

"WITH THE COLORS"

Charles Horrell, U.S. 1st Reg.
June 19th, 1918. Camp Jewery
Great Lakes, Ill.

Dear Sill:-

Hello Assistant packer etc. How's your liver? mine's first rate thank you. Sorry you didn't get in old man but you should worry; - look at all the chicken I left you Ho! Ho!

Ha. Ha. Don't worry about my getting jelly of you old man you're not the only bear in the plate: - every wed. afternoon some Chicago chicken comes down to dance with us & I correspond with 2 of em and expect to call on them before I am transferred so there.

It's a great life here, everything imaginable to enjoy, life with all kinds of sports & amusements. There are no ships here - the lake is 1 1/2 miles away we ~~don't~~ won't see any until we are sent from here or or about June 25th. sleep in regular single beds & send clothes to laundry

HELP YOUR COUNTRY BY SAVING. WRITE ON BOTH SIDES OF THIS PAPER (over)