Who is Who on Convention Program

Dr. E. T. Buford

Dr. John W. Davis is a native of Georgia and received his college training at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, where he received his A.B. degree. He later received the A.M. degree from Atlanta University. In addition, Dr. Davis did graduate work at the University of Chicago.

In 1931, he was honored by having conferred upon him the degree, D.Litt., from the State College at Orangeburg, S. Carolina. He has received since that time the degree L.L.D. from the following schools: Wilberforce University in 1939; Howard University in 1940; Virginia State College and Morgan State College in 1952; and from Harvard University in 1953.

Dr. Davis is best known for his development of West Virginia State College where he served as president for many years.

After becoming President Emeritus of West Virginia State College, he was chosen as U. S. Director in Education and Technical Administration in Monrovia, and Liberia, where he served for two years.

Since 1953, Dr. Davis has served on many national advisory committees for the Federal government. At present, Dr. Davis is employed by the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Educational Fund, Inc.

Dr. Davis will be the guest speaker at the opening general session of the K.T.A. Convention on Wednesday night, April 12, 1956, at 8:00 P.M.

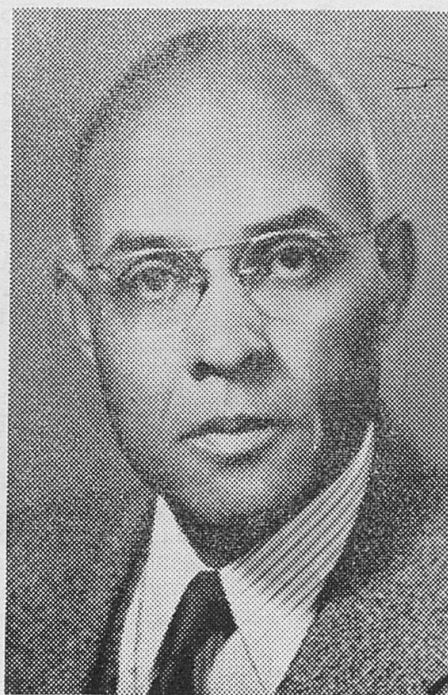

One of the most modern schools in Kentucky has been recently erected in Bowling Green, Kentucky, to mainly serve the Negro youth of that city. Dr. Buford is the very progressive principal of this school, the High Street School.

Dr. Buford received his A.B. from Fisk University, did graduate work at North Western and received his M.S. from Indiana University. After becoming interested in the ministry and being assigned as a pastor in the A.M.E. church, Wilberforce University of Ohio, conferred upon him the L.L.D. degree.

Dr. Buford has served as president of the third district teachers' association, chairman of the Principals' conference of the K.N.E.A., chairman of the High School Department of the K.N.E.A., director of the K.N.E.A. and vice-president of the K.N.E.A.

At the 1955 Convention of the K.T.A., Dr. Buford was elected as president. At the same meeting he was awarded the Lincoln Foundation award for outstanding service in education.

He is to deliver the President's annual address at the Wednesday, April 11, 1956, 8:00 P.M. opening general session of the Kentucky Teachers' Association.

Supl. Verne P. Horne

Mr. Horne has had a wide experience as a teacher at all levels of education in the State of Kentucky. He attended the University of Kentucky from which institution he received an A.B. Degree. He followed this by attending the University of Cincinnati where he received the Master of Arts Degree. He is the present Superintendent of the Johnson County Public Schools.

Supt. Horne is an active member of the Kentucky Education Association and has served as a member of its Board of Directors since 1951. He is also a past president of the Eastern Kentucky Education Association. He was a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction for Kentucky on the Republican ticket in the recent 1956 election.

He is a recognized leader in education and civic affairs. He has, in particular, shown a special interest in the program of the Kentucky Teachers' Association.

Supt. Horne is to be a member of a panel on the "Future of the K.T.A. and K.E.A." at the Thursday, April 12, 1956, 2:00 P.M. general session of the K.T.A.

Mr. Wayne Ratliff is a native of Floyd County and received his elementary education in the public schools of that county. He is a graduate of the Knott County High School and Caney Junior College. He received his A.B. degree at Tusculum College. After studying at Morehead College, he entered the University of Kentucky at which institution he studied law and later received the Master of Arts degree in education.

Mr. Ratliff was for eighteen years the principal of the Consolidated school at Wheelright, Kentucky, and became recognized as one of Kentucky's most outstanding principals because of the modern educational practices he introduced.

Mr. Ratliff is now the educational supervisor of the Floyd County Schools. He is a member of the N.E.A., K.E.A., Floyd County Education Association, President of the Floyd County Twenty Year Club, a member of the Kiwanis Club, and several educational fraternities.

He is to be a speaker on the "K.E.A.-K.T.A. Panel" at the general session of the K.T.A. on Thursday, April 12, 1956, at 2:00 P.M.

Mr. Wayne Ratliff

Miss Grace Champion

Miss Grace Champion is a former teacher at Jacob, Parkland, Morris and Prentice Elementary Schools of Louisville, Kentucky. Miss Champion was a teacher above the average and later was named as General Supervisor in the New Albany Public Schools where she remained from 1943 to 1950.

She then joined the faculty of George Peabody College for Teachers. She also served on the staff at Teachers College, Columbia University as supervisor of teaching in the New York City Schools. She returned to Peabody last year and has completed most of the requirements for her doctor of philosophy degree. She has her A.B. and M.A. degrees from Eastern Kentucky State College.

Miss Champion is to address the Kentucky Teachers' Association at a public session of the K.T.A. Secondary Teachers on Thursday, April 12, at 3:30 P.M. in the auditorium of Central High School.

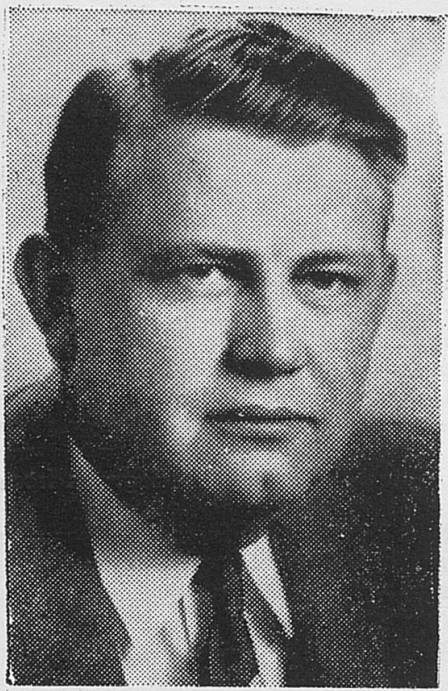

Mrs. Capers received her early education in the public schools of Cleveland, Ohio, and is a graduate of Western Missouri University where she received a B.S. degree in education. She later was a teacher in the elementary and high schools of Cleveland, Ohio. She then attended the Cleveland Law School where she received the LL.B. degree; and from that time on, she has given her best interests to the improvement of civil rights of our Negro population. She entered politics in 1941, working in the 11th Ward of her city. She was elected as city councilman in 1949 and was the first Negro woman ever to be elected to the city council of Cleveland, Ohio. She has since been elected in 1951, 1953, and 1955—her fourth term. She now serves as vice-chairman of the Welfare and City Planning Committee.

Mrs. Capers is noted for her investigation of conditions involving racial discrimination and job assignments for Negroes in the institutions in Cleveland. Mrs. Capers is especially interested in the community recreation for children and has been active in organizing a settlement for boys and girls in her city and in the programs of the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. Mrs. Capers is a member of Delta Sigma sorority and will be the guest speaker on the Kentucky Teachers Association program on Thursday, April 12, 1956, at 8:30 P.M.

Attorney Jean Murrell Capers

Dr. Robert E. Martin

Dr. Bowen is a native of Oklahoma and received his A.B. degree from Wilberforce University. He then attended Ohio State University from which he received the M.A. degree. After this he became a General Education Fellow at Columbia University Teachers' College. And later earned the Ph.D. degree from Ohio State University.

He has served as Dean of Men and Director of Student Personnel at Langston University in Oklahoma. He served in various educational capacities at several leading Universities. He is at present Chairman of the School of Education at the Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial State College at Nashville and Director of Teacher Education and Certification.

Dr. Bowen has contributed to many educational publications and journals including School and Society and the Journal of Negro Education. He is a member of the American Association of School Administration and a member of other professional organizations. He is a noted scholar and dynamic speaker.

He is to be the guest speaker at the Friday, April 13, 1956, 10:00 A.M. session of the K.T.A. in the Central High School Auditorium. He will also make appropriate remarks at the Principals' Luncheon meeting at noon on the same date in the Central High School Cafeteria.

Dr. Robert R. Martin, now State Superintendent of Public Instruction for Kentucky, is a native of Kentucky having been born in Lincoln County. He finished the elementary schools of that county and graduated from the Stanford High School. He later served as a teacher, coach and principal in the elementary, junior and senior high schools in Mason and Lee Counties.

He attended Eastern Kentucky State College where he received an AB degree and later earned a MA degree at the University of Kentucky.

He came to the State Department of Education at Frankfort as an Auditor in 1948. He later took a leave of absence and attended Teachers' College Columbia University, where he received a Doctorate degree in 1951. At Columbia University he was Resident Assistant to Dr. Paul Mort, noted authority in school finance. Dr. Martin has served as Director of Finance and other capacities in the State Department of Education. He is highly qualified to fill the position to which he was elected in November, 1956. Dr. Martin is to address the KTA at the Friday afternoon general session, April 13, in the Central High School Auditorium.

Dr. Hilliard A. Bowen

LINCOLN FOUNDATION AWARDS

Since 1937 the Lincoln Institute at Lincoln Ridge, Kentucky, has sponsored an annual award to that person who has contributed most toward the educational development of the Negro Youth in Kentucky during that particular year. A committee selected by Lincoln Institute makes this award annually. The program was instituted under the leadership of Mr. J. M. Tydings, now director of the Lincoln Foundation, and Dr. Whitney M. Young, president of Lincoln Institute. Each year a very beautiful key is presented to the winner at the annual convention of the Kentucky Teachers Association.

OVER 3 SCORE YEARS OF EDUCATIONAL SERVICE TO YOUTH

In choosing a college, a student, his parents and advisers should give thoughtful consideration to its program of education, its character building potentialities, its intellectual atmosphere, the scholarly standing of its faculty, the beneficial effects of its student life and student activities, and the opportunities available for education in leadership and social action. CENTRAL STATE COLLEGE is co-educational, inter-denominational and intercultural in its opportunities and purposes, and its student applicants are selected solely on the basis of merit.

STRICTLY A TRADE SCHOOL

Trade and Industrial Education has taken over a very important place in our educational program. Much emphasis is now being placed upon this type of education and the steady employment and the lucrative salaries offered are attracting the attention of many persons. At West Kentucky Vocational School persons may take any one of the trades listed in this advertisement and upon completion of their course, will find a ready and steady market for their skill. Our trade departments are modernly and well equipped together with an efficient staff of instructors.

The right note . . . for family refreshment

First a baritone solo by the "Head of the House" . . .
then a familiar favorite by the family ensemble . . .
then the pause to relax and refresh with sparkling bottles of ice-cold Coca-Cola. That's the pleasant theme for many a happy evening. Try it in your home. Make certain you have enough Coke for everyone by stocking up . . . today!
