

so that she can't get in it anymore.

Wife too poor to buy candy, and I have no man to supply me - and Harold wouldn't even take Finnie to a .25 movie alone buy a box of candy, so why not send us some. His here again to-night - If he isn't a wreck and a half, I miss my guess - maybe I don't hate him and it's a mutual love too.

Must see ~~how~~ my divorcees in N.Y. and by now.

Lots of love,

Sat. Night.

Dear Sweetie -

I have been reading so much high city life in "Twilight Sleep" that I'm almost cuckoo with divorcees, so in order to relieve my mind, I've decided to write letters for a few minutes anyway. Florence, Grace & Mig. want me to play "Bridge", but really I'm too dumb to play with them, so I'll wait and practice up. I'm quite an intelligent Pinochle and "Heart" player, so must master "Bridge" and "500", but I'm a little dense on the
