

Kernel Kutie

With Spring in the air, the thoughts of the male members of the Kernel staff turned to more than studies. As a result—we're running a Kernel Kutie each week for the rest of the semester. This week's Kutie is Norma Jean Brandenburg. Norma Jean may pick up an orchid from the Lexington Flower Shop, located opposite the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Push Cart Derby To Be Held Tomorrow

Derby Day—UK style—will be tomorrow when the fourth annual Lambda Chi Push Cart Derby gets underway at 1:30 p.m. on the Administration circle.

This year's edition of the "push for prizes" will begin with a gala parade through downtown Lexington at 12:30 p.m. During this parade the fraternity and sorority push cart entries will be judged for the originality contest. Prizes and trophies to the winner and runner-up of both fraternity and sorority divisions will be awarded when the parade arrives at the administration building.

A record number of 26 entries, 9 sororities and 17 fraternities, will compete in the race around the circle. In the men's division the push carts will start directly in front of the administration building and go completely around the circle with three relay stations enroute.

The sorority races will begin half way around the circle on Limestone and finish up in front of the administration building. There will be three relay stations for the girls also.

Officials for the races will be Bernie Shively as the official starter, and Gig Henderson of radio station WLEX, who will announce the races to the spectators over a public address system from the judges' table.

Judges for the originality contest are Dean L. L. Martin, Robert R. Mills, UK registrar; and Miss Lucy Thompson from Stewarts. Their decision as to the winners will be final.

The Push Cart Derby Queen will be crowned just before the first race and will reign over the afternoon. This year's queen will be crowned by Betty Gaskin, last year's derby beauty.

Candidates in the queen contest which was completed yesterday are, Faye Gibson, ATO; Joyce Beals, PSK; Margaret Hodgkin, KKG; Joan Hazelwood, SN; Maxine Thompson, SX; Nancy Don Freed, PKT; Gayle Schuler, KAT; Alice Boggs, FH; Pat Long, TKE; Lenora Rogers, DTD; Sally Jo Moore, ZBT; Helen Hoover, AGR; Pat Phelps, KD; Carolyn Collier, XO; Carlene Hass, AGD; Pat Penby, KA; Carol Conrad, ZTA; Nelda Clarkson, SFE; Earlene Farris, DDD; Sonja Danburg, ADP; Joyce Goff, KS; Joanne Watson, AZD; Joyce Ann Kane, SAE; Helen Shuck, PDT; Jean Gover, Triangle; and Greta Boswell, PKA.

Third Party Formed By 10 Groups

Informal Rush Banned By Dean

Fraternities will not be allowed to participate in any kind of informal rush next year, according to Dean Men L. L. Martin. Members of the Interfraternity Council were told of this new ruling by Dan Woodward, chairman of the IFC Rush Committee, at their meeting Tuesday night.

Dean Martin made the announcement of the enforcement of strict formal rush following a recommendation from representative officers and members of the rush committee of last year.

For the past four years, only the initial fall rush programs have been formal. This rush week was followed by optional informal rush sessions, usually held during the latter part of October and during the first two weeks of the second semester.

The IFC itself has made no ruling outlawing informal rush.

Regulations of the IFC outline the procedure for formal rush, but they do not provide for informal rush periods. However, since the inauguration of the formal rush system in the fall of 1952, the IFC has maintained one or more informal rush sessions each year.

Formal rush requires all rushees to register and also provides for the calendar dates and length of time rushees may visit fraternities. Informal rush is regulated by only broad, general rules.

Cosmopolitan Dance To Be Tomorrow

The crowning of "Miss Universe of UK" will be the highlight of the Cosmopolitan Dance to be held from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. tomorrow in the Ballroom of the Student Union Building.

The picture of the candidates for the title have been sent to Jeff Chandler, movie star, from which he will choose the winner. Attendants will be a Miss Asia, a Miss Europe, and a Miss Latin-America to be chosen by the UK students from each of these countries.

Following the coronation there will be a floor show of dances given by UK students from foreign countries.

Andrews Named UK's Entry In Laurel Festival

Booker Andrews, a senior from Russellville, will represent UK at the 1956 Mountain Laurel Festival May 26-28.

The Mountain Laurel Festival is an annual event held at Laurel Cove outside Pineville at which candidates from each college in Kentucky gather to compete for queen of the affair. The girl who is chosen is crowned by the Governor and reigns for one year as the most beautiful girl in Kentucky.

Last year Booker was chosen UK May Queen and won the Sigma Chi Best Dressed Contest. This year she was selected as Kentuckian Queen.

Booker entered the University in the fall of 1954 after having graduated from Stevens College. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Jam Session

"Smoke Richardson" will play at the jam session today, at the Wildcat from 3-5 p.m. The jam session, which is the third sponsored by the Student Government Association, will be free to all University students.

SGA Re-apportions Assembly Members

The Student Government Association voted Monday night to re-apportion the number of representatives from each college according to present enrollment.

Under the accepted plan each SGA member will represent 162 students in his respective college. The Assembly will still have 30 representatives.

The changes in the individual colleges are Arts and Sciences loses one representative; Agriculture and Home Economics loses two; Commerce gains one; Education gains one; Engineering gains two; Graduate School loses one; and the Law School remains the same.

Other vacancies to be filled are six in Arts and Sciences, two in Agriculture and Home Economics, three in Commerce, two in Education, four in Engineering, one in Law School, and two in Graduate School.

Ten vacancies will be filled in the fall election next December.

New Party To Enter May 9 SGA Race

A third major party on campus—the Students—was formed by 10 breakaway organizations from the United Students and Constitutionals Parties early this week. They have announced that they will run candidates in the forthcoming May 9 Student Government Association elections.

Groups in the party are Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Sigma, Delta Chi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternities, formerly of United Students Party; Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Delta Delta sororities, ex-USP; Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity, formerly of Constitutionals; and Kappa Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, and Alpha Gamma Delta sororities, also formerly of Constitutionals.

The organizations in a statement outlining their purpose, said that "every candidate for an SGA office should be chosen on basis of merit, regardless of affiliation, and should stand for the purposes of SGA, not for individual gains."

After the announcement of the third party was made, the United Students Party voted to merge with the Constitutionals. No agreement could be reached, however, in a joint meeting of the two groups.

Sharon Miller was elected chairman of the new party in a meeting Monday afternoon. Other officers are John Darsie, assistant chairman; Nina Vann, secretary, and George Spalding, treasurer.

Push Cart Derby Queen Candidates

Troupers Present Big Show

"Right Down Our Alley", the new Troupers Show will be presented Friday and Saturday April 20 and 21 in Memorial Coliseum. Curtain time for the show is 8 p.m. There will be a pre-show clown act starting at 7:30 p.m.

All of the stage action takes place in a remote off-beat alley in New York City. The show includes singing, dancing, comedy, tumbling and an act by the Troupers Adagio team. Also featured will be the new Troupers orchestra in its first performance.

Tickets are $75 for UK students and will be available at the door or from any member. There will be no reserved seats.

UK Group To Aid In Presidential Selection

Ten University representatives, from whom three will be picked to serve as members of a committee to screen presidential candidates, were certified to Governor A. B. Chandler Tuesday.

It was announced from Frankfort Thursday morning that Governor Chandler had selected the three faculty members to serve on the screening committee.

They are Prof. John Kuiper, Prof. R. E. Shaver and Dr. H. Price.

The three names chosen by the Governor will comprise one-half of the screening committee. The other three members of the committee have been selected from the Board of Trustees. They are R. F. Hobson, chairman; Harper Gatton, and Dr. Ralph Angelucci.

The 10 representatives, named from the teaching, research, extension, and administrative staff of the University are:

Dr. M. M. White, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences; Prof. John Kuiper, head of the Department of Philosophy; Dr. H. B. Price, professor of agricultural economics; Dr. George P. Summers, field agent in agricultural economics; Prof. R. E. Shaver, head of the Department of Civil Engineering.

Dr. William L. Matthews, professor of law; Dr. Carsie Hammonds, head of the Department of Agricultural Education; Dr. Ralph R. Pickett, professor of economics; Dean Earl P. Slone of the College of Pharmacy; and Dr. Robert L. Mills, Registrar.

Vice-President Frank D. Peterson is secretary of the screening committee. Governor Chandler was expected to pick the three names immediately after the list of 10 was certified to him by Dr. Mills, as the screening committee was scheduled to meet yesterday to discuss presi-

Summer Film Schedule

The Campus Cinema Committee has announced the schedule of films to be shown at the University this summer. During the summer semester, Campus Cinema is known as Summer Cinema. Usually films which have been more recently released and fewer foreign made films are scheduled for Summer Cinema.

Seven films are planned for this summer, four of which are in cinemascope. Regular films on the schedule are "The Astonished Heart," "Cheers For Miss Bishop," and "Carnegie Hall." Those in cinemascope will be "Three Coins in the Fountain," "The Robe," "River of No Return," and "Desiree."

All films will be shown without charge at 4:45 p.m. Daylight Saving Time, each Tuesday at the University "walk-in." The "walk-in" is located in the amphitheater behind Memorial Hall.

Mozart Requiem Mass To Be Given

The Mozart Requiem Mass will be given Tuesday, April 24, in Memorial Coliseum at 8 p.m. Dr. Edwin Stein, head of the Department of Music, will direct the orchestra and chorus. This work is being presented in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of Mozart's birth.

This mass was Mozart's last work and was unfinished at the time of his death. A co-worker and student, Sussmayer, made use of Mozart's manuscript to finish the work.

Soloists will be Gail Jennings, soprano, senior music major from Lexington; Georgia Hill, mezzo-soprano, Lexington senior music student; Ronald Anderson, tenor, also a Lexington music senior; and Charles Sims, bass, junior music student from Wilmore.

PR's Hold Regimental Drill Meet Here

More than 750 boys from three states will invade UK's campus for the Pershing Rifles First Regimental Drill Meet to be held Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28. Coming with the 16 units from Ohio, West Virginia, and Kentucky will be 32 coed sponsors.

A regimental inspection, an exhibition platoon competition, a squad competition, and a "war" between the Confederate Squad from UK and the Union Squad from Ohio State University will be several of the main events to be held during the meet.

All events will be held on Stoll Field except the inspection on Friday at 2 p.m. on the parade ground. Other events open to the public are to begin at 8 p.m. Friday.

Other events to be held are a platoon and individual drill competition on Saturday at 9 a.m. and regimental review at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

The meet will be highlighted with a Regimental Ball in Donovan Hall Saturday night. Gov. A. B. Chandler will be present at dance and will present trophies to the leading teams. Cadet Claude C. Sturgill, drill meet officer, announced.

Since the founding of the University's chapter in 1931 the unit has won 15 of the 20 meets in which it has competed. The last meet held on the UK campus was in 1951. The UK unit failed to win that meet, losing by one-half point to Ohio State University.

Glee Clubs To Present Combined Program Sunday

The UK Men and Women's Glee Clubs will present their second combined program on the Sunday Musicale Series this Sunday at 4 p.m. in Memorial Hall. The program will consist of sacred music entirely. Both groups are under the direction of James King of the music faculty.

The Women's Glee Club will open the program with "Miriam's Song of Triumph" by Schubert. Patricia Eads Herren, graduate student, will be the soloist for this number. Ann Vimont, freshman music major, will accompany the group.

Members from both the men and women's groups will combine to present Bach's Easter Cantata No. 4, "Christ Lay In Death's Dark Prison." A small instrumental group from the University orchestra, assisted by Carl Bleye at the organ, will accompany this section of the program. Ronald Anderson, senior music student of Lexington, will sing the tenor solos, and Roy Woodall, commerce student of Paducah, the bass solos.

The program will conclude with a group of miscellaneous songs by the Men's Glee Club.

THE MANY LOVES OF THORWALD DOCKSTADER

When Thorwald Dockstader—sophomore, epicure, and sportsman—first took up smoking, he did not simply choose the first brand of cigarettes that came to hand. No, indeed! He did what any sophomore, epicure, and sportsman would do: he sampled several brands and then picked the gentlest, tastiest, most thumpingly, wondrously, unfailingly pleasing of all—Philip Morris, of corris!

Similarly, when Thorwald Dockstader took up girls, he did not simply select the first one who came along. No, indeed! Thorwald sampled. He took out several likely girls and then he compared their charms and then he made his choice.

His first date was with an English lit major named Elizabeth Barrett Grish, a wisp of a girl with luminous eyes and a soul that shimmered with a pale, unearthly beauty. Trippingly, trippingly, she walked with Thorwald upon the beach and sat with him behind a windward dune and listened to a sea shell and sighed sweetly and took out a little gold pencil and a little morocco notebook and wrote a little poem:

*I will lie upon the shore,
I will be a dreamer.
I will feel the sea once more
Pounding on my femur.*

Thorwald's second date was with a physical ed major named Peaches Glendower, a broth of a girl with a ready smile and a size 18 neck. She took Thorwald down to the cinder track where they jogged around thirty or forty times to open up the pores.

...They jogged around 30 or 40 times to open up the pores...

Then they played four games of squash, six sets of tennis, 36 holes of golf, nine innings of one-o-cat, four periods of rugger, six chukkers of lacrosse, and a mile and a quarter of leap frog. Then they worked out for a few hours on the parallel bars, the flying rings, and the bongo board, and then went ten rounds with the eight-ounce gloves. Then they had heaping bowls of bran and whey, exchanged a manly handshake, and went home to their respective whirlpool baths.

Thorwald's final date was with a golden-haired, creamy-browed, green-eyed, red-lipped, full-calved girl named Totsi McEstway. Totsi was not majoring in anything. As she often said, "Gee whillikers, what's college for anyhow — to fill your head full of morbid old facts, or to discover the shining essence that is YOU?"

Totsi started the evening with Thorwald at a luxurious restaurant where she consumed her own weight in Cornish rock hen. From there they went to a deluxe movie palace where Totsi had popcorn with butter and a bag of chocolate covered raisins — also with butter. Then they went to a costly ballroom and cha-cha'd till dawn, tipping the band wildly all the while. Then they went to a Chinese restaurant where Totsi, unable to decipher the large and baffling menu, solved her problem by ordering one of everything. Then Thorwald took her to the women's dorm, boosted her in the window, and went downtown to wait for the Morris Plan office to open.

While waiting, Thorwald thought over all of his girls and came to a decision. "It is clear," said Thorwald, "that I am not yet ready for girls." "It is equally clear," he continued, "that a man needs a gentle companion, and who," he asked, "will be my gentle companion?" "Why, PHILIP MORRIS, of corris," he answered. "Philip Morris will be my tender comrade, my solace and my strength, my friend in adversity, my shelter in vicissitude, my boon and bosom buddy," and, so saying, Thorwald lit a PHILIP MORRIS and was content.

The makers of Philip Morris, who bring you this column every week, hope that Thorwald will soon find the girl of his dreams, and that they will make beautiful smoke rings together—with Philip Morris, of corris!

Third Party

Campus politics were thrown into a turmoil this week when several organizations splintered off from the two major parties and formed a new group.

It's much too early to fully determine the effect of the merger. However, the new lineup has done one thing. Student interest in the forthcoming SGA elections is higher than it has been in years.

The two original parties have busily been adding new groups to replace the ones that left their ranks to join the third party. Organizations that previously took no active part in campus politics are now vigorously campaigning.

Probably the three party set-up is a temporary arrangement. By next year one of the parties will either die or merge with the other two, but the lineup of members will be different. Organizations will cross party lines and infuse new blood into the survivors.

Another by-product of the party split has been the upswing of the independents. Nearly every independent organization has been

IFC Mixup

No informal rush periods will be held for fraternities next year, and the sudden announcement from Dean of Men L. L. Martin has caused considerable controversy in the Interfraternity Council.

The policy of having nothing but formal rush sessions was made known this week by Dan Woodward, the IFC's rush chairman. Woodward had conferred with Dean Martin and received the announcement from him.

Dean Martin stated that a representative group of last fall's IFC officers and members of the Rush Committee had met with him and recommended the change. On the basis of the recommendation and his own knowledge of the unsatisfactory rush and pledging conditions, Dean Martin announced the enforcement of strict formal rush.

Certainly the fraternity rush problem has been bad for the past two years, and Dean Martin has the power of enforcing strict formal rush, with or without the consent of the IFC. There is no question on these issues.

The bad situation is the dogmatic way in which Dean Martin made the sudden announcement. Most IFC members were unaware that any change of the status quo was in the offing, and a vote on the subject had never been taken.

Thus the announcement was a big surprise to many of the IFC delegates. For the past four years it has been the policy of the IFC to hold one big formal rush in the fall and hold additional informal rush periods if the courted by all three parties. The Coopers-town Council, the women's residence homes, and the religious groups have all been contacted, and their interest has been aroused. Even if they don't join a party, their members will probably vote in the spring election which, after all, is more important than mere lip service to a party.

Party squabbles caused the split and these squabbles could do more harm than good to SGA if they are not ironed-out. Increase in student interest is excellent but it could be offset if the parties argue over petty grievances and forget about policies.

A balance should be reached between rising student interest and policy. Undoubtedly student interest could be kept at a fever pitch indefinitely by continually organizing new parties, but to do this would sacrifice constructive SGA work.

The parties should try to keep student interest high, but in the long run should also maintain a stable policy, designed ultimately not to benefit themselves, but the Student Government Association.

members voted to do so. IFC regulations, however, do not provide for informal rush periods, while they do state specifically that formal rush sessions will be maintained.

The "representative group" that made the recommendation to Dean Martin acted without polling the opinion of the IFC assembly. Their recommendation, therefore, was not comprehensive and therefore ill-advised.

Regardless of whether or not the informal rush periods are provided for by regulation, it is only fair that IFC be granted the right to decide what methods it thinks best to use in rush.

Dean Martin did not even appear before the group to make the announcement. It would have been far better had he come to the IFC meeting, told them of the fallacies of the present system, and then urged them to enforce strict formal rush.

The abrupt announcement caused only confusion, misunderstanding, and poor relations between students and administration.

Dean Martin can best help IFC if he tells it what it should do, rather than telling it what it has to do. On the question of informal rush, he should surely let the IFC voice their opinion on the subject before he enforces his current decision.

Back Talk

Alum Speaks

Dear Sir:

Very recently, this 'scholastic year to be exact, I've become quite annoyed and irritated by some well meant but incorrect statements in the Kernel editorially. Your editorial of 9 March 1956 is such a case in point, with special reference to the paragraph stating, "Perhaps the gangs are a natural outgrowth of the Second World War and the Korean War. Most of these boys have had little or no home life. Their fathers were in service and their mothers were working."

I take strong exception to the statement concerning the fathers; it is false. Did you not know that the highest incidence of married men—not necessarily fathers mind—you!—were only one out of every four men in the armed services during the years of need for men (1944-45) in World War II. Your statement should read—"Their fathers had good defense jobs and their mothers worked too, all hoping the war would last 10 years"—this would be correct.

Fathers having boys in grade school and high school were extremely scarce unless these same fathers were "regulars" in the Armed Forces. I am a veteran of World War II and a veteran graduate of UK. I think we enriched Kentucky in all ways.

Sincerely,

George H. Paine, Jr., 1948

Library Hours

One of the worst situations on campus, from a student viewpoint, is the fact that the Margaret I. King Library is not open on Sunday nights.

Student Government Association took up the problem last week and assigned a committee to see if the library would extend its hours to Sunday nights. The solution could be very simple, and it is only hoped that the library officials will cooperate in trying to get hours extended.

It may be that a change, rather than an extension, in hours would be advisable. If this is the case, it would be far better to shorten the library hours Friday nights and Saturday mornings and give the time to operating hours Sunday nights.

Few students use the library Friday nights or Saturday mornings, so a shortening of hours during these times would not be detrimental. On the other hand, the library is only open from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays, causing a "rush" for students who want to do research and study on that day of the week. More students are enrolled for Monday classes than on any other day.

Library officials cooperated fully with SGA last year on the smoking question, but the hoped-for solution died at the hands of the Board of Trustees. The Sunday hours problem, however, is more serious, and a successful solution should not be stopped nor delayed.

Short Shift

Many students have noticed the disgusting appearance of the Avenue of Champions (the UK segment of Euclid Avenue) since attention was called to it by an SGA representative. Maintenance and Operations should also be reminded of the alley-like look of this street, which flanks the UK campus.

The Kernel's attention has been called to the cries of several irate professors over a recent editorial concerning term papers. The editorial was written in a humorous vein, but The Kernel's advice to these professors is if the shoe fits, wear it.

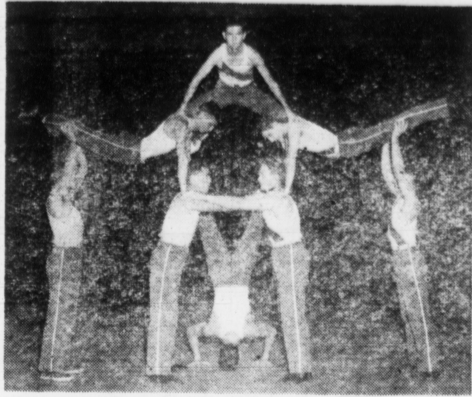

That half-baked look on some students' faces is not from the sun, but from sun lamps. These students contend that it's chic to have a sunburn, even when the current weather resembles an Arctic hangover.

It is much easier to gripe than to offer a solution to the problem.

Keeneland Hall is a good name for UK's newest women's dormitory. Those people that complain because the dorm was named after the donor racing foundation are looking gift horses in the mouth.

At last Honor's Day will really mean what it says. This year the Sullivan Medallions will be awarded at the program instead of Commencement. Also the endless listing of minor achievements will be done away with. Only the top three percent of the students of each class in each college—academically-wise—will be recognized.

Hurry, I'm Gettin' A Cramp!

At first glance, this looks like a group of vigorous young men attempting to stick beer labels to a ceiling. But then, it might be a chandelier hanging crew from maintenance. Under closer observation, however, it's just part of the sights you'll be seeing at tonight and tomorrow night's Troupers shows.

Tumbling Exhibition Start Of Troupers 17 Years Ago!

An impromptu tumbling exhibition put on for a high school commencement 17 years ago has eventually turned into the only campus-wide student variety show—the UK Troupers.

This organization, with a present membership of 65, puts on its 13th annual show in Memorial Coliseum tonight and tomorrow featuring singing, dancing, comedy, tumbling, and an adagio team. It was conceived in Winchester, Ky., in the spring of 1939 when Winchester High School notified the Physical Education Department that it needed a program for its commencement exercises. Twelve tumblers from the Department took up the offer and had such a good time that they decided to organize an act. Bernard "Skooter" Johnson, a member of the original 12 and now faculty advisor of the group, said "It started out with just tumbling and clown acts, but when the fall semester started, work began in earnest to make it a topnotch production."

The show started to expand when the dance division of the Department brought in some students, and versatility developed when singers and dancers were used to fill in between the tumbling acts.

Disbanded in 1941, due to the war, the Troupers were reorganized in 1946 by Johnson. An active effort was made to include not only physical education students, which at present include only a small number of the total members, but anyone with any talent who wanted a chance to display it.

"Our biggest problem," said Johnson, "was facilities and trying to find an adequate place to practice. Of course, the Coliseum saved the day there."

The Workshop

Old Proprietor Criticizes SGA, Discusses Third Party Setup

By RAY HORNBACK

In the past, little interest has been shown in the Student Government Association. Two parties have annually run candidates on platforms which propose revolutionary changes which in turn are never realized.

SGA has never been a very strong or powerful organization. This is partly due to the fact that the above-mentioned parties are inactive during most of the year, save the immediate period preceding the spring and fall elections.

Now a third party has been established on campus. Its founders say their express purpose is to revamp and reorganize SGA by creating greater student interest in the organization.

The new party, labeled the Students Party, is composed largely of former United Students Party members, with a sprinkling of former Constitutionalists thrown in. The breakaway party has managed to glean several of the stronger fraternity and sorority groups from the United Students Party. But in doing so, they failed to drag along the independent stronghold of the USP, the Baptist Student Union.

The new party took several fairly active Greek groups from the Constitutional Party, but apparently did no great harm at this stage of the game. The Constitutional Party should regroup with the addition of several independent groups who came into the fold when the former Greek party opened its doors to independents last week.

With such a turnover, how does the upcoming Spring election stack up?

As things now stand, the newly formed Students Party appears to have the strongest Greek backing but is quite weak in independent support.

The Constitutionalists fall slightly behind in fraternity-sorority membership, but are counting on a strong independent vote. The United Students have been stripped of much of their Greek power, but still have the BSU and a strong candidate for the presidency.

Was the newly formed party setup solely to regroup SGA?

No, the high-sounding objectives of the third party are not the sole reasons for its establishment. Several fraternities were dissatisfied when their "favorite sons" were given the axe in the recent United Students Party nominations for the presidency and vice-presidency. Thus they decided to buck the will of the majority and create their own group.

How long will a three-party system last?

Not long—for several reasons. First, take a look at U.S. history. It has often been the case when three parties are thrown together that the weakest of the groups will merge with one of the other parties. This was attempted Tuesday afternoon when the United Students and Constitutionalists discussed a merger. The Constitutionalists turned down the USP. Eventually, the down and out party will disintegrate, with various members slipping into the two remaining parties.

Secondly, the three-party system will spread the best qualified candidates out with the end result being more mediocre candidates elected to SGA. Future elections would simply become popularity polls, more so than at the present.

Will the newly established party be able to add new life to SGA?

Again we answer with a resounding no. There will be a heavier turnout at the polls in the spring election. But regardless of the results, SGA will not be strengthened.

The sooner all starry-eyed junior politicians on campus realize that SGA is a weak, administration-dominated organization which exists not as a true student governing group but as a rubber stamp for University policies, the better off they will be.

Sullivan Awards To Be Given On Honors Day

Two Sullivan Medallions awarded each year to the outstanding male and female in the UK graduating class will be presented this year at the annual Honors Day program, Dean Elvis Stahr announced earlier this week. The program is scheduled for May 14 at 7:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

In the past the Sullivan Medallions have not been awarded or announced until the commencement exercises.

This year the top three per cent of each class in each college of the University will be honored. The top student will be recognized individually and will receive pins for their achievements.

Principal speaker for the program will be Dr. Edwin Mims, professor emeritus of Vanderbilt University. Dr. Mims is widely acclaimed as one of the greatest speakers in the education field today.

Last year's recipients of the Sullivan Medallions given to UK students were Leslie Morris and Ann O'Rourke.

In 1947 Suky, student pep organization, presented the University of Kentucky with a live Kentucky wildcat.

White Hall was first used as a boys' dormitory.

There was once a lake where the Student Union Building now stands.

Ugly Man Contest Revived

Who is the ugliest man on the UK campus? UK voters will troop to the polls April 25, 26, and 27 in an attempt to answer this puzzling question. Ballot boxes will be located at the Student Union Building.

The Ugly Man contest, formerly an annual affair, is being revived this year after a one year lapse. The contest is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

The man who is selected by the students as the ugliest among them will be presented at the K-Club dance on Saturday, April 28. He will be awarded a trophy in recognition of the honor given him by his fellow schoolmates.

There will be 18 entries in the contest, which is limited to one participant for each fraternity on the campus.

Students must show their ID cards to vote in the contest.

Tie Develops In Wrestling As SX Declared Violator

PKT's and DTD's tied for first place in the intramural wrestling tournament with 31 points each.

SX's with 30 points and SN's with 25 points finished in third and fourth places in the meet.

The SX's had previously been declared winner but after close checking, the intramural department found that SX had three entrants in one division. This was a direct violation of the intramural wrestling rules.

In the individual matches Sherlock, Noel (AGR) defeated Mick Rowland (SX) in the 125 pound class. Hunter Hancock (SN) downed Charles Eldridge (SX) and captured the 135 pound class of the tourney.

In the 145 pound division Ror Boorman (PKT) won over Godfr. Russman (PDT) and in the 155 pound class Jay Paxton (KA) defeated Arthur Sommers (ATO) to win the title.

David Hancock (SAE) won over Mick Garver (DTD) and claimed the 165 pound division. In the 175 pound class Skip Moseley (LAW) won over Burke Terrell (DTD).

The 185 pound title went to Frank Morris (ATO) as he defeated Jim Horner (PKT) in the finals.

In the heavyweight division Jim Vogt (SN) defeated John Woeste (AGR) for the championship.

Franta Sets Two Records At Morehead

The freshman thimble bowed to Morehead Tuesday, 73-57, in a meet highlighted by Dave Franta's superb pole vaulting.

The Kittens showed well against a team that had beaten the varsity earlier this season by an almost identical score.

Franta amazed the crowd at Morehead with a record vault of 13 feet. This set a Morehead stadium record and unofficially broke the UK mark.

Coming back in the broad jump, Franta set another stadium record with a 20' 4" leap. He wound up the day with 16 points, garnering seconds in the 100 yard dash and the low hurdles.

Ken Thompson, Morehead's high jumper, cleared 6' 2" and set a new field record and tied the Morehead College record.

Another stadium and school record was set in the javelin toss, as Gene Carroll of Morehead threw the spear 168' 9".

High point man of the afternoon was Kentucky's Buddy Goins. The part time footballer gained victories in the 100 yard dash, the 220 and the discus, hurling the saucer 122' 9 1/2". He also placed second behind teammate Paul Sloan in the shot/put to net himself 18 points.

Bowling Crown Won By Newman Club

Newman Club replaced PKT as intramural bowling champion this year by defeating LXA 111 pins in the championship match.

Newman Club won its way to the finals by downing DTD in the semifinal match, and KA's in the quarterfinal round of the tourney. New Club drew a bye for their opening match.

LXA downed SAE in their semifinal match after defeating TRI and SPE in earlier rounds of the round robin tourney.

DTD gained entry into the semifinal round by defeating last year's champs PKT in the second round and AGR in their opening round. SAE won its right to play in the semifinals by beating the EE's and ZET's in early games.

Full Weekend Awaits Three Frosh Teams

Freshman spring sports have a full weekend ahead as all three teams, baseball, track and tennis see action.

The baseball team, sporting a 1-0 record goes cross town to Henry Clay High School this afternoon for a single game.

Tomorrow the freshman diamond squad travels to Louisville for a doubleheader against Manual High while action at home will be Monday as they engage Lafayette High School. This game will begin at 3 pm.

It's freshmen against varsity this weekend as the yearling thimble has a triangular meet with Berea varsity and Centre varsity at Berea. UK's freshman track team lost to Morehead's varsity last Tuesday 73-57.

Staff Pokes Neck Out Again; Picks Major Teams

By TOM WHITE
With introduction by Mot Notsper

The New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers will meet again in the World Series predicts the Kernel Sports Staff.

Famed (?) prognosticators, (remember the state tournament) Tom Preston, Bill Henry, "Bo" Griffin, "Scoop" White and Tom White have studied the stars, read tea leaves, consulted 19 fortune tellers, read Billy Thompson's column devoutly, and thrown darts at a board full of major team names. Now, they present to the sports world these predictions, facts and figures. (Tom White disagrees!)

In the American League the Yankees are once again the team with the mostest and the bestest. (This is Tom White's way of saying they will win their league.) Micky Mantle, Yogi Berra and company are a shade better than the rest of the eight. (Mr. Tom White disagrees.)

The Boston Red Sox should be improved over last season and if Ted Williams stays healthy they could emerge as champs. (Senior Tom White is doubtful.)

The Chicago White Sox (all the way big team!!! so says Tom "gung ho White Sox" White) and Cleveland Indians were co-choices for third place by the staff.

The Sox have good pitching but are not much at the plate. (Mr.

White cries at this statement.) The Indians (Barf says Tom White) have some old timers that may tire out (Monsieur White hopes) in the hot (Mr. White hopes the months are hot as) summer months which will hurt the Cleveland entry.

Detroit has a young ball club that might surprise the experts. Al Kaline is great but his teammates must improve over last season for the Tigers to finish higher in the standings.

Washington, Kansas City, and Baltimore will end the season in this order, the dopesters say. These teams (?) would have trouble winning the American Association.

The National League race shapes up as a dog eat dog affair. Brooklyn is picked to win but their old standbys are not getting any younger or the season any shorter. Milwaukee is improved and the "beer city" team really wants a pennant. If the Braves get off to a quick start they may never be headed. (Some fellow named Tom White likes both Milwaukee and their beer.)

The New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals were picked for third and fourth place respectively. These two clubs have many young stars and the Giants have Willie Mays and the Cards own Stan Musial. (Helpless Tom White doesn't even own a baseball.)

The Philadelphia Phillies have 23 game winner, Robin Roberts, and batting champ Richie Ashburn, but little else. They will have to fight to finish fifth. (Tom will have to fight to finish this story.)

Cincinnati is a solid choice for sixth but with added pitching strength they could play in the Series. (Huh?)

The Chicago Cubs have Ernie Banks and the world's most beautiful ball park; nothing else. Pittsburgh again will support the league by holding onto the cellar position.

The Pirate Stadium has many choice seats but baseball fans won't use them much to see an eighth place team.

Baseballers Open Three Game Series With Auburn Tigers Today

By SCOOP WHITE

Auburn's Tigers invade Stoll Field today for a three-game series with the luckless Wildcats of Kentucky.

The series will open with a single game this afternoon starting at 3 p.m. A doubleheader tomorrow starting at 1:30 p.m. will conclude it.

The Tigers come into town with an overall record of six won and six lost, and a conference record of 3-6.

Their efforts in SEC play have earned them fourth place in the eastern division. Holding down the cellar position in this division is Kentucky with an 0-8 standing.

Florida leads the division followed closely by the Georgia Bulldogs.

Two outstanding ballplayers are leading the Tigers this year. They are pitcher Paul Susce, son of the famed baseball scout, and centerfielder Alton Shell. These two boys gave the Cats plenty of trouble last year and are expected to repeat their accomplishments during this series.

Susce has a 5-0 record and is sporting a hefty 500 batting average. His most sparkling performance thus far this season was a recent 11-0 shutout of powerful Florida. What makes this pitching feat so sensational was that it came six weeks after Susce underwent an appendicitis operation.

Looking over the Auburn record one can accurately say when Susce pitches the Tigers win, and when he doesn't they lose. In the games Susce has not pitched the scores have been high. For instance, in Monday's game against Alabama, the Tigers lost 13-11.

Through their first nine games Shell was leading the Tigers in batting with 15 hits for 35 times at the plate for a .429 average.

The left-handed hitting star is not the only Auburn player who can hit. Four other Tigers are in the select 300 group.

Auburn has one thing in common with the Wildcats, they have not as yet hit a home run this season—this is through their first nine games.

Coach Harry Lancaster was uncertain as to his pitchers for the weekend. He plans to pitch Phil (Cookie) Grawmeyer in one of the games Susce does not pitch. For the other two games, Lancaster will probably start two sophomores, John Crigler and John Cornelius.

If both are given the starting nods, it will mark their first opening assignments for the Cats.

Last weekend the Cats lost a two-game series to the Vols of Tennessee. The first one was a heartbreaker for UK to lose, dropping it 6-3, as four Wildcat baserunners were picked off by the alert Tennessee defense.

The Cats were never in the second game as the Vols coasted to a 7-1 victory.

Len Lehkamp started for Kentucky, but became extremely wild and had to give way to Ron Parham. Parham allowed only one run in the three innings he pitched.

Coach Lancaster termed Grawmeyer's performance against Tennessee as his best effort of the season. The Wildcat coach said Cookie showed signs of regaining the form he showed two years ago when he was the mainstay of the Wildcat moundcorps.

Jim Morris, leading Wildcat hitter with a .385 average, got two hits in each of the games against the Vols. Kentucky was hurt by the loss of regular centerfielder Gerry Calvert. Calvert missed the Tennessee series because he had two exams that week.

Against Auburn a change in the Wildcat lineup might take place. Calvert has been practicing at shortstop this week and has been looking good. It is quite possible that Calvert will open the series at short and Lavon Lewis will replace Calvert in centerfield.

As the varsity baseballers engage the Tigers of Auburn, the Kentucky freshmen will be some 80 miles away doing battle with Louisville Manly in a doubleheader Saturday afternoon. Freshman Coach Abe Shannon has nominated his two pitchers on scholarship, Joe Dawson and Jim Host to oppose last year's Kentucky high school baseball champions.

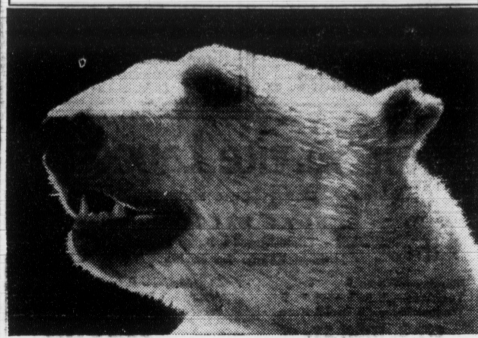

Dawson, who has won the only game the freshmen have played, a 5-0 victory over Georgetown College, will be pitching against his former teammates as he attended Manual last year and led them to the state title.

The Kittens have had tough luck with the weather as three of their games have been postponed during the last week.

A LETTER and an answer:

"Bravo and other shouts of approval to your blast at the athletic scholarship situation here at UK. Most definitely more scholarships should be awarded to deserving athletes in the minor sports. But certainly you didn't really mean your last sentence to quote, 'So Kentucky, either shape up minor sports or ship them out!' I hope you can clarify yourself next week."

A Track Freshman

The letter went on to say that nearly all minor sports participants are out for the teams because they really want to play and love the game. This, we realize.

The author asks, "how can they ever begin to build interest with-out the encouragement of the University's newspaper?"

Well, to build interest, cain must be raised when necessary. The University newspaper is the logical candidate if it has any desire to see UK rank at the top in minor sports. This column still contends that Kentucky should either shape up or ship out the lesser sports. Here are some of the reasons:

1. There is no excuse to limit the sholarships as they are today.
2. Judging from some of the team sizes this season, we see a steady decline in student-player interest. This will only increase, and why shouldn't it?
3. Athletes who love the game can play intramural sports if UK ships out their sponsored athletics as we advocated.
4. Money is being wasted. Why pay a coach who turns out a loser? Why spend dollars on equipment for teams that fail? And why pay travel expenses only to foot the bill of a team that continually flops?
5. What are the athletes getting out of losing? Their classwork certainly isn't being aided. So here, some of them are failing twofold: classes and sports.
6. But the main question is still . . . WHY LOSE?

Reactions to last week's column were varied. Some considered it a dig at the players. On the contrary, it was aimed at the disease which is killing minor sports.

We feel sorry for consistent losers. It's pretty rough to see a boy take it on the chin day in and day out just because he loves the game. Plenty of boxers love fighting but that day comes around when they must step down, let the younger and better athlete take over. Otherwise the old boxer will be knocked so punchy that he will fall into a bottomless pit of defeat and regret. So it could be with Kentucky.

TIPS ON TOGS

SHARP GUY — Bill J. Gilliam, of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity was chosen as "Best Dressed Man" at the annual contest last Friday night. Congrats to you, Bill, you made a very fine showing and I for one thought you displayed a lot of poise. There were several handsome outfits shown—one in particular that caught my eye, was the Beige (Pure Silk) suit worn by David C. Craig, of Kappa Sigma—very, very smart!

ROBIN RED BREAST! Is a sure sign of Spring, but a red vest is a sign that the wearer is in all probability a Fraternity Brother of "Sigma Phi Epsilon". They purchased these vests to be worn at all social functions, house gatherings, ball games and etc. Red is their fraternity color and "Sigma Phi Epsilons" all over the country sport red vests as a Badge of Fraternal Identification. I like the idea and wonder if other fraternities have something similar — would be interesting to find out—does anyone know?

TIREDS? Are you just a wee-bit tired of solid color shirts? Then my tip to you is—try a couple of the new "Pencil lines" by "Enro". They are extremely neat and the collar is just right. The model I am speaking about is called the "Glen". Dress shirts with fine lines (horizontal or vertical) are getting quite a play from Fashion Designers and people with a sense of good dressing (noticed that several were shown on models at the style show the other night). Next time you are visiting with us ask to see the above mentioned shirt—a little refreshing to your wardrobe.

MODELS—Want to publicly thank Cecil Fannin and Charles Eldridge for the splendid modeling job they did for us in the, "Spring Style Show". Modeling is a tough assignment for anyone, and they did a fine job.

Cindermen Annex First Victory With 38 Point Win Over Tigers

By BOB SMITH

Kentucky dropped Georgetown on Stoll Field Friday to annex their first win of the season as Ray Blasingame and Billy Mitchell combined to massacre the Tigers 84½ to 46½.

Showing great improvement over their previous effort against Morehead, the Trackmen shut out Georgetown in five events and captured first position in four others.

Blasingame moved like a big train as he ran everyone down in the low and high hurdles showing his dust to teammates Jim Ingram and Dave Cousins in both jump races.

He also was directly responsible for UK's win in the mile relay when he turned in a powerful 51.7 anchor lap to nail the Tiger's anchorman in the stretch and speed to an easy victory after Georgetown had opened a large gap over the first three quarters of the mile.

He gained additional points with a second place in the shot put and thirds in the discus throw and broad jump to give him a total of 15½.

Mitchell, held to a half point against Morehead, broke loose for 14 against Georgetown. He won the 100 and 220 yard dashes, but had to outgame teammates Ivan Cur-nutte and Bill Lawson in the two hotly contested races.

Mitchell, also shared first place honors with Ray Mills in the high jump, scoring five feet 10 inches. Coach Don Cash Seaton's men also romped to victory in the 440 yard dash; Steve Church and John Goble finishing in that order for the Cats.

The Wildcats continued to show a definite weakness in the distance runs as Georgetown won the 880, mile and two mile runs.

In the field events, competition was much tougher with Kentucky managing to outscore its opponent by a scant three points.

Tom Jones remained undefeated in the pole vault, eliminating his field at 11 feet to garner five more points for UK.

The broad jump won by Dayton Matlick, securing his second triumph of the season with a leap of 21 feet, was the furthest any man had been measured at this year.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"YOUR SUBSTITUTE HERE TELLS ME YOUR STUDENTS ARE QUITE CONCERNED ABOUT YOUR HEALTH—BUT THEY'LL PROBABLY TIRE OF HER!"

UK Research Developes New Spray

Research at the University has resulted in the development of a hormone "sunshine spray" for tomatoes.

Dr. E. M. Emmert, professor of horticulture, directed research work in developing the spray.

Horticulturists believe that the spray will produce heavier and meatier tomatoes. The spray was originally developed for tomatoes only, but Dr. Emmert believes that it can be used on other fruiting crops. Early experiments have shown that lima beans respon to the spray.

The spray is not being marketed commercially yet, but it is being distributed on an approximate-cost basis for testing. The Kentucky Research Foundation has applied for a patent on the process.

South American horticulturists have requested the spray to use in experiments on coffee plantations. Dr. Emmert is planning to test its effectiveness on strawberries, peaches, and apples.

Dr. Emmert pointed out that spraying tomatoes with hormone mixtures is not a new procedure. However, he and his assistants have been working on a new variation of the process for the past four years.
