— Backing the Wildcats —

GOVERNOR BERT COMBS, graduate of the University of Kentucky and long-time supporter of education in the Commonwealth, is well acquainted with athletics on all levels. He received education at Clay County High and Cumberland College before finishing up at UK with a law degree in 1937. He served four and one-half years on the Kentucky Court of Appeals and has been a practicing attorney for more than 20 years.

PRESIDENT FRANK DICKEY, who became the University of Kentucky's seventh chief executive in 1956, is an outstanding educator and avid follower of UK sports. With an interest dating back to days as a director of intramurals for a junior high school, Dr. Dickey strongly favors the continuance of University athletics on their present high level and in balance with the institution's academic program.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR BERNIE SHIVELY, a former All-America footballer at Illinois, is the guiding hand behind the development of UK as a nationally-respected power in the field of inter-collegiate athletics. Serving in a variety of posts at the University since 1927, including terms as coach of football, track and baseball, "Shive" has been Director of Athletics since 1938.

ADOLPH RUPP

'Coach of the Year'

For nearly three decades, the sports world has watched an amazing record being forged with near perfection out of meager raw material by a colorful figure in the Bluegrass country of Kentucky known familiarly to hundreds of thousands as the "Man in the Brown Suit."

He is Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and when the sport of basketball is mentioned today, a direct chain of thought brings out the name of this maker of champions who holds undisputed rank as the "Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach." The name of Rupp, feared and respected in opponents' hearts and beloved by the millions who have witnessed the remarkable success of his Wildcat cage teams, has become synonymous with the game of basketball.

Such unprecedented recognition for the fabulous mentor is only natural since his success in the past 29 years as head man of the fabled Kentucky cage thoroughbreds has been nothing short of phenomenal. It would take a book longer than his own technical best-seller, "Championship Basketball," to recite the record completely. Briefly, however, that record includes:

- An amazing 608 victories out of 714 starts for an unparalleled winning percentage of better than 85 percent against major competition.
- Selection as the national "Coach of the Year" in 1959 for the second time in his career as he guided an inexperienced group of sophomores to a 24-3 record. The honor was bestowed by United Press International and the Knute Rockne Clubs of America.
- An unprecedented honor roll of four NCAA Tournament championships picked up by his Wildcats who hold the all-time record of 11 appearances in the national classic and can claim more victories in NCAA play (21) than any other team.
- A nominal world's championship as co-coach of the successful USA entry in the 1948 Olympic Games which included members of Kentucky's NCAA champions.
- A total of 19 Southeastern Conference titles since the league was organized in 1933.
- Election to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1959 and previous selection (in 1946) by Helms Athletic Foundation as a member of their exclusive cage Hall of Fame.
- Election to the Kentucky Hall of Fame (1945), outstanding citizen of Lexington (1949) and twice honorary citizen of the City of New Orleans.
- Development of more All-Americans (21) and more material for the pro ranks (17) than any other coach.
- Four Sugar Bowl Tournament championships, a National Invitation Tournament title and four trophies from the first six UK Invitational Tournaments.

Athletics at Kentucky

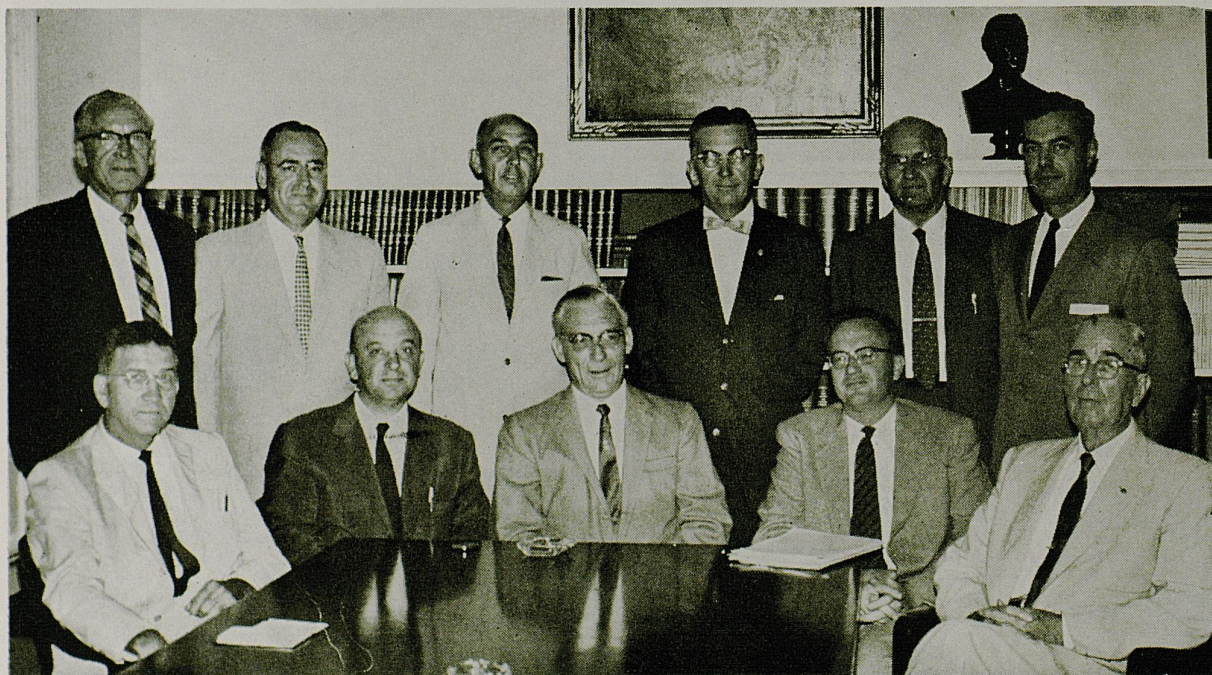

DR. LEO M. CHAMBERLAIN
Vice Chairman, Athletics Board

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring inter-collegiate competition in nine different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

A Board of Directors, pictured below, maintains overall policy supervision of U.K. athletics. Heading this body is President Frank Dickey and its vice chairman is Dr. Leo Chamberlain, vice president of the University. One-time Wildcat grid coach, Dr. A. D. Kirwan, serves as secretary to the board and is the school's faculty representative to the Southeastern Conference. Dr. Frank Peterson, U.K. vice president for business administration, acts as treasurer in an ex-officio capacity.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the nation's top athletic programs is Bernie A. Shively, a former Illinois football All-American and a veteran of 21 years in the post of Director of Athletics.

Members of the Board of Directors of the U.K. Athletics Association include (seated) Dr. A. D. Kirwan, Dr. Ralph Angelucci, Prof. William A. Tolman, Dr. W. W. Haynes, and H. D. Palmore. Standing at the rear are Dr. A. E. Bigge, Dr. Aubrey J. Brown, James B. Allen, Dr. Lyman Ginger, Prof. John Kuiper, and Dr. Frank G. Dickey. Missing when the picture was taken were Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, Dr. Thomas Clark, Robert Hobson, and Dr. D. V. Terrell.

HARRY C. LANCASTER

Assistant Coach

When Harry Lancaster finds a spare moment to reflect on his days as an all-around star athlete at Georgetown (Ky.) College back in the early thirties, he can recall with a degree of dismay how close he came to never pursuing the "round ball" sport that in the days since has earned him a respected position in the basketball world.

An All-Conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons, Lancaster's football career almost overshadowed his play on the basketball court. In the cage sport, he was equally successful—with three All-Conference nominations and two team captaincies to his credit—but considered himself a better football player than cager. Experience, however, proved him a good student and teacher of the sport of basketball as he began his coaching career.

Lancaster bosses a promising group of yearling cagers and holds down the position of assistant varsity basketball coach and general right hand man to Adolph Rupp. He was made a full-time assistant by Coach Rupp in 1948. Born in Paris, Ky., Lancaster attended Paris High School, participating for four years in all sports. The UK freshmen, under his guidance, have lost only 13 contests during the past ten seasons. His overall record stands at 91 wins, 13 losses.

General Information

CONFERENCE—Big Ten
LOCATION—Columbus, Ohio
COLORS—Scarlet and Gray
ATH. DIR.—Richard Larkins
NICKNAME—Buckeyes
PUBLICIST—Wilbur Snyppe

COACH—Fred Taylor (1 Year—W 11, L 11)

OUTLOOK—Any resemblance between this season's Buckeye cagers and past OSU outfits should be strictly coincidental. State has a wealth of material on hand headed by much-sought-after Jerry Lucas, a 6-9 youth who has already been tabbed for All-America stardom. But Lucas isn't the only horse in Coach Taylor's stable. Also back is 6-3 All-Conference guard Larry Siegfried and a couple of forward regulars. Ohio State looks like the class of the Big 10.

Meet A Wildcat —

DON MILLS—Senior—Forward-Center
Berea, Ky.

Great Kentucky teams of the past have almost always been blessed with the main ingredient of a good big man and Wildcat coaches are counting on 6-7 senior Don Mills to take over that role during the 1959-60 campaign.

Coach Rupp has produced no less than eight All-America centers over the past quarter-century and, while he will not point to Mills as a probable member of that select group, you get the idea that he believes the potential is there despite the fact that Don has yet to come through in outstanding fashion.

The lanky lad from Berea, a small college town about 50 miles from Lexington, is being counted on to "take over" this year in the capacity of Co-Captain. Unexpected problems at forward may cause Rupp to experiment with the shift of Mills to that spot in the lineup.

Don played 691:42 as UK's regular center last season, starting 24 and missing only the opening game of the UKIT. He came out of the hospital (virus infection) the night of the UKIT title tilt with West Virginia to score 17 and pick off 11 rebounds. For the season, he accounted for 275 points (high 27 vs. Tulane).

Third in the SEC and ranked 10th nationally in free throw accuracy as he hit 101 in 122 tries for a .827 percentage.
