31 TO 13 CENTRAL WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Hardest Game of the Season Won
By Brilliant Exhibition of Tall Reaching.

Packed as thick as sardines in a box was the crowd that gathered in the Armory last Saturday evening to witness the championship game between Central and our team. None of us doubted but that the odds were greatly against us, but the way our team played and the hard fight our men put up was a surprise to many. Almost neck and neck with them in the middle of the second half, it seemed that our chances were to develop as they did in the Thanksgiving football game, but luck favored the visitors and goal after goal was made from all quarters until hope vanished as the twilight before darkness.

There was very little star playing. Every man did his best at all stages, and a more perfect exhibition of guarding is seldom seen than was displayed on both sides. Hess did some remarkable work at goal throwing, and to him and his luck is largely due the wide difference in the score. Probably the best playing on our side was that of Barbee. Rodes showed his usual lightning speed and was in the game at all times. Threlkeld guarded like a man and kept his head possibly better than any other man on the floor. Little Marx reminded one of "Fighting Joe" Wheeler, and was there with the goods. Gaiser is a football man primarily and for all time, and his occasional exhibition of football tactics were a source of delight to all the State supporters.

The line-up and detail of the game was:

Central—Hess and Mason (captain), forwards; W. Seelbach, center; Wardle, L. Seelbach, guards.

State—Marks and Barbee, forwards; Gaiser, center; Rodes (captain) and Threlkeld, guards.

The score by halves was:

State—Barbee, fouls, 2; goals, 1. Central—Hess, goals, 3; L. Seelbach, goals, 3; W. Seelbach, goals, 2; Mason, fouls, 3; goals, 1.

Second Half.

State—Barbee, fouls, 2; goals, 1; Gaiser, goals, 1; Threlkeld, goals, 1. Central—Hess, fouls, 1; goals, 3; L. Seelbach, fouls, 1; W. Seelbach, goals, 1; Mason, 1.

Total score 31 to 13.

Banks of Danville and Hogan of State refereed and umpired alternately. Time of halves—30 minutes.

THE JUNIOR PROM.

Elaborate Arrangements Are Being Made.

At a meeting of the Junior Class held March 2, in the Y. M. C. A. room, the where, when, and how of the Junior Prom, were discussed at length. A committee composed of Miss L. T. Ferguson, Mr. L. N. Weller and Mr. H. G. Lytle, was named to make a thorough examination of the existing conditions of the Armory and the Gym., and to select the one most fitted for this important occasion. The first Friday night in May was selected as the time. This will be on the 6th.

A committee consisting of the Class President, W. W. Stevenson and Messrs. Boyd and Francis, was selected to name the committee on decorations, refreshments, etc.

The programs will be one of the features of the Prom. They are to be in the form of a folding card case, and may be used for such. In selecting such programs, the class hopes to get something the equal of which has never been used at this institution and something which will be well worth keeping as a souvenir.

On the whole, the class anticipates making the Prom, the best social occasion of the year, if not the best in the history of the University.

INTER-CLASS TRACK MEETS SATURDAYS.

Contests Each Saturday Afternoon Until the Opening of Baseball Season.

Coach E. R. Sweetland has announced that, beginning with Saturday afternoon, inter-class track meets will be held each Saturday from now until the opening of the official baseball season.

The object of these meets is to stimulate interest in the track team and get the students into the real sport of this kind of athletics. There are about forty men in training for the track team and the prospects for a good one are better than they have been in years.

Coach Sweetland is working the men for all they are worth and he thinks that inter-class rivalry will stimulate the men to do their utmost.

When the big inter-collegiate meets come off in the later spring, State will have winning candidates for every event, and, should Mr. Sweetland decide to enter the Southern meet at Clemson, South Carolina on May 21, it is thought our team will do itself honor.

STATE GYM TEAM.

Much Material Out.

The State University Gym Team expects to make its appearance before the people of Lexington within the next three weeks for its annual tournament. Many new men are out as well as most of last year's team, and it looks as if the Tournament will be even better this year than last.

Every afternoon a squad of men may be seen hard at work on the gymnasium floor, learning many new and marvelous stunts. A new lung strap has lately been installed over the horizontal bar making it perfectly safe for the new men to try even the most difficult of stunts. Several pieces of new apparatus have lately been purchased and as they are of a more modern type than those that have been in use, the people may expect to see the most daring and difficult line of stunts that have ever been pulled off by amateurs. Arrangements are being made to hold an inter-collegiate gym meet here about the last of the month. If this can be arranged the public will be able to get an insight into the work of the gymnasium throughout the State.

Among the old men out again this year are: Short, Crosthwaite, Rodes, Thiesing, Porter and Hedges, while the list of new men is composed of Sallee, Bateman, Hogan, Burriss, Johnson and Howard.

Dr. Terrell Will Lecture.

On Saturday night, March 12, Dr. Granville Terrell will lecture in the Union Literary Society Hall on "My Travels in Greece."

Dr. Terrell perhaps is more familiar with the life and customs of the Greeks than any other person in the State. He has spent many months traveling through this historic country. His lecture will not be given from second-hand matter, but from his personal experience.

Every one is cordially invited by the members of the Society to come and hear Dr. Terrell. The program for the meeting is as follows:

Devotional exercises... L. E. Smith
Address Dr. Terrell
Debate—"Resolved, That This Nation Will Decay, as Others Have."

Affirmative—Bowden, Shultz.
Negative—Grace, Jackson.
Critic—Tinsley.

It is probable that football playing will be resumed at the United States Military Academy next fall. The West Pointers have requested the Tufts management to reserve a date for them on their 1910 schedule.

LIFE.

Last week was a busy week. Filled with every kind of activity from hard study to the strenuous activities of championship basket ball games and to the pleasant recreation of listening to the best group of male singers that was ever organized in the State—the Glee Club.

Such weeks tend to put us in a healthy mood, both mental and physical, and encourage us to believe that life is worth the living. It is true that, against overwhelming odds, we lost the basket ball championship of the State and the South to our Centralite brothers, but in no way are we ashamed of the defeat.

The Seelbach-Hess team was the most remarkable organization we have ever had the pleasure of seeing, and to have the players say that their hardest fight for the entire Southern championship was Saturday evening's game is an honor of which we may well be proud. Our men displayed guarding tactics that could only be overcome by the long gangling, reaching, stretching giants who have been everything in the athletic career of Central. The men who could not carry an oval through our football line two feet for a goal, only succeeded in basket ball because of their fortunate lengths.

And speaking of these men and life at the same instant, we cannot refrain from wondering what will be the life of Central University athletics when the Seelbach brothers, Hess and Ellis Duffy step down and out and play no more. It is absolutely remarkable that a place as small as Central should be so strong athletically, and it seems very improbable that there will ever be such another bunch together in Danville. We hope that they can keep it up, and we wish them to wax stronger with the lapse of ages, because their strength stimulates us to greater things; but we doubt their ability and feel for their future. We are confident of ours and that, for the present, is sufficient.

INTER-CLASS GAMES.

Now that the Varsity's season are over everyone is naturally looking forward to the inter-class games. "When will they start?" is the question on everyone's lips. Coach Sweetland says that this year there will be a schedule drawn up each class team playing two games with each other and the team having the largest per cent for games won, being the champions. From all appearances the "dope" is on the Sophomores. With such men as Plummer Gaiser, Marx, Hart, Threlkeld, Ridd and Crosthwaite, they have as formidable team as will be put on the floor. The Freshmen in their game with Frankfort showed up unusually strong and demonstrated that they can carefully handle their older opponents. As to whether the preps will have a team remains to be seen. The Juniors and Seniors are dark horses in the race, but Managers Cassidy and Barbee are confident of winning. Probably the hardest fought game will be between the Sophs and Seniors. The Seniors have Post, Barbee, Fox, Rodes and several others to pick from and a close race is expected. The various managers and captains of their respective teams are:

Seniors—Barbee, manager and captain.

Juniors — Cassidy, manager; Baede, captain.

Sophomores—Marx, Manager; Plummer, captain.

Freshman—Richardson, manager; Harrison, captain.

Soon the armory will ring with the echoes of various class yells and class heroes and yes, as the old biblical saying goes, "And they battled mightily to the end," each one to win the coveted position. Watch The Idea for the schedule of games.

Lucky Chemists.

On last Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, the Senior Chemists, finding the Lab. rather warm and oppressive, decided on something great.

They wheedled Dr. Daniels into chaperoning them to the Brewery. He was assisted in chaperoning by Miss Schoene.

Some say they went up to make some scientific experiments as to the cause and effect of alcohol on the human system. Others say that they went to show Elmer how soda water was made, and still others say they went to show Miss Schoene what made it foam.

On leaving the Chemistry building, Ike was heard to say, "I'd like to be guide, 'cause I know where the free faucet is." Dr. Daniels looked up quickly, intending to chastise Ike, but got excited at the thought, and said: "Where is it?" Ike just winked.

The students saw them leave, and there was much speculating as to when they would return. (They hadn't returned when this was written.)

It is said the Mechanics want to go up and look at the machinery, and the Civils want to go in with them and put a pipe line in to connect with the drinking fountain given the school by the class of '05, as water has never yet bubbled forth from it. The writer strongly upholds the idea and grieves continually to see the fountain lying idle. It sets a bad example to the students.

Mrs. Porter, wife of Dr. Porter, of the first Baptist Church, entertained with a charming dinner party. The guests were the young ladies from Patterson Hall and Sayre College, who are members of her church.

Mrs. Walter Hillenmeyer went to Mt. Sterling on important business last week.

GLEE CLUB.

Why shouldn't State have a Glee Club as good as any other University. Kentuckians although they have never been noted for singing anything but whisky tenor can certainly develop other qualities in their voice. This has been proven by our present Glee Club and every one knows they are a credit to the University. The Yale Glee Club makes a tour that is very extensive indeed. Vanderbilt sends out a Glee Club on a tour that lasts a week or two.

These Glee Clubs are sent out by the Universities as an advertisement.

Why can't State send out her's in that same way. The ad would certainly attract more attention than the ones she now prints in the "Boshville Mornings News." The kind that enumerate the good qualities of the professors and the degrees of the President.

They may please the parent but the boy is usually the main factor when it comes to deciding "to what university shall we send our Johnny?" Our Glee Club, it is true, is going to take a small trip but as has been said, they can't sing on a ham sandwich. I don't even think Caruso could. So lets wish them much success at present and think of the wonderful things to come.

On last Friday evening the club gave its first performance in this city this season in the Main Building Chapel. Quite a large crowd was present and the affair was one of the best of its kind ever seen in the city.

The two features of the program which were given most applause were the cornet solo by Master Cecil Noe and the violin solo by Mr. H. C. Marksmiller. Mr. Marksmiller is a student in the academy of the university and has been declared the most talented amateur violinist of the State, while Master Noe is only a boy of the top and marble age, who has the unique honor of being able to play perfectly on the cornet masterpieces of the most complicated nature. He is the son of Prof. J. T. C. Noe of the Department of Education of the university.

The Glee Club, will from time to time, give entertainments in all the principal towns of the state, and there is little doubt of the success of these tours, if the same interest as was shown last night is manifested.

The program of the evening was:

BASE BALL MANAGER
GIVES OUT SCHEDULE

Season Will Be Officially Opened
With the Transylvania
University Team.

The complete schedule of the base ball season has been announced by Manager Hall, and a visit to Stoll Field and sunny afternoons will show what may be expected of our team this year. Upwards of forty men have signed up eligibility slips, and there is more good material out than we have had in several years.

A professional coach from Louisville will coach the team, and there is little doubt but that we will put one over on Central and the rest of 'em this year. The annual trip will be made about the 15th of April, and the man who shows class enough to be allowed to make the trip may consider himself fortunate as there will be some swell times in the dear old South.

Practice is held every day and everyone should get out and work.

The old men who are back are: Hillenmeyer, 3b; Gower, c; Giltner (Capt.), r. or l.f.; Meadors, p; Rochester, ss; Caudill, p; Vogliotti, 1b; Plummer, 3b; Johnson, 2b; Creel, c.f. The positions of these men are not definite, but the above shows where they will probably be at the beginning of the season. Among the most promising of the new material are the following: Hogan, f; Reese, c; Taylor, p; Estill, ss; Shawhan, 1b; Moore, 2b; and Gex, c.

The schedule for the season is as follows:

April 6—K. S. U. vs. T. U. at Transylvania Park.

April 9—K. S. U. vs. M. T. H. S. at Louisville.

April 13—K. S. U. vs. Wesleyan, Winchester.

April 16—K. S. U. vs. C. U. at Stoll Field.

April 18—K. S. U. vs. N. C. A. & M. at Raleigh N. C.

April 19—K. S. U. vs. University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N. C.

April 20 and 21—K. S. U. vs. Trinity College, Durham, N. C.

April 22 and 23—K. S. U. vs. University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.

April 27—K. S. U. vs. University of Cincinnati, at Stoll Field.

April 29—K. S. U. vs. M. H. S. at Stoll Field

April 30—K. S. U. vs. Georgetown College, Georgetown, Ky.

May 2—K. S. U. vs. Paris, Paris, Ky.

May 7—K. S. U. vs. Georgetown College, at Stoll Field.

May 11—K. S. U. vs. Central at Danville, Ky.

May 12—K. S. U. vs. Kentucky School for Deaf at Stoll Field.

May 14—K. S. U. vs. T. U. at Stoll Field.

K. S. U. vs. DePauw at Stoll Field.

May 25—K. S. U. vs. Georgetown College at Georgetown, Ky.

May 28—K. S. U. vs. Central at Stoll Field.

May 31—K. S. U. vs. T. U. at Transylvania Park.

There may be several other dates on the Southern trip but the above schedule only gives the games for which contracts have been signed

The Cornell Daily Sun has recently published an editorial entitled "The Diabolical Idiocy of Final Examinations." In this article the editor cites an instance of shattered nerves of a student of Cornell, due to "cramming" for exes, and states that several such cases have come to the Cornell Infirmary in the past year. Final examinations are denounced as unhealthy and unfair, and a strong plea for grading solely on class work is made.

POLLY-COLLEGE CHAT

The annual track meet of the I. C. A. L. will be held at Terre Haute this spring. Some effort has been made to make the hammer throw an individual event, but the effort will likely be ineffective.

Columbia University, of New York, whose oarsmen are coached by Jimmy Rice, may be sent to the Henley Regatta, in England, in July of this year if they win the Eastern Intercollegiate Regatta on the Hudson this June. They have made the Cornell crews hustle the last few years to beat them. Columbia sent a four-oared crew to England about 30 years ago.

A dispatch from Annapolis, March 5th, says: The heretofore unconquered wrestling team of the Naval Academy tasted the bitterness of defeat this afternoon, losing to the Princeton grapplers by 5 bouts to 4. Interest in the match was enhanced by the fact that in all but two bouts falls were secured, the exception being in the 145 and 135 pound classes, in which Ward and Ormond, of Princeton, won well-deserved decisions over Gilbert, the Navy champion, and Midshipman Knott, respectively.

DePauw has asked for membership in the I. C. A. L. and will likely be admitted. The colleges in the League have for some time been desirous of including DePauw.

Princeton, N. J., Mar. 5.—If the sanction of the faculty Athletic Committee is secured, the Carlisle Indians will play football against Princeton here on Oct. 22. All arrangements have been completed and the sanction will make the date official. Since Yale journeys to Princeton next fall, there will be two important 1910 gridiron contests on the Tigers' home field.

LIFE.

The game of life
Is one of strife,
The weak and the timid drop,
The brave and strong
Plug right along
And some day reach the top.

Life yields no snap
To any chap—
No rosy road to treasure;
No tender foot
Can find a route
That may be trod at leisure.

For one and all,
The great and small,
Life holds a prize—dad burn it,
Beyond our reach,
And says to each:
"Now go to work and earn it!"

TWO MORE VICTIMS.

Oh, You Somerset and Wesleyan Damsels.

The Somerset High School Girls' team went down in defeat at the hands of the State University basket ball five when they were beaten Friday afternoon at Buell Armory by a score of 21 to 5. The game was witnessed by a large crowd, who enjoyed the good work of our team immensely. The line up was as follows:

State University—Forwards, Vaughn, Jones and Hayden, captain; Center, Hughes, Guards, Bedinger, Nolan and Johnson; substitute, Rodes.

Referee—Prof. Geo. C. Woodward, Somerset.

Umpire—W. C. Fox, State.
Time of halves—Fifteen min. in 1; Hughes 4; Vaughn 2.
Field Goals—Hayden 3; Aik-Fouls—Vaughn 2, and Jesse 3.

Wesleyan Gets It Monday.

The girls' basket ball team played one of the closest games of the season on Monday afternoon in the Armory with the team from the Wesleyan College, the final score being 17 to 8 in favor of the local girls. Very few people attended the contest, as it was expected that our girls would win by a large score. The game was played in 15 minute halves.

The line-up of the State team was: Misses Rodes and Hayden, forwards; Miss Hughes, center; Misses Fleming and Johnson, guards.

A young man went to call upon a girl. Hearing his step on the porch, she went to the door to welcome him in. Wondering why he had not rung the bell, and thinking he could not find it in the dark, she turned on the porch light and beheld him—combing his hair

THE STUDENT BAND.

Half a bar, half a bar,
Half a bar, onward,
With their last gasp of breath,
All the band floundered.
"Lindy's the tune," he said,
"Blow like the deuce, all read."
Then each lost his head.
Onward they floundered.

None knew what tune he played,
Not though each member knew
That they had blundered.
Now as the bleachers yell,
Louder they strive to swell,
Onward to worse than death,
On with a noise like, whew!
Bravely they blundered.

When can their memory fade?
Oh, the discords they made.
The grandstand wondered.
Here's to the student band.
Here's to the student ban.

AT THE HIPPODROME.

The management of the Hippodrome has another good list of attractions for this week. Bert Swan and his alligators are headliners, and for a novelty conception and real thriller, Swan takes first place. The saurians which Swan handles are fascinating in their repulsiveness. Swan during the course of his work hypnotizes one of the creatures and also shows the methods employed in capturing the 'gators in their native haunts. At the close of his struggle with a large 'gator under the water, it is especially thrilling. Besides the stunts with the 'gators, Swan demonstrates his ability in several under-water endurance tests, eating, drinking, picking up coins with his teeth and various other thrilling examples, while entirely immersed.

Reiff, Clayton and Reiff do some singing and dancing in a style not attempted here before. Their exhibition of a trio of "Rubes" dancing for a prize at the county fair, is ridiculous in the extreme. Yesterday's audience all but wore the trio out answering encores.

Lester and Kellett have a good singing and talking act.

Whittier, Ina and Company have a good sketch, "Dr. Smart's Dilemma." The farce is founded on a never failing trouble maker—a woman's jealousy over nothing. The sketch is in the hands of three clever people and Monday's audience gave evidence of a keen appreciation of their efforts.

Mrs. W. A. Dodson, a student of the University, has gone home on account of the illness of her husband.
