Dear Uncle John -

If convenient to you, I should like to have your opinion concerning the Fomeroy Salt Co. and your advice as to the best method of disposing of my shares should I conclude to sell. I don't much like the idea of having stock of which I can know so little, and of which the dividends seem so uncertain. If you can give me any information or advice on the subject I shall be much obliged to you -

It is over a year since I have rec^d anything from there.

We are well and enjoying life very much even with the thermometer etc standing 38° below zero.

I wish you could just feel for yourself how delightful the winter air is. It does not seem nearly so cold as it sounds. The clear, dry air is thoroughly bracing & life-giving.
I go out every day with no warmer clothing than I wear at home & so far this winter. Not even my hands or feet have been cold at all, and have been far more comfortable than I have ever known in winter before.

We have about three ft. of snow & the town looks very clean & nice. No wind - the pine forest in which the town is - keeps that firm no - no rain since early November, & we will have none until March or April.

I can't enjoy the climate enough or say enough in its favor. One can't appreciate it at all without being here.
I suppose we may now give up all hope of aid for the Road, from Congress.

It can not go into the hands of a Reimment until after July 1876. but I don't know as we can possibly stand increasing dullness until that time. The Tom is dying slowly Edgerlow ²⁸ will be utterly dead if the Aras receive no aid. People are waiting until Spring to see what will happen.

Jim has a beautiful little cottage I paid him yesterday for $600.00 He prefers not investing in real estate however. There are Church Socials and dances - festivals and prayer meetings - Spelling schools & reading Clubs - to keep us from stagnation, We all interest ourselves and so there are quite a number of nice people here - we get along happily & pleasantly.
This a combination letter - you see. Business and what? With much love to Aunt Hattie & all - Aff. yours. Mary H. Edgerlow

Dear John

The proof of provision is to be in this P.M. and I will send all up the river tomorrow.

E. W. Norton and his brother Fred are in the city. I understood that they are to meet Cin. Stockholders at the office of Gayman Gano, today but I am not invited.
Mr. John Dickey has just called to talk about Norton matters.

Says he thinks he will not attend the meeting this P.M. although notified by postal card.

I am well satisfied the stockholders will generally sustain the Director in any action they may see fit to take.

Hope you are better -

Yours truly

B. our landlady goes to the theatre or speaks the servant girl goes with her and then goes for her again - Sometimes she goes with us - We always see a great many servant girls waiting outside for the ladies. We will have more or less snow and ice but think Spring will be here before we leave in a few weeks.
If you or Hattie or the girls would like me to do any thing for you in Paris please write me and I will be glad to oblige you. I will probably be there in four or five weeks and will be there several weeks -

Summer March 28th
My dear Brother
Your kind letter with act. was recd. some weeks since. But after writing several letters home had so little left to write which time, or waiting don't seem to have improved. This is Easter Sunday and the Easter holidays are about the only sacred days they have or observe in this part of Germany. The theatre is closed and has been all week at which place more than half the men are officers and soldiers always in full dress with their swords clanking on the floors and pavements as they walk and the cavalry men with their spurs on. Mr Platt says he believes there are more soldiers with spurs in Hanover than there are horses in Hannover. At least the horses don't promenade the streets go to the Opera &c so we don't see them. The city has been all gaily decked with flags for several days in honor of St. Wm's birthday.

The Prince and Princess from here and from all Germany have gone to Berlin to help him celebrate it. I suppose they will have some good dinners but don't think they will have much variety unless some of their viands come from this country. Tell Hattie she had better learn to drink coffee before she comes to Europe.

The Lady of the house is to have a tea party this evening has her table all set and her table made, purple silk and the daughters in blue. They have the chairs from our rooms and the tables which they have joined to a table in a gentleman's sitting room as his room is the Parquet. Tea is always at 8 o'clock. I believe the company is to be young ladies and we are to have some fine music.
Some of gentlemen will likely ^{call} they generally do but it is not considered polite for a gentleman to go to a party with a young lady or go home from Foreign 175 in Paris. I suppose it was a foolish thing to think of you and father coming to escape and to see you and must return - I want to see you as badly as if you were only ten years old.

Will remain here some three or four weeks yet - then go to Berlin and Paris. Jimmy is sitting here reading and sends love - Please give much love to Aunt Mary and I would write her if I had any thing to write - I must write a few lines to Brother John. I have so little to write that my letters seem so much like Mark Twain's diary when he is so I write you the most plain detached. I know you will be glad to get these if there is not much in them. Every little boy I see in the st. Tom's size always brings him 175 I have written you in my Hamburg

The dear
Sunday, March 29.
I would go to the English church this morning but took by mistake the wrong st. in included by the time I would get to church would be too late and went to the bank instead where I was happy to find your letter with Fanny's.
The old lady, her daughter, a young lady had to dinner and two young gentlemen they had to coffee me not promising at all a shopping. Some afternoons I go out with them, there are three whom they keep all kinds of cooked meats and every variety of dainties. They buy two or three thin slices of one or two different kinds of meats or piece of a long sausage which they carry in their muffs.

I don't like to put the sausage in my muff so I carry a little piece of butter or something else - I've had a rasp berry soup Blancmange today for dinner and were to have had a custard to eat with it but a mouse was found downed in the custard this morning, we were all sorry but Mrs B. was dreadfully overcome and indignant at the hapless "mackerel" for permitting the accident - which accidents will occur you see even in the ~~Holsten~~ Land. I see Mrs Platt quite often also Mrs Mills the English Lady. we three meet twice a week at the old maid's

Mrs M's son a tall goodlooking young man goes into the English Army this week has an appointment to India and Mrs M. goes too.
Well, from what I hear of the Gateses John would not have so much trouble now if he wished to pay his addresses but he don't seem inclined and I believe is looking forward to my arrival in Paris to intercede for her - they are keeping house now in the Dubois house who is in Paris - John sends love to you and father and is still in the notion of the "Four le monde". Perhaps I believe would also like the trip - although I don't think I am making much progress in my French as I hear German all the time I want to be able to talk some

For many, his chin and all in the his floor. Only she and her daughter and in the end I was at a table some like. She ate at the same table with several tables in the same room we were sitting at.
I had coffee, bread, butter in the morning dinner at 12. Got to bed at 10. I went to bed in two weeks this time
- who came to coffee and both lunch. They got out their best paper cups and saucers and plates. The ladies have their game with us at about the table with bread, butter and drink and coffee and cake. I suppose says he don't believe there is any place in the world he would take to travel about getting married and love as they do in Germany well it is one of their national subjects and I think they are not very different from us. I suppose he has been to Italy with boys - I'll Mary Jane I don't

Dear Sister,
I think we are in the miles of squares that you don't think we have only had since, of the cold winds from here, our sweet approach is now it has been some time since we were but remember, no letters give me, the one was too much since in which I told you my encouragement was coming things of the past. I I hope you don't grieve at all all sometimes that you are which I have a picture of me I'll send it - one of the unremarkable about it; as it is not a sheet of the perfect house neither is it one of the grand green old trees, but it is an old or house of flowers and the picture would be more complete if you could see Poetry walking in it this morning. Mrs. Peat I see walking in it - always have to go through it to go to her house called on her this morning. The course down into the city with me

I have commenced taking em-sionary lessons from an old man in one of the little narrow old streets of the - the girls are dolls and cakes besides, which is a standing offering of hospitality to the humans. I am also studying French. I must have been nothing of walking to father and will before long. He is very kind as usual with his German he even talks with his German papers and books now without much trouble. - It is wonderful how much importance he places attach to the "the alive", these little side things (some of which are especially are represented - alive Shakespeare's plays and the scenery is very good - they have a scene as we are about to do the church. The thing gives about five thousand dollars a year to the church. But we don't go on Sunday nights - we have changed our standing place a much since we were at the St. George's house on the good east - they call it here. The old

Dear John

Madam and

I am going to leave for Trenton on Tuesday next where she will remain a day or two, and visit Hanging Rock and Ashland.

She will have baby and nurse with her and wishes to come to Ashland Saturday evening. Can you meet the Telegraph, as she will need to go on her -

Truly your William Morris sick people there is so much to divert their minds and no one to ask them questions Thine William has been at this castle here two weeks, have seen him several times once in military dress at the head of several regiments marching (marching) through one of the principal streets.

Last Sunday according to an old custom he was to ride in a carriage meeting people who would throw bouquets at him which he would throw back - I thought we would get a bouquet and go but a rain came on and I expect the old king was glad of it. He left Weisbaden Sunday evening - his father my aunt tell him Tommy will write in a few days has not been missing his eyes much since we have been here. The race just been to 5 o'clock tabled here to see the style but did not see much. I put on my black silk - will leave here in about a week for Paris stop off at Rheims one night - Am glad Tom Bull has not forgotten me I have intended writing brother John but this letter would be but a repetition of this nearly so please send him this with my love to Hattie and to him - was sorry to hear Hattie had lost a brother the thought so much of her to hunt May and my dear May good night! your loving sister

Weisbaden, Prussia, May 8th

My dear May,
Your kind or three good letters found their way here last night - Mr Platt had sent me to Paris, so all came together here, the one you sent was from Mrs Bishop at her home Bigen Cove Mass. where she seems to be enjoying life very much with her household and visitors - the former consists of 4 boys and a large straw garden, four cats and birds she wishes she had Tom's cat - Tell father she sends her kind regards to him and hopes his health has improved since she saw him she has been to a number of dancing parties.
Bishop P. was making her a visit - some gentlemen were building a "Goeth" which they intended calling the "Corinna Bishop" extended another cordial invitation for I and to visit her this summer - sends love to you - I spent a week in Berlin, stopped at a regular German hotel where it was not so expensive as at the hotels where the Americans and foreigners stop "Unter den Linden" (street) ours was on Frederick's Thase - we contented ourselves with walking up and down "Unter den Linden" looking in at the shop windows - at the monuments visiting the Palaces &c &c - I spent every day sight seeing The only Palace I've seen which I thought I would like to live in was King's Palace country castle about two hours ride in the cars out of Berlin which was like something you read of in novels but don't see; it was so picturesque and easy the rooms not so grand and large as the city palaces, but looked as though some one lived in them with modern painting of pretty cheerful subjects. This bed room with one of the little dainty wooden bedsteads, cane chairs and a wooden made by the Crown Prince when a boy - his bed and the bed in Crown Princesses bed room which was the same as our double beds with curtains were very different. The views from every window were so lovely, other castles and the river in the distance. We returned through Hannover the train stopped 20 minutes at the depot - saw our landlady and her daughter wrote them a note at train as we promised them we would be in. Suppose we shall never see them again unless we should see them in Göttingen - wanted me should promise to visit them in Hannover and they would try to make a match between Jimmy and Ferdinand's sister a young Spanish beauty - the mother goes to live with them in Hannover - Helene had a letter from Fernando & I poses in German from New York, wrote them he thought New York surpassed Paris or London.

I was glad he wrote that. he stopped again at Cologne on our way here so this time went to see every old town and relic which I had made up my mind to because when talking with those who had would say "Oh my! I didn't go to see the lines of the two castles &c." coming here we had another trip along the Rhine but in the cars - Wiesbaden is the German Saratoga, has been until 70 A.D. a famous gambling place. By way of change we are at one of the largest hotels - a Russian Countess, some Parisian counts and German princesses are among the guests and German and English families. I believe we are the only Americans, and some persons afflicted with rheumatism those who can't walk are wheeled about in easy cushioned chairs.
The centre of attraction here is what they call the Casino a large building with large halls and rooms very handsome the main hall decorated with flags of every country - reading rooms where you find papers printed from all six or half a dozen countries "every language at least" every where in this building opens out into a beautiful park a band of music plays in the afternoon and evenings and hundreds of Geo-ple from the different hotels are here some being wheeled about in their easy chairs some promenading, others drinking coffee or beer at the little tables while others sit and look on or read the paper with white and black snuff and children in gay boats add to the scene - I think the park a very nice place for

Dear Uncle John.

Ma wishes me to write to you in regard to Pa's business. we know very little about it. but think he had not received any dividend from Pomeroy. Ma think he generally received one the first of January but as there has been none yet Ma said I had better write and ask you if you could tell us when we ought to expect one. and also when his other dividends from the Ashland bank and Coal Co. come in. and about the amount.

He left his business in Woa's hands and she wishes to know what the income will be so she will know how to regulate her expenses.

We are sorry to put you to so much trouble. But we thought you knew more about it than any one else.

If you think best at any time to change any of those investments will you please advise us in regard to it. Woa says she knows nothing about business and would rather depend on your judgment than anyone else's. She would be greatly obliged to you if you would be so kind as to let us know about it.

Love from Woa and Wain & myself to Aunt Bessie & the girls.

Respectfully yours,

L. M. Childreth.

Dear John

Yours of 29th ult. duly recd.
Inquired about the ale and was advised by Mr. Walker that the stock ale was very binding, or asthmatic, in its nature, & he did not think it the best desirable for invalids. I instructed Lewis therefore to forward to you his fresh ale, and if you do not find it
