Dear Sir:

We are holding under the will of Margaret A. Means funds from which annuities are being paid regularly to the parties interested, and a survey of the account indicates that we may at this time make a distribution to those interested in the income collected above the amounts required for the annuities, and you will please find enclosed our check for $80, which is your 1/15th share of such surplus and is the result of accumulation for the period that the annuity funds have been in our hands. We have made records to remit hereafter yearly at this time such amounts as may have accumulated as such surplus income. Kindly acknowledge receipt of the enclosed check.

Yours very truly,

Assistant Secretary.

My dear Cooke:

A great many years have elapsed since we were running around together in Marietta, and almost as many since I have seen you, so it may be a trifle unexpected for you to receive a letter from me, but many strange things happen. I was in Washington last February and happened to run into Chas. Dames at the hotel, and in the course of conversation, we remarked how fine it would be if instead of class reunions, we could get a few fellows, who used to be congenial to get to Marietta together at Commencement. I had no thought of going this year, but he said he was going, and that if you - Spotty Russell - and I would go down he would pick us all up and take us down. I agreed, so

Columbus, O.,

Saturday a letter came from him saying that he would be here June 11 at 7<sup>55</sup> am. to proceed to Marietta, and asking me to write you, and have you meet us here. He is going to make a commencement address somewhere in the west, and he will be on his way back. He says that the Chicago + Great Western representative says it is impossible to arrange to take the car to Ashland, hence the request to have you meet him here. I don't know how much of this is news to you, or whether he has written you, but at any rate, he is anxious to have you make the trip with him. I have just written Russell, so if this letter seems a little incoherent to you, you can compare notes, and perhaps get a lucid idea. I also wish you both could arrange to come to Columbus at least a day in advance and stay with me

I think we should all be here to meet the train, and 7:55 am. is too early to reach here from your place, so you see it will be necessary for you to come ahead of time. If you and Russel will enjoy reminiscing as well as we do you will surely be here. This is giving you ample time to arrange your plans, so please reply favorably.

Yours fraternally
Eagleton F. Dunn.

Mr E. C. Means

My dear Cooke:

Received your letter this morning expressing doubt in regard to the Manetta trip. I wrote Russell Saturday, explaining that Daves has changed his plans & will pick you up at Ashtland, so it would not be necessary for you to come to Columbus, much as I would like to have you!

This will shorten your trip a day or so. Trust that this will render it feasible for you to go. Confer with Russell and if feasible accept. I will communicate with Daves as soon as I hear from you. He also suggested I write J. M. D. Smith of campus fame in the 80's but I have not done so, and will not until I hear from you, as I told Speck, this & only is contingent upon

Your obedient servant

Yours faithfully

My dear Sir

I received your letter

The morning following I called on regard to the matter which I business before me explaining that I had changed my mind & was that you up at Colchester Vt. I was necessary for you to come to Columbus which as I would like to have you

It is well known that your trip a day is about that this was needed at I order for you to go. I will disagree with it if I could do so. I will communicate with him as soon as I hear from you. The other suggestions will be with you of course I am it is but I have not time to write and much of time has gone on of I am, this is all I can say
