

Dear Friend:

You are cordially invited to visit the Douglass Community Center next week beginning Mon. Nov. 14, 1938 thru Friday, Nov. 18, National Book Week. Hours from 8 until 4:00 O'Clock. This center, primarily for adults, is operated by the County and the public is operated by the County and the public is privileged and welcome to come at any time during the above hours and draw out books and magazines. Some well-known authors whose books are on our shelves are:

Atkinson	" Greyfriars Bobby"
Beach	" The Spoilers "
Brown	" The Spanish Chest"
Brown	" In The Days Of Giants"
Charskaya	" The Little Siberian"
Canfield	" Understood Betsy
Eggleston	" The Hoosier School Boy"
Fox	" Erskine Dale, Pioneer"
Grey, Zane	" The Man Of The Forest"
	" Wild Fire"
Kipling	" Caption Courageous"
Lownbery	" Out Of The Flame"
Merriam	" The Sowers"
Norris	" Hand Full Of Living"
Sheehan	" The Seer"
Shaw	" Castle Blair"
Schwartz	" Five Little Strangers"
Shyri	" The Little Alpine Musician"
Terhune	" Further Adventures Of Lad"

Juvenile Literature:

Buckley	" Around the Year"
Herbert	" Tinker Tailor"
Johnston	" The Giants Scissors"
McDonald	" Betty In Canada"
Molesworth	" The Cuckoo Clock"
Richards	" Snow White"

Magazines : Fortune, Home Companion, Child Life, The Farmer's Life, American Girl, Open Road For Boys, Ladies' Home Journal, Life, Household, etc.

In the event, it is not convenient for the parents to come for books their children may check out books for them, also magazines.

Broadside distributed at Douglass School
Book Week, Nov. 13-19, 1938.