

Louisville June 15th 1875

Dear Bro. Withers

Yesterday evening your letter, with the enclosed resolutions, was received. I was very glad to learn that the Board had placed you on the Executive Committee and this is about the only element of its action as far as made known to me that I approve. Nor can I think that the Brethren in Kentucky will be satisfied with these resolutions. If they should then their grand movement to secure the permanent control of the University as an Institution belonging to them, will obviously lose the whole of its significance. Our friends in the Board have unquestionably recognized this ownership and through this recognized of course their obligation to comply with the expressed will of the Kentucky Brotherhood. Nothing however can be clearer than the fact that the Brethren

J. B. Guider

Am