Dr. Fred W. Rankin,
President-Elect, American Medical Association,
Lexington, Kentucky.

My dear Dr. Rankin:

Please accept my sincere congratulations upon your election as head of organized medicine. Having just completed my term as President of the Medical Society of the District of Columbia, I can well appreciate, from my small difficulties, the responsibility resting upon your shoulders. Those of us in Washington, and especially your friends, recognize the fact that the American Medical Association is to be congratulated upon your election.

I want to express at this time my thanks for the reprint of your article, The Principles of Surgery of the Colon.

If you are ever in Washington, I should be delighted to see you at any time.

With kindest personal regards, I remain,

Most sincerely yours,
