses of Judaism. Not an easy task in our busy and fast paced lives of today.

Our weekend started with a Shabbat dinner for the delegates, followed by a service led by the two Rabbis in Nashville. Two of the speakers captured what I feel are questions we, at Temple Adath Israel, should address. While our region includes parts of twelve states spanning three time zones from Knoxville, TN to Boulder, CO, it is all of us together, that will shape the future of Reform Judaism.

Stephen Pinsky, our region's head Rabbi, reminded us that "our synagogues are houses of God not because they contain sacred objects of our past, but because they uphold the ideals which the love of God implies and implores and impels". It is this heart of Judaism that will enable us to continue to thrive.

Many of us are asking what is happening to Reform Judaism? Are we moving from Classical Reform Judaism to the point that some of our members are feeling uncomfortable? What continues to distinguish us from the other branches of Judaism? In looking back to the dreams of Rabbi Issac Mayer Wise, it would seem that it is our continued ability to change to meet current needs that allows us to thrive.

In fact, many of our trends are changing. Last summer, 7,000 young people attended our Reform camps, making the Reform camping movement the largest in North America. There is an elevated level of Hebrew in our services and more individuals are choosing to worship with Tallit and Kipa. Just fifty years ago, women were not able to serve as ordained Rabbis. It was Reform Judaism that recognized the passing of tradition from father to child and not only mother to child. To quote Mel Merians, President of our Union, "It is the kind of innovation, not the amount of Hebrew we read, that is the hallmark of Reform Judaism. It is our willingness to allow for creative changes to meet the challenges confronting Judaism, not whether we wear kippot, that distinguishes us from the other major forms of Judaism".

We are still striving to make our worship services welcoming and inviting to all. Reform Judaism will continue to be a movement which challenges us, and each generation will develop their own way to express their beliefs.

I believe it is our charge, not to count the number of tallit, but to count the number of new members in our midst. To listen, not to the amount of Hebrew in our service, but to what our children and grandchildren say about Reform Judaism. They, not we, are our basis for evaluation.

Our region addressed the application of Beth Adam in Cincinnati and the implications of a humanistic congregation on our Union. We also addressed the proposed name change, to be voted on next year. It was felt that The Union of Reform Jewish Congregations, as opposed to the current Union of American Hebrew Congregations more aptly describes our movement.

None of these issues are ones that Temple Adath Israel can address alone. Through our membership in the Union and our continued dialogue with other member congregations, we will emerge even stronger and better able to meet the needs of our own congregants.

Cheri A. Rose, Board Member of UHAC Midwest Council

Thank You for the Supporting Teachers' Shabbat Service

I want to thank everyone who supported the 1994 Teachers' Shabbat Service. The turn out and enthusiasm made for a very meaningful and deeply religious experience for everyone in attendance. During the service, Dr. Flynn spoke eloquently, the TAI Makhela sang beautifully, and we recognized the TAI Religious School staff.

The service serves to help educate the school teachers of our children. Ignorance about Jewish life and practice is quite pervasive in this area. Bringing your child's teacher to this service will go a long way toward fostering harmony and deepening an understanding of Jewish life.

I hope that next year more children will invite and bring their teachers and principals. Thank you again for your support.

Tu bi-Shevat is called Rosh Hashana L'Ilanot - The New Year of Trees. The importance of tree planting in Israel is constant: to hold the soil together as the trees prevent wind and soil erosion, to screen out urban noise, and to absorb harmful industrial pollutants. They provide beauty to the land of Israel.

Jewish National Fund (JNF) plants trees throughout Israel, and this also gives much needed jobs to new olim. Since 1901, the Jewish National Fund has planted over 200 million trees and created 200 forests covering 200,000 acres in Israel. Tu bi-Shevat is an official holiday when thousands of Israelis plant trees in JNF forests and schools sponsor ceremonies for tree-planting throughout the land. This land which we hope is today on the road to true peace. In spite of all the obstacles and difficulties ahead, let up hope and pray that trees which are a symbol of peace - will be planted today and tomorrow as living proof that a new era, an era of peace, has indeed come to the Middle East and the world over.

If you would like to buy a tree, please complete the form below. Checks can be made out to the Lexington Chapter of Hadassah, as Hadassah handles JNF business in Lexington. Trees are also available year-round, please contact Sharon whenever your need arises.

SHABBAT SERVICES

IN THIS CORNER

In my endeavor to encourage this congregation to look toward tomorrow with eyes open to the many possibilities of new Jewish visions, it remains important for all of us to continue to look to see the trees and not just see the forest. In the next few bulletin articles, it is my goal to present the current situation or status of various parts of our community's life. After presenting those aspects, I will offer suggestions as to possible directions or ideas for us to consider. Some of these ideas may be significant departures from our present practice where others may just be minor variations on a theme. Regardless of the amount of change, it is time for us to go boldly into the future.

We must accept the fact that life in this country for Jews is changing. Inter-marriage is scraping away Jews who are only marginally connected to Judaism and Jewish life. They are forsaking their Jewish heritage for other paths that are laid in front of them. Jewish attrition is not new, but it is always sad. Our numbers cry out to the members of our heritage to remain connected and affiliated and active.

Where attrition sees Jews leaving our fold, assimilation continues to lower the priority of Judaism in the lives of Jews who are connected and affiliated, even if only marginally. The choices we have regarding everyday decisions reflects who we are. Many of us never consider the choice of Judaism as an option, or when it is weighed against the alternatives, the alternative wins. Economic realities find Jews offering less of their financial resources to help sustain synagogue budgets which are pared down as far as they can go without the existing life of the synagogue being threatened. If a synagogue wants programs, if it wants efficient management, the best teachers, choices and opportunities, then dollars or many, many volunteers are required. Without adequate resources, the synagogue building will become an empty shell.

Finally, the number of individual's committed to an active, vibrant, Jewish synagogue based life seems to be decreasing. Offering programs at which only a handful respond or asking for assistance with limited response may eventually cause the remaining core to become frustrated, apathetic or quit.

With the above as a premise, how do we conceive a congregation which will sustain the Jewish lives of our children, excite the present membership to participate, encourage many toward leadership, and provide a sound Jewish environment?

The first place to look is worship. Regardless of all the other parts of being a Jew, the first focus must be our covenant with God. It is how we began as a people. God called Abraham to go forth and establish a new people in a new land. Abraham understood that to accept this call was also an acknowledgment and acceptance of this one, universal, untouchable God. Since that moment we have sought ways to connect, relate, pray to this One God. We created a Temple with sacrifices to say thank you and I'm sorry. Our ancestors sought communal worship experiences through the early synagogue even as the sacrificial fires burned on Mt. Moriah. The rabbis projected the people's deepest religious and spiritual feelings in a series of set prayers and times for prayer.

The early Reformers attempted to modernize prayer by rewriting prayers to fit a new moral, social agenda. And, now in recent days, in all forms of Jewish life, communities strive to find new and creative ways of prayer.

In my next article I will explore some ideas I've seen, heard, discussed or thought about concerning Reform Jewish worship. The ideas of worship and prayer seem to offer enhanced opportunities for a greater spiritual center of worship.

ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES

B'NAI AVRAHAM V'SARAH TO BEGIN ON FEBRUARY 6TH

A course for Jews-by-Choice

Mondays 7-8:30 PM

Cost $10

Choosing Judaism as a way of life fulfills the spiritual yearning of many people. Preparations for the important moment of conversion may take more than a year with the appropriate studies and participation in the life of the existing Jewish community. When the process is completed, the Jew-by-choice is welcomed into the covenant of Abraham and Sarah, the covenant of the Jewish people with special ceremony and celebration.

Therefore, the concept of B'nai Avraham v'Sarah is to follow-up the conversion process with special sessions aimed at the specific needs of the Jew-by-choice. The course will be designed by those who are interested in participating in the five week experience. Except for an initial $10 fee, any costs will be handled on an as need basis.

The only prerequisite for this course is that the participant be a Jew-by-choice. Registration will take place during the month of January, to be completed no later than February 2nd. An initial preparatory meeting will take place on February 6th.

Class dates are: February 5, 27

March 6, 13, 20, 27

Thursday evenings. This class is based on a study guide called Thinking and Working Together. The study guide is prepared by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations,
The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and The National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. Five to ten people from the Temple community are needed to make the class possible.

If you are interested in being a part of this class, contact Rabbi Adland at 269-2979. The dates are January 19
- February 23. The classes will be held at the church and Temple.

VOLUME 62

NO. 12

15 ADAR I 5755

In this corner...

Is the glass half-empty or half-full when it comes to understanding the Shabbat worship experience at TAI? That depends on how you look at the glass. Many people judge a successful Shabbat by the number of people attending. If a successful worship experience is judged by the number of people attending, then the average attendance has easily doubled since my first years at TAI. If a successful worship experience is judged by the percentage of congregants attending a Jewish Shabbat service against the national average, then we are still ahead. If a successful worship experience is judged by the percentage of our congregants attending services, then we must ask why more people don't attend services. Our sanctuary holds more than 230 people. Attendance ranges between 60 and 90 people. Demographics are wonderful as individuals of all ages worship together Friday evenings. It presents the image of an extended family. Yet, there are too many empty seats which could and should be filled by members of our community coming together in prayer, community, and in the joy of celebrating Shabbat. Is the glass half-empty or half-full?

Another way to look at the worship experience at TAI is by the content and style of the services. Without question, many aspects of the worship experience have changed since I began leading services in 1986. Suffice it to say that members view the changes differently. There is more Hebrew in the service. The Haftarah portion is read regularly. Torah and/or sermons make up the teaching part of the service. The music is more contemporary and the congregation is singing more and more. Members are invited off of a long list to sit on the bimah. (Unless you are an officer or board of trustees member it may take as long as two years before your name is reached again on the list). Bimah participants are invited to participate in the service and many say yes. Children are encouraged to attend services with a once-a-month service dedicated to them. We say the Bircat Hachodesh each month at the appropriate time. There are conversions, wedding blessings, and baby namings. Is the glass half-empty or half-full?

People offer reasons, excuses, apologies for not attending services. Some say that services are too late and they are too tired after a long week of work. Some say that they are boring. Some say that they live too far away. Some say that it is because their children would be out too late. Many of these reasons may be valid, but there are many Temple members who anticipate the relaxation of a Shabbat service after a long work week. Some people are spiritually stimulated by the notion of prayer and responding to God. Distance for many of us is not an issue when it comes to other aspects of our lives. As one congregant recently said when discussing service attendance, "Napping our children in the afternoon would provide for an adventure of going to Temple in the evening."

Taking into account everything what I said above, it is time to ask where we want our Temple worship experience to be in a few years and how do we get there? At what point will our services be such that we don't even consider the glass half-empty, but when will it be full enough? In my opinion, the three components that contribute to a successful Shabbat worship experience are community, liturgy, and participation.

Community is an area that I believe we succeed in more often than not. I watch members of this congregation greet the "stranger in our midst" and escort him or her into our sanctuary. I see Temple members make sure that visitors have a siddur from which to pray and participate in the service. At the Oneg Shabbat, I see people milling about and speaking with others. There are times though that the eyes of a new congregant look to share the Shabbat experience with another Jew, but the stranger doesn't feel comfortable asking. There are times in the Oneg that the new person sits alone sipping hot tea waiting for a friendly smile and hello. Forming a complete community means without reservation asking the visitor to sit with you and joining the loner during the Oneg.

Community is also formed by attitude. We must work as a congregation to bring a positive, spiritual attitude with us into the sanctuary. There are times when Temple is for the mourner, the sad person, or a person contemplating weighty decisions. We must be there for them. Yet, there are those who come for the sheer joy of Shabbat. People must wear this outwardly, not stowing it away or hiding it. Knowing that in coming to Temple on Shabbat or on the High Holy Days you will walk into the midst of a community filled with the joy of Shabbat or the reverence of a Holiday will set the stage for a successful prayerful moment.

Liturgy is an area in which we can all grow together. Twenty years ago the Union Prayer Book was replaced by the Gates of Prayer or the New Union Prayer Book. In a few years, the Reform movement will publish another new prayer book. I am sure that it will produce two responses: some will like it; some will not like it. Rabbis don't possess the miracle answers to what makes a good prayer. As a congregation, over the next few years, we must look to produce worship services of our own reflecting the inner spiritual yearnings and journeys of our own membership. Many of us have read beautiful passages of prose or poetry which can be included as meditations or readings in a worship service.

When our children go to Reform Jewish camps, they write about their feelings of God, nature, camp, friendship, community, etc. These writings and readings are interspersed among traditional Jewish prayers. With music being sung as an entire community, voices lifted up to God, these children leave camp longing for the same spiritual experience at home. They don't find it. Though Temple is not the same environment as an outdoor chapel, the spiritual feeling of creating your own service can be duplicated leading all of us to a higher spiritual existence. We must seek to create liturgy which is meaningful, uplifting, comforting, exciting, and Jewish. No longer will we say services are boring. The services will be ours.

Finally there is the component of participation. On Shabbat mornings, after an hour of Torah study, we have a service that lasts about 30 minutes. For years I led this service and the rest of the people present acted as the congregation. Secretly I longed to involve other people. Finally, one Shabbat morning I asked who would like to read and since then, worship is not only led by me, but many others in attendance.

I believe that our Erev Shabbat worship must move in this direction as well. Along with new services that we create ourselves, along with a feeling of friendship and belonging, must be the feeling of ownership in the worship experience. Yes, the rabbi is trained to lead services, but this shouldn't preclude others from doing so as well. It doesn't need to happen only from the lectern, but a participant can stand up in his or her place and read a passage. I would love for others to volunteer months to read Torah, deliver a sermon, tell a story at Family Shabbat, or give a drash. The freedom to do this comes from ownership in the service and the opportunity comes from the rabbi who says that he or she doesn't need to be the focus, the central point in the sanctuary. God and Torah are the focus, the rabbi is a Jew praying with every other Jew.

The first thing I will do to accomplish this is to join the congregation in prayer. When everyone rises to recite the Shema or Avot v'Imahot, facing toward the Holy Ark, I too will face toward the Holy Ark. We are participating in this experience together. I want to pray with you, not at you. The second thing I must do is encourage any of you who wants to participate in a service to say so. If it is to give a sermon, read Torah, etc, tell me and we'll find a date. Eventually, hopefully soon, our sanctuary will be such that it is ours together.

Is the glass half-empty or half-full? The answer is hard to say, but with a look toward tomorrow and what it could be, the glass may be completely full always.

THE LITTLE THINGS COUNT

Temple Adath Israel needs everyone to pitch in a little bit in order to make this congregation function and run smoothly. Not everyone has time to do the long term volunteer jobs such as planning a major fundraiser, teaching religious school, serving as a board member or officer on one of the Temple's arms, running the gift shop, etc. There are many activities that need volunteers that are less time intensive and still make a big difference. Here is a Chai (18) list:

1. Set tables for a Shabbat dinner;
2. Volunteer as a Religious School Substitute;
3. Serve on a Temple Committee (most committees meet 3-5 times a year);
4. Drive for a youth group event;
5. Volunteer to be a Religious School room parent;
6. Usher at a Shabbat service;
7. Be an Oneg Shabbat host/hostess;
8. Participate in a Temple Social Action project such as serving at the HOPE Center one Monday;
9. Serve on a major Temple project by agreeing to do one specific job;
10. Volunteer to do clerical work in the Temple office one hour a month;
11. Take new member baskets to someone's home;
12. Shop for a Temple function;
13. Visit an elderly Temple member at home.
14. Call Temple and see what time limited things can be done;
15. Deliver pulpit flowers to someone who is ill, a shut-in, or in mourning;
16. Attend services;
17. Invite a new family in town to dinner;
18. Say yes!

SISTERHOOD NEWS

On January 18th, Steve Davis-Rosenbaum gave us a short but informative lecture on Judaica art. He then proceeded to help us work with clay to fashion our own unique mezuzzas and candlesticks. It was a fun and relaxing evening and I hope we can do it again next year.

To all of you who purchased tickets through the Triumvirate Alliance for "Sisters Rosensweig," thank you for your support.

The Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Sisterhoods is meeting in Louisville on March 5th & 6th for a Leadership Development Conference and Interim Board Meeting. If you would like to attend, please contact Starr Gantz, Sisterhood President, at 269-2657 as soon as possible.

From the Rabbi's Library

As many of you know, I have an extensive Jewish library in my Temple office. After receiving some books recently in the mail that possibly would benefit many of you in enhancing your Jewish lives, I realize that I should be sharing with you the titles of some of the books that I read and/or purchase. Therefore, each month I will feature a small article containing the titles and descriptions of books that might be useful in building a personal Jewish life, a Jewish library, and a strong Jewish home.

40 Things You Can Do To Save The Jewish People (Jason Aronson Inc., Northvale, NJ, 1995) is the latest book from the author/educator Joel Lurie Grishaver. Just listen to some of the table of contents which is divided into nine overall sections. Under Shabbat some of the sub-topics read: Do Not Make Them Go to Services; Create Reasons They'll Want to Go; or Always Insist that Shabbat Come First. Under Holiday Celebration it says: Make Kiddush and ha-Motzi on Thanksgiving; and Begin Your Passover Seder in the Kitchen and Finish the Second Half of the Seder for the Adults. Other topics include things such as A Jewish Home, Jewish Education, Dating and Marriage, and so on.

For children (small children), I just received the book Thank You, God!: a Jewish child's book of prayers (Kar-Ben Copies, Inc, Rockville, MD, 1993) by Judyth Groner and Madeline Wikler. It is a simple, well-illustrated book of Jewish prayers that come from a variety of holidays and different moments in a Jewish person's life. This book can be read at bed time and eventually used by the child as a reference book as he or she ages.

As I receive books that are useful, I will offer the titles and descriptions to you. I am sure that these books can be ordered from a bookstore such as Joseph-Beth.

Shmurah Matzah available

Shmurah matzah is available for your Passover seder by calling 1-800-746-8724. Shmurah matzah is matzah that is specially prepared under the strictest guidelines according to the Kosher for Passover dietary rules. The matzah is mixed, kneaded, rolled, scored and handbaked. A three piece set is $12.90 which includes shipping and handling. A full pound is available at $19.90.

Shmurah matzah is a great addition to your Passover seder.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES NOMINATIONS

The Nominating Committee for the Temple's Board of Trustees has been appointed. Members of the committee are Sam Silberman, Chairperson, David Doctrow, Toni Reiss, John Harrison, Chela Kaplan and Holly Barnhill.

In order to be valid and acceptable, the nominating petitions shall be mailed to the chairperson of the nominating committee and must be postmarked on or before the 15th of February.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE MEETING

The Social Action Committee will meet on Tuesday, February 21st at Temple. If you are interested in attending this meeting or have ideas for the Social Action, please feel free to attend. If you have ideas but cannot attend the meeting, call Cookie Wenneker at 269-4221 to give her your ideas.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Our Preschoolers continue to fill our classrooms with conversation and joyous laughter. They're learning to share, to problem solve and to get along with one another beautifully, in addition to absorbing a wealth of knowledge. During the month of February, the 2 1/2 and 3 year old classes will learn about space, friends, hats and homes. The four year old class will study animals that hibernate, nocturnal animals and pets. Our outstanding teachers continue to provide an exciting preschool experience for our children.

Our pre-registration process for the 1995-96 school year is now in progress. During the month of February, pre-registration is open to Temple Adath Israel and Ohavay Zion Synagogue members, and on March 2nd, pre-registration becomes open to the public. TAI Preschool offers a half day program for children ages 2 1/2 through 4. If you have questions or would like more information about our preschool, please call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 62

NO. 14

15 NISAN 5755

IN THIS CORNER...

Looking at our Adult Education program, I see success and failure. What I don't see is any plan or direction that builds from one year to the next. Over the last nine years we offered classes in a variety of Jewish subjects and taught classes that gave birth to Jewish ideas or fulfilled others people's Jewish dreams. As I review the process of Adult Education at TAI, I don't see any consistency or method for an individual participating in the program which would lead directly to building a strong foundation for living a Jewish life.

Blame for the lack of vision in creating an adult education is not the issue. As I read many Temple bulletins, I don't see a plan in their programs either. Sometimes a congregation is teaching the hot subject in Jewish thought at the time. Other congregations may be investing energy into studying the basics of Jewish life. Some have little things going on in a variety of places, but no common thread linking them together. It is time to examine what we need as a Jewish community in terms of continuing Jewish education and figure out a way to implement it.

The most successful programs at TAI are the classes for which an individual pays a tuition fee. Since 1986, over 150 people have participated in the Basic Judaism course and over 100 in the Introduction to Hebrew class. Four B'nai Mitzvah classes (adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah) and one B'nai Avraham v'Sarah class have completed their studies. All of these classes run for several weeks and charge a fee to cover materials. The other successful adult education program at TAI is the Saturday morning Torah Study. Beginning in 1986, we met once-a-month with about 10 participants. In 1987, this increased to twice-a-month with about the same number of people participating. In 1995, approximately 20+ individuals are attending Torah Study.

The grandest failures of the Temple Adult Education program are all of the noon time classes. We tried Bible Study, a study of the Prophets, and Talmud Study. None of the programs could draw more than a handful of people at any one time. The oddity behind the failure of these classes is that daytime classes are very successful in many other congregations.

Our Temple Adult Education consists of two other components. One is the scholar-in-residence program which is always successful, at least in part. Friday evening, at Shabbat Services, there is a nice turn out to hear the address. By Sunday morning, only a handful of individual attend the lecture.

MAZAL TOV!!!

To Dan Potter on winning the UK Intramural Ping Pong Championship.

Every year the Temple offers mini-courses. We have looked at the Bible, the New Testament, Reform Judaism, Talmud, Midrash, history, life-cycle events, and more. These mini-courses run from 2-4 weeks and are attended by 5-15 people. For a congregation of 500+ adults, 3% or less attendance is not very good.

Before moving on in this article, it should be stated that the Temple Book Discussion group continues as a separate learning opportunity at TAI and is a success for its longevity and in attendance. Also, Outreach, the program for Jews-by-Choice and intermarried couples continues to be a vital source of education at Temple.

I am not sure why members of this community don't attend the Adult Education program. One of the highest values in Jewish life is education/study. Study sustained the minds of our ancestors as they toiled in poverty stricken lives. Instead of giving in to the desolation, our ancestors continued to look at the holy tomes of the rabbis, add commentaries of their own, and expand their ability to think and reason. The government could take away their land, their possessions, expel them, abuse them, and harm them, but it couldn't take away the ability to think and reason and understand.

The generation of Jews who came to this country poor, dirty, and unknowing used their ability to think to pull themselves up and out of poverty in a society that encouraged individuals to advance and better themselves. Immigrant Jews saved their pennies to send their children to school to get an education, but no longer was the education a Jewish education as in the old country. Knowing Talmud and Torah was not on the paths of streets paved in gold. Science and law replaced Mishnah and Midrash and Rashi as the tools to a thinking, creative mind. For most of the Jewish community, post-religious school education was not and is not important. We don't seem to yearn for a deeper understanding of who we are as Jews.

Some of this is time. Our daily lives are so busy that the thought of attending an education course in the evening is out of the question. It also precludes participating in daytime classes. Sunday morning is an ideal time for Adult Education, but good learning space is not available. Therefore, as we look to a new method of Adult Education at TAI, time, as well as topic, must be considered.

It is time now to look at a different way of doing adult education. I believe that the important building blocks are an integration of educational programs and an organization of classes which build on the foundation of previously held classes. Integration and organization are not dependent. Integration means, in this context, to tie together what is going on in the various components of Temple life so that the sermons, lectures, classes, and book discussions are working together in general themes and in a common direction. Organization means to structure the program in such a way as to see a beginning, middle and end, but not to do it in a manner that would eliminate the participation of someone new to the Temple or to the process of Jewish Adult Education.

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING - SUNDAY, APRIL 30

My vision is a three year cycle of courses which would include some of the following:

- the building blocks to an effective and creative Jewish life;
- philosophy, theology, and liturgy;
- an adult confirmation program;
- beginning, intermediate and advanced Hebrew;
- scholars brought in yearly who would coordinate lectures based on our course of study;
- working knowledge of Talmud, Mishnah, and Midrash;
- Bible study;
- history.

At the end of three years (or four or five years), the course of study would start over again. For individuals who have completed the program, study hevrahs would be created for continuing Jewish education.

The key to all of this is a plan. We need to decide what we want to learn and how we will go about accomplishing that task. Yet, without Jewish adults feeling the need to expand and deepen their Jewish knowledge, even the most creative and ambitious of Temple Adult Education programs will fail. I believe that this won't happen. I believe that Jews want to learn about Judaism. The time is now to look to a better way to present Adult Education. Please come and help.

The Worship Committee is meeting on March 22, at 7 PM, to discuss the future direction of worship at TAI. As a result of the rabbi's bulletin articles, discussions among individuals and groups at TAI, and discussions at past Worship Committee meetings, this meeting may be a very important one.

If you are interested in the direction of worship services at TAI, then this is an opportunity for input. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend.

HOW WAS THE BAR MITZVAH?

"So" she asked, "how was the Bar Mitzvah?"

"Fantastic!" he replied.

"Oh, I'm so glad. Tell me about it"

"Well, you should have seen it. The place was magnificent. Beautiful chandeliers, gorgeous decorations, wonderful flower arrangements--one of the nicest I've ever seen," he said.

"Really? Was that the Temple, or the catering hall?" she asked.

"The catering hall, of course. They don't decorate Temple like that!"

"But," she continued, "what about the Bar Mitzvah?"

"I told you it was great? They had a wonderful band, and special entertainment for the kids--we all enjoyed ourselves tremendously."

"But what about the Bar Mitzvah??!" she persisted.

"That's what I've been telling you," he repeated. "The Bar Mitvah boy wrote a poem for each person called up to light a candle on the cake, and it was obvious he had really put some work into it. He made us all proud."

"BUT WHAT ABOUT THE BAR MITZVAH??" she screamed.

"How was the BAR MITZVAH??"

"I just told... Wait, do you mean the service?" he asked tentatively.

"Yes," she sighed, "the service. How was the service?"

"I don't know. We couldn't get going that early in the morning, so we just went to the reception."

What are we teaching Jewish children when they see that guests skip the service and come only to the reception?

What will they think is most important to the people they love? How will they know their family cares about a young Jew reading Torah for the first time, when they only pay attention to the catering, the band, and to the flowers?

FOURTH GRADE CLASS

Michael Sommer, Teacher

1-2-3 o'clock, 4 o'clock Rock

5-6-7 o'clock, 8 o'clock Rock

We're gonna Rock around Shabbat tonight!

When the Rabbi greets us with 'Shabbat Shalom'

We know the week has ended and Shabbat has come

We're gonna light the candles, and then bless the wine

Rest until tomorrow when three stars shine

We're gonna rock, gonna rock around Shabbat tonight.

Bah, bah, bah, bah

Bah, bah, bah, bah

Bah, bah, bah, bah

At Shabbat

You can sing and you can pray it, you can chant it, even say it on Shabbat (bat, bat, bat bat)

When Friday is here we can all say a prayer, on Shabbat (bat, bat, bat bat)

Celebrate Shabbat (x4)

Come on -- Celebrate Shabbat!

You can swing it, you can groove it, Adath Israel is the coolest on Shabbat (bat, bat, bat bat)

Where the Rabbi is the smoothest and the prayers they are the grooviest on Shabbat (bat, bat, bat bat)

Where all our families go to pray

On Shabbat

Celebrate Shabbat (x4)

Come on--Celebrate Shabbat!

The fourth grade has been working on the importance of celebrating Shabbat together. We put together and worked on the above songs for our Family Shabbat presentation on February 10th. The performance was a big success. The kids dressed in 50's style clothing and sang the first part to "Rock Around the Clock" and the second part to "Let's go to the Hop".

FIFTH GRADE CLASS

Jane Grise, Teacher

In January, we began our study of the elderly by reading the Bible stories of Naomi and Ruth and Jacob, Esau, and Isaac. We concluded our study by spending a morning at Mayfair Manor talking with residents and playing games. We have discussed Tu B'Shevat as a holiday related to all types of ecology issues.

In February, we began a unit on Israel and will be examining Zionism. We also read "The Diary of Anne Frank" in preparation for seeing the play in Louisville on February 26th.

HEVRAH ALEPH DOINGS

Over the past year our group has grown, and there are now between 10 and 15 members at each monthly meeting. Every meeting is led by a member and focuses on a text (article, book chapter, etc.) which is read aloud and discussed.

Here are some recent topics: the male identity crises; Dennis Prager's "Why I am not a liberal; spirituality and Judaism; the Temple: liturgy, community and participation and why do people convert to Judaism? Meetings always involve good food and lively discussions. Anyone interested in joining this group, please contact the Temple office.

TAI CLERGY CAMPAIGN FOR THE HOMELESS RAISES $2,571

As of February 27, Temple Adath Israel raised $2,571. I want to thank each of the individuals listed below for responding to my letter asking for a contribution to this 4th annual city-wide campaign. The money will be used to support existing programs in agencies which serve the homeless, hungry and near homeless population in our city.

If your name is not on the list and you would still like to make a contribution, please send your check made out to the Clergy Campaign to me at Temple. It would be wonderful if we could reach the $3,000 mark as we have done in the past.

Thank you again, B'Shalom

LEADERSHIP ENRICHMENT PROGRAM FOR APRIL

The April 9th program is titled "Effecting Organizational Change".

For further information contact the TAI office at 269-2979 or Andy Weiner at 257-1625 (work) or 255-5747 (home).

From the Rabbi's Library

This may seem a strange question to ask, but do you have a copy of The Hebrew Scriptures, The Holy Bible, in your home? I am surprised at the number of Jews who don't own or don't know whether they have a copy of The Bible at home. Although Judaism is not a Bible thumping or quoting religion, the essence of who we are and our early history and writings are found in The Bible, especially in the first 5 books which we call The Torah.

In my office I have several different Bibles. I have copies of The Hebrew Scriptures in Hebrew and English and copies of the New Testament in Hebrew (believe it or not) and English. I have Bibles with commentaries and Bibles without commentary. I own one set of books called the Anchor Bible series in which each book is an individual volume of the Hebrew Scriptures, New Testament and Apocrypha.

Of all the Bibles I own, the most useful is The Torah: A Modern Commentary. This volume does not include the prophets or writings. It is the Torah with the appropriate Haftarah portions. The volume includes a commentary written and edited mainly by a Reform rabbi named Gunther Plaut. This commentary is from a liberal and modern religious perspective. It is not a hammering or rehashing of the ancient rabbis' words on Torah though many rabbinic comments are included in the volume. Rather, it is a fresh approach from the modern world to enable us to understand very old, but timeless words.

The Torah: A Modern Commentary is the text we use in our Saturday morning Shabbat Torah Study group. We are reading it page by page. I encourage each of you to own this book (it is available through the gift shop) and read it as often as you can.

NATIONAL SOCIAL ACTION CONFERENCE

The Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism will host its national conference -- the Consultation on Conscience -- in Washington, DC, April 30 - May 2, 1995.

The Consultation on Conscience, held every two years, is the largest and most significant national Jewish conference focusing on political and social action issues. The three-day conference will include plenary sessions addressed by major political figures, briefings and political analyses on major world events; and workshops on skills-building and lobbying techniques.

Past Consultation speakers include Jean-Bertrand Aristide, the Dalai Lama, Pat Robertson, Senators Ted Kennedy, George Mitchell, Tom Harkin and Daniel Patrick Moynihan, Representatives Jack Kemp, Barney Frank and Charles Schumer.

Topics to be explored include: church-state relations, economic justice, environmental issues, Israel, foreign-policy issues, welfare reform and more.

Hundreds of rabbis, educators, social action committee members, sisterhood/brotherhood members, and other interested congregation members will converge on Capitol Hill for this extraordinary event.

If you would like to be one of those representing our Temple at this exceptional conference or would like additional information, please call Rabbi Adland at 269-2979, Cookie Weneker at 269-4221 or the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism at 2027 Massachusetts Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20036 (202) 387-2800.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

THANK YOU DR. FLYNN

The Fayette County Schools made a conscious decision that in each of the next two years one of the High Holy Days will be a day off from school for students. In 1995, Rosh Hashanah will be a professional day and in 1996, on Yom Kippur, school will not be in session. Of the remaining two High Holy Days, only Yom Kippur in 1995 is still a school day. (Rosh Hashanah 1996 falls on the weekend).

This decision was not made arbitrarily. In my discussion on this matter with Dr. Flynn, he said that in setting the school calendar the Jewish community's Holy Days were taken into account. As a member of the Jewish community, I want to publicly thank Dr. Flynn and his staff for the sensitivity shown to the Jewish community. I have written a note of appreciation and thanks to Dr. Flynn. Many issues still need to be addressed, especially what happens in December in the schools, but this act is more than just a good faith effort, it is deeply appreciated.

I hope that every member of this congregation who is concerned about the attitude toward minorities -- racial, religious, ethnic -- in Lexington and in the public schools will take a moment to write a thank you note to Dr. Peter Flynn and his staff. It is nice to be noticed.

For my upcoming Bar Mitzvah, I have chosen to "twin" with God's Pantry. This organization supplies thousands of pounds of food each year to those in need. Please help me support God's Pantry by bringing in canned and/or nonperishable food items between March 15th and April 14th. There will be a box outside of the gift shop for your donations. Thank you for your participation in this mitzvah.

Whoever Saves a Single Life... TAI to join in Pikuach Nefesh Project

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations is asking its member congregations to become a partner in the Pikuach Nefesh Project. This is a project to encourage individuals to become registered in The National Marrow Donor Program.

At any given time, more than 2,000 people with fatal blood diseases are searching the NMDP Registry in the hope of finding a matched marrow donor. No doubt many of them are Jewish. Even if there is no one in our community who needs a marrow transplant today, there may very well be someone in need tomorrow, or next month, or next year. It is important that the pool of potential donors be increased as quickly as possible.

As more information becomes available on the process for our congregation to participate in a day of screening, the Temple Social Action Committee will let the congregation know. Next fall, Temple member Dr. Ken Foon, Director of the Markey Cancer Center, will be a part of the kick-off of TAI's participation in the program. Please say yes. A life may depend on your participation.

MAZON

A Jewish Response to Hunger

The world is not yet as we wish it to be. We gather to celebrate our freedom from slavery and to remind ourselves that those who are hungry and homeless are not free.

So we say: LET ALL WHO ARE HUNGRY ENTER AND EAT

The words are a pledge, and the pledge is a privilege: Surrounded by those in poverty, we can redeem the pledge. This evening, so that the hungry may eat, we contribute to Mazon, A Jewish Response to Hunger, and we say, together,

ברוך אלקינו שבטובו הביאנו וזכנו למצות מתן מזון

Baruch eloheinu sheb'tuvo he'vianu v'zikanu l'mitzvat matan mazon

Blessed is our G-d through whose goodness we have been brought to the privilege of sharing our bread

PERMIT NUMBER 87
LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

ITEMS NEEDED FOR THE SEDER PLATE

A. Charoset - Composed of chopped nuts and apples, cinnamon and wine, charoset represents the mortar used by the Jews in making bricks while they were slaves in Egypt.

B. Zera - The roasted shankbone or roasted wing of a fowl represents the sacrifice of the Paschal lamb.

C. Beitza - The roasted hard-cooked egg symbolizes the festival offering brought to the Temple.

D. Moror - The bitter herbs are represented by horseradish that has been freshly grated from the horseradish root. They symbolize the bitterness of slavery for the Jews in Egypt.

E. Karpas - You may use parsley or celery to represent Spring, which brings rebirth and redemption. It is dipped in salt water before it is eaten to remind us of the tears and sweat of the Jewish people in slavery.

F. Chazereth - On most Seder plates, there is another form of bitter herbs. It may be the root of the horseradish (ungrated) or watercress.

Wine Glasses - The glasses are filled with the traditional, Kosher for Passover wine.

Decanter of Wine - There should be enough wine to pour four cups for each individual. These represent the four divine promises of redemption found in Exodus 6:6-7. You will also need enough wine for serving during the meal.

Cup of Elijah - Fill a beautiful cup with wine and put it in a prominent place on the table to welcome Elijah, the prophet who heralds freedom and redemption.

Charoset - Although charoset goes on the Seder plate, extra charoset is served for making the Hillel sandwich and to eat during the meal. Rabbi Hillel, a great Jewish teacher who lived between 90 BCE and 70 CE may have invented this sandwich of charoset and moror (between two pieces of matzah) to represent the bitterness of slavery and the sweetness of freedom.

Candlesticks - The blessing over the candles is recited before the Seder begins.

Pillows - Pillows to lean on are traditionally placed on chairs, especially in the chair of the leader of the Seder, as a symbol of freedom from slavery.

SETTING THE SEDER TABLE

Seder Plate - The most important item on the table is the Seder plate, containing the symbolic foods. Seder plates are usually beautifully decorated, often with scenes from the Passover story or with Hebrew inscriptions.

Three Matzahs - The ceremonial matzahs are placed, one on top of the other, in a special matzah cover or in a napkin. According to a common interpretation, the matzahs represent the three divisions of the Jewish people; Kohen - priest; Levi - assistants in the Temple; Israelites - people of Israel.

Additional Matzah - Additional matzah is placed on a serving plate, for eating during the main meal.

Haggadahs - The Haggadah is the book that is read cover to cover during the evening. It includes the story, prayers, songs, rituals, and commentary that make up the Seder. Make sure you have one at each place.

Dish of Salt Water - Part of the Seder ritual is to dip the Karpas (parsley) into salt water, which represents the tears of the Jewish people while in slavery.

Among the foods that must contain the "Kosher l'Pesach" label and be certified for Passover use by rabbinical authority are:

Matzah, matzah flour, Passover noodles
Candles, cakes, cookies, jams and jellies
Cheeses, milk, and butter
Canned and processed foods, such as fruits, sauces, and soups
Salad oils, shortenings, vinegar
Beverages, wine and liquors
Vegetable gelatin
Relishes
Dried fruits
Horseradish

The following foods require no Kosher l'Pesach label if they are in unopened packages or containers or in a natural state:

Coffee, tea, and sugar (but not confectioners' sugar, because it contains cornstarch)
Salt, pepper, and spices (some herbs should be fresh)
All fruits and nuts
All vegetables except legumes such as peas, corn, and beans

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 62

NO. 16

15 NISAN 5755

IN THIS CORNER...

Which prophets' words spoke most loudly to the founders of Reform Judaism? Was it Isaiah, Micah, Amos, Jeremiah, or Hosca? These men from our historic past exhorted our ancestors to do justice and love mercy; to beat swords into ploughshares, to not offer sacrifices in vain, but to follow the commandments; to remember the needs of the orphan and the widow, to feed the hungry and clothe the naked and shelter the homeless. As Reform Judaism broke away from the path of Orthodoxy, the founders of this great movement turned to the words of those who once spoke to our people. They reminded us that ritual may be important to the individual's soul and his/her connection to God, but that we must never forget that Judaism's mission is more than just following the ritual mitzvot, it is raising up the ethical mitzvot as well.

Moving out from behind the ghetto walls in the 19th century into the larger world community also meant taking responsibility for trying to correct and heal the ills of the world. Judaism does not believe either that the world was once perfect or that Adam and Eve's action in the Garden of Eden caused humankind to fall from its lofty position. Rather, Judaism looks to the words in Genesis 1:31:

And God saw all that God had made, and it very good.

The text does not say that God made everything perfect or that creation was complete. In Genesis 2:2 it does say:

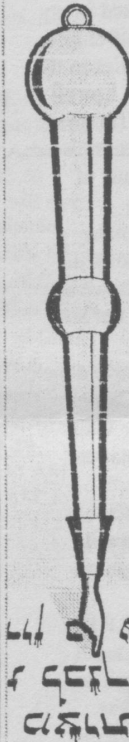

On the seventh day God finished the work which God had been doing, and God ceased on the seventh day from all the work which God had done.

According to the beginning of Genesis, God created and did as much as God could before resting on Shabbat. It was not perfect, but very good. The rest was left up to us to complete. This is our mission: To finish God's creation — Tikkun Olam.

From the Pittsburgh Platform of 1885 which helped define a direction for Reform Judaism by emphasizing God, universalism and a commitment to humanity, to the Reform Judaism of today which has seen a renewed interest in observance, particularism, and a turning inward, Social Action has struggled to maintain its place at the top of Reform Judaism's priority list.

Without question, Reform Judaism reached its zenith in the 1950's and early 60's when it found itself committed to and participating in the Civil Rights movement. Great Reform Jewish rabbis marched arm-in-arm with the leaders of the Black movement throughout the south and into Washington, D.C. The Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the collection and coalition of Reform Jewish congregations through North America, established a Religious Action Center in Washington, D.C. to be vigilant within our government concerning the rights of those who have no voice. Reform Judaism continues to champion every issue that affects the poor, the widow, the orphan, just as our prophets of old fought for them in days gone by.

Our movement's leadership can't do it all. Every congregation must respond to the call for justice by looking at its community and seeing what can we do. As I asked in my article two months ago on worship, "Is our glass half-empty or half-full?" We do and have planned many activities in the area of Social Action. Marty Kaplan, Bruce Engel, Lowell Nigoff, and Cookie Wenneker have all chaired our Temple Social Action Committee. Each has brought their passion for Social Justice to the meetings and the activities. None of them would succeed without the participation of the congregation. Temple Adath Israel attempts to do many things, but only a segment of the congregation supports the programs. Sometimes we ask for money, other times we ask for donations, and other times we need you to come out and help.

Here is a review of some of the things we have done:

- Collected money for 4 years for the Clergy Campaign for the Homeless with approximately 33-50% of the congregation responding;
- Collected money and physically helped build 2 houses for Habitat for Humanity with approximately 1/3 of the congregation responding;
- Served the dinner meal at the H.O.P.E. Center the first Monday of each month where the number of Volunteers appears to be sufficient enough to take on other tasks;
- Participated in 2 CKBC Blood Drive at Hanukah and our Annual Meeting with an adequate response, but could be better;
- Marched as a congregation at the MLK march with only a handful participating last January;
- Collected non-perishable food items in fall for God's Pantry with a good response of about 1/3 of the congregation, but there hasn't been an increase in 3 years;
- With the cooperation of the TAI Religious School, provided Thanksgiving baskets to needy families;
- The Sisterhood participates in Social Action by collecting items in its Mitzvah Crib, selling house - people - book pins with the money donated to worthy organizations.

We certainly ask our membership to participate in a host of Social Justice projects, but we certainly don't ask too much. Our youth are involved as well. Bar/Bat Mitzvah students are doing service projects within Lexington. Many are collecting things for different agencies. By supporting their projects, we can teach them that you can make a difference if you try. The 5th, 9th, and 10th grades spent a Sunday morning at God's Pantry. And our Confirmation students are supposed to complete 18 hours of community service by the end of April.

There is still so much we can do, but we need people to say yes to Tikkun Olam. We can:

- ⇒ tutor students at Ashland Ave. Elementary in reading;
- ⇒ participate in the Bone Marrow Registry (see inside);
- ⇒ join in a study circle to fight racism;
- ⇒ sensitize ourselves to the needs of the disabled;
- ⇒ preserve fall vegetables for the H.O.P.E. Center rather than seeing this food rot.

Our current Social Action chair, Cookie Wenneker said that meeting unmet needs is why she is involved. My hope is that everyone who is able will look at this list of projects and say, "I can help." Sometimes the work is physically demanding. Other times it means writing a check. Other times it means buying an extra can of food or a bag of diapers and dropping them off at Temple.

In the area of Social Action, I would say that the glass is more than half-full, but we need to make the "cup runneth over." We can do more to finish God's creation, but it takes you and me, everyone, working together.

Temple Adath Israel says Mazal Tov to MELINDA MERSACK

Melinda Mersack, the daughter of Anita and Dr. Ira Mersack, will be entering The Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion this fall to begin her studies toward ordination as a rabbi. Melinda will spend her first year of rabbinical school in Jerusalem and then return to one of the three Hebrew Union College campuses in 1996 to continue her preparation for the rabbinate.

Every member of this congregation can feel a tremendous sense of pride in Melinda's accomplishments. Temple Adath Israel wishes for Melinda success in every aspect of this life dedicated to God and the Jewish people.

VISION COMMITTEE HOLDS FIRST MEETING

On March 21, a meeting was held at Rabbi Adland's home attended by 12 Temple members. The attendees consisted of those who responded to Rabbi Adland's fall bulletin articles that asked for volunteers who wanted to participate in the creation of a new vision of programs and worship for the Temple. The article challenged the Temple community to reach beyond being a good congregation to become a great congregation.

At the first meeting, rather than diving into the creation of a new broad based, inclusive, comprehensive, intergeneration program, the attendees were asked to fill out a sheet responding to the following:

- The best program at TAI that you have attended;
- The weakest and strongest pillars at TAI;
- A program that you would like to see;
- Dream a dream for this congregation.

If these questions spark your interest, you may respond to the above and send the responses to Rabbi Adland at Temple by May 9. The next meeting of the VISION committee is May 16, at 7:30 PM, at Beth Engel's home on South Ashland. If you are interested in joining in the process of creating an exciting Temple future, please contact Rabbi Adland, at 269-2979. Rabbi Tarfon said:

You are not required to complete the work, but neither are you at liberty to abstain from it.

BOARD BRIEFS

At its meeting on March 7, the Temple Board of Trustees:

Approved the membership applications of Ida Chesses, Steven & Deborah Flomenhoft and Nell Stepman.

Received a copy of the Temple's proposed budget for FY 95-96 for their review.

Approved the placement of a plaque in the Religious School wing honoring the contributions of Fannie H. Miller

Received proposed amendments to those By-Laws governing who may vote at Temple committee meetings and who serves as non-voting members of the Board.

An Evening With Madame F
A musical and dramatic performance written and presented by Claudia Stevens
Sunday, April 30, 1995
Singletary Center for the Arts

From the Rabbi's Library

On the Doorposts of Your House: Prayers and Ceremonies for the Jewish Home is the latest publication from the Central Conference of American Rabbis. This volume is a gender sensitive, expanded version of the Gates of the House which was published in 1975. Anyone who takes seriously the celebration of Judaism in the home must have a copy of this book. The book includes the following topics:

- ◊ Prayers and Readings for Every Day
- ◊ Prayers and Readings for Shabbat, Festivals, and Special Days
- ◊ The Path of Life
- ◊ Weekday Services
- ◊ Psalms, Poems and Readings

"Now included are prayers for pregnancy, birthdays, anniversaries, festivals and achievements, and for the more painful events in life: times of anxiety, the death of a child, illness and disappointments."

For most of Temple Adath Israel's membership, the first two sections may be most helpful. The sub-sections are easy to use. There is Hebrew, English, and many times the transliteration is provided. The first section includes the blessings said before and after a meal, as well as other blessings for food. The second section includes prayers said at Shabbat and Holy Days in the home.

The final section of the book, "Psalms, Poems, and Readings" was beautiful. There were many different passages to read and ponder from Biblical, Rabbinic and modern writings.

I encourage everyone to seek out and purchase a copy of this book. The Temple Sisterhood Gift Shop can order one for you.

BARRY, JENNIFER, ALEXANDER & MAXWELL RUDITSKY

Barry and Jennifer moved to Lexington from Newport Beach, CA. They met in New York City and married in Saratoga, NY in 1990.

Barry is in computer software sales and Jennifer is a fashion merchandiser but is currently at home caring for Alexander, age 2 1/2 and Maxwell who was born on March 19th. Mazal Tov on their new family addition.

Barry enjoys all sports and Jennifer and Barry enjoy eating out at local restaurants, the movies and Broadway theater.

The congregations welcomes the Ruditsky family to the Temple family and to the Lexington community.

MRS. IDA S. CHESSES

Ida is a retired executive secretary and has moved a record 18 times in her life. She left Maryland in 1980 and moved to Albuquerque where she lived for four years. She then moved to Austin, TX, El Paso, TX and Pennsylvania. She tried Albuquerque again and found "you can't go back." She then tried San Antonio, Knoxville and is now in Lexington. Since she finds everything so peaceful and quiet here she plans to end her moving stint.

Ida likes meeting people and hopes that will work out well for her here. She has already attended one of the Leisure Club activities and hopes to do some committee work in the future.

The Temple welcomes Ida to the congregation and the Leisure Club is especially fortunate to have such an interesting person join their group.

MAZAL TOV!!

To Barry and Jennifer Ruditsky on the birth of their son, Maxwell Isaac on March 19, 1995.

To Leslie Lipman and Brad Gooldy on their wedding on March 25, 1995.

NELL STEPMAN

She has been widowed twice. She has a daughter and son-in-law.

She moved to Lexington where she is becoming an active participant of Temple and Leisure Club.

The Congregations welcomes Nell to the Temple family and the Jewish community.

A BOOK REVIEW

by Elayne R. Crystal

COMBATting CULT MIND CONTROL

Author, Steven Hassan

Our Senior Block students are so fortunate to have Joe Miller teach them about cults. In Joe's honor, my family donated this book to our Temple library. I recently made time to read it and want to share highlights of this book with you.

The author, Steven Hassan, a "nice Jewish boy" from Queens, NY, became involved with the "moonies" while in college. He tells of his two years with the cult, explains mind control, and offers suggestions about how to deal with loved ones who are involved with cults (even after they leave). There is an extensive list of resource organizations and rehabilitation facilities for former members.

Steven was in a serious car accident with the "moonies" and while in the hospital and post surgery, his parents were able to arrange for his deprogramming by several former cult members. Since then (14 years ago) he has become a leading "exit counselor" using non-coercive techniques which are different from the stressful and popular "kidnap deprogramming".

I highly recommend this book for those who want to understand cults and mind control--- the process, its dangers and what to do about it. It is catalogued and on the shelf #300.15 in the Temple library.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Spring is in the air at TAI Preschool. The sunshine and warmer temperatures have allowed us to enjoy playing outside on our playground, an activity we have all really missed.

During the month of April, the 2 1/2 year old class will cover units on spring, Passover, farm animals and the circus. Our 3 year olds will learn about insects, reptiles, farm animals, Passover and the circus. Our ambitious 4 year old class will explore spring, Passover, space, planets and the five senses.

Spring conferences will be held in late April and early May. Our most special evening of the year, the TAI Preschool Spring Program, will be held on Thursday, May 18, 1995 at 7:00 PM in the Social Hall. All classes perform songs, present collective works of art to their parents, and receive certificates rewarding the completion of their grade level. It is a very special night for all of us.

Enrollment for the 1995-96 school year is under way and open to the public, and there are only a few spaces left. For more information regarding TAI Preschool, please call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

The Consultation on Conscience, held every two years, is the largest and most significant national Jewish conference focusing on political and social action issues. Past Consultation speakers include Jean-Bertrand Aristide, the Dalai Lama, Pat Robertson, Senators Ted Kennedy, George Mitchell, Tom Harkin and Daniel Patrick Moynihan, Representatives Jack Kemp, Barney Frank and Charles Schumer.

Topics to be explored include: church-state relations, economic justice, environmental issues, Israel, foreign-policy issues, welfare reform and more.

For my Bat Mitzvah, I have decided to support the Hope Center. The Hope Center helps people less fortunate than ourselves. They have told me that there is a need for donations of personal items, such as toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, shampoo, etc. and clothing. There is always a great need for any type of personal hygiene items. There is a box outside the gift shop for anything you wish to donate through May 15th. Please contribute generously!

IN THIS CORNER...

Some thoughts as we move into summer....

♦ Mazal Tov to Dr. Ira and Anita Mersack on their daughter Melinda's acceptance to Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, Reform Judaism's Rabbinical Seminary, beginning this June. Without question, the foundations for Melinda's decision to study for the rabbinate are a result of the strong Jewish presence in the home, the quality of Jewish life at TAI, and the experiences she had while going to camp at G.U.C.I.

In honor of Melinda's acceptance to HUC-JIR and before she embarks on her first year's experience in Jerusalem, there will be a special Oneg Shabbat in her honor on June 2, 1995. Melinda will also address the congregation that evening from the bimah as our guest speaker. Please come and support Melinda and wish her well on her journey into the rabbinate.

♦ The 1995/5755 Erev Shavuot/Confirmation Service will be held June 3, 1995, at 7:00 PM. The theme for this year's service is "In Memory of Fannie H. Miller." There are twelve students in this year's class who have composed a beautiful service. Let us show them how much we care about the culmination of their formal religious education by attending the service and supporting the class. We can also come to honor the memory of a woman who gave more than 60 years to Jewish education.

♦ A student wrote for me that in five years the student doesn't think that he/she will be Jewish anymore. What a sad thought. If Judaism is going to survive, then we must overcome this ever-increasing attitude that Jews, both young and old, have about Judaism. I have to believe that each member of this congregation cares whether there is a Judaism and Jewish people in 25 years. Caring is not enough. We must make that motto we tell our non-Jewish friends when asked what is Judaism, "It is a way of life," into a reality. Do Judaism at home. Do Judaism in your everyday life. Show your parents that Judaism matters. Show your children, no matter how old they are, that Judaism matters and there will be a Jewish future.

- ◆ Thank you to everyone who did something to make our congregation work this past year:
 - * Served on a committee;
 - * Helped to prepare an Oneg Shabbat;
 - * Taught in the Religious School;
 - * Helped with a youth program;
 - * Contributed financially to the Temple's well-being;
 - * Came to a Shabbat service;
 - * Ushered;
 - * Served on the Temple Board, chaired a committee, said yes when asked;
 - * Did one of the little things that must be done.

◆ Please be generous with both your time and your financial contributions.

◆ The dark cloud of the Oklahoma City bombing tragedy hangs over the heads of every person in this country and many throughout the world. This senseless act of mass murder must be condemned strongly by every rational human being who lives and breathes the air of this planet. I can't get the pain out of my soul for the families of the victims of the bombing, especially those who lost a child, sometimes more than one. ENOUGH!!

As Jews committed to the establishment and preservation of the State of Israel, we have lived through this kind of tragedy before. Ma'alot, Kiryat Shemona, buses, street corners, death strikes in Israel at the least suspected moment and takes the life of another innocent victim. My heart goes out to the family of Alissa Flatow, the American Brandeis student whose life was snuffed out by another suicide bomber.

We must never become de-sensitized to these tragedies. We must never think it won't or can't happen again. We must be vigilant, strong, never close our eyes. It will happen again until humanity says no more!! Maybe then, and only then, will the Messianic age of peace and community become a reality.

◆ Thank you to those serving on the Vision Committee. I know that the fruits of this labor will bear ripe fruit for everyone in the congregation to enjoy. Your commitment to this project and the ability to be patient is very much appreciated and wise.

Have a wonderful summer. Services in July and August are at 6 PM. Let us work and prepare to make year the most active ever.

Rabbi Jon Adland

CONDOLENCES TO...

To Mark & Dorothy Halleck, on the death of their sister-in-law, Ethyl Levy, widow of Hyman S. Levy on April 19, 1995 in Los Angeles, CA.

From the Rabbi's Library

Leo Trepp's The Complete Book of Jewish Observance is one the most usable books on Jewish living that I own. It gives enough depth and meaning to the various aspects of Jewish life that we feel versed on the subject. Trepp stops before going beyond what we really need to know.

The book is divided into two parts. Part one is called, "The Celebration of the Year." Part two is called, "The Celebration of Life." Each section has multiple subsections which break down into the individual components of Jewish living: The Covenant and the Jewish Way of Life, Prayer: Concentration on the Ultimate; Kashrut: Discipline Through Diet, and so on. Each section offers historical perspective and the modern celebration from the liberal to the traditional. Appropriate prayers, blessings, ceremonies, and traditions are presented and discussed.

If you are looking for a book on Judaism as a way of life and how to live that way of life, consider Leo Trepp's, The Complete Book of Jewish Observance. It can only enhance your depth of knowledge and help you achieve a higher sense of spirituality through Jewish living.

KABBALAT SHABBAT SUMMER SERVICES

With the arrival of the months of July and August comes a different, more low-keyed style of worship at TAI. Beginning July 7, we move into our traditional summer 6 PM Kabbalat Shabbat worship. This service is an excellent opportunity for parents to introduce their children to a more adult liturgy and style of worship, but the service is briefer, lasting only about 45 minutes.

With an earlier service, the Temple encourages parents and children, family and friends, to gather together to celebrate Shabbat after the service with a Shabbat dinner and blessings. The joy of Shabbat is certainly enhanced by being able to relax, talk about Judaism, spend time with those that matter, and let the weight of the week's labor slip quietly away.

The regular 8 PM service will resume the first Friday after Labor Day.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE SERVICE ON MAY 26, IS A KABBALAT SHABBAT
SERVICE AND WILL BEGIN
AT 5:45 PM.

FROM THE LOST AND FOUND

There has been a retainer turned into the Temple office. If your student has lost his/her retainer, please call the Temple office at 269-2979.

Also in the office is a support sleeve for a small arm. If this belongs to your child you may pick up at your convenience.

KABBALAT SHABBAT SUMMER SERVICES

With the arrival of the months of July and August comes a different, more low-keyed style of worship at TAI. Beginning July 7th, we move into our traditional summer 6 PM Kabbalat Shabbat worship. This service is an excellent opportunity for parents to introduce their children to a more adult liturgy and style of worship, but the service is briefer, lasting only about 45 minutes.

With an earlier service, the Temple encourages parents and children, family and friends to gather together to celebrate Shabbat after the service with a Shabbat dinner and blessings. The joy of Shabbat is certainly enhanced by being able to relax, talk about Judaism, spend time with those that matter and let the weight of the week's labor slip quietly away.

The regular 8 PM service will resume the first Friday after Labor Day.

TZEDAKAH FUND DRIVE MORE THAN A SUCCESS

Over the years I have asked this congregation to support Habitat, the Clergy Campaign, and restore a Holocaust Torah, but the response to my letter requesting funds for the roof for our Temple family in need was overwhelming. THANK YOU! As a result of the dollars raised, the family was able to hire a professional roofer to replace the leaking roof. The remaining funds will be used to help this family meet its needs in its continuing crisis.

I want to thank everyone who responded to the letter by sending in a contribution, or agreeing to help with the construction or in support of the workers. We should feel proud that when one of our own was in need we helped freely and generously.

As a result of this experience, the Temple Board of Trustees is considering the establishment of a special emergency fund called CHAIM-LIFE. More details will be available at a later time. Thank you again.

You shall not close your hand against your needy kinsman (Deut. 15:7)

A LETTER FROM THE CENTRAL KENTUCKY BLOOD CENTER

This letter was sent to Rabbi Adland on May 4th.

With deepest gratitude, on behalf of our Central Kentucky neighbors in need of a gift of blood to heal, I want to thank the members of Temple Adath Israel for their generosity at your blood drive on Sunday, April 30th. 35 units of blood were donated, enough to grant up to 105 Central Kentucky neighbors and friends another day, or year, or decade to remain with us. For newborn and very young patients, an entire lifetime can be rekindled.

These renewed lives are very tangible and meaningful reasons for us to give thanks, and reflect on the great work accomplished by our small sacrifices when they're made as a group with a unified sense of purpose. I would like to personally acknowledge your vital support, and the good work of Bruce Engel in this cause, which is so vital to our community's quality of life. You may want to announce to your members that many other voices are today able to join them in praise and thanksgiving due to their generosity. Thank you one and all, I look forward to our future work together.

Sincerely,

Glen A. White
Donor Resources Consultant

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

2ND GRADE

Cheri Rose, Teacher

The second grade has finished up the year by moving from Pesach to Shabbat. We have learned about Lag B'omer, Yom Ha Atzmaut and counting the omer which fall between these two holidays. At the end of the year we spent time learning the Ten Commandments and preparing ourselves to receive them just as our people did in the desert many years ago.

Additionally, we have learned the Hebrew Aleph-bet and a variety of Hebrew songs to begin to use our first steps at Hebrew. It has been a great year.

5TH GRADE

Jane Grise, Teacher

In March, the 5th grade, as well as the 4th and 6th grades, did an excellent job of preparing and carrying out the Passover Fair. The younger students experienced slavery, made bricks, were led out of slavery by Moses, crossed the Red Sea, and celebrated their freedom by conducting a seder.
We then studied Zionism and leaders in Israel and concluded this unit with our presentation at the May Family Night Shabbat service. We ended the year by discussing how the class would be leaving elementary school and entering middle school and the new issues that would be faced. We studied the Jewish view of taking care of yourself- your body and mind- and applied these ancient principles to the middle school scene.

the new Yearbook. Many of you so please contact Sandee at the

A THANK YOU FROM LEXTY

I would like to thank everyone who helped make the Purim Carnival a big success -- the members of LEXTY (including eighth graders from MSTYG) who helped plan and run the games and raffle, serve food, sell tickets, and clean up; the Millers and the Browns who helped purchase and prepare the lunch, and especially those who attended the carnival. That was the first year we held a raffle, and a special thanks goes to those who made donations:
Great Harvest Breads, Video Supreme,
SuperCuts (donated by Rabbi), Fazoli's and especially to Susan Goldstein who donated two handcrafted pots. All of the Kings and Queens, et. al, seemed to have a fun time, and LEXTY appreciates the congregations's support.

St. Louis Interfaith Disaster Relief Network

The recent memo was sent to TAI from the regional director of the UAHC:

It is hard to believe but the destructive flood waters have returned to many areas in the Midwest especially near St. Louis. Many towns barely recovered from the devastating Flood of '93 have been hard hit once again and the need for financial aid to the victims is real. This time, however, an interfaith relief network to which the St. Louis Federation of Reform Temples and the Midwest Council of the UAHC is a constituent member is already in place to bring immediate help to the victims.

If you are interested in making a contribution, send the donation to:

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The Sisterhood Indoor Yard Sale was a great success! We raised over $1,100.00 for the Religious School. This would not have been possible without the help of many volunteers, especially Judy Oer and Linda Gerall. Thank you to everyone for helping and shopping.

Our closing luncheon was a very special occasion with Libby Jones as our speaker. Thank you to Sandy Adland for planning a variety of programs this year and Kaye Kaplan for planning the luncheons.

Also, thank you to all of you who participated in Sisterhood Shabbat. What a wonderful way to close our year.

This summer we will be working on programming for the coming year. Please send your ideas to Sandy Adland as soon as possible. We still haven't filled the Membership Chairmanship - if it appeals to you, please call me.

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

ETTA POLLAN

Etta moved to Lexington from Florida to be near her son, Bruce Engel, her daughter-in-law, Mary and the two cutest grandkids in the U.S. Previously, when she visited, she enjoyed the TAI services and activities, so joining the Temple congregation was a top priority on her list of "things to do" when she moved to Lexington.

Before retiring, Etta was an accountant by vocation, and did a bit of writing by avocation.

Etta is a member of Brandeis Women, Hadassah, A.D.L., and the A.C.L.U.

She enjoys book discussion groups and writing workshops. She also enjoys reading and attending interesting lectures.

Etta plans to become an active member of Temple and the Leisure Club.

Temple Adath Israel welcomes Etta to the Lexington community and the Temple family.

To avoid spoilage of this much needed food, produce can be processed for the freezer and used year round. This is another important way TAI can support the Hope Center.

Please call Lowell Nigoff at 278-5220 to volunteer one or more times if possible.

In This Corner...

Last year I wrote a series of articles about the possible directions our congregation could take in the areas of Torah, Avodah, and Gemilut Hasadim - Adult Education, Worship, and Social Action. This year it is time to begin the process of growth and change. My hope is that more people who are interested in these areas of our congregations life will participate in all levels of their implementation from the detail work of the committee to the fruit of the work in the program. If we are to become an excellent congregation in all aspects of our community life, then these areas must grow to become comprehensive and visionary.

The chairs and co-chairs of the Adult Education, Worship, and Social Action committees are ready to lead us forward. They know that the task is not an easy one. People don't always want Temple to be the center or mainstay of their lives. Congregants don't feel they need to enhance their Jewish knowledge, to participate in Tikkun Olam -- to finish God's creation, or to attempt to find other paths to deeper spiritual fulfillment. Yet, there are some who care, who desire, who want Judaism to be important in their lives and the lives of their families and community. It is this group of individuals and families who must be the models for others by showing them what participation in Temple life can mean.

We live in an age where the pressures and stress of the everyday world can be enormous. We live at a time where the ethical and moral structure of our community is challenged on so many different fronts. Our children see messages in the media which threaten and confuse. Families struggle to make ends meet and, as a result, some children don't receive the nurturing and love necessary to build the sound basis for all the decisions they must make. We live in a time when the word family doesn't even mean what it used to. Therefore, it is up to each member of this congregation to be a role model for the next generation by living a life which is of the highest ethical and moral level that is possible. This where Judaism, our religion, community, lifestyle, culture, and heritage fits in.

By participating in areas of Social Action, we demonstrate the importance of making a difference in a troubled world. As you will see in the bulletin over the course of the year, any number of opportunities for participating in a Social Action program is available. Some require hands on work, while others are simply a contribution of food or money to help others. Each is a mitzvah that may lead to the performance of another mitzvah.

Worship at Temple Adath Israel is constant. Every Erev Shabbat there is a service. Most Erev Shabbat services we use The New Union Prayer Book: Gates of Prayer, while at Family Shabbat services we read from a creative service pamphlet. Shabbat morning, following our hour long Torah Study, we use the new gender sensitive version of Gates of Prayer. The time is ripe for new services, written by our own members, based on the traditional model. This is the third time I have asked for anyone interested in writing an Erev Shabbat service to let me know. It is an opportunity to share a spiritual experience with the congregation. I am also interested in inviting Temple members who would like to read Torah, in Hebrew, to let me know. So far, two Temple members have expressed interest and will read Torah at an Erev Shabbat service in the coming year.

Finally, after a long year of reflection, the Adult Education committee is about to unveil a very ambitious 3-year Adult Education program which will include not only B'nai Mitzvah (adult bar/bat mitzvah ceremony), but also an Adult Confirmation program. For the next three years, the Adult Education program will be an in-depth expansion of my Basic Judaism course. By coming to the various mini-series, students can earn credits toward the Confirmation program. The hope is that Adult Education will not only take place in the evening, but on Sunday mornings as well.

Along with the various courses, we will have a scholar-in-residence at the beginning of March, Rabbi Norman Cohen, professor of Midrash at HUC-JIR in New York. Also, on February 25th, in cooperation with the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation, Temple Adath Israel will sponsor The Hebrew Reading Marathon. This is a one day program run by a rabbi from Silver Spring, MD. This rabbi has gone all over the United States visiting congregations and communities to erase Hebrew illiteracy by teaching people in a one day course how to read Hebrew and leaving them with a 160 word vocabulary. More information will be available in a few months, but there will be a charge to cover costs and a maximum number of spaces available. If you have ever wanted to learn to read Hebrew, this is your golden opportunity.

It is time for us to become a great congregation, a congregation of knowledgeable, committed, participating Jews. To do this, we must work together.

ADULT EDUCATION AT TAI FOR 1995-96 TO OFFER A NEW LOOK

In mid-August, the new 1995-96 Adult Education brochures will be available. Along with the traditional Introduction to Hebrew and Basic Judaism classes, there will be Advanced Hebrew from September to March, a Scholar-in-residence in March, a Hebrew Reading Marathon (learn to read Hebrew in a day) in February, and a new comprehensive approach to learning about Judaism with Adult Confirmation as a long term goal.

Watch your mail for more details.

From the Rabbi's Library

Among the books I read this summer was one that hit particularly close to home. And THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE: An American Rabbi and His Congregation, by Paul Wilkes is the story of Rabbi Jay Rosenbaum, a Conservative rabbi serving a congregation in Worcester, MA. Paul Wilkes, an award-winning Catholic author rings an outsider's unbiased eye to the difficulties Rabbi Rosenbaum faces as the spiritual leader of a modern congregation tempted by an affluent, secular society.

Paul Wilkes spent a year in the life of Rabbi Rosenbaum learning his likes and dislikes, his family life, his relationship to the congregation, and his position in the community. The book is not written as a diary, but does follow the rabbi's life from a meeting in the fall about a trip to Israel the next summer, through the trip, and the weeks following his return. We meet congregants who are religiously committed and those that aren't involved with Jewish life. We meet those that like the rabbi and those that don't care him. We see the rabbi leading services, counseling, teaching, celebrating, and in personal reflection.

As a rabbi reading this book, I was able to identify with the struggles and successes of Rabbi Rosenbaum. He reminded me about commitment to my purpose and to stand steadfast in what I believe. He reminded me of vision to the future to see the past with clarity.

I encourage anyone who cares about congregational life and the survival of American Judaism to share the story of Rabbi Rosenbaum. It is the story of who we are today as Jews in this country and glimpse at where we might be heading.

STEVE KESTEN PLAYING SENEX

Steve Kesten has the role of Senex, a slightly senile philandering father, in the play A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum.

The play is being performed at the Kentucky Training Center on Paris Pike on September 22 & 23 and 29 & 30.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

LEXTY CONCLAVE NOVEMBER 17-19 NEEDS TAI'S HELP

Hello, this fall LEXTY, the Temple's High School youth group, is hosting NFTY-Ohio Valley's Sub-Regional Convention. This event, which occurs the weekend of November 17-19, 1995, is a chance for LEXTY to become a larger force in today's youth movement. Attending this convention will be delegates from cities in five surrounding states, including those from Louisville, Cincinnati, Evansville, Nashville, Knoxville, and Huntington. We are expecting about 100 to 120 youth to attend and are preparing to give them a great experience.

Currently, we have housing facilities for only thirty or forty participants and this is where you, the congregants come in. We are asking that a few bold and courageous folks will be able to host youth coming here to Lexington. Now, most of you might be asking what you will have to do for these kinds. Well this is it: you will need to transport them to and from Temple during the weekend, feed them breakfast on Saturday morning, and most of all, give them a home away from home. Now that's not too bad is it? If you are interested, please call Adam Miller (606) 266-1636 or Brandon Wides (606) 223-2000. You will need to give them the number of delegates you are willing to house as well as gender preferred. Also, please indicate whether or not there is a smoker or pets at your house. Thank you, and believe me, we mean it.

LEISURE CLUB MEETING

The TAI Leisure Club will meet on Thursday, August 17th at Shoney's on Richmond Road at 12 noon for lunch and a presentation by Jerry Sander of TV Channel 27. Call Temple at 269-2979 and make your reservations now.

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

With great anticipation I look forward to the start of preschool. Our preschoolers will have many opportunities for new experiences and amazing discoveries. We are blessed with an outstanding staff for the 1995-96 school year. Four of our teachers are returning: Terri Potter is Lead Teacher for the 2 1/2 Year Old Class, Karla Frank is Lead Teacher for the 3 Year Old Class, Carol Tomko is Lead Teacher for the 4 Year Old Class, and Sarah Danow is Assistant Teacher for the 2 1/2 and 3 Year Old Classes. Welcome aboard, Linda!

Our enrollment is almost complete. We have only a few spaces available in the 2 1/2 and 4 Year Old Classes. Parent Orientation is scheduled for Tuesday, August 15th at 7 PM in the Social Hall. I encourage all preschool parents to attend.

If you are a Kroger shopper, please support our Kroger Certificate program which, at no cost to you, earns dollars for our preschool. To find out how you can make a difference, call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book which is passed out to the congregation just prior to Yizkor.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 18, 1995.

Tashlich Ceremony and Picnic at Jacobson Park Monday, September 25, at 5 PM

On the Monday afternoon of Rosh Hashanah, Temple Adath Israel will offer an opportunity to participate in the ancient Jewish ceremony of tashlich. Tashlich is an opportunity for an individual to symbolically cast off his/her sins/transgressions by tossing bread crumbs into a body of water. Tashlich is from the Hebrew word "to send off" or "throw". Many Reform Jewish congregations participate in this ceremony as a community or group experience. Coastal congregations go to the ocean. River congregations go to the river. In Lexington, we go to a lake.

Everyone is invited to pack a picnic supper and go to Jacobson Park, Shelter #1, which is reserved for TAI. Bring some bread crumbs, and together we will cast off last year's sins and transgressions in anticipation of the year to come. The shelter is reserved for 5 PM. At 5:30 PM, we will perform Tashlich.

Torah readers sought for the coming year. If you are interested in reading the Torah at an Erev Shabbat service, please contact Rabbi Adland at TAI. This could be your Bar/Bat Mitzvah portion or a new portion. Plenty of time will be allowed to learn the section.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE NEEDS YOUR HELP

The Temple Social Action Committee is forming a group of volunteers to be called upon this summer to process fresh produce donated by the community to the Hope Center. This is a "on demand" project. To avoid spoilage of this much needed food, produce can be processed for freezer and used year round. This is another important way TAI can support the Hope Center.

Please call Lowell Nigoff at 278-5220 to volunteer one or more times if possible.

JUDAISM ON-LINE

Have you been surfing lately?

No—we are not asking if you've been to Big Sur. We're wondering if you're an on-line traveler on the Internet.

The superhighway is chock full of information, discussions, advice—even stores—of interest to Reform Jews. Are you interested in Jewish mysticism? Or do you want to study the weekly Torah portion? Would you like to speak with Jewish feminists? Or is the Jewish slant on Washington of greater interest to you?

Whatever the topic, you're bound to find it on the Internet. And the UAHC is here to help you.

The UAHC is a charter member of the Shamash Consortium, a project to serve the Jewish Internet. All four denominations of Judaism—Reform, Reconstructionist, Conservative and Orthodox—support the Shamash Consortium, as do many other organizations in the Jewish community. It's the place to go if you want to surf, Jewishly.

As a part of the UAHC, member congregations may use Shamash for their own projects. For example, you might want to use Shamash to post events and your calendar, or create discussion groups. Through the UAHC, you can put up a home page—at no cost to your congregation. All it takes is willing volunteers!

If you haven't taken a look yet, try it. You'll find us at Shamash.Nyservernet.org.

Erev Shabbat Service on Sept. 8

In conjunction with the return of the 8 PM Erev Shabbat Service, Dr. Ken Foon, Director of the Markey Cancer Center, will address the congregation about the importance of being registered as a potential bone marrow donor.

The Union of American Hebrew Organizations, UAHC, the parent body of Reform Jewish congregations, through its Religious Action Center in Washington, D.C., is encouraging its congregations to become an active participant in the bone marrow registry program. Dr. Ken Foon will speak during services and immediately following the worship service, two other people, Dr. Phillips, who performs the procedure, and a bone marrow recipient, will speak about the process.

TAI will have a drive to register individuals sometime this fall. The Central Kentucky Blood Center will be at Temple to draw the blood needed for the typing. The TAI Social Action Committee is sponsoring the drive. Further information will be available soon.

TAI MAKHELA TO BEGIN REHEARSALS SEPTEMBER 17

The TAI Makhela, our children's choir for ages 4 and up, will begin rehearsals for the High Holy Days Sunday, September 17, at 9 AM. The TAI Makhela sings at the early Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Family services, as well as all Family Night Shabbat services during the year.

Makhela members should note that the first Family Night Shabbat service is September 15, at 7:30 PM, before the rehearsals begin. We need our former members to help make this service a successful beginning.

NEW 6TH-9TH GRADE CHOIR TO FORM THIS YEAR!

Sandy Adland has agreed to form a new choir of 6th-9th graders. This choir will meet during Religious School for ½ hour twice-a-month. Students who desire to be a part of this choir will be obligated to sing for at least 4 of the 6 designated Erev Shabbat 8 PM services. The music will be more sophisticated than the music used in the TAI Makhela.

DO YOU BUILD A SUKKAH?

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

SEPTEMBER 15, 1995

VOLUME 63

NO. 3

20 ELUL 5755

In This Corner

The High Holy Days are upon us again. It is that time of year when we turn our attention inward. We reflect on the past year and anticipate how we can make the next year better. This intensive period in Jewish life is called the Yamim Noraim--The Days of Awe.

An important part of the Yamim Noraim is a section in the morning service, both on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, called U'netaneh Tokef. According to the Gates of Repentance, our High Holy Day Mahzor (prayerbook), the words of the U'netaneh Tokef, "...were born of the martyrdom of Amon of Mayence....He said, 'U'netaneh Tokef kedushat hayom, Let us proclaim the sacred power of this day; it is awesome and full of dread. Now the divine Judge looks upon our deeds, and determines our destiny.'"

On Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, the words following the U'netaneh Tokef speak about who shall live and who shall die. Many of us are uncomfortable with this sort of predestination. We don't believe that our futures are predicted. Yet, though our futures may not be predicted, our actions can make them predictable. If we act in a moral and upright fashion, then the people we associate with will respect us, as well as vice versa. If we treat others kindly, both friends and strangers, then we will receive kind treatment as well.

Therefore, I wish to create a "who shall..." for Temple members and Jews not yet affiliated with a religious institution. As we enter the year 5756, may this year be filled with renewed spiritual and emotional growth, a renewed commitment to Tikkun Olam, and a commitment to making Judaism a more active part of our life.

Who shall live and who shall die;
who shall make Judaism a life priority and who shall forsake their Jewish soul;
who shall join a Temple or synagogue and who shall say it is not important;
who shall come to worship as a member of the community and who shall separate from the community;
who shall celebrate Rosh Hashanah and worship at Yom Kippur and who shall go to work or to school;
who shall contribute freely to a better Temple life and who shall turn away;
who shall strive to increase their Jewish knowledge and commitment, and who shall not;
who shall celebrate the simcha of a Temple family and who shall not pay any attention;

Sunday Shmoos

Leo Rosten, in Hooray for Yiddish!, defines "shmoos" as both "friendly chit-chat" and "to engage in, and enjoy, a heart-to-heart talk." Both capture the spirit of Sunday Shmoos, which meets in the Temple on selected Sunday mornings from 10:00 to 11:45 AM. The purpose of Sunday Shmoos is to provide a forum where people can come together to share a bagel (or two) and discuss things of personal concern to Temple members. Whether you come to the Temple to drop your children off at Sunday School, or you are simply looking for a place to nosh and have a lively discussion with others on a Sunday morning, you are welcome to join us. Sunday Shmoos resumes on Sunday (get it), September 24, at 10:00 AM. If you have any questions about Sunday Shmoos, please contact Mark and Tina Simpson.

HUNGER NEVER TAKES A HOLIDAY

Soon the High Holy Days will be here, and most of us will begin a healthy, happy, prosperous new year.

Many in Central Kentucky are not so lucky. Their futures are bleak and their cupboards are bare.

This is why the High Holy Days have come to mean that it's time for the annual TAI Food Drive.

Every year we donate about 2,000 pounds of food to God's Pantry, which distributes it to needy families in the Fayette County area.

We can be proud of that, but that's not the end of it. It's time to do it again.

At Erev Rosh HaShanah or Rosh HaShanah morning services you will get a shopping bag. Please fill it with food and bring it back to the Temple. It will mean a lot to many hungry people.

If you don't get a bag at those services, drop by the Temple and pick one up or call Bruce Engel at 252-3734.

HIGH HOLYDAYS 5756-1995 TESHUVA - REPENTANCE; TZEDAKAH - JUSTICE

As we observe our High Holydays, teshuva is uppermost in our minds and hearts. Tzedakah is in our hearts and hands throughout the year. At this season, the two are closely linked: our repentance depends largely on our actions toward those in need.

There is no traditional Jewish blessing for either teshuva or tzedakah.

Some say this is because we do not offer a blessing for a commandment we cannot complete on our own - and our teshuva is not complete until God accepts it. Our tzedakah is not complete without the participation of another person - the recipient.

Today in our midst there are so many who need our help. Many are children who live in poverty even though their families struggle to support them. Many are old and have lost the ability to care for themselves. Others are simply too sick, or lack the basic education and skills necessary to lift themselves out of poverty.

Millions of people are hungry in America and we have the power to help them. Jewish tradition urges us to do so; our own repentance depends on it. Thus tzedakah and teshuva are linked as we pledge that our actions in the coming year will reflect our renewed sense of justice.

With that understanding and in that spirit, MAZON asks that you contribute the dollars you and your family save by not eating on Yom Kippur, our day of voluntary fasting. As you provide important help to those in need, so too will you strengthen the link in your own life between tzedakah and sincere teshuva.

THE SYNAGOGUES OF KENTUCKY: HISTORY AND ARCHITECTURE

by Lee Shai Weissbach (Lexington University Press of Kentucky, 1995. Pp xiv, 184 Illustrations, photographs, maps, tables, appendices, notes, index (24.95)

At its title denotes, this volume looks -- both in terms of events and design -- at the buildings housing Kentucky's Jewish congregations through the years.

Organized Jewry in Kentucky began in the summer of 1842 with Louisville's Temple Adath Israel. Since then, at one time or another, there have been Jewish congregations in Ashland, Covington, Henderson, Hopkinsville, Lexington, Newport, Owensboro and Paducah -- two dozen all told, and most of them having their own house of worship.

"Of all the synagogue buildings in Kentucky," the author points out on pages 44-45, "only fifteen were erected as Jewish places of worship and never served any other purpose; these include the nine synagogues that are still in use by Jewish congregations today."

Architecturally, Kentucky's synagogues are representative of what occurred in American synagogue design during the same 150 years. On page 53, Professor Weissbach, informs us that "Kentucky Jews have tended to follow national trends in synagogue construction, and as a result the history of synagogue design in the commonwealth reflects quite reliably the history of synagogue architecture in America as a whole."

The discussion of synagogue design is divided into two chapters; before and after World War II, following which there was an exodus of Jews to the suburbs, with the accompanying need for new buildings to accommodate swelling congregations. Historical styles that had dominated American synagogue architecture were abandoned after the war. As the importance of Jewish communal activities increased, it became usual to place the Sanctuary adjacent to the social hall, with movable partitions between the rooms.

The author claims that Kentucky's synagogues can tell much about Jewish life at the local level and bear witness to the commonwealth's diverse and fascinating architectural heritage. This is indisputable. In addition, he affords a somewhat rare look at American Jewish life outside large cities.

Every synagogue that has ever stood in Kentucky is represented in picture, and there is helpful information throughout, such as the differences among Orthodox, Conservative and Reform Judaism -- along with the translation of Hebrew congregational names and comments on the variations of their spellings.

The author is professor and chairman of the Department of History at the University of Louisville, and he is highly qualified to produce such a study -- apparently the first published examination of synagogue buildings in an individual state.

The Hebrew word mitzvah can mean two things: "commandment" or "meritorious act." With this book, Professor Weissbach has surely performed the latter for significantly helping expand the appreciation of Kentucky's cultural diversity as well as its architectural heritage.

Daniel Kidd

The reviewer serves as Coordinator for Cultural and Heritage Tourism with the Kentucky Department of Travel and Development in Frankfort. He is currently researching a book on the architectural heritage of the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington.

From Rabbi Adland:

I am please to lend out my books to anyone at Temple Adath Israel. Unfortunately, I have lost track at who has what. If I have let you borrow a book from my personal library, please let me know or return it. My books are my treasures. I am happy to share them, but I would like them back.

PLEASE CONSIDER BECOMING A BONE MARROW DONOR

Bone marrow transplants have increased survival rates for patients with leukemia, aplastic anemia and other life threatening diseases. In these patients, bone marrow has stopped producing the correct amounts of blood cells. (Marrow is responsible for producing blood components including red blood cells, white blood cells and platelets.) Twenty-five to thirty per cent of the patients requiring bone marrow transplants find a match within their family. Other patients contact The National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP) to search for an unrelated donor. The best chance individuals have of finding a match is from a donor who is of the same racial or ethnic background. There is a shortage of minority donors registered with the NMDP.

Temple Adath Israel is encouraging members of the Jewish community to become volunteer marrow donors. The first step in becoming a volunteer is to have a small amount of blood drawn. The blood sample is characterized by key tissue types and this data is entered in the NMDP data base. If a volunteer appears to match a patient, he/she is contacted and if they agree, further tests are performed to determine compatibility. If this volunteer matches after this point, then arrangements are made to remove a small amount of bone marrow (less than 5%). The marrow is removed near the pelvic bone while the volunteer is under general or local anesthesia. The procedure takes about an hour. The body naturally replaces the marrow within a few weeks. Aside from some discomfort in the lower back, there is very little risk to the volunteer.

The Bone Marrow Donor Drive will take place on October 29, 1995 from 9 AM to 1 PM at the Temple. If you are between the ages of 18 and 55 and in good health, you may become a donor. If you are interested in helping in ways other than donating marrow, volunteers are needed to work at the drive. Additionally, contributions are needed to help cover the cost of the tissue typing. (The approximate cost of tissue typing is $45). A federal grant covers half of each fee and a Temple fund and donations must cover the balance of the fees.

Please contact Sarah Schrier at 271-4123 if you can work at the donor drive or if you have any questions.

New Year 5756*

THANK YOU JANICE AND JANET

Temple Adath Israel owes a big Todah Rabah (thank you) to Janice Newman and Janet Zusman who coordinated the Leisure Club activities for the last few years. These two volunteer women saw a need in the Temple and Jewish community for senior adult programming that was unfulfilled and they tried to offer this group an opportunity. This effort took a tremendous amount of time and energy. For all that they did, TAI and the Jewish community in Lexington is grateful. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

It is time now for another member of the community to step forward and fill the shoes of Janice and Janet. If you are interested, contact the Temple office.

ANNUAL TEMPLE FUND RAISER OCTOBER 21, 1995 - 6:30 PM

For one of your first mitzvot of 5756, please plan to attend TAI's major fund raiser of the year, the

מוס מְרַדֵּר אֶן מִנְתֵּי חֵילוֹ

MOOSE MURDER IN MONTE CHAI-LO!

At 6:30 PM on October 21st, there will be a combination Casino Night with dinner and a murder mystery where you will have the chance to solve the mystery and win a catered supper. Clues will be given in between live auction prizes. A silent auction will also be running throughout the evening. As in years past, games of chance will include blackjack, craps and roulette. Your winnings can help in your bidding for prizes. Watch for your invitation and please plan to attend this tax-deductable event that will benefit all areas of Temple programming. If you have any goods or services that you would be willing to donate, please contact Chas Hite at 266-0246 or Cheri Rose at 269-7367.

We also are looking for volunteers to deal blackjack or run a craps table for one hour shifts during the evening.

The Hebrew Reading Marathon is coming Feb. 25. Led by Rabbi Golinkin, this is a nationally renowned, successful, highly sought-after, one day, 8 hour program designed to teach anyone to read Hebrew. Save the date. This program is sponsored by Temple Adath Israel and the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation.

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

We're off to a great start in preschool. Only three openings remain; two in the 2 1/2 year old class and one in the 4 year old class. Our newest students are adjusting beautifully. The 4 year olds are learning about summer, insects, apples, acorns, and the coming of fall. The 3 year olds are learning about ourselves and our friends, Shabbat, and healthy bodies. The 2 1/2 year old's themes for September include our families, colors and gardens. All classes will learn about Rosh HaShanah.

Our TAI Preschool Annual Book Fair is scheduled for November 5, 1995. Used books as well as new books are available for purchase. Please begin saving your used books for us, both children's books and adult books. Your contribution of books is most helpful and greatly appreciated!

TAI SISTERHOOD NEWS

The TAI Sisterhood Board has been busy this summer planning a variety of programs to interest us all. On September 20th, we will have a luncheon with Joel Eizenstat, the new CKJF Director, as our guest speaker. I hope you will come. October 18th promises to be a fun filled evening to welcome new and prospective members to Sisterhood. Watch your mail for a flyer.

Break-the-Fast is October 4th and it takes the effort of many Sisterhood members to cook and serve that evening. Sarah Danow and Beth Engel may be calling you to work on this event so it will be a success.

There is a place for everyone at TAI Sisterhood whether it be on the Board, a committee, or just coming to a meeting. We want you and need you to be a part of TAI Sisterhood.

Best wishes for the New Year!

Shalom,

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book which is passed out to the congregation just prior to Yizkor.

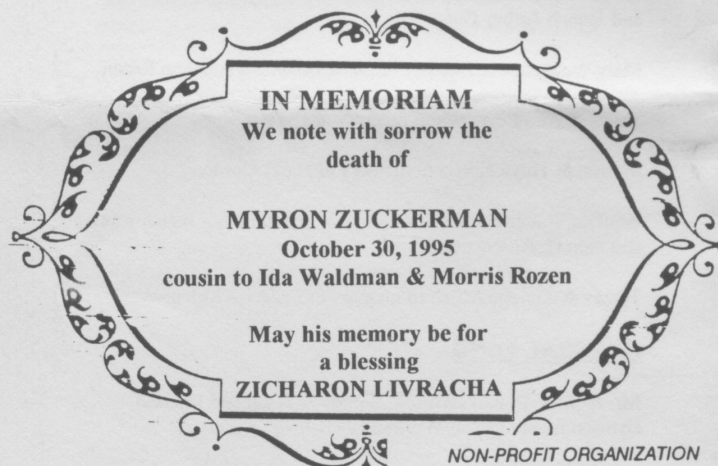

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 18, 1995.

WELCOMING Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur: Two Services for the Home

Yom Kippur

(Because Yom Kippur is a fast day, the Erev Yom Kippur meal must technically be eaten before Yom Kippur and its fast begin. The candles are therefore lit after the meal to mark the formal beginning of Yom Kippur and the beginning of the fast. Kiddush is also not said at this meal because kiddush can only be said after the lighting of the candles. Once the candles are lit, however, the fast has begun and so the wine for kiddush and hence the kiddush are not appropriate.)

MOTZI Before the Meal

According to Maimonides (of the twelfth century), "Free will is given to every human being. If we wish to incline ourselves towards goodness and righteousness, we are free to do so; and if we wish to incline ourselves towards evil, we are also free to do that. By our own faculty of intelligence and understanding we can distinguish between good and evil, doing as we choose. The power for this choice between good and evil is altogether in our hands."

As we approach Yom Kippur we pray for the power to make worthy choices all through this year. May our hands do good. May our hands always lead us towards blessing.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, המוציא לחם מן הארץ.

Ba-ruch a-ta, Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu me-lech ha-olam, ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

LIGHTING OF HOLIDAY (AND SABBATH) LIGHTS After the Meal

The holiest day of the year is about to begin. Let us use it well. May it be for each one of us a day of renewal. May it help us overcome what is evil in us and strengthen what is good. May it bring us closer to our real selves and make us more loyal to our people and our traditions.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are the great festivals of the Jewish year. They draw us to the synagogue with their promise of repentance and new beginnings, although each festival also offers opportunities to bring something precious into our homes. The meals that precede services can themselves also become special, and it is in that spirit that this pamphlet is offered to you and your family. The blessings and readings enclosed (Hebrew and/or English) are yours to use as you wish in welcoming the New Year. Shana Tova!

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של (שבת ושל) יום הכפורים.

Ba-ruch a-ta, Ado-nai, Elo-hei-nu melech ha-o-lam asher ki-de-shanu be-mitsvo-tav vi-tsi-vanu le-had-lik ner shel (Shabbat ve-shel) Yom ha-kippurim.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commanded us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) Yom Kippur.

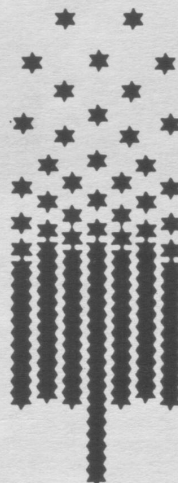

SHE-HE-CHE-YA-NU

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, שהחיינו וקיימנו והוציאונו לזמן הזה.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, me-lech ha-o-lam, she-he-che-ya-nu ve-ki-ye-ma-nu ve-hi-gi-a-nu laz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

May each of us be sealed in the Book of Life for a good year!

A final note: Tzedakah is always part of Jewish life. As it is traditional to give tzedakah at times of joy such as births and weddings, it is also Jewish custom to give tzedakah on the occasion of each of the festivals, including Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Helping promote any worthy cause may be one more way for you and your family to start out the New Year.

Rosh Hashanah

LIGHTING OF HOLIDAY (AND SABBATH) LIGHTS

(Light candles)

With the setting of this evening's sun, united with Jews in every place and every time, we will proclaim a new year of hope. May the light of God show us the paths we can follow to do good and create a world of peace. Let the fire we kindle be a warming flame that brings our family closer together and leads us into a year of health and wholeness.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו
במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של (שבת ושל) יום טוב.

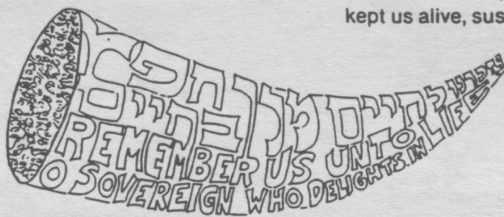

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam asher ki-de-sha-nu be-mits-vo tav ve-tsi-va-nu le-had-lik neir shel (Shabbat ve-shel) Yom Tov.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commanded us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) this "Yom Tov" Festival.

BLESSING OF CHILDREN

(At this point parents may wish to bless their children. A traditional prayer follows, although any words—even a silent prayer—can suit the moment.
Some parents might want to place their hands on their children's heads.
Others might hold their children's hands.)

May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord look kindly upon you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord bestow all blessings upon you and give you peace.
Amen.

BLESSINGS FOR THE MEAL

(A round challah is used to symbolize the continuously unfolding cycle of life.)

In a world of famine we have been blessed with plenty. In a world of hunger we have been blessed with sustenance. May this be the year in which we share the blessing of bread with all who are in need.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, המציא לחם מן
הארץ.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

KIDDUSH FOR ROSH HASHANAH

(Holding the cup)

We praise You, O God, and give thanks for the year that is gone:
for life, health, and strength; for home, love, and friendship. May our cup of life be filled with blessings in the year ahead. We praise You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai, E-lo-hei-nu,

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו,

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

(The wine is drunk.)

(Slices of apple are dipped in honey and before eating the following is said.)

Lord our God and God of our people, may the new year be good and sweet for us.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, בורא פרי העץ.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam bo-rei pri ha-etz.

of the fruit of the tree, Creator of the sweetness in life.

(After the meal Birkat Hamazon can be said. The text is available in the Temple office.)

In This Corner...

Trying to find new ways to enhance the spiritual and emotional experience of the Shabbat worship service, so that it will meet the needs of those in attendance, is challenging. Reform Judaism's population consists of individuals who come from a variety of backgrounds including the various Jewish denominations, Jewish communities throughout the United States and the world, and Protestant and Catholic Christianity.

We bring to an Erev Shabbat service different needs and desires. Some people at services want to feel the peacefulness of Shabbat rest. Some people read the words of the siddur, searching for a ray of light that can offer hope and comfort. Some people want to sing. Some people want to learn. Without question, the worshippers at any given Shabbat service are an eclectic group of Temple members, guests, and visitors.

Recently, the worship committee agreed to two new additions at Shabbat services. Actually one is an adjustment and the other one is new. The adjustment is moving the kiddush to the end of the service. Before I explain the reason behind this move, let me say that where I grew up as a Jew, the kiddush was said at the end of the service. Like most people, what you experience in your own congregation is the way you expect worship to be done everywhere. As I have learned and many of you have experienced by attending services in other communities, rarely is a service identical from place to place. I have seen the kiddush said in the middle of the service, as well our tradition of doing it right after the candle blessing.

Traditional Jews don't celebrate kiddush at an Erev Shabbat service at all, but say it at home preceding the Shabbat meal. Reform Judaism added both the candle lighting and kiddush to the Erev Shabbat service because the rabbis feared that many people were not doing it at home at all. These rituals were too important to be forgotten. They probably were and are right.

The kiddush is a wonderful prayer which celebrates Shabbat, reminds of creation and redemption, and proclaims the kedusha, holiness of Shabbat. When it is sung, it is joyful and uplifting. The l'chaim at the end is said with fervor and love.

A Temple member returned from a visit to another congregation and commented to me that this congregation says kiddush at the end of the service. She told me that the children are invited onto the bimah and the children in child care brought into the sanctuary at that time. What a wonderful way to end the service. We will sing the closing song, invite the children onto the bimah, say or sing the kiddush, say a motzi, and then say "Shabbat Shalom."

The second innovation is more serious. We have not done well in acknowledging the pain in the lives of our congregants as their friends and relatives faced illness. There is a traditional prayer called Mi she-bei-rach which asks for God's blessings of strength and courage for those who are ill. Debbie Friedman, a dynamic Jewish woman songwriter who has written many songs that are being sung in Temples and by our youth for over 25 years, put Mi she-bei-rach to music. The words are:

*Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu
M'kor ha-bra-cha l'i-mo-tei-nu
May the source of strength
Who blessed the ones before us
Help us find the courage
To make our lives a blessing
And let us say, Amen*

*Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu
M'kor ha-bra-cha l'a-vo-tei-nu
Bless those in need of healing
With r'fu-a sh'lei-ma
The renewal of body
The renewal of spirit
And let us say, Amen*

We will include an opportunity in every service for the Mi she-bei-rach. All of us should have the opportunity to seek healing in our lives and the lives of those who may be in need.

Every Person's Guide to

Judaism, by Stephen J. Einstein and Lydia Kukoff, is a wonderful entrance into the world of Judaism. This book is written in a concise form, giving the Jew looking for basic Jewish information and the non-Jew seeking a door to open into the Jewish world an easy first step.

The book is divided in four major sections. The first is called "The Cycle of the Year." Here we learn about Shabbat, the High Holy Days, as well as the major and minor festivals. Each holiday description is enhanced with historical information, customs, foods, and observances. The second section is "The Cycle of Life." Not only do we learn about the Jewish life cycle events, but we are introduced to the idea that Judaism is a lifetime commitment both in and out of Temple and the home. The next section is about faith. Views about God, liturgy, and prayer ritual move us deeper into the Jewish world. The final section considers "Contemporary Jewish Life." We learn about the different Jewish denominations, the idea of community, and the role of the synagogue.

If you are looking for a book about basic Judaism, Every Person's Guide to Judaism, will give you a nice introduction.

DONOR DRIVE

October 29, 1995

ALL THAT IS REQUIRED IS A SMALL BLOOD SAMPLE.

There is a shortage of minorities in the National Marrow Donor Registry.

Please consider adding yourself.

For more information contact

Sarah Schrier, 271-4123.

PLEASE CONSIDER BECOMING A BONE MARROW DONOR

Bone marrow transplants have increased survival rates for patients with leukemia, aplastic anemia and other life threatening diseases. In these patients, bone marrow has stopped producing the correct amounts of blood cells. (Marrow is responsible for producing blood components including red blood cells, white blood cells and platelets.) Twenty-five to thirty per cent of the patients requiring bone marrow transplants find a match within their family. Other patients contact The National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP) to search for an unrelated donor. The best chance individuals have of finding a match is from a donor who is of the same racial or ethnic background. There is a shortage of minority donors registered with the NMDP.

Temple Adath Israel is encouraging members of the Jewish community to become volunteer marrow donors. The first step in becoming a volunteer is to have a small amount of blood drawn. The blood sample is characterized by key tissue types and this data is entered in the NMDP data base. If a volunteer appears to match a patient, he/she is contacted and the individual agrees, further tests are performed to determine compatibility. If the volunteer matches after this point, then arrangements are made to remove a small amount of bone marrow (less than 5%). The marrow is removed near the pelvic bone while the volunteer is under general or local anesthesia. The procedure takes about an hour. The body naturally replaces the marrow within a few weeks. Aside from some discomfort in the lower back, there is very little risk to the volunteer.

The Bone Marrow Donor Drive will take place on October 29, 1995 from 9 AM to 1 PM at the Temple. If you are between the ages of 18 and 55 and in good health, you may become a donor. If you are interested in helping in ways other than donating marrow, volunteers are needed to work at the drive. Additionally, contributions are needed to help cover the cost of the tissue typing, balance of the fees.

Please contact Sarah Schrier at 271-4123 if you can work at the donor drive or if you have any questions.

Board Discussion Topics

At the Temple Board of Trustees meeting in September, two issues were discussed about which the membership should be made aware. The first is our participation in the building of another house in the "Habitat for Humanity" program. Temple Adath Israel participated in the building of two houses in past years. The first we built with Maxwell St. Presbyterian Church and Walnut Hill Church. The second we built with the churches of the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington. We have raised, through the generosity of this congregation, nearly $15,000 for these programs. "Habitat for Humanity" wants us to participate in building another house with the churches of the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington. A motion was passed that the Temple will try to raise, without obligation, up to $5,000. We are looking at late spring 1996 to build the house.

The second issue is not yet totally resolved. This summer, when Rabbi Adland was on vacation, a member of this congregation passed away. Rabbi Adland and his family returned early from their vacation, but before that was determined the thought of flying him into Lexington and back to his family was discussed. The question this raises is who is liable for picking up the costs for such an emergency. The direction the board is leaning is to create a budget line for such a situation so that a grieving family would not need to worry. A common practice is for the family to bear the burden of the cost.

Both of these issues above are important ones for our Temple membership. If you have any thoughts on the above, please contact Rob Rosenstein in writing and, if necessary, he will share these thoughts with the Executive Committee and the Board.

GOD'S PANTRY NEEDS OUR HELP!!

The Temple Social Action Committee is looking for interested adults to work at God's Pantry one Sunday morning a month beginning in October and continuing through May. The job of the volunteer varies depending on the center's needs. These jobs may include sorting canned food items, packaging beans, etc.

(FYI--If you are a Religious School parent, the hours of work will be from 10:00 to 11:45 AM.)

Call TAI, 269-2979, if you are interested.

Sunday Schmoos

Leo Rosten, in Hooray for Yiddish!, defines "shmoos" as both "friendly chit-chat" and "to engage in, and enjoy, a heart-to-heart talk." Both capture the spirit of Sunday Shmoos, which meets in the Temple on selected Sunday mornings from 10:00 to 11:45 AM. The purpose of Sunday Shmoos is to provide a forum where people can come together to share a bagel (or two) and discuss things of personal concern to Temple members. Whether you come to the Temple to drop your children off at Sunday School, or you are simply looking for a place to nosh and have a lively discussion with others on a Sunday morning, you are welcome to join us.

Sunday Shmoos will gather on October 22 and November 5. If you have any questions about Sunday Shmoos, please contact Mark and Tina Simpson.

TODAH RABBAH

A special thanks to David Cantor for his efforts in coordinating the resealing and respiping of the Temple parking lot. David performed this service as an Eagle Scout project.

Thanks also to those Scouts and members of the TAI Brotherhood who contributed their effort to this project.

LEADERSHIP ENRICHMENT

Andy Weiner will be offering a series of Leadership Enrichment workshops which are open to ALL members of the congregation. The workshops will be held on Sunday morning every month from 10 AM to 12 noon beginning on November 12th. These sessions are designed to enhance anyone's leadership capability. The results are applicable not only to Temple service but also your work or any other group situations.

The opening session is titled "Leadership in the Jewish Community" and will involve group discussion. Dates for future sessions will be Dec. 17, Jan. 21, Feb. 11, March 10 and April 21.

Please contact the Temple office at 269-2979 if you are interested in participating so we can prepare adequate materials (and bagels!).

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

The month of October is filled with many fun and exciting experiences. All classes will explore autumn from a multi-sensory perspective, tasting, smelling, hearing, touching and seeing a variety of things which accompany the season. Classes will also focus upon the Jewish holidays of Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Simchat Torah. In addition, the firefighters and their fire truck will visit us during the second week of October. The 4 year old class continues to enjoy the many "guest readers" (moms, dads, grandparents) that visit the class and read to them each week. Fall Parent/Teacher Conferences are scheduled from October 9th through October 20th.

Watch for details regarding our Annual Book Fair on November 5th. Please save your used books for us, because they really make a difference. You can drop them off by the preschool office anytime, or call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 if you need someone to pick them up. Also, a big thank you to everyone who regularly supports our Kroger Certificate program. You truly make a wonderful difference!

PLEASE NOTE: A PRESCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETING WILL BE HELD AT 7:30 PM ON OCTOBER 26, 1995 AT TAI.

FROM THE HALLS OF THE TAI RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Our year is off to a good start! Most of our staff is back and we welcome several new teachers. Linda Wurmser Noffsinger (3rd grade teacher), Jenny Weiner (6th grade teacher), Marsha Matthews (7th grade senior block), Connie Loventhal and Martha Pearson (9th grade senior block). Several members of last year's confirmation class have returned as aides. Erin Baker and Elissa Brown (my aides), Kelli Newman and Andrea Silberman (4 year old class), Adam Miller (1st grade) and Ben Auerback (2nd grade).

We had a busy first day, with parents attending a "general information meeting" as well as hearing an overview of the curriculum for grades 1 through 6; "To See The World Through Jewish Eyes" and the course of study and requirements for students in block classes grades 7 through 10. We finished the day with the "Opening Day/Get Acquainted Picnic"; sponsored by the TAI Brotherhood, which included a surprise birthday cake for Ben Beker.

We have exciting plans for this year and hope you will join your children in exploring their Judaism. Happy New Year!

Judi Wurmser Higdon
Religious School Director

5th GRADE CLASS

Jane Grise, Teacher

We have learned a lot in the short amount of time we have been in Religious School this year. For instance, we have learned that Adam means humanity and Eve means mother of all living. We have also learned about the story of Jonah. On the first day of school, we decorated our names on construction paper. We did a trial on Adam, Eve, and the serpent and we read the story of creation.

6TH GRADE CLASS - Jenny Weiner, Teacher

It was "Back to Sunday School" time for sixth graders on September 10th. As old friendships were renewed, two new class members were introduced and welcomed. Rachel Probst and Jenny Taff are the newest sixth grade additions and we are so glad they have joined us.

The sixth graders have a busy year planned. They are learning about obligations to themselves, their community and their religion. They plan to volunteer at God's Pantry the month of December and visit a nursing home several times throughout the year.

Plans also include presenting a Purim play before the carnival (calling all costume designers!!)

TEMPLE ADAPT ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

JUDAISM ON-LINE

The world is at your fingertips, the saying goes....so long as your fingers are dancing on your computer keyboard.

Information about Judaism in general, Reform Judaism in particular, is being posted on the Internet so quickly it is difficult to keep up with it. If you want to see what's available, a good place to start is

<http://shamash.nysernet.org>

You'll find pointers to reference materials and discussion groups on almost any topic.

If you want information about Reform Judaism, try

<http://shamash.nysernet.org/lists/scj-faq/HTML/rl/jlu-index.html>

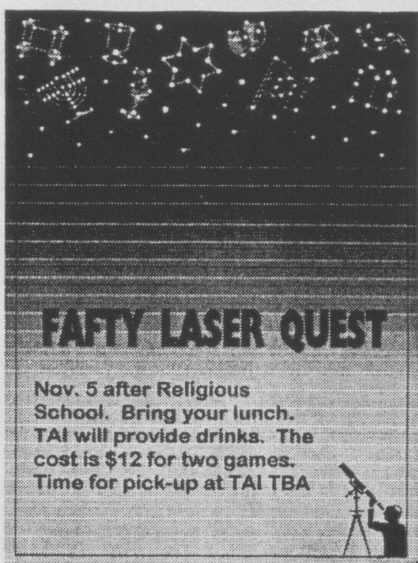

which will bring to a reading list, or

<http://shamash.nysernet.org/lists/scj-faq/HTML/faq/18-index.html> which is an index to frequently asked questions about Reform Judaism that was prepared by Dan Faigin, who has moderated the liberal Judaism maillist for five years. If you are not a subscriber and are interested, send a message to Dan at faigin@shamash.nysernet.org.

Please include your first and last names.

STAYING IN TOUCH - ELECTRONICALLY: UAHC CREATES COLLEGE CONNECTION

In an effort to help Reform college students remain connected to their Judaism, the UAHC is reaching out - electronically. The UAHC is also recommending that congregations develop regular e-mail communication with their students to keep them up to date on news at home.

"The college years are a critical time period for continued Jewish identity," said Rabbi Eric Yoffie, President-Elect of the UAHC. "Away from home, their beliefs challenged both in and outside the classroom, they may appreciate notes to help balance these forces."

The e-mail College Connection will provide information about the Reform movement and holidays as well as timely issues. Discussion groups on issues of particular relevance to students will also be established for those who wish to join.

E-mail is the vehicle of choice as most colleges issue e-mail addresses to incoming students, and while the students may change dorms, move into apartments or fraternity houses, spend the year in Israel or even get married, their e-mail addresses stay with them. UAHC hopes to collect the e-mail address of every one of the thousands of Reform students.

To reach these students, we need your help. Please ask your students for their e-mail addresses and send this form to:

David Terdiman, Director of UAHC College Programs, Kutz Camp, PO Box 443, Warwick, NY 10990. Or, e-mail it to him at KESHERUAHC@aol.com.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

VISION COMMITTEE NEWS

My name is Jane Burri and I am a member of the Vision Committee and Co-chair of the Membership Committee, along with Alan Bernard. One of my goals for the Membership Committee, is to enable new members to feel connected with the TAI community. Here are some ways new members can become acquainted with other members of TAI.

1. Find out who in their neighborhood is a member of TAI. Do this by creating a map for Temple members showing where they live, both within and outside Lexington.
2. Plan neighborhood get togethers for TAI members. This could include a Friday night Shabbat-at-home or a social event.
3. Expand the yearbook to include such things as individual/family pictures, interest/hobbies, and committee membership. Members can then become more familiar with faces and perhaps contact individuals with similar interests.

If you think any of these ideas are workable and you would like to assist me in implementing them, please contact the Temple.

SHARE THE JOY OF SHABBAT by attending a neighborhood service conducted by your fellow congregants in their home. On a future Shabbat, the congregants of TAI will gather in selected homes to experience a community wide "At Home Shabbat" service. If you are interested, please contact Beth Engel at 269-6555 or Sara Schrier at 271-4123.

NO. 7

22 CHESHVAN 5756

In This Corner...

Beginning January 1, 1996, I will take the first of the four Sabbatical months the congregation granted me in my recent contract. The congregation awarded me one month a year for the next four years. This Sabbatical time is not only appreciated, but needed. I thank each and every member of the congregation for this opportunity.

Since I arrived at Temple Adath Israel in 1986, I have worked tirelessly to enhance our congregation's programs from our tots to the seniors. Some programs have succeeded, others failed, but we continue to test out new ideas each and every year. During these years, the person I have neglected most is me. I have not set aside the time to study. My library is full of books, but I have not read them all. I try to keep up with magazines and periodicals, but my schedule doesn't allow for the in depth reading I must do to really absorb the content. Therefore, I am the one who asked for the time off to study and recharge my intellectual energies. It is with your consent that it is happening.

What I will be doing during this time is reading and studying Torah and Midrash, improving my Hebrew skills, reading books that I would normally never have the time to do, and looking to understand more about my life as a spiritual. I will also take some time to be a father to my children and a husband to my wife by being home at night. The busy life of a rabbi sometimes leads to neglects of these important areas. What I will not be doing is going to work at Temple, reading my mail, answering phone messages, and other related business. I will be available, if I am in town, to officiate at certain life cycle events, if needed.

Everything is being taken care of from my end. Temple members will conduct services, help with my religious school class, and take care of any other day to day business that might have involved my presence. I will take time in December to make sure bulletin articles and flyers are prepared and programs that involve me in the spring are organized.

What I need from you is to respect and appreciate this special time for me. It isn't a vacation, but a period of study and renewal. I hope you will allow me this time away. Also, it would be helpful if Temple members undertook the role of Bikur Cholim, visiting the sick in the hospital. The secretary calls the hospital three times a week to learn if any members are hospitalized. If you call the Temple, she can tell you if someone is in the hospital or if you know that someone is there, please go and visit.

I also want to take the time to thank all those who expressed to me their concern about my father who had heart surgery. I had to leave town very quickly in early November to go home for a visit. Many people pitched in to fill my regular roles including Michael Sommer who led services and Samye Miller who taught Religious School. These two people, as well as others, said yes without hesitation. This type of compassion and understanding is what builds a group of people into a community.

Before I go on Sabbatical, there are still so many things happening at TAI. The TRYB (formerly LEXTY) is hosting a sub-regional conclave Nov. 17-19. On Sunday, November 19, Kol B'Seder, a musical duo of rabbi and cantor will perform in a free concert at 2 PM, at TAI. The Third Annual Thanksgiving Interfaith Service will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 22, at The Cathedral of Christ the King. In December, there is an Outreach meeting, MSTYG program, a visit from our UAHC Regional Director, Rabbi Steve Pinsky, a Sisterhood/Brotherhood Hanuka program, and the annual Hanuka Pot Luck Shabbat Dinner.

Our Temple building is a busy place and our congregation's programs continue to grow and expand. I can only urge you to become involved and participate.

Rabbi Jon Adland

From the Rabbi's Library

Many of you in attendance at the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur afternoon commented on the beautiful story I read. The story titled, "Sarika's Story," by Rabbi Susan Talve, is from the book Chosen Tales, edited by Peninnah Schram. The book contains a variety of stories which are told by a number of different Jewish storytellers. The storytellers wrote down their magical and beautiful stories to share with you and me.

I haven't read every story in this book; there are about 75 stories from nearly 70 different individuals. Some of the stories are original. Some come from our tradition and are retold for today's audience. Some stories are only retold with a new voice. Most importantly, we are introduced to each story by the storyteller. We learn about the storyteller and how the storyteller came to discover this story. Peninnah Schram is masterful in her editing of this book. She brings us first the storyteller and then the story. Sometimes we are left wondering whether the storyteller created the story or did the story create the storyteller.

Peninnah Schram is no stranger to the world of storytelling. She is the author or co-author of three other popular and excellent story books: Jewish Stories One

God's Pantry Food Drive Nets 1,955 pounds

Though the quantity of food decreased for the second straight year, the members of TAI who returned bags filled with food items for God's Pantry still accounted for 1,955 lbs. of food. Thank you to everyone who contributed. Your efforts will make a difference in the lives of many people.

Please remember! We still need volunteers to work on Sundays at God's Pantry. Check the listing for future dates.

Temple Prayer Book Fund Needs Your Support

The Temple Prayer Book Fund is used for the purchase of new prayer books and the rebinding of old prayer books. At this time, the fund is almost depleted. In recent years, as a result of normal wear, many of our Shabbat prayer books, the Gates of Prayer, have been rebound rather than our purchasing replacement books at a significantly higher cost. There are still many books which must be rebound in order for us to continue to have prayer books which are in good condition.

At this time, I am asking each of our Temple families to consider a small donation to replenish this fund. The cost of a new Gates of Prayer is $20. The cost of rebinding is $10. Please consider a contribution of $10-20. Your generosity as a community is always appreciated.

L'Shalom,

Jon Adland, rabbi

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FIRST GRADE

Anita Mersack, Teacher

The First Grade class has been busy studying all the holidays that come at the beginning of the school year. We made New Year's cards and blew the shofar for Rosh HaShanah, made New Year's resolutions for Yom Kippur, made a collage of things for Sukkot and made a model Torah for Simchat Torah.

We have really enjoyed music with Sandy Adland and art projects with Sara Hoffman. A big thank you goes to Adam Miller and Beth Veal. They are great aides and I could not get along without them.

THIRD GRADE

Linda Noffsinger, Teacher

The High Holidays, Sukkot and Simchat Torah have kept us very busy. We have completed a number of activities to make learning about them fun. The students are eagerly recording their experiences during Religious School in their personal journals. We're excited about the basket that we're preparing for a special family this Thanksgiving.

We are also looking forward to the Hanukkah Door Decoration contest! A "thank you" is in order for our class parents! The students definitely appreciate the snacks you've sent, which they usually enjoy during a story. A special welcome to Laura Taff. She lives in Georgetown with her parents and sister. Laura likes horses and being outdoors.

FIFTH GRADE

Jane Grise, Teacher

Article by Ross Rosenstein, Cody Lonsbury & Joshua Adland

Over the last couple of weeks, our fifth grade class has been talking about Social Action. One week, Rabbi & Sandy Adland came to our class and talked about the ten goals of Reform Jewish education. The next week we talked about Tikun Olam. Tikun Olam is the restoration of the world.

Two weeks later, Ben McDonald's mom came in and talked about Leviticus 19 which includes some of the 613 commandments. The next week we went to God's Pantry. We helped them sort food. This was a great month in Religious School.

VISION COMMITTEE

A meeting of the Vision Committee was held on 25 October at the home of Beth Engel. The Vision Committee is a group that gets together once a month to discuss actions and activities that will encourage and support a sense of community within the Temple.

The following ideas were discussed:

Volunteering: By working together on Temple projects we all get to know one another better. When coordinating a project, we should try to include anyone who says they can help, even if it is by asking them to do small jobs like making phone calls or picking up project materials. People should be assured that it is good and helpful to volunteer small amounts of time to do tasks that easily fit into their schedules.

Younger Youth Groups: Social and educational programs for children in early primary grades will help develop relationships among children and parents who might otherwise only see each other at religious school.

Tot Shabbat: Once a month the Temple could have a special early Shabbat service aimed at children between the ages of 1 and 3. The service could be followed with a family dinner. A regular Shabbat service would be held at the usual time.

Yearbook: Expand the information in the yearbook to include information about congregants' special skills, interests, hobbies, and employment.

Shabbat at Home: On September 27, 1996 volunteer families will have a Shabbat service and dinner in their homes for members of the congregation. (A brief early service will be held at the Temple.)

Mitzvah Day: The Temple will sponsor a day when we reach out to the community and help others. Working with social and community service organizations and through the Temple resources we will identify what types of tasks we can perform and send out groups to do them. The day will begin and end with some type of worship at the Temple. Activities will also take place at the Temple so that people of all ages and all skill levels may participate.

Religious School listing: A list of the names, addresses, phone numbers and family members for each class can be prepared and distributed. This would make it easy to learn what classmates are neighbors and also make it easy to contact one another.

If you would like to share your ideas about the Vision Committee or if you would like to participate in any of the activities, please contact the Rabbi Adland.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

The TAI Budget Committee is about to start preparing a budget for the 1996-97 fiscal year. Any Temple member is welcome and encouraged to participate in the budgeting process. Below is a schedule of the planned meetings. All meetings will be held at TAI.

A HANUKKAH GLOSSARY

HANUKKAH - A Hebrew word meaning "dedication". When the Jews had sent the Syrians down to final defeat, their first act was to cleanse the Temple in Jerusalem and remove the various pagan symbols and idols from it. They then held a ceremony dedicating the Temple once again to God. The holiday derives its name from the ceremony.

JUDAH MACCABEE - The name comes from the first letters of the Hebrew prayer Mi Kamocha Ba-elim Adonai ("Who is like Thee, O Lord!") inscribed on the Maccabean battle banner. Another reason that Judah was called the Maccabee is that he struck with the force of a mighty hammer. The Hebrew word for hammer is "makav". Judah became known as "The Hammer" or The Maccabee.

MACCABEES - Hebrew soldiers who fought the Syrians. Named after their leader, Judah the Maccabee.

MENORAH - Hanukkah candle holder. Contains places for 8 candles and a 9th candle, the shamus, is raised above the others. Each of the 8 candles represents one of the 8 days of Hanukkah.

DREIDEL - A four-sided top used on Hanukkah. Each side has a different Hebrew letter: nun, gimmel, hay, and shin. This stands for "Nes gadol ha-ya sham" ("A great miracle happened there").

SHAMUS - Helper candle used to light all the other candles.

LATKES - Potato pancakes. Traditional Hanukkah delicacy.

MATTATHIAS the Hasmonean - Priest who started revolt against the Syrians. Father of Judah Maccabee.

THE STORY OF HANUKKAH

After the death of Alexander the Great (323 BCE) his Empire was divided into two smaller kingdoms - Egypt to the south and Syria to the north.

In the year 175 BCE there arose a new king in Syria - Antiochus IV. He was a harsh ruler and treated all those whom he conquered cruelly.

Antiochus sent officers to the cities of Judea to proclaim, "The king has ordered all his kingdom to become one people and that everyone should forsake his own laws and his own religion." The king commanded the people to break the Sabbath and ignore the holy Jewish festivals. He instructed the Jews to ignore their prayers and religious practices. An idol was placed on the altar of God and incense burned in its honor.

The king's officer came to the city of Modin and said to Mattathias, a priest who dwelt in Modin, "You are a great man and well-known in the city. Come and fulfill the king's command and you shall be counted among the king's friends." But Mattathias turned to the officer and answered in a loud voice, "Neither I or my sons nor any faithful Hebrews will ever worship an idol."

The Syrian officer called for another volunteer. When, in the sight of all the people, one of the Jews came forward to sacrifice to the idol, Mattathias was filled with anger, and struck him down.

Then Mattathias leaped to the top of the altar and shouted, "All those who are faithful to the Lord, follow me."

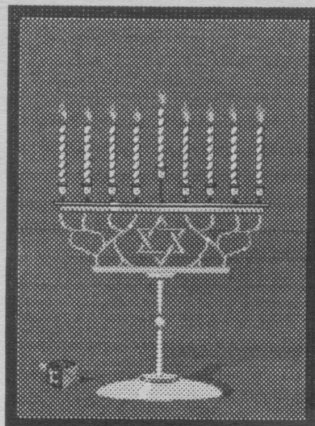

One of Mattathias' sons, Judah (called "The Maccabee"), became the commander-in-chief of the Hebrew army and led the people into battle. Never did people fight more bravely against such odds. Because they were dedicated to their religious heritage and to the principles for which it stood, they were filled with the courage and strength to achieve the final victory.

Judah, his brothers and all loyal Jews came to rededicate the Temple in Jerusalem. However, when the people gathered to celebrate the "rededication" the High Priest could find only one small jar of Holy oil with which to light the Ner Tamid (the Eternal Light). This was just enough oil to burn for one day. Then it was that a wondrous thing occurred. For the oil in the lamp burned for eight days!

In remembrance of this great occasion, Hanukkah - the Feast of Dedication - is observed every year for eight days, beginning with the twenty-fifth day of the month of Kislev.

Since the time of the Maccabees the battle for religious freedom has been fought over and over again throughout the world. After each victory, grateful men, women and children have dedicated themselves to their traditions and kept alive the remembrance of the struggle for religious freedom. As we celebrate the festival of Hanukkah, this year and every year, let us always give thanks for the freedom which our ancestors won so bravely. May we always treasure this precious possession, and ever seek to build a world in which all people may live in freedom and peace.

ve-ki-ye-ma-nu ve-hi-gi-a-nu la-ze-man ha-zeh.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us and for enabling us to reach this season.

FOR EACH NIGHT

As the Shamas (servant) candle is kindled, we say each day: As one candle may kindle many others and yet lose none of its own light, so Judaism has kindled the light of truth for many religions in many lands and still shines brightly through the eyes.

FIRST NIGHT - FREEDOM

We kindle these Hanukkah lights in memory of the dedication and courage of the Maccabees. Believing that they should be free to worship God as their hearts and minds dictated, they willingly gave their lives for freedom. Now, kindling these candles, we rededicate ourselves to work for the equal rights of all people, and for the realization of a society of democracy and freedom.

SECOND NIGHT - FAMILY

Tonight as we celebrate Hanukkah together we are conscious of our precious gift of family. So often we take one another for granted, forgetting to express our love and devotion. Let us, now, as we kindle these festive lights rededicate ourselves to sharing our interests and time with one another. Like the Maccabees of old, let us always face the tribulations and the joys of life united by our family bonds. Kindling these lights, we pray that through kindness and thoughtfulness, our love for one another will increase from strength to strength.

THIRD NIGHT - TORAH

On the third night of Hanukkah, we rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition. As the Maccabees courageously fought to preserve our faith, we, too are duty-bound to sustain our heritage by deepening our understanding of it through study. By increasing our knowledge of Judaism we have become more sensitive to its abiding values, more aware of our responsibility to realize these values in our society. Study opens our minds and fortifies us against tyranny. Learning secures our freedom. Let us, then, as we kindle these candles rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition.

FOURTH NIGHT - HOPE

Our ancestors have taught us that in hope a person's future is illumined and made creative. Ours are times when many people live in fear and great despair. Like the Maccabees, we need to build our lives on hope. Hope that ultimately, truth will triumph over superstition and confidence, that trust and understanding will finally depose superstition and tyranny. Now as we kindle these Hanukkah lights, may our eyes be directed to the loftiest visions of our faith.

FIFTH NIGHT - CHARITY

Our tradition tells us that during the Maccabean war for freedom, all Jews, both children and adults, contributed toward the cause of defeating the oppressor. There are many forms of oppression still existent in our world today.

There are people afflicted by sickness, hunger, ignorance and prejudice. Tonight we, like our ancestors, put aside gifts of Tzedakah in order that we, too, may help to bring an end to oppression. We pray that the humble gifts we offer will provide food for the hungry, medicine for the sick, knowledge for the ignorant, and equal opportunity for those afflicted by prejudice. Now as we kindle our Hanukkah lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the ideal of Tzedakah, righteousness and justice, found in our Jewish tradition.

SIXTH NIGHT - SHALOM

The candles of Hanukkah remind us of our chosen mission as Jews. Like the Maccabees we seek to rededicate ourselves to the service of God. Today one of our foremost tasks is to secure peace in our troubled world. When we end disagreements through mutual understanding, when we seek to mend hurt and wounded feelings, we make peace a living idea. Then let us, as we kindle our Hanukkah candles, rededicate ourselves with renewed strength to the task of securing peace.

SEVENTH NIGHT - BROTHERHOOD & SISTERHOOD

Brotherhood and Sisterhood is founded upon a total respect for the liberty and freedom of all people. The Maccabees of old sought to protect themselves when their rights were violated. Our Hanukkah lights serve as a reminder that peace is secure only when we honor the precious liberty and property of our fellow neighbor. As we kindle these lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the cause of peace which alone can bring dignity to all everywhere.

EIGHTH NIGHT - FAITH

Tonight we kindle all the candles of our Hanukkah Menorah. Throughout the centuries the Menorah has been a symbol of our Jewish faith. Like the Maccabees, when they celebrated this festive holiday, we rededicate ourselves to the living of a more meaningful Jewish life. We pray that throughout this coming year, we may fulfill the ideals of freedom, Tzedakah, family, study, hope, shalom, brotherhood and sisterhood, all of which are symbolized by the candles of our Menorah.

HANUKKAH SONGS

MAOZ-TZUR - ROCK OF AGES

Ma-oz tsur y-shu-ati l-cha na-eh l-sa-be-ach
Ti-kon bet te-fi-la-ti v'sham to-dah n'za-be-ach
L'et ta-chin mat-be-ach mi-tzar ham-na-be-ach
(Az eg-mor be-shir miz-mor cha-nu-kat ha-miz-be-ach) 2

Rock of Ages, let our song Praise Thy saving power;
Thou, a-midst the raging foes, Wast our shelt'-ring tower.
Furious, they assailed us, But Thine arm availed us,
And Thy word... Broke their sword...
When our own strength failed us.

O HANUKKAH, O HANUKKAH

O Hanukkah, O Hanukkah
Come light the menorah!
Let's have a party,
We'll all dance the horah.

Gather 'round the table,
We'll give you a treat,
Dreidels to play with,
And latkes to eat.

And while we are playing
The candles are burning low
One for each night
They shed a sweet light,
To remind us of days long ago.

MY DREIDEL

I have a little dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
And when it's dry and ready
Then dreidel I shall play.

O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Now dreidel I shall play.

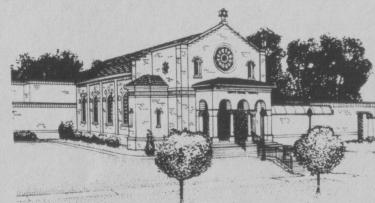

It has a lovely body,
With leg so short and thin;
And when it is all tired,
It drops and then I win.

O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
With leg so short and thin;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It drops and then I win.

My dreidel is always playful,
It loves to dance and spin.
A happy game of dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.

O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It loves to dance and spin,
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.

from my library. It is missing. I have no recollection of lending it out, but it isn't there. If you have my copy (look at the title page for my seal) of Tales of Elijah the Prophet, please return it to my office. It would be greatly appreciated.
