

Dear General . . .

I love that word!
and it certainly belongs to you.
I looked at you when you were here and couldn't quite put you with all these big rich men & women who were paying 40 and a 100 thousand dollars for houses for their playthings.
You love horses too did you love the sport but what have they done?
What have you done?
So many have come to look upon success as synonymous with dollars & cents — what course had Michelangelo a success
