

[to Nantucket, MA]

Louisville.

July 11th 87

Dear Bro. Sam.

I received your welcome letter two days ago, and the book describing Nantucket this morning. I have about made up my mind to join you in a week or two if you are going to remain that long and if I find that my presence here is not necessary during the building of the new house. how long do you expect to be there?

I fear I shall have to come alone though as Sis cannot be prevailed upon in a day or two, and to leave home and I can find no one else to join me. Of course you will write me again, so please answer the following questions. Did you look up Mr. Rymes in Boston? and if not why? Have you seen Mr. Jones at Nantucket? Are you going to be at Hotel or boarding house, and Aunt wishes me to say that she will write you as she is more competent to tell you what little news there is. I will not attempt it. All are well and send love.

With love for Sister Kate
I remain affectionately
Your Bro
