ABBAY OF GETHSEMANI

TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

MADE IN U.S.A.

March 3, 1963

Dear Victor:

It was a good thing you did not come down in February, it would have been much too cold. But today looks more hopeful. I know one cannot bank too much on appearances, but shall we assume that March is going to be a little better than February was? There are three especially good Saturdays, as far as I am concerned: the 16th, the 23rd and the 30th. Can you make it one of those days? I am looking forward to seeing you. It has really been quite a long time.

I doubt if this will be in the library, but perhaps I might as well suggest it, in case Carolyn might want to get it:

no - Masunga, R. "The Soto approach to Zen" Tokyo, 1958.

Are any of these available:

no - N.O. Brown, Life Against Death, the psychoanalytic meaning of history, Wesleyan U, 1959.

I forgot what exactly was on my previous enormously long list, but wonder if any of it came in. I do not know if I kept a copy.

I hope you are both well and working hard at good things.

All blessings,
in Christ,

Tom.
