Col. W. J. Worthen

Dear Sir

Your card is received.
It is well known to you and the Ex. Com. of Ky. University that neither Mr. Gatewood nor any of the other students to whom the University is indebted can prove their accounts for April and May unless they sue the University and place Brown and Dean on the witness stand, that is the only means I know of by which to prove them. But I suppose this is just the sort and means of proof that you do not want.

To ask proof otherwise when the means of proof is in their
