

Gano's Testimony

1. Was it not your understanding and was it not generally understood about one year ago, that W.B. had 2 or 3 hundred thousand dollars worth of R.R. Stock to let, and did you not so state to Crulder last June?

I did understand that he had a considerable quantity, my best impression is twice over 2 hundred thousand dollars worth. Remember mentioning this to Crulder.

answer
2. Remember predicting to Crulder that certain owners of that stock in the board would all vote together against the Church and for Bowman.

3. Did they not so vote in N.C.'s expulsion, against votes of churches and did not this same list of stock
