PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT THE MARGARET I. KING LIBRARY, UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, LEXINGTON, KY. 40506

ALMOST ANYTHING GOES

The LSO is holding an Anything Sale on Columbus Day in King Library North's staff lounge from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. Mark your calendar and plan on discovering a New World.

We are asking for donations of crafts, white elephants, plants, books and magazines as well as food or anything else you think will sell. No sign-up sheets this time; just bring what you can. Items can be brought to Andrea Bryant in the Business and Economics Information Center on Wednesday - Friday, October 7-9; or to the staff lounge on the morning of October 12.

LSO will be selling coffee during the sale, and everyone can come over lunchtime to see what's available. There will even be a lottery (with one of the white elephants as the prize); lottery tickets come with each purchase.

Money earned will be used for the Christmas Party.

FIRE ALARM TEST

The fire alarm system in King North and South will be checked between 7:30 and 8:30 a.m. on October 5, November 3, and December 1. You do not have to exit the building at this time.

APPALACHIAN WOMEN: THREE GENERATIONS

Appalachian Women: three Generations, photographs by Wendy Ewald of Appalshop, will be on exhibit in Special Collections, King Library North, September 12 - October 11. The exhibit opened on Sunday, September 13 with a reception and a program with remarks by Wendy Ewald, Nancy Dye (UK History Department), and George Ella Lyon (Director of the Appalachian Poetry Project). The women who are pictured in the exhibit were also present.

The exhibit is sponsored by the University of Kentucky Appalachian Center, the University of Kentucky Library Associates, and the Kentucky Humanities Council in cooperation with Appalshop.

M E M O R A N D U M

TO: All Library Staff

FROM: Paul A. Willis

SUBJECT: 1981 UK United Way Campaign

Once again, we in the University will be given an opportunity to help people who are less fortunate than ourselves. I am referring to the 148,000 people who received help last year through 91 agencies in eight counties -- Fayette, Anderson, Bourbon, Clark, Jessamine, Scott, Madison and Montgomery. Vital Support for each of these agencies came from the United Way of the Bluegrass.

This year's campaign slogan "UK the United Way -- Now More Than Ever Before" speaks to the reduction in agency funding from Federal, State and County government sources. Thus, whereas in the past the United Way was a "charitable" assist to helping agencies, it is now becoming a critical element in their success. Your consideration of this annual appeal will be deeply appreciated by the many people who must look to these agencies for help.

You will be contacted about the United Way Campaign by John Bryant, who is also serving as vice-chairman of the campaign for Academic Affairs this year. Please share with others the information you will receive regarding this year's effort.

We would like, if possible, to conclude our department's effort by October 23.
