A PUBLICATION OF THE LEXINGTON GAY AND LESBIAN SERVICES ORGANIZATION

THE FURTHER ADVENTURES OF STEALTH LESBIAN

by Mary Sojourner Crone

As a volunteer for the GLSO Speakers' Bureau, I speak mainly for college classes and at diversity training sessions for state government workers. In the six years I have done this, I have noticed some positive changes in both the reactions of the listeners and their questions to me. For example, I've been asked, "Is there a local bar where straight and gay people get together?" and "How can I ask a friend from high school if they are 'out' yet? I want to be supportive but I don't know how to ask."

We have been able to move away from black-and-white answers in expressing the complexity of who we are. For instance, I am always asked, "Were you born that way, or is it a choice?" I often ask for a show of hands from people who feel that their heterosexuality was a choice. Most of the audience seem to get the point.

Additionally, we talk about how "gayness" could be of complex derivation: genetics, in utero hormones, social conditioning, etc. For most of us, it does not feel like a choice, I say, but add that for some people it may be. Perhaps, I suggest, for those individuals who are most loudly yelling at us, it seems like a choice. Perhaps they don't want to look too closely inside. At times I throw in Robin Tyler's joke, "I'm a lesbian, but if I were stuck on a desert island with Robert Redford and Nancy Reagan, I'd have to think about it."

What also happens more frequently is that some of the audience seem to be getting to know our quirks... "Do you think gay people have more pets or perhaps get more involved with their pets than do straight people? Maybe because they don't have children?" (No, not really. Why, only yesterday I was walking my dog, my ex-lover's dog, my current lover's dog, and my current lover's ex-lover's dog -- and I do have children!) I also hear, "Do you think Frazier and Riles will ever come out?" or more seriously, "How well do lesbians and gay men get along?" Some of their information is a tad out of date: "Do gays still wear different colored handkerchiefs or other things so you'll recognize each other?" No, now we are more likely to just ask: "I'm a lesbian and I was hoping you might be, too." Not that all of us do this; we do still have code words. But we are becoming more open, and this brings up the point that we do consider it a compliment - not an insult - to call someone a lesbian.

So we are becoming less invisible and more three-dimensional to the public. But there are still offensive questions and much need of education. After I explained (once again) that my spiritual beliefs do not conflict with my lesbianism at all, I was still confronted with, "But even Jews believe in the ten commandments..." I do not know where she was going with that, because I interrupted her. I try not to do that or to be too aggressive in my responses, but every now and then...

I did get a kick out of reading comedienne Suzanne Westenfoefer's response to a high school boy who asked, "Do you really think you can be a better lover for a woman than I can be?" "Let's see," she replied, "you're fifteen and have braces. What do you think?" ▼

THE CHURCH LADY

by Margaret Christopher Cartwright

Believe it or not. The Bible is your friend. Keep in mind the Bible was written in the context of patriarchal, heterosexist culture. If you can use a mental filter and get through the prejudice, the message read the same to all people. There is a God. God loves you. God made you. God has not condemned you to hell. People have said that.

The Bible will soon be published (if it hasn't already) that will have inclusive language, i.e. "Our Father" changed to "Our Parent". We at MCC do this currently. One of our hymns relates "God is not man. God is not woman. God is both and neither." We all have our own individual concept of God. That is personal and intimate, and it will not be transgressed by our congregation. We respect each other and we support each other, we love each other. Have you ever been to a church fundraiser held at a gay bar? We have. Come and see us! "We talk about things like that."

Next month, a great lesbian love-story from the Bible. ▼

A WORD TO THE WISE:

Dear GLSO Staff:

I just wanted to write and thank you for all the information you have provided to our community. I would also like to take this opportunity to warn our community of potential harassment by the local police.

One February 24, 1996 a friend of mine and I went to Club 141 to dance. We left at approximately 2:40 am. I was stopped by a Fayette County Deputy Sheriff. He said that I was "sort of weaving". Let me say that I had nothing to drink the entire evening (not even water). Of course, he ran me through the field of sobriety tests. The way he administered to the tests was not in compliance with the way police officers are taught and I couldn't have passed them. He asked me to say my numbers backwards from 78 through 43. The training given by the Department of Criminal Justice recommends a number span of fifteen numbers maximum. Police officers are taught to preface a sobriety test with a qualifying question, i.e. "Do you know how to count?" or "Do you know your alphabet?" or "Do you have any reason why you cannot take a balance test?"

I was not asked any qualifying questions. Of course, when he gave me a preliminary breath test (roadside), it showed .000. He didn't even give THAT test correctly. He let me go after he went back and sat in his cruiser for about two or three minutes. I'm not sure what he was doing; he already had all of my information from his dispatcher. I heard it come across the radio while he was giving me the test. I have to say that I feel that the only reason I was stopped was because of the pink triangle I have on the back of my truck.

The reason that I know I was not weaving and the sobriety tests were improperly administered is because I'm a police officer myself and I've had over 750 hours of training, 88 of which was spent on DUI/Field Sobriety testing.

Be careful out there.
Officer Scotty Saltsman.

If any of you feel you have been the target of police harassment, we encourage you to a) report it the GLSO Discrimination Project (276-5383) and b) file a complaint at the appropriate agency. Contrary to the conventional wisdom, the police, like other public servants are answerable to public criticism and while it is most certainly true that the law enforcement officer's word will generally carry more weight than yours, establishing a pattern of abuse makes it difficult for the agency to ignore. ▼

LESBIGAY COMMUNITY A FAILURE?

Dear GLSO/Subscribers:

Having lived in Lexington for the past 19 years, and having been out for 12 of those years, I have seen our city trying to develop into a progressive community; diverse yet keeping its conservative roots. Unfortunately, it has failed. Of course, our community hasn't been the only failure in this endeavor. WE as a lesbigay community have failed also, and not just to our surrounding "straight" counterparts, but also to ourselves.

How can we as a unified group expect to be accepted if we do not ourselves accept each other. A couple of years ago, I stopped going out to clubs completely, and after having gone out recently, I know why I stopped.

I can't begin to tell you how many times I have been "out on the time" and have seen and heard other gays ridicule and belittle others for what they wear, what they drive, and who they're out with. Tell me, please, how can one expect to be welcomed as an integral part of the "normal" society if we can't even accept our fellow lesbigay peers. Does it really matter whether you have a Cadillac or a Chevette? A Tommy vs. a Wal-Mart special? Give me a break.

I cherish the fact that I am a young Gay man, with the ability to be very open with my lifestyle. My family has known about my lifestyle for twelve years, I have some very close gay friends, and I'm freely open about my

COMMUNITY NEWS

FIFTH ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET

Please join us as we celebrate the achievements of our local volunteers with honor and appreciation at the Fifth Annual Awards Banquet. If you have never been to this heart warming event before you don't know what you have been missing. Where else can you get dinner, be entertained by the Men's Chorus, and celebrate the achievements of our lesbian community in one place, in one night and all for one low price. If you have been before you won't want to miss this one. The fifth anniversary will be better than ever.

We will be celebrating at the Radisson Plaza Hotel on Sunday June 23rd at 5:30 p.m., but of course we have to let the hotel know how many people are coming a little early so tickets can be purchased by close of business day (5:00 p.m.) on Wednesday, June 19th.

You can acquire these tickets at Crossings, the Pride Picnic on June 16th, from Kenneth at The Bar, or by calling 255-5469. We are looking forward to seeing you there. ▼

ANOTHER STEP OUT

In honor of Coming Out Day, the October issue of the GLSO News will be sponsored by community members who are willing to have their name printed out as OUT and PROUD, and willing to give the newsletter a small donation of $3.00 or more (as in "queer as a ...). We will have sign up sheets available at several Pride events (picnic, dance, etc.) If you have already given us a donation this year, feel free to add your name to the list. We very much need new subscribers so why not do that also. ▼

WHO PAYS FOR PRIDE MONTH??

The expenses for Pride Month include rental of Bell Court for the Picnic, advertising in the Fairness Newsletter, in the GLSO News, printing pamphlets, and purchasing items to sell.

These expenses are partly covered by donations from a number of generous members. Expenses are also met by the soft drinks, bumper stickers, rainbow paraphernalia and raffle tickets sold by GLSO and friends at the picnic. So please bring some money to spend. We want to be able to rent the Bell House again next year. ▼

BOWLING PRIDE EVENT

The Thoroughbred Invitational Tournament will be holding a Monte Carlo No-Tap for Gay Pride Month at Joyland on June 15. The Game starts at 9:00pm, registration at 8:00pm. ▼

MEN'S CHORUS SEASON FINALE

Lexington Men's Chorus will be ending its sixth concert season with its first full concert performed at the historic Lexington Opera House on Sunday, June 9, at 7:30pm. The concert will include the regional favorites "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Down in the Valley" the popular "He Ain't Heavy... He's My Brother" "It's a Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind" (a light-hearted look at relationships), and the debut of "What If," written by LMC's own Brian Throckmorton. Tickets are $10 for adults, $ 5 for children and are available at the Singletary Center box office (606 257-4929). Lexington Men's Chorus is a proud member of the international Gay and Lesbian

Association of Choruses (GALA) and will be performing at the GALA V Convention in Tampa, Florida in July. ▼

PARENTING GROUP ANNOUNCEMENT

It seems like parenthood is growing in the Gay & Lesbian Community and the word is that it's time for a parenting group. So, if you are a parent, are in the process of becoming a parent, or are considering parenthood lets meet and talk. Bring the kids, they can play together. Let's connect at the Pride Picnic, Sunday, June 19th, and 11:30-3:30 at Bell Court Park. We can decide then what and when and where. If you are interested but unable to make it on the 19th call and let me know and I will keep you informed of future plans. Laura 276-2685. ▼

P-FLAG SCHEDULING CHANGES

P-Flag will not be holding regular meetings during the months of June, July and August. Be sure and watch for their display during the Pride Picnic at Bell House. During the summer, P-Flag's phone number will be 266-3934. ▼

UU CHURCH DANCE/SOCIAL

On Friday, June 14 from 7:30 - 11:30 pm, there will be a dance/social at the Unitarian Universalist Church (3564 Clays Mill Rd). We will be showing videos starting at 7:30 at the Fellowship House (the old farmhouse next to the church).

The first video will be Goddess Remembered, a poetic documentary that examines archeological evidence of pre-Christian Goddess Worship, offers theories about the nature and spiritual values of these ancient cultures, and explores contemporary women's spirituality and pagan movements inspired by old earth-based belief systems. This video will be followed by Before Stonewall, or other gay-related videos.

At 8:00, the Great Hall (the usual place) will be opened for dancing and socializing, and will feature recorded music by local artists. At 9:00, we will have line dancing lessons, fun to learn and no partner necessary. At 9:30, we are particularly pleased to have the Spirit Drummers perform, which should really get you out of your seat.

Soft drinks, beer, desserts and snacks will be sold to help build a fund for more musical events in the fall. There will also be a raffle featuring a tape by Yer Girlfriend - the lesbian band hailing from Louisville - a Woman's Travel Guide, t-shirts, bumper stickers and more.

There will be a $4 charge to cover expenses. The price is $2 for GLSO members. (Yes, you can join and get a subscription to the newsletter that evening). We are planning more events in the fall for which GLSO members will receive a reduced admission price.

This event is sponsored by Interweave, Unitarian lesbians and friends, and by GLSO. ▼

New Subscribers Needed

The GLSO has been dropping in number of members - we need to keep at least 200 each month to meet the requirements of the bulk mailing permit.

Our goal is to add 30 member during pride month. Sign up by mailing in the order form in this newsletter or talk to us at the Pride Dace (June 14) or the Pride Picnic (June 16). GLSO membership will give you a reduction on admission to the dance and other events that are now in the planning stages, in addition to having a newsletter mailed to your home. ▼

THE '96 SPONSORS

The GLSO Board decided that in order to achieve true financial stability, it would seek a sponsor for the costs of the newsletter for one month, and use its other advertising income for a number of other ongoing projects.

- _____ Duane Lewis
- _____ Roman Markland
- _____ Debbie Rickard
- _____ Michael Taylor

All GLSO members can vote for the election of five new members of the Board each year. Each Board member serves for two years and is eligible for reelection. If you receive the GLSO News in the mail, there is a good chance you are a member so we are including this ballot for your use. If there are two members in your household, you can vote twice by using the number 2 or by making two check marks. You can mail this form into our P.O. Box 11471, Lex. 40575, or bring it to the picnic where more forms will be available. Since this is an uncontested election, the outcome is not in question, but we would like to have new volunteers and any comments or ideas for activities that you might want to share with us. If you would like to see more candidates to choose from, consider running for the Board next year. Our meetings are open to the public if you would like to attend.

I would like to volunteer:

lifestyle at work. I feel very lucky not having to hide who I am. I only wish that we could all be as fortunate, but if we can not come together as a community, we might as well have, as revolting as it sounds, partners of the opposite sex. I don't know about you, but I am very happy with my lifestyle, and could care less who knows it. If you can't accept who I am, then you have the problem, not me. Why should I have to try and resolve your problems for you? I have enough of my own.

J. Darrell Maines

There's a new race in long distance. And we think second place is for losers.

That's why we were the first long distance company in the U.S. to offer customers up to 50%* savings. And that's why we will continue to go the extra mile by offering lower basic rates and personal, independent representatives. Switch your long distance service to a winner. Choose Excel. For more information on residential and small business long distance services, call today.

Calling Plans for Every Part of Your Life.

* Off Excel's tariffed standard domestic rates. As compared to AT&T's tariffed standard rates.
