

Reference copy

THE GREEN BEAN

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY LIBRARIES' NEWSLETTER

4/13/79

NO. 270

CALENDAR

- April 19-20 Kentucky Library Association, Special Libraries Section; Owensboro, Kentucky
- April 24 Kentucky SOLINET Users' Group; Gallery, King North, 1:00 p.m.
- April 26 American Association of University Professors, King Alumni House, 4:00-5:30 p.m.

OTHER CONFERENCES

- April 22-23 Gerontology Advisory Committee of the Council on Higher Education
- April 26-28 Midwest Academic Library Conference
- April 27 Kentucky Women's Studies Conference
- June 1 Locating Census Data in Printed Reports

EXHIBITS: King North Lobby Continues

Contributors: Martha Jane Whiteside, Bernie Baldini, Gwen Curtis, Rebekah Harleston (editor), Paul Willis, Colleen Holmes.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT THE MARGARET I. KING LIBRARY, UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, LEXINGTON, KY. 40506

THE LIBRARY ACTS

The ACTS Constitution Committee announces that the Library Faculty has approved the revised Procedures Document. The revised ACTS therefore stands as approved.

New Government Publications Department Head

Ms. Janis Pivarnik comes to the library from the University of Indiana, Bloomington where she was Visiting Assistant Librarian, Government Publications Department. She will assume her new duties July 1.

Book Sale

April 26-27 offers the opportunity of a lifetime for the book buyer. The 3,000 or so books being offered by the library range in price from 25 cents to five dollars. First editions, Kentuckiana, classics, textbooks are the items to be available. The Patio at the Student Center, from 9:00-3:00 is the location both days. YOU CAN HELP! David Farrell asks volunteers to offer in advance if possible; if not, come anyway, anytime, either day. Or tell John Bryant.

Special Library Section/KLA Studies Energy

"Energy Sources and Resources in Kentucky" is the theme for this year's spring meeting of the Special Libraries Section of the Kentucky Library Association being held April 19-20 at the Executive Inn in Owensboro, Kentucky. Activities on Thursday include registration from 12:30 to 1:30, guest speakers Russell A. Brant, Head of Coal Section of the Kentucky Geological Survey and James Jones from the Kentucky Center for Energy Research, a panel of librarians addressing energy information needs, a social hour and a banquet. On Friday there will be a tour of Texas Gas Transmission Corporation including the library, a business meeting and a luncheon. For further information, contact Bernie Baldini, Medical Center Library, 3-5949.

New Organization Proposed

A Kentucky SOLINET User's Group has been encouraged by librarians replying to a letter of inquiry. Numerous ideas and suggestions were indicative of a sincere interest and enthusiasm for this organization among its potential members. At its first meeting, the group expects to address organization, goals, affiliation with other Kentucky library groups. Jane Starns, SOLINET Assistant Training Coordinator for this region will be the guest to explain what is, and perhaps to anticipate what will be. For further information, see Gail Kennedy, Lynn Shrewsbury, or at Transylvania, John Sheridan.

AAUP Presents UK Faculty Salary Report

The UK Chapter of AAUP cordially invites all UK faculty and administrators to attend a social hour and the presentation of the 1978-79 UK faculty salary report. NO reservations needed.

Open Enrollment-Insurance

The University Personnel Division announces open enrollment during the whole month of April for employees wishing to enroll in group accidental death and dismemberment insurance. This is merely a reminder; every staff member received the notice.

Kentucky: Then and Now

When Negroes were admitted to UK, the Director of Libraries asked which tables in the Reference Room should be set aside for them. The Library Staff (i.e. Faculty) opposed any setting aside of tables. Whitney Young's sister, Eleanor Gaillard (now a different name) worked in Gifts and Exchanges during the summer of 1951.

Lyman T. Johnson brought intergration to the University of Kentucky in 1949 when he became its first black student. His long career as educator and civil rights leader will be recognized when he receives honorary doctor of letters degree at the University's May 12 commencement.

OTHER CONFERENCES

The Gerontology Advisory Committee of the Council on Higher Education presents a workshop on Curriculum Design in the Behavioral Sciences and the Human Services Profession April 22-23 at the Holiday Inn North, Lexington. While this is addressed primarily to faculties of graduate and undergraduate programs, proposals and decisions will have implications for libraries. For further information, see Mr. Willis.

Midwest Academic Library Conference

The Midwest Academic Library Conference will be held April 26-28 in Macomb, Ill. The theme will be the Academic Library and Its Regional Responsibility. For further information, see Faith Harders.

Kentucky Women's Studies Conference

The purpose of this meeting is to promote the expansion of women's Studies Programs in Kentucky. The keynote address, "Women, Men, and Money" will be given by Sylvia Auerbach, well known in personal financial planning. The King Alumni House is the meeting place 9:30-3:00. For further information, see Mr. Willis.

Census Workshop

Locating Census Data in Printed Reports is the subject of a one-day workshop, June 1, 8:30-4:30 in Room 239 Classroom Building. The instructor is Mr. Lawrence E. McNutt, Data User Services Officers, U.S. Bureau of the Census. TEEU credits will be awarded. For further information, see Rebekah Harleston or Susan Csaky. Registration by May 1. $4.00 includes lunch, refreshment breaks. Nancy S. Little, Director, Office for Continuing Education, College of Library Science, University of Kentucky, 465 Patterson Office Tower 00270, Lexington, Ky. 40506. Will accept your check made to the University of Kentucky. Please answer the few questions that are in the brochure so that the program can be best planned.

PERSONNEL

Professional Vacancy: Temporary Position: Asst. Photographic Archival Asst. Available Sept. 4, 1979 - June 30, 1981.
If interested, see Faith Harders.

Reference/Collection Development Librarians for Science and Engineering (two positions) Rice University, Salary, competitive. Appl. April 27.

-4-

Cataloger (two positions) University of California, San Diego.
Salary $12,924 - $16,548 or $15,840 - $22,788.

For further information, see Faith Harders.

Friday 13 was not your lucky day. You did not get your Green Bean.