Dear Dr. Thompson -

Many thanks for the books of McVey & Rose which I received recently. They look fine. I have dipped into the history of Education & find it interesting - but do you know he was omitted Epiphany College? That peculiar institution did once exist! Also we had a girls' school here at Mount Christ. The story is curious.*

Then of course there is the new Bellarmine College in Louisville.

May you & your dear family have a very happy & happy Christmas. I shall beg God to grant you every blessing.

Cordially in Christ
P. McManis

* The story of the College & girls' school is told in part in a book "Search out Dreams" by one Father Raymond.
