ROBERTA PETERS EXHIBIT

The career of Metropolitan Opera star Roberta Peters is the subject of a display in the Adelle G. Dailey Music Library (116 Fine Arts Building). The display is in connection with the College of Fine Arts second gala benefit November 2 at the Singletary Center which will feature Miss Peters.

Highlighted are articles tracing her career from a Cinderella debut at the Met as a last-minute replacement in 1950 to the present. Also included are articles written by Miss Peters and those of her recordings available in the Listening Center. (Submitted by Lew Bowling.)

LSO NEWS AND NOTES

The first event of LSO's fall calendar will be a Nature Walk and scavenger hunt October 21 from 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. at the Lexington Cemetery. Mary Geyer in the Acquisitions Department (7-8395) is coordinating the event. In addition to coordinating, Mary will also be in charge of planning transportation. When you let Mary know that you plan to attend, please also let her know if you need a ride, are able to be a driver, how many passengers you can take, or if you already have a ride arranged.

Other events on LSO's calendar include a pre-Christmas craft and bake sale on November 18 and the annual Library Christmas party on December 16. (Submitted by Mary MacLaren.)

LARGE COPIES AVAILABLE

Have you ever needed really big copies -- something for temporary signs, engineering drawings, floor plans, maps -- and ended up copying it section by section and sticking the whole thing together with tape? The Copy Service in the lobby of King South now has a copier that will make copies 36 inches wide by any reasonable length. The paper is roll-fed. Cut sheets approximately 25 by 36 inches are also available.

The cost per copy is $1 per foot. The service is available during any of the hours that Copy Service is open. If you have questions about the copier or any other services offered by Copy Service, please call Peggy Martin at 7-1446. (Submitted by Marilyn Szczygielski.)

operations and services or to pursue other professional projects of importance. The program is open to professional staff members of academic, research, and public libraries. Work undertaken by fellows is expected to be of quality comparable to academic work in other disciplines.

CRL Fellowships are granted for periods of four to twelve months. Support may include limited salary support, when necessary and matched by institutional support; required travel; direct costs of a research project, and, in some exceptional cases, course work. Possible project areas include library operations, bibliographic systems, user requirements, historical subjects, and information systems and the future library. Applications are considered three times a year, on March 1, October 1, and December 1.

The University of Oklahoma will sponsor its 12th Annual Seminar on "English Libraries and Librarianship" at Oxford University, England, May 21-June 3, 1988. The two-week seminar is led by the staff of Oxford's Bodleian Library. Special attention is focused on cross-cultural comparisons and relationships of libraries to a national system. Further information is available from the CLS-Library, 1700 Asp, Suite 226, Norman, OK 73037.

The Council on Library/Media Technicians Central Regional Conference, "Shaping the Careers of Library Support Personnel," will take place November 4, 1988. For more information, get in touch with COLT, c/o Elva Battle, 12306 Marston, Cleveland, OH 44105.

Information on these and other professional development opportunities is available in the Green Bean office, 204 King South.
