Dear Fred:

It was with much pleasure that I read of your election to the Presidency of the American Medical Association.

Tate Mason said to Uncle Silas and me one day out on the Coulee Dam, when we were standing down in the deepest point of the foundation -- "Fred Rankin is the ablest man in the profession."

Thank you so much for going to see my old friend and associate, Jim Ramsey in Richmond.

With kindest regards -

Sincerely,

Dr. Fred. Rankin
