

In order to continue the operations of the Agricultural & Mechanical College at Lexington for a period of two years. Your Committee respectfully reports the following memoranda of agreement with the Committee of the Board of Curators

<sup>1st</sup> The A & M College shall have sole use and exclusive control of so much land of the Ashland & Woodlands Tracts as the Board of Visitors may deem necessary for the successful operation of the A & M College not exceeding 100 acres until the students of said College exceed 100 in number and then an additional acre for each additional student. Said land to be selected by the Board of Visitors also <sup>to have use</sup> of buildings apparatus &c formerly used by said College

heretofore
2" ~~An interchange of facilities~~
The students of A & M College to be allowed free instruction