Dear Freddie:

I want to offer my congratulations to you on the occasion of your election to the presidency of the American Medical Association. Along with your other Baltimore friends I have followed your career with considerable interest and pleasure.

Now that you have received this, the highest honor that is within the gift of the medical profession to my mind, there is little else for you to do but to enter the Kingdom of Heaven gracefully. When I recall some of the episodes in our early life I have some misgivings about the latter event.

With my kindest regards and esteem, I am

Very sincerely yours,
