

You must excuse me dear General for asking you so many questions, but knowing your kindness towards me I do not hesitate to seek your advice upon any subject.
As to Starlette do with her as you think best up to the time of shipping her to me.

Hoping that you will answer my questions and that you will kindly accept my humble terms of payment for her

I remain as ever wishing you success

Your esteemed favor came duly to hand and contents noted.
After reflecting upon the matter I think it best for me to take Starlette as recommended by you. I would have taken Naugcha but the difference in the respective prices is what makes me take Starlette. A matter of $3000 is quite a sum to me, as I am not independantly rich by any means. However I find that the investments made in your stock have proven very, very satisfactory so far, and the money is far safer placed upon your stock as it would be here, placed in Banks or poor collaterals. I do not want the filly shipped before the latter part of September on account of the heated term, and I would be thankful to you if you would have her driven regularly until then. Starlette must be a very promising filly, otherwise you would not
