Pride Month Events

This month we are listing all meeting and events chronologically.

GLBT Parenting Films

KET, GLSO, and the UK Woman's Studies Program presents two documentaries on Gay Lesbian parenting followed by a panel discussion including some youth that have been raised by "family." The films will be Sunday, June 1 at the Young Library on UK campus and will start at 1:30. Parking is available in the lot behind the library.

Produced and directed by Debra Chasnoff and Kim Klausner, CHOOSING CHILDREN was the first film to capture the many ways lesbians are having and raising children. It takes an intimate look at the lives and experiences of six families from across the U.S. Their experiences include: trying to get pregnant by donor insemination or "the old fashioned way"; adopting as out lesbians, questioning whether to involve men in parenting; dealing with reactions of relatives and more

Exploring the growing phenomenon of gay fatherhood through the stories of four families, DADDY & PAPA looks at gay fathers who face both the routine and revolutionary challenges of becoming parents. This is a warm film that explores the personal, cultural and political ramifications of gay men adopting and raising children.

If we do not lose any money, we will be able to continue to bring you great entertainment in years to come. ...continued page 8

As three generations of a family in a small Texas town gather for a funeral, we learn the hilarious, sad, and trashy truth of their "Sordid Lives". A very funny and honest play that deals with topics that are current and humorous because of the honesty.

Turn right onto Bellefonte. St. Michael's will be on the right. From Bates Creek, go west on Albany, right at the four way stop onto Bellefonte, the church will be on your right. We will meet in the Parish Hall.

GAYMES NIGHT

The Pride Center is opened the fourth Friday of every month for Gaymes Night. This event is open to all, including families. If you have children, bring them along. Teenagers are particularly invited. We have a number of games here and you can also bring your favorite. All the fun begins at 7 p.m. Friday, June 27.

BOWLING FOR FAIRNESS

In celebration of June Pride Month, the Bluegrass Chapter of the KFA and the Rainbow League are jointly sponsoring the Fifth Annual Rainbow City Bowling Competition. The tournament will be held on Saturday, June 28, at Collins Southland Lanes, 205 Southland Drive, Lexington. The entry fee is $15 per person. Registration will begin at 1 with bowling at 2. Bowling should be completed by 4.

This is a benefit fundraiser for Fairness and it is our hope that a number of organizations will sponsor a team of four bowlers. We are creating new ways to participate and win prizes.

There are FOUR ways you or your team can win! Each bowler who brings in a minimum of $50 in pledges will bowl for free. The name of the winning team, and its sponsor will be added to the traveling trophy as the winner of the 2003 bowling competition.

The organization that brings in the most sponsorship money will receive a special prize. A bowler can win a special prize by getting a strike when the colored pin is in the head pin position.

In a No-tap Monte Carlo event, knocking down nine pins (as opposed to ten) is scored as a strike. Periodically a colored pin will appear in the head pin position. If you bowl a true strike (not a no-tap) you will win a prize.

An established average is not required and no experience in bowling is necessary. If you are not a member of a team, we will assign you to a team. All you need to do is bring yourself and have a good time bowling. Remember if you bring in $50 in donations you will bowl for free.

For information, call Jim Dickinson at 252-5801 (e-mail JLD50ALJ@qx.net) or Shawn Fritz at 859.351.4650. For a sponsorship form go to our website at www.bluegrassfairness.org. We look forward to seeing you on Sat, June 28 at 1:00. Good Luck and Good Bowling.

ART Exhibit

AVOL presents an art exhibit of HIV Prevention Posters to be on display at the Pride Center, 389 Waller Ave., suite 100, for the month of June. A reception will be held on Sunday June 29 at 6:30.

Previously, most HIV prevention art was created elsewhere. AVOL received a grant to finance the creation of posters in Lexington to be used throughout Kentucky.

A photographer took many pictures featuring local people of diverse backgrounds. AVOL asked a focus group to choose images and come up with slogans to fit each picture.

Come to the Pride Center anytime in June to see the posters that were created in this way. Or, come to the reception on the 29th and enjoy some food and conversation as you view the poster display.

Wishing Chair

LFUCG Domestic Partner Benefits

Bluegrass Fairness applauds the Lexington Fayette Urban County Government for joining the ranks of more than 165 state and local governments across the United States in offering health care coverage for domestic partners.

LFUCG employees come with many family styles and needs. Mayor Teresa Isaac has taken a courageous step in treating equally the families of all LFUCG employees. By this action, the city of Lexington acknowledges that:

- * family stability helps with job stability,
- * families come in many configurations, and all have similar needs for security, health care and dignity,
- * progressive cities and businesses build and maintain a top quality work force by providing an equal opportunity for all families to access health care coverage and other available benefits.

Bluegrass Fairness continues its mission to promote awareness of the social benefits of treating all people fairly regardless of race, color, religion, ethnic background, sexual orientation or marital status. This includes the right to affordable health care coverage for the families of those who cannot marry.

The Human Rights Campaign, an organization that tracks the availability of Domestic Partner benefits, reports that over two-thirds of Fortune 500 companies and numerous government bodies across the nation provide such benefits. Companies as diverse as IBM, Coca-Cola, Kodak, Ford and Disney provide same-sex and opposite-sex domestic partner benefit. CEO's know that these benefits are crucial to recruiting and retaining quality employees in a competitive job market. When state and local governments provide benefits for all families, they know they build a progressive atmosphere that businesses seek, as well as more just and stable communities.

Congratulations to Lexington for joining this parade of outstanding businesses and progressive communities.

FAIRNESS PLANS DAY OF ACTION

The National Gay & Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF) held an Ohio Valley Regional Power Summit in Covington, in April. It was an intensive, 3-day, hands-on training by a team of organizers who have worked with folks all over the country. The 23 people from Kentucky who attended this training want to share what they have learned. We have planned two mini-regional summits in Lexington and Henderson, followed by a Day of Action in Richmond.

Kentucky Fairness invites everyone to attend one of two these mini-regional summits being held in Lexington and Henderson. You'll learn about coalition-building, fundraising, and voter ID work. The Lexington summit will be on Saturday, June 21, 9 am to 2 pm, at the Lexington Public Library, conference room B. Contact Charlotte Wood at 259-0854.

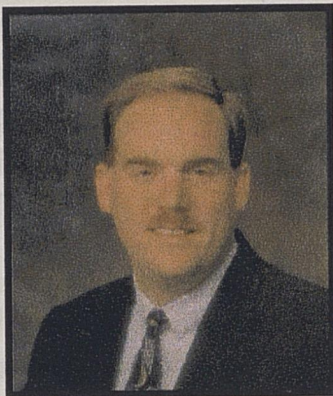

Following that training, The Kentucky

Fairness Alliance is planning a Day of Action in Richmond on Saturday, July 12, to kick off the campaign for a Richmond Fairness Ordinance. Activists from around the state will meet at the Unitarian Universalist Church, 9 am to 2 pm, for training and door to door voter-ID walk. You do not have to have attended one of the mini summits in order to participate in this action. For more information, contact Scotty Saltsman at 859-200-8969.

Fairness always needs volunteers. Contact us at (859) 806-4114 or info@bluegrassfairness.org.

FOURTH OF JULY

Fairness is also looking forward to another successful fourth of July parade. Andrew Hyde is making plans for an awesome float. If you would like to get involved you can reach him at work at 255-1047 or on his cell 338-2149.

Spiritual Direction by Rev. Ken Waibel

Within the great majority of human persons lie the questions: "Is there something greater than me?" and "What is my relationship to it?" These ever gnawing questions surface in our lives as mystical moments, religious experiences and ritualized actions.

For some the questions lead to participation in organized religion and/or the acceptance of group concluded doctrines, dogmas, and moral principals. For all persons the questions continue to surface until they are dealt with in some way. How we deal with these questions is the process of "spirituality".

As each human person is a unique result of the creative method so is each person's relationship with the "divine creative method" unique. Regardless of whether a person chooses a Judeo-Christian, Eastern, Wiccan, or personal philosophy of religion each individual possesses his or her own relationship with "God". There are, therefore, as many "spiritualities" as there are human persons.

As human persons we are social creatures and seek to find that which is common and that which connects us to others. Our individual spirituality begins to take shape and have definition when we can share it with others and learn from their experience and insight. Finding the common denominators between my personal spirituality and that of others helps us build better bridges of understanding and acceptance. Such definition and learning helps us better define self and our personal spirituality.

As we make this journey of self-discovery and personal spiritual definition it is helpful to have another person walk along with us. This person should be well versed in the "process" of spiritual awakening and be accepting of the uniqueness and great variety of each human person.

Modern Spiritual Direction follows a holistic approach and takes into account the disciplines of psychology, sociology, biology and orientation in helping the individual discern. The process of Spiritual Direction offers a person the opportunity to dialogue with another and, hopefully, move forward in his or her own personal spiritual journey.

Whether we are just beginning the spiritual journey, have struggled for years, or are rebounding in anger toward God or organized religion, Spiritual Direction can offer us a chance to "re-tool" and find peace within ourselves.

WICCAN PATHWAY PART 5

MIDSUMMER BY IGGIE

Midsummer is also called Summer Solstice, although the two do not always coincide on the Astrological Calendar. Other traditions call this day Litha (Celtic), Feili-Sheatan (Pecti-Wita on July 5Th) and Alaban Hefin (Caledonii). It is the first Day of Summer, the longest day of the Year and it celebrates the kingly aspect of the God.

It is the time Mother Earth opens her arms to her children for playing and fun; a good time for us to grow under the glow of the Sun God's love. A simple way to mark this day is to walk bare foot with family and friends, to feel the love of God's and Goddess' and to share it with others.

Our potluck for Midsummer and for Pride Month is on Friday June 20 and everyone is invited. Call me for more information 492-9904. Next Month, I will be writing about Lughnasadh (Aug. 1st) and it meaning. Blessed Be.

MEN'S SOCIAL GROUP

With Andrew's Club and 50+ lesbians I am feeling a little left out and thought other might be also. If you feel a little to old Andrew's Club but would like to be in a social group, please call Iggie at 492-9904. Watch for information next month.

Religious Diversity Rally

On July 1 there will be an event which has been named Faces of Faith in America: Affirming the True Colors of Lexington. This event has been organized by the Interfaith Alliance of the Bluegrass and, in part, is a response to the "Patriotic Rally" run by a local fundamentalist last July 4.

If you remember, speakers at that rally proclaimed America to be a Christian country and suggested that immigrants leave their holy books at home, the Bible being the only holy book honored here. There were, of course, homophobic remarks made also.

This rally will affirm our diversity. Plans are not yet definite but as of now a Food Fair on the Esplanade is planned between 6-7:30. Then the celebration will move to the KY Theatre where there will be speakers and several choirs performing. From 9-11 there will be a Street Dance on Short and Esplanade. Make plans to attend,

Directions to Windy Knoll Farm 3263 Cleveland Road North

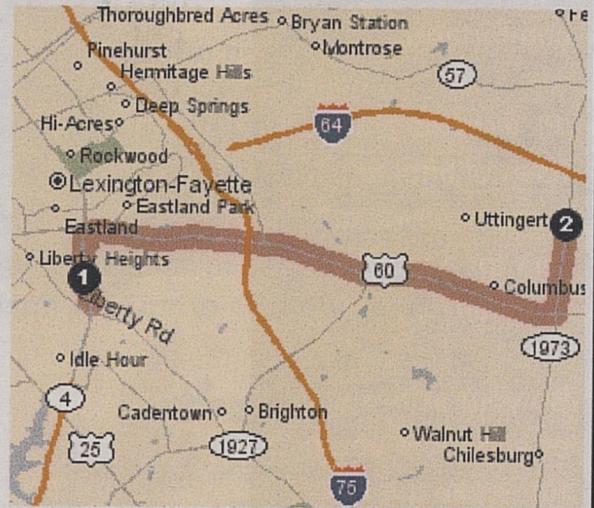

From Lexington, go out of town on Winchester Rd heading east. (Midland Ave, by the Herald Leader, runs into Winchester Rd.) or take New Circle Road (marked with #1) around to Winchester Rd. (on map, Rt 60 in purple) From the intersection of Winchester and New Circle (approximately where it says Eastland on this map), go east 5.5 miles east toward Winchester. Turn left (north) onto N. Cleveland Rd (RT 1973, also in purple). Down 1/2 mile on the left will be David's Fork Baptist Church. The Windy Knoll driveway is right next to the church property. A mailbox with the street number 3263 will be on your right, directly across from the driveway. Turn left into driveway.

From I-75 north or south, take exit 110, Route 60, which is Winchester Rd. Go East on Rt. 60, towards Winchester, about 2 1/2 miles to Cleveland Rd. The directions are then the same as above.

If coming from the east on I-64, take exit 94, which will put you on the by-pass near Winchester. Go south on the by pass, turn right (west) on 60. The turn onto 1973 will then be on your right.
